Ray Tilley Classic 410 Race Goes to Chase Dietz at Selinsgrove Speedway

By Bert Wojcik

High Caliber Cranes Victory LaneTop three finishers in the Ray Tilley Classic 410 feature event went to Jake Karklin of Beaver Springs 2nd, winner Chase Dietz, and 3rd to Danny Dietrich Photo by Bill Leonard

Selinsgrove, PA - For the first time since July of last year, the 410 sprint cars made their return to the Snyder County Half Mile. York's Chase Dietz scored his second career 410 win at Selinsgrove in the Ray Tilley Classic presented by Icon Legacy Modular Homes. In yet another fantastic race, Lewisberry's Logan Spahr picked up his 5th career win at Selinsgrove in the Keller's Auto Body PA Sprint Series 305 Sprint Car feature.

15 410 Sprint Cars signed in for the 2025 edition of the Ray Tilley Classic, honoring the life of the winning-est driver of what is now the 410 Sprint Car division at Selinsgrove with 69 career wins coming from 1963 to 1969. Tilley passed away in 2011 and since 2012, the Ray Tilley Classic has been an early season staple at the speedway, this year being ran on what would have been Ray's 91st birthday.

It looked like Jake Karklin from Beaver Springs would be winning his first ever 410 feature event as he had a huge lead over Chase Dietz and Danny Dietrich. Then that dreadful yellow flag came out and Chase Dietz was able to pass Jake after his car fluttered on the re-start. Jake actually was passed by Danny Detrich too, but was able to pass him at the finish line for 2nd for his best ever 410 finish.

"I didn't want the cautions and I wish I cleaned the motor out," Karklin said on the podium. "

For the second week in a row, the River Valley Builders PA Sprint Series feature at Selinsgrove Speedway came down to a duel between Logan Spahr of Lewisberry and Kruz Kepner of Kreamer. Last week, Kepner got to visit victory lane; this week, Spahr earned the trip.

The 2023 PASS champion, Spahr battled the "hometown" racer through the middle circuits of the 20-lap event before pulling off the decisive pass for the lead on the backstretch of lap 14, just before the leaders hit lapped traffic. Another hometown driver, Ken Duke Jr., of Winfield completed an impressive run to the front, coming from 11th starting position to take third from Kenny Heffner of Watsonstown on the last lap. That performance earned the defending PASS champion the Len Krauthheim Auto Parts Hard Charger Award for the best "charge" through the field during the race.

PASS races at Selinsgrove are sponsored by Keller & Sons Auto Body.

Spahr while in High Caliber Cranes Victory lane said, "I want to give hats off to Selinsgrove. This is the best this place has been two weeks in a row in a long time. Racing at a track you can start sixth at and win. I knew I was going to be good on the bottom. So, I just gave Kepner a little time and waited till he washed up through the middle. Found a good line of moisture and it slingshot me off of two to get around him."

Selinsgrove Speedway will be back in two weeks on Saturday, May 31st for Kids Night with the Selinsgrove Ford

Local Racers Finish 1,2,3 in Speed Weekend Series

By Debbie Gastelu

Kruz Kepner of Kreamer won the 3 day race "Speed Weekend Title" earning $750 for his efforts. Photo by Debbie Gastelu

$500 with his finishes of 3rd, 4th and 8th places. Beaver Springs racer Drew Young secured the 3rd place money of $250 for his 14th, 7th and 17th placing in all 3 races.

Exciting to see our local Snyder and Union County racers take the top 3 positions. The effort and expense of racing 3 nights in a row is tremendous. The work involved in getting these cars ready for the next race takes a lot of work and with that also not much sleep! So having BrokersRealty.com step up and sponsor this Speed Weekend is especially thankful to all race teams involved. I had my sites on that $750 first place prize and wanted to win to give the money to his dad (Mike Kepner) to put towards the tire bill "Kruz said".

