Swimming lessons at the Mifflinburg Community Pool have recently concluded having had 256 youngsters attend the program. Daily lessons were held for 45 minutes for two separate 2-week periods. Lessons this year cost $40 per child for those in Levels III and above, but were virtually free for the 132 children in Levels I and II thanks to financial assistance from the Mifflinburg Kiwanis Club.

Parents of these children paid only $10 at registration and that $10 was refunded if the child had perfect attendance, which 102 did. An additional session will be offered for toddlers according to pool manager, Ron Bollinger.

Parents have expressed appreciation for the wonderful facility and how it is staffed and maintained. Comments such as, "We're so fortunate to have these lessons offered for such an affordable price" and "The instructors are so kind and caring with the children" could be heard frequently. The pool will remain open 3-8 PM after school August 20-25 and will close August 26th.

Last Chance for Residents to Contribute to Historic Cancer Research Effort

Like an ending to a cartoon, this is it folks. The community has its last chance to participate in the American Cancer Society's Cancer Prevention Study-3 (CPS-3) this August.
 CPS-3 will end in 2013. For the area, there will be four enrollment locations throughout Lycoming, Union and Snyder counties from Aug. 9-14, 2012.
 "This is it folks...there are four opportunities close to you," said Jen Bernstein, American Cancer Society volunteer.
 CPS-3 will help researchers better understand the genetic, environmental and lifestyle factors that cause or prevent cancer, which will ultimately save lives.
 The American Cancer Society is looking for study participants in Columbia, Montour, Snyder, Union, Northumberland, Lycoming and other surrounding counties to enroll in the study by the end of July.

The study is open to anyone who: is willing to make a long-term commitment to the study, which involves completing periodic follow-up surveys at home; is between 30 and 65 years old, and has never been diagnosed with cancer (not including basal or squamous cell skin cancer).
 Jen Bernstein chaired the CPS-3 location that was held in 2010 at the Relay For Life of Selinsgrove, and understands its importance.

"It was important to me to work on the other end of the spectrum - to prevent cancer," said Bernstein, a long-time Relay For Life volunteer.
 The enrollment location at the Relay was very successful. "We had great community support," Bernstein said.
 Overall, the study is looking for 300,000 participants nationwide.

Researchers will use the data from CPS-3 to build on evidence from a series of American Cancer Society studies that began in the 1950s that collectively have involved millions of volunteer participants. Those studies confirmed the link between cigarette smoking and lung cancer, demonstrated the link between larger waist size and increased death rates from cancer and other causes, and showed the considerable impact of air pollution on heart and lung conditions.
 To enroll, please visit www.centralpacps3.org or call 1-888-604-5888. Study participants will be asked to register for an appointment at an enrollment site and then complete a comprehensive survey online.
 "Get out and register now before the study comes to a conclusion," said Bernstein.

Susquehanna Valley Youth Chorale to Audition Singers for Fall

The Susquehanna Valley Youth Chorale (SVYC) will host Fall Session auditions for singers in grades 3-12 on Saturday, Aug. 25, at First Presbyterian Church, 18 Market St., Lewisburg. Singers in grades 3-9 will audition 9 am to noon while high school age youth will audition at 1:30 p.m. The final audition time is Thursday, Sept. 6, 3:15 - 5:15 p.m., Donald H. Eichhorn Middle School, 2057 Washington Ave., Lewisburg. All fall rehearsals and the Dec. 2nd concert will take place in Lewisburg. Complementing existing school music programs, SVYC gives talented young people the opportunity to sing at an advanced level with other motivated singers from throughout the Susquehanna Valley. Directed by Valerie Flamini Caldwell, the singers are assigned to one of three groups based on age and experience.

The Preparatory Chorus (starting with 3rd graders in the Fall Session and 2nd graders in the Selinsgrove Winter Session) focuses on refining the basics of good choral singing. Members learn music reading tools, receive age appropriate vocal pedagogical guidance, and perform with other young singers. They should be able to match pitch.

Camerata Chorus singers (middle school through 9th grade) explore choral literature exposing them to intricate rhythms, foreign languages, and other cultures. Singers should have experience in music, sing with age-appropriate intonation, and exhibit ability to read rhythm and pitch.

