19th Annual PACFI Golf Classic At Wynding Brook

"It's one of our biggest fundraisers," PACFI President Betty Hollenbach said, "and we use the monies to help local families and families statewide that are affected by cystic fibrosis (CF). Some of the funds raised are also used to fund CF research through annual allocations."

The 19th Annual Pennsylvania Cystic Fibrosis, Inc. (PACFI) Golf Classic will be held Friday, June 15th, at the Wynding Brook Golf Club in Milton. The tournament is a shotgun start, four-member scramble that tees off at 1:00 PM. Registration begins at noon, and the $90 fee entitles participants to 18 holes of golf with a cart, refreshments throughout the day, a dinner meal, awards, door prizes, and special raffles.

Sponsors, donors, and/or players can get registration information via the PACFI website at www.pacfi.org under 'schedule of events,' or by emailing bobderr@ptd.net. All sponsors, donors and players should contact PACFI by June 5th in order to ensure inclusion in the dinner program.

PACFI is an independent, nonprofit, all volunteer 501(c)(3) organization that provides services and supports for Pennsylvania individuals and families affected by CF and funds some of the nation's most progressive CF research.

Danielle Ard, a junior at Mifflinburg Area High School, was voted "Player of the Year" by the coaches of the Central Susquehanna Girls Lacrosse League (CSGLL). Dani started in all 16 games at attack or midfield and was one of the top scorers on the team with 28 goals and 4 assists. In addition to her excellent stick skills and quick movement to the goal, she is a tenacious defender who creates turnovers, boxes out on groundballs, and transitions the ball well up the field. Dani leads by example and has been a co-captain for the past two years. Off the field she has had lead roles in the High School Spring Musicals "Mame" (2012) and "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" (2011). She is a goalie on the high school field hockey team and was selected to play at the National Field Hockey Festival in Phoenix, AZ, last November.

Joining Dani on the First Team are Mifflinburg juniors Kiersten Dauberman (31 goals and 6 assists), midfield, and Tessa Woodring (11 goals and 2 assists), defense. ## Parent Pay More for Well Trained Babysitters

Parents say that good babysitters are hard to find, according to a new American Red Cross poll. The poll found that in the past 24 months, 55 percent of parents surveyed decided to stay home because they couldn't find a babysitter. The survey also found that nearly a third (30 percent) of parents rejected a potential babysitter because of safety concerns.

Parents want to entrust their children to babysitters trained in first aid, CPR and childcare skills, and more than 80 percent of parents believe that teenaged babysitters should be paid more if they have these skills. However, eight in 10 parents (83 percent) have looked to adult relatives, while nearly half (48 percent) have relied on adult friends to watch their children.

"It can be hard for parents to trust someone to care for their children when they're not at home. It's only natural to want someone who isn't just a loving playmate but who is also trained in what to do during an emergency," said Anne Smith, Communications Specialist. "The Red Cross babysitting courses help teens feel fully prepared to act quickly to aid a child if needed, which parents really value."

The Red Cross babysitting, CPR and first aid courses teach teens how to care for young children and handle emergency situations. The American Red Cross Babysitter's Training course gives youth the knowledge and confidence to care for infants and school-aged children.

A majority of parents believe sitters should be paid more if they are trained to help a child who is choking, recognize potential emergency situations, identify items that could be hazardous to small children, and give first aid for minor cuts and bruises. More than three in four (77 percent) of parents with children younger than 17 feel teenagers should receive some training before they begin babysitting.

About half (51 percent) of Americans rely on unpaid babysitters, and nearly a quarter (24 percent) pay between $6 and $10 an hour for someone to watch their children. Ten percent pay between $11 and $15 per hour; while four percent pay between $16 and $20 per hour, making babysitting a potentially lucrative Adults should also boost their lifesaving skills by enrolling in CPR and First Aid courses. ## Celebrating 25th Anniversary of Local Rotary Club

The Lewisburg Sunset Rotary Club hosted a program to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the admission of women as members of Rotary during its Monday, May 7, evening meeting held at Puirseil's Irish Pub.

Keynote speaker was Carrie Ryan, CFO and Vice President of Easter Seals of Central Pennsylvania and President of the State College Rotary Club. Easter Seals was founded from an earlier organization, The Crippled Children's Fund which, ironically, was a program of Rotary. Paul Harris, the founder of Rotary, served as Easter Seal's first Chairman of the Board.