410-Sprints had a Big Weekend at Four Area Tracks More this Weekend at Port Royal

The Ray Tilley Classic was held Saturday night at Selinsgrove speedway for the driver that has the most overall wins in the sprint car division at Selinsgrove. The event drew a small field of drivers, but the racing was huge on the fast 1/2 -mile track. With Williams Grove raining out again, the ninth time this year, you would think more drivers would have made the trip north to race at Selinsgrove, only one did and that was Australian driver Ryan Newton. The race was good up front with Middleburg, PA driver Jake Karklin leading most of the race until a late race caution when Chase Dietz moved passed him on the restart. Danny Dietrich also got past Jake, but Jake got him back late in the race for a solid, second place finish. Gerard McIntyre was fourth and Austin Bishop fifth. In the 305 feature, Logan Spahr got the win over Kruz Kepner. It seems these two have been competing all season at Selinsgrove. In three races, Kepner had two wins and Spahr one. Selinsgrove will take off this weekend before coming back with a show of super late models, limited late models and the newly named street stock class on Saturday, May 31st.

Saturday the 410-sprint had two tracks to race at Port Royal and Lincoln with Freddie Rahmer getting his second Lincoln Speedway win over Chase Dietz, Matt Campbell, Aaron Bollinger and Kyle Moody. At Port Royal, three High Limit series drivers showed up after their race at Utica-Rome Speedway, in New York, was rained out. The three made the five-hour drive to get to Port, what added to them was Port had a rain delay to start their night also. Tyler Courtney, Aaron Reutzel and Brent Marks all placed in the top ten with Courtney fifth, Marks eight and Reutzel ninth, with the win going to Anthony Macri. Macri made a front tire wheel win over Garret Bard who had his best 410-sprint race at Port so far in his career. Bard first held off the challenges of Danny Dietrich, but in the end, Macri made the winning pass coming down the front chute for his second win at Port this year and seventh overall win of the season.

In super late model action, Andrew Yoder of Middleburg PA scored his first ever super late model win at Port Royal leading all the way in the non-stop 25-lap feature. Andrew, who does have three other super late model wins, but noted that with the competition that races at Port regularly, "it was a special win with most of the top name drivers on hand". Justin Weaver was second, with points leader Rick Eckert third, Gene Knaub and Colton Flinner. Rain came back to the track and wiped out the Winged Sportsman feature.

Sunday night at BAPS speedway, Troy Wagaman scored the 410-sprint feature win over Danny Dietrich, Anthony Macri, Chase Dietz and Freddie Rahmer. Another High Limit series driver, Spencer Bayston, placed seventh in the feature. It was a big weekend for the 305-sprints with a three-race mini-series at three different tracks starting off at Selinsgrove speedway on Friday and Hagerstown and BAPS Saturday and Sunday. Kreamer PA's driver Kruz Kepner picked up the most points with second at Selinsgrove, sixth at Hagerstown and third at BAPS winning an extra $750 for his weekend effort. The series had three different winners: Spahr on Friday, Kenny Heffner on Saturday and Landon Price on Sunday. The series had an average car count of 31 drivers. Drivers in the 410-ranks that had a good weekend Danny Dietrich with two third place runs and a second, Chase Dietz a win and a third and fourth Anthony Macri two races a win and a third Freddie Rahmer a win and a fifth-place finish.

The WOO super late model series was in the region with WOO driver Tim McCreadie winning two races at Raceway -7 in OHIO and at Bedford Speedway on Sunday night. On Saturday WOO regular Bobby Pierce scored the win at Marion Center speedway over Nick Hoffman, Ryan Gustin and Brian Shirley. McCreadie wins came over Ashton Winger Shirley, Drake Troutman on Thursday and Bobby Pierce, Dustin Sorenson and Ryan Gustin. Gregg Satterlee, of Indiana PA, had a 9th place finish on Saturday while Mason Zeigler of Chalk Hill PA had a 9th place finish on Sunday, and a tenth placed finish on Saturday.

This weekend is the big three-day show at Port Royal for the High Limit sprint car series with racing Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Friday and Saturday winner collects $10,000 top prize while the Sunday winner collects $75,000. Last year, Danny Dietrich scored the Weikert Memorial win beating the traveling series. The limited late models have two shows on Friday and Saturday for $1,500 and $2,000 to win races. Lincoln speedway will have 410- sprint car racing on Saturday night in the Bob Leiby memorial, while Williams Grove on Friday will honor the Esh racing family with a special night on Friday, paying $8,000 to win, along with a program of the PASS 305-sprints will be on hand. Friday night at Clinton County speedway will be the make-up Laurel Highlands 305-sprints series Nittany 40 paying $1,000 to win. The feature was rained out after all qualifying was completed on Friday May 9th, another program for the 305-sprints will also be run along with Pro-Stocks 270-Micro sprints and four-cylinders.