The Valley Singers (grades 9-12) form a small refined vocal ensemble of musically skilled singers with a passion for singing, and making music with others. Singers perform a wide variety of musical styles and are expected to have music experience and part singing ability, and sing with age-appropriate intonation.

SVYC singers have the option of singing the Fall Session in Lewisburg, the Winter Session in Selinsgrove, or both. New members are welcome.

To schedule a fall audition appointment, contact Coleen Renshaw, rrenshaw@ptd.net, 570-837-0634. For more information, go to www.svmusic.org. Auditions for the Selinsgrove Winter Session (grades 2 - 12) will be held in December. The Susquehanna Valley Youth Chorale is an educational outreach of the Susquehanna Valley Chorale.

Wreck And Rain Favors Gordon

By Gerald Hodges/the Racing Reporter

LONG POND, Penn.—A lucky combination of a wreck and rain on Sunday at Pocono Raceway, allowed Jeff Gordon to claim his first Sprint Cup victory of the season.

"Oh man, I can't believe this," said Gordon. "The way our luck has been going this year, we'll take a win any way we can get one. You can't ever give up. This one makes up for all the ones that got away."

Gordon was sixth during a restart on lap 91. His teammate Jimmie Johnson was the leader, with Matt Kenseth on the outside. The two cars driven by Johnson and Kenseth touched going into turn-1 after a tire on Johnson's No. 48 went down.

"I noticed that something didn't feel right," said Johnson. "I kept trying to clean the tires off and it got a little better so I just assumed I had trash on my tires, but when I got down into turn one I realized that I had a right-rear (tire) flat. Unfortunately that we lost the lead there and got a couple of cars in the process."

Johnson managed to hold on to his car, but Kenseth's No. 17 hit the outside wall, then came down, and was hit by Denny Hamlin.

This brought out another caution. When the cars were lined up for the restart, Jeff Gordon and another Hendrick teammate, Casey Kahne were the leaders. The cars circled while speedway officials cleaned up the track. Before the race could go green, the heavens opened up with a downpour.

The scheduled 160-lap race was official at the end of 98 laps. Kasey Kahne, who was scored second, had a right-rear tire go flat under the yellow flag.

"It wasn't the day we planned, but all our cars (Hendrick) were fast," said Kahne. "The good restart we got on that last caution is what put us in second place."

The remaining top-10 finishers of the rain shortened race were: 3. Martin Truex, 4. Brad Keselowski, 5. Tony Stewart, 6. Ryan Newman, 7. Carl Edwards, 8. Clint Bowyer, 9. Regan Smith, 10. Marcos Ambrose.

The Busch Brothers continue to struggle with mechanical problems. Kyle had engine problems in his No. 18 Toyota and only completed 74 laps. Kurt had a right front tire blow during lap 84 and wound up 30th. Top-15 Chase leaders after 21 of 36: 1. Earnhardt-744, 2. Kenseth-739, 3. Biffle-738, 4. Johnson-736, 5. Truex-694, 6. Stewart-691, 7. Keselowski-690, 8. Hamlin-683, 9. Harvick-680, 10. Bowyer-679, 11. Kahne-622, 12. Edwards-619, 13. Gordon-611, 14. Newman-611, 15. Kyle Busch-599.

One fan was killed and nine others injured as a result of lightning strikes following the race. One fan was pronounced dead on arrival at Pocono Mountain Medical Center in Stroudsburg. Another fan was critically injured, while eight others were treated and released for minor injuries.

SADLER WINS IOWA NATIONWIDE RACE

Elliott Sadler passed Justin Allgaier with 58 laps remaining in the 250-lap race and pulled away for his fourth Nationwide win of the season.

The win capped a huge day for team owner Richard Childress. He was at Pocono Raceway for Joey Coulter's win Saturday afternoon in the truck series, before joining Sadler in victory lane later that night in Newton, Iowa.

Sadler and his teammate Austin Dillon hold the top-two spots in Nationwide points.

Top-10 finishers: Sadler, Allgaier, Sam Hornish, Michael Annett, Ricky Stenhouse, Michael McDowell, Darrell Wallace, Jason Leffler, Brett Moffitt, and Ryan Blaney.