Ryan informed the Rotarians and guests that Easter Seals Central Pennsylvania currently provides services to more than 2,600 adults and children with physical disabilities and developmental delays, including individuals affected by conditions like autism, cerebral palsy, Down syndrome, spina bifida and traumatic brain injury (TBI).

The club celebrated the skills, dedication, and commitment women bring to their Rotary Clubs around the world and lauded the men who supported the admission of women to Rotary. Antidotal comments were provided by Rotary District 7370 Governor Alice Kissinger, Club President Mary Mahoney-Ferster, President-elect Irene Henninger, Past President Rick E. Wible and Past District Governor Karen Teichman. Rotarians were present from many clubs, traveling from Pottsville and West Snyder County to Lock Haven and Bloomsburg, to attend this event.

When Rotary International was founded in 1905, membership in the organization was strictly male only. While many clubs around the world had petitioned Rotary International, beginning in the 1950's, to admit women to Rotary, their requests were consistently voted down by Rotary's law-making body, the Council on Legislation. By 1972, as more women began to reach higher positions in their professions more clubs began lobbying for female members.

In 1977, the Rotary Club of Duarte, California, admitted women as members in violation of the Rotary International Constitution and Standard Rotary Club Constitution, and promptly lost their charter. The club filed a lawsuit in 1983, which was resolved on May 4, 1987, when the U.S. Supreme Court unanimously ruled that Rotary clubs could not exclude women from membership based on gender.

Many of the Sunset Rotary Club members remembered those days and the changes that were occurring, not only in Rotary, but in many social organizations around the world.

Since the 1987 ruling, women have been welcomed to Rotary and have served as club presidents, District Governors Assistant Governors, Trustees of The Rotary Foundation, and as members of the Rotary International Board of Directors. Today Rotary has 1.2 million members in 34,000 Rotary Clubs in more than 200 countries. Current statistics show that 198,000 of these members are women.

The Lewisburg Sunset Rotary Club invites all business, professional and community-minded individuals to visit a meeting and learn more about Rotary. Meetings are held Mondays at 5:30 PM at Puirseil's Irish Pub, 17 South Sixth Street in Lewisburg. Information can also be found on line at www.lewisburgsunsetrotary.com, on the club's Facebook link or by emailing the club at lewisburgsunsetrotaryclub@yahoo.com.

Freeburg High School Class of 1931 Information is Missing

The Freeburg School was built in 1895. Through the years, many classes graduated from the high school and in 1953, the last class graduated when the school was part of a consolidation to from the Selinsgrove Area School District.

In 1997, the Freeburg School, along with other elementary schools, was permanently closed. The building was given back to the Freeburg Borough and now houses the Freeburg-Washington Community Center.

A recent effort has brought forth and gathered group graduation photos for every class from 1927-1953, with one exception, and that is the FHS Class of 1931 which can not be located. Members of that class were Anna Bickhart Miller, Alvesta Heim, Ella Kissinger Smith and Dorothy Arbogast. Do or did you know any of these class members? Are you a family member who may have the missing picture or do you know where it can be located? Please try to help and make our collection complete by bringing the FHS Class of 1931 home to their alma mater.

The collection of FHS pictures is on display at the Freeburg Washington Community Center, Freeburg.

If you can be of any help in our search, please call John Snyder at 570-374-4187 or Jacque Reggia at 570-374-4168.

Kahne Charges To Coke 600 Win

By Gerald Hodges/the Racing Reporter

CONCORD, N.C.—Kasey Kahne powered his way to the finish line in Sunday's Coca-Cola 600, as he crossed the stripe 4.3 seconds ahead of runner-up, Denny Hamlin.

It was Kahne's first win since the 2011 Phoenix race, and his third Coca-Cola 600 victory.

"The car felt really good all night," said Kahne. "We ran the entire 600 miles without any problems."

"Things didn't start off well for us this season, but this is great. We've got a great team, and a lot of great teammates."

With about 20-laps to go in the 400-lap race, Denny Hamlin mounted a charge, and for a while it looked like he had a chance of catching Kahne, but he fell off the pace and had to settle for second.

"The car was good," said Hamlin. "I used my tires up near the end trying to catch Kasey. He just had a little more than we did tonight."