SUMMIT Early Learning Children Experience

Joy of Giving for Mother's Day

By Kay Poeth

Preschool children at SUMMIT Early Learning had the special opportunity to celebrate Mother's Day in a truly meaningful way. Thanks to a generous donation of new jewelry, each child visited a pop-up "shop" to carefully choose gifts for their loved ones.

The children decorated gift bags and then thoughtfully selected pieces of jewelry for their mothers, grandmothers or other important women in their lives. The experience not only encouraged creativity and generosity but also gave children a chance to express love and appreciation in their own unique way.

"We are so grateful for this donation, which allowed our children to experience the joy of giving," said Bette Scott, Community Relationship Manager.

This activity is just one example of how SUMMIT Early Learning nurtures not only academic growth but also the social and emotional development of the children they serve.

SUMMIT Early Learning serves families in Snyder, Union and Mifflin counties and is currently enrolling children in its programs for pregnant moms and for children ages newborn to age 12.

Several of SUMMIT's programs, including preschool, are free to qualifying families. SUMMIT welcomes children of all abilities and is rated STAR 4 (out of 4) by the PA Keystone STARS Program.

Upcoming Tours of the Dale-Engle-Walker House

By Kay Poeth

The Dale-Engle-Walker House will be open for tours throughout the summer. The c. 1793 limestone house presents the story of Ulster-Scot immigrant Samuel Dale (1741-1804), his family and tenant farmers, Jacob and Maude Engle's farm and dairy of the 1930s and 40s, and Charles and Rosemary Walker.

The Dale house was built c. 1793 by immigrant Samuel Dale (1741-1804); the back ell was added between 1820 and 1840. The ell is the back, perpendicular addition to the original house, with the roof sloping down toward the porch and three windows (on the second floor). There are doors into each section. The Victorian porch was added in the late 1800s.

The original house is a symmetrical building; two rooms flank a central hall, with front windows and a side-walled chimney and mantled fireplace. Architectural highlights include the front door and fan light with original glass; first floor twelve-over-twelve windows and second floor eight-over-twelve windows; original chestnut and pine floors; the early kitchen and hearth. The stonework is laid in an un-coursed, roughly squared pattern with larger stones at the corners.

The property stayed in the Dale family until 1929 and was worked by tenant farmers for many years. It was sold to the Engles, who operated a dairy and vegetable farm in the 1930s and '40s. Their milk shed is on the lane below the house. The property was purchased by the Walkers as a private residence and farm, and then bequeathed by the Walker estate to the Union County Historical Society.

The c.1793 Dale-Engle-Walker House will be open on Sunday, May 25, with tours at 1 pm and 2:30 pm. Host Bruce Teeple will discuss the Dale family, who owned the property from the 1790s to 1929; the Engles, owners and farmers in the 1930s and '40s; and the Walkers, owners and farmers to 2000. The tour provides information on local and regional history, agriculture, and economics. Tours are free, although donations toward maintenance of this historic property are welcome.

Also on site is the Kantz log cabin and a replica wagon shed displaying early farm implements as well as the Engle milk house. The Kantz log cabin, dating to 1789, was a frontier trading cabin along the Tuscarora Indian Path at Middlecreek. It was restored by Kantz descendants in 1998 when they moved it to David and Marcia (Kantz) Milne's property in Lewisburg. In 2019, the cabin was donated to the society by Marcia Milne, moved from her property, and reassembled at the Dale-Engle-Walker site.

Tours are free and open to the public. Books about the property and other topics of local history are available for purchase. For more information, contact the Union County Historical Society at 570-524-8666 or info@unioncopahistory.com.

Mark your calendar for these upcoming tours on Sunday afternoons: May 25 at 1 and 2:30 pm with guide Bruce Teeple, June 1 at 2 pm with guide Bill Brobst, June 15 at 1 and 2:30 pm with guide Bruce Teeple, June 22 at 2 pm with guide Bill Brobst, July 6 at 1 and 2:30 pm with guide Bruce Teeple and July 27 at 2 PM with guide Bill Brobst.