Top-10 leaders after 20 of 33: 1. Sadler-751, 2. A. Dillon-733, 3. Stenhouse-730, 4. Hornish-717, 5. Allgaier-673, 6. Annett-647, 7. Whitt-602, 8. Bliss-548, 9. Scott-486, 10. Patrick-485.

COULTER POWERS TO TRUCK WIN

Joey Coulter got a strong restart with seven laps left in Saturday's Pocono Mountains 125 at Pocono Raceway for his first truck win, beating James Buescher to the finish line by 1.224 seconds.

Nelson Piquet, Matt Crafton, Denny Hamlin, Ty Dillon, Parker Kligerman, John Wes Townley, Justin Lofton, and Ross Chastain were the remaining top-10 finishers.

Top-10 leaders after 11 of 22: 1. Peters-418, 2. T. Dillon-410, 3. Buescher-403, 4. Lofton-400, 5. Crafton-385, 6. Kligerman-383, 7. Coulter-369, 8. Hornaday-359, 9. Piquet-345, 10. White-329.

ONE CHALLENGE REMAINS FOR EARNHARDT

Dale Earnhardt has met two challenges, but one still remains.

He snapped a lengthy victory drought in June, has completed the long, nearly nine-year road back to the top of the NASCAR Sprint Cup Series points standings, and now his No. 88 Hendrick Motorsports Chevrolet team truly can focus on the biggest prize, their first championship.

And it's certainly not a stretch to mention Earnhardt and championship in the same sentence.

"Give me a reason why not," said crew chief Steve Letarte when asked for reasons why his driver could win the 2012 title.

Earnhardt is, in fact, on a career pace. His numbers through 20 races speak for themselves: nine top fives, matching his previous best in 2004, fifteen top 10s, an average finish of 8.1, and a perfect 20 lead-lap finishes, including his fourth-place run at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Dating back to last season, he has a record-sharing 21 consecutive lead-lap finishes.

ing Earnhardt's chief rival for the championship.

"There's a lot of confidence in our shop with both teams and the communication is as good as it's ever been," said Johnson. "I'm happy to see Steve as confident as he is and Junior both because we can really lean on them and pull from them and it's a two-way street."

Despite transmission troubles at Pocono, Earnhardt is still the points leader.

Last Year, PASR Volunteered 24,675 Hours and Saved $527,060

On June 12th the Union Chapter of the Pennsylvania Association of School Retirees presented a mock check to the Union County commissioners at the chapter's monthly breakfast. This check represented the amount of money school retirees saved Union County last year.

PASR partnered with Keystone Research Group to determine how many public school retirees are actively engaged in volunteer activities, the average number of hours they each contribute, and the type of service activities in which they are involved.

The research discovered that, statewide, 63 percent of PASR's members are volunteering in their local communities, with each volunteer contributing, on average, 308.4 hours per year, for a total of 6,600,876 hours volunteered.

It should come as no surprise that retired public school employees are some of the most active, involved people in their communities. After all, throughout their professional lives, these individuals were dedicated to helping others. Even though, on the whole, the national trend is that individuals are volunteering less, school retirees are the exception and continue to volunteer in extraordinarily high numbers.

In fact, the percentage of members who volunteer and the hours served to their communities is astounding when juxtaposed with the Pennsylvania averages documented by the Corporation for National and Community Service. According to their findings, only 27.4 percent of Pennsylvania residents volunteer, with 35.6 hours per volunteer each year. In comparison, PASR members volunteer at better than two and one half times the state average and contribute eight and a half times the state average in tens of hours of service provided annually.

So, how valuable is the service that school retirees contribute to Pennsylvania through volunteerism? According to Independent Sector, a nonprofit, nonpartisan coalition of charities, foundations, and corporate philanthropy programs, the value of volunteering during 2010 in the state was $21.36 per hour based on the average hourly wage determined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

With nearly 21,000 members contributing more than six and a half million hours of service to their local communities, the economic value of PASR member volunteer service to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is nearly $138 million per year.

In Union County alone, PASR members volunteered 24,675 hours, saving their communities $527,060!