Kyle Busch rallied to finish third.

"We gave it our best shot," said Busch. "We worked on the car all night, and it was getting faster as the laps wound down, but we just couldn't make it to the front."

Greg Biffle led the most laps, but came in fourth.

"We were pretty dang good, until right near the end," said Biffle. "As it cooled down and the speeds picked up we just couldn't get the speed that Kasey had."

Brad Keselowski, Dale Earnhardt Jr., Jeff Gordon, Kevin Harvick, Carl Edwards, and Matt Kenseth were the remaining top-10 drivers.

Jimmie Johnson's team had a pit road miscue, when the gas can got stuck in his car during a green flag pit stop, and he was penalized with a stop and go penalty. He came in the pits third and left 12th. He finished 11th.

The race had only five cautions, and most of the pit stops were made under the green flag.

Top-12 leaders after 12 of 36: 1. Biffle-453, 2. Kenseth-443, 3. Hamlin-437, 4. Earnhardt-435, 5. Johnson-405, 6. Truex-404, 7. Harvick-398, 8. Kyle Busch-391, 9. Stewart-388, 10. Edwards-372, 11. Keselowski-368, 12. Bowyer-366.

KESELOWSKI OUTFRONS HAMLIN IN NATIONWIDE RACE

Brad Keselowski beat Denny Hamlin to the finish line by .8838 seconds, to win Saturday's Nationwide race at Charlotte.

Kyle Busch, Kevin Harvick, Elliott Sadler, Joey Logano, James Buescher, Justin Allgaier, Sam Hornish, and Joey Coulter rounded out the top-10.

Top-10 points leaders after 11 of 33: 1. Stenhouse-430, 2. Sadler-417, 3. A. Dillon-402, 4. Hornish-373, 5. Whitt-336, 6. Allgaier-336, 7. Annett-331, 8. Bliss-291, 9. Patrick-264, 10. Nemechek-262.

IS DANICA ABOUT DRIVING OR MARKETING

While Danica Patrick hasn't set the racing world on fire with her driving, she has stormed the corporate walls with her marketing appeal.

She finished 30th in Sunday's Coca-Cola 600, five laps down. When she switched to NASCAR full time this year from the Indy-cars, it seemed like a no-brainer. She was leaving a series with poor TV ratings and a schedule heavily weighted toward road courses.

There were a lot of diehard NASCAR fans that believed her move was more about money than racing, but some disagreed. One of them is Darrell Waltrip, former NASCAR Cup champion and Fox racing analyst.

"I don't know what level she would be at, but I know she would have a ride (in NASCAR) whether she was male or female, because she has that kind of talent," Waltrip said.

While she has driving talent, she's also gotten opportunities. Some of those might have come because of her gender and sex appeal.

Despite mediocre results, she is on billboards, in newspapers, television ads, everywhere, making headlines and attracting attention for a host of high-paying sponsors.

TV ratings for NASCAR's Nationwide Series are up, and many believe it is because of her presence. That, along with her wide marketing appeal, makes her move to NASCAR a success, despite her performance on the track.

For her Cup debut in the Daytona 500, Patrick generated $11.8 million in TV exposure for her sponsors, compared with $11.6 million for Matt Kenseth, the race winner. She wrecked and completed only 138 laps, while Kenseth ran 200 laps and won the race.

What that means is the Fox television cameras and media personnel focused on her, much more than they did on Kenseth.

At the end of the day, whether she's leading, running in the middle, or finishes near the end, she is seen and heard.

Coca-Cola executives, who signed Patrick to a new sponsorship deal earlier this month, care very little about her initial results on the track. They care that she connects with males between the ages of 18 and 34, the key demographic of their Coke Zero marketing campaign.

For that, Patrick offers no apologies.

In a recent article in Sporting News, she said:

"I'm a girl, and to say that I can't use being a girl doesn't make any sense. In this world, there is so much competition out there and you have to use everything that you have to make sponsors happy, to attract them and to be unique and be different."

So what about the racing aspect of NASCAR?

Is Danica about racing or marketing?

I don't know. Maybe it's both; a little racing and a lot of hype.

But you can't deny that she has created a lot of buzz through the media.