Stroke Awareness Golf Tournament Raises Over $5000 in Memory of Local Man

TOP: Duane Sharp Memorial Banner. MIDDLE: Golfers line up in their carts to start play of the Stroke Awareness Golf Tournament. BOTTOM: Nicole Shovlin, Deb Merkle and Rachel Foulds at the Duane Sharp Memorial Golf Tournament.

The Third Annual Stroke Awareness Golf Tournament in memory of Duane Sharp of Mifflinburg, was held June 28th at the Shade Mountain Golf Course, Middleburg. The day, meant to educate and highlight stroke prevention, brought 114 golfers to the event and raised $5600 for Evangelical Community Hospital's Acute Rehab, the unit that aids stroke patients in recovery.

Evangelical Community Hospital, Lewisburg, handles emergency care of strokes, provides diagnostic and interventional services to lessen the chance of stroke for high-risk patients, and provides care to those who have suffered a stroke through acute rehab to help patients regain quality of life.

The Charles Winslow/Lewisburg Kiwanis Club Scholarship

Kelsey Knoster and Kiwanis President, Patsy J. Marra.

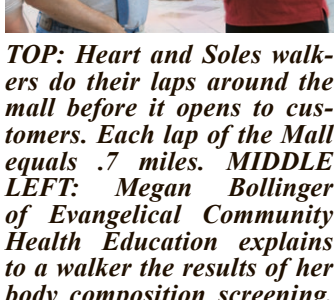

This scholarship honors Charles Winslow, a member of the Lewisburg Kiwanis Club who provided countless hours of service to various organizations in the communities served by the Lewisburg Area School District. Mr. Winslow was also a professional engineer. Accordingly, the recipient of this scholarship was one who has provided service through involvement in the Lewisburg Area High School Key Club, and achieved high scholarship during her high school program of studies.

This year, the Charles Winslow/Lewisburg Kiwanis Club Scholarship was awarded to Kelsey Knoster, a graduating member of the Lewisburg High School Key Club, who is enrolled at Bloomsburg University.

Her award, in the amount of $500 per year for two consecutive years, was awarded at the annual High School Awards Assembly.

Evangelical Community Hospital Heart & Soles Kicks-Off 8th Year

TOP: Heart and Soles walkers do their laps around the mall before it opens to customers. Each lap of the Mall equals .7 miles. MIDDLE LEFT: Megan Bollinger of Evangelical Community Health Education explains to a walker the results of her body composition screening. MIDDLE RIGHT: Amy Minnier, Nurse Educator for Evangelical Community Health Education, takes a blood sugar reading. BOTTOM: Pam Harpster, RN, Team Leader at the Evangelical Joint Replacement Center begins a knee and hip assessment by asking questions about a member's joint health.

Every step counts in heart health and 30 minutes of daily walking minimizes factors associated with heart disease. With this in mind, Evangelical Community Hospital recently kicked off its 8th anniversary Heart and Soles event. Held July 10, 2012, the event included registration for new members and renewal for current members, free screenings for blood pressure, blood sugar, cholesterol and body composition as well as knee and hip assessments. Approximately 45 members took advantage of the screenings.

Heart and Soles is a free walking program where members schedule and log their own regular walking sessions and can earn prizes when mileage goals are reached. Free programs on health and fitness are held for Heart and Soles members throughout the year on Tuesdays from 9-10 am at the Community Zone at the Susquehanna Valley Mall in Selinsgrove.

For more information on the Heart and Soles program and how to become a member, call (570) 768-3200 or visit the Susquehanna Valley Mall office for a registration form.

Duck Derby Held At Penns Creek

The annual Duck Derby was held at Penns Creek Adult Resource Center on Richard Road in Penns Creek on Wednesday, June 20. A BIG thank you for all the local businesses that donated many great prizes for our race winners and for our lunch items. Despite the heat that day, a BIG thank you for all the Penns Creek folks who participated and sold ducks to make the derby a huge success and to about 70 folks who attended the derby and ate lunch that day. Along with the outside races along the creek at the center we had a raffle, 50/50 and an indoor duck pond.

Keep us in mind for fun next June--proceeds from the Duck Derby benefit the senior centers of Penns Creek, West End, Lewisburg, Selinsgrove and Beaver Springs.