Lewisburg/Milton Meals on Wheels volunteers were honored at their annual appreciation banquet on April 27 in Marlow Hall on the RiverWoods campus. The volunteers shared stories as they enjoyed a meal prepared by the RiverWoods dietary department. Door prizes were donated by Weis Markets and RidgeCrest Café and Restaurant.

Jessica Owens, Slifer House Museum Director was the guest speaker providing the audience with many interesting facts about local history and Slifer House, the birthplace of RiverWoods.

Stacy Drum, Coordinator, presented a special gift to Dolores Hill and Mary Ellen Bartholomew for their 40 years of service with Meals on Wheels. Also recognized were Erla Shaw, Ruth Swanger and Thelma Rea, all who have volunteered for 30 or more years.

Since March of 1972, the Lewisburg/Milton Meals on Wheels, based at RiverWoods Senior Living Community in Lewisburg, has delivered a hot, nutritious, noon-time meal every weekday to those over the age of 18 who are unable to prepare their own meals due to medical reasons. The program currently has over 70 dedicated volunteers who help pack and deliver the meals to approximately 70 clients in the area.

Volunteers are always needed for this vital program. If interested in volunteering or for more information regarding Meals on Wheels, please contact Stacy Drum or Marcia Wolfe at 570-522-1934.

Tech Students Enjoy Fine Dining

On May 11, the SUN Area Technical Institute Food Service class went on a field trip to The Lewisburg Hotel. We experienced and enjoyed fine dining. The manager gave us our own private dining area. We also ate a five course meal which we couldn't have experienced anywhere else. Overall, the experience was amazing and Mr. Walize was so accommodating.

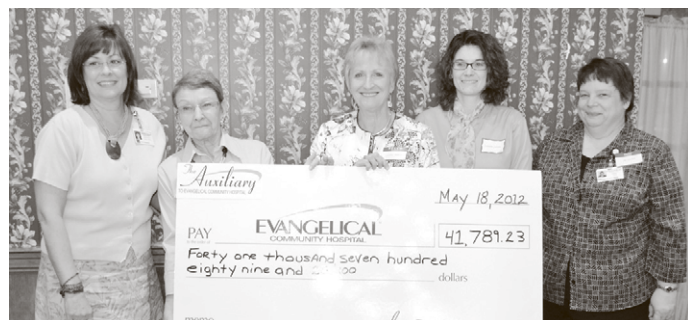

Our Skills USA account for our class, paid for our trip. SkillsUSA is a partnership of students, teachers and industry working together to ensure America has a skilled workforce. Because of Skills USA, we have been able to have multiple class trips at no cost to the students. We do fundraisers throughout the year and collect all our tips in the restaurant to put into our Skills USA account.

Criminal Justice Class Presents Check

On May 18, 2012, the Criminal Justice class at SUN Area Technical Institute presented a check for $125.00 to the Union County Sheriff's Department. On 5/2/12 Stephany Gormley, Director/Coordinator for the Lewisburg Listening Post was the Lewisburg Sunrise Rotary Club's guest speaker for their morning meeting. The Listening Post was started in 1978 for students to have a place to talk in a group about drug and alcoholic use. There were four young teachers that volunteered at the start to mentor these groups in the school district. The Listing Post gives the students the tools to help themselves. Now the Listening Post uses Bucknell students as mentors, because college students can relate to the high and middle school students and the students are more comfortable with the college student, because of their age. The groups now also talk about depression, bullying, death, divorce and many other areas other than drugs and alcoholic use. Sarah Fryd and Samantha Schindelheim both seniors at Bucknell were also at the meeting to talk about their experience with their groups.

On 5/9/12 Karen Metz, President/CITRMS for Keystone Mobil Shredding, Inc. was the Lewisburg Sunrise Rotary Club's guest speaker for their morning meeting. She came back to finish talking to our club about identity theft. They go to the customer location and do the shredding on the spot. She said do not give your social security number out to just anyone. Only the ones that will pay you in some way will need the number. Also, when you post on Facebook that you are going on vacation and you have pictures of your house, people can find out were you live from those pictures and will know when you are not home to rob you. She also talked about not letting your credit card out of your sight when paying for anything.

The public is invited to join the Lewisburg Sunrise Rotary Club at our weekly meeting on Wednesday at 7 a.m. at the Country Cupboard, Lewisburg.
