

Adult Band Looking for New Members

Do you read music and play a band instrument? If so, consider joining the Selinsgrove Area Adult Band. The first rehearsal of the 50th season will take place Tuesday, February 7, at 7:15 p.m. in the Selinsgrove Area Middle School band room. Subsequent rehearsals are held each Tuesday throughout February and March. Dig out your instrument and join the fun! The season culminates on Tuesday, April 3, with a benefit concert for the American Cancer Society. Musicians in the band are from the greater Susquehanna Valley and from as far away as Harrisburg, Reading, and State College. Please contact music director and conductor Ronald R. Renshaw at (570) 837-0634 or rensshaw@ptd.net for additional information.

Farmer's Winter Meeting In Snyder County

The Snyder County Conservation District, along with AgChoice Farm Credit, Country View Family Farms, Valley Ag & Turf, TeamAg and Grass Roots 21, will host a farmer's winter meeting on Friday, February 17, 2012, at Christ Community United Methodist Church, 3939 Park Road near Selinsgrove. Doors open at 8:30 a.m. and the meeting is from 9:00 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Pesticide and Nutrient Management Credits will be given from the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. Topics include: avoiding unwanted attention from neighbors, attracting crop pollinators, pesticide safety, maximizing pastures, cover crops, crop fertility, USDA programs, brown marmorated stinkbug management, precision planting crops and pesticide resistance.

Lunch will be provided at $5.00 per person. Pay at the door. Call 570-837-3000 for reservations at the Conservation District Office by Friday, February 3, 2012. If assistance to participate is required, contact the Conservation District by February 3, 2012, for coordination.

Financial and other support for this meeting is provided by AgChoice Farm Credit in Lewisburg, Country View Family Farms in Middletown, Valley Ag & Turf in Watsonstown and Reedsville, and TeamAg of Lancaster and Elysburg are businesses that contract and serve local farmers. Grass Roots 21 offer grazing technical advice in south-central Pennsylvania.

Where Are You Going To File Your Taxes?

April 15th is just around the corner. The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program offers free tax preparation. Union-Snyder CAA and AmeriCorps have partnered with the IRS to help low to moderate income individuals who are not able to prepare their own taxes. This program is limited to those filing non-itemized returns.

A qualified volunteer will assist in filing taxes and assess if qualifications for certain tax credits are met. This program is offered through the Union-Snyder Community Action Agency and AmeriCorps at the Snyder County East Building (formerly the Selinsgrove CareerLink) at 713 Bridge Street, Selinsgrove. To schedule an appointment, call Loretta Sprengle, AmeriCorps member, or Janet Bilger, at (570)374-0181.

2011 Property Tax/Rent Rebate Applications Set to Arrive in February

Rep. Fred Keller (R-Union/Snyder) is reminding local residents that applications for the Commonwealth's 2011 Property Tax/Rent Rebate program should be available through his Mifflinburg district office and online at RepFredKeller.com in early February. Previous recipients of the rebate will receive an application directly from the Department of Revenue.

Eligible participants can receive a rebate of up to $650 based on their rent or property taxes paid in 2011. The program benefits eligible Pennsylvanians who are 65 years or older, widows and widowers 50 years or older, and those 18 years or older with disabilities.

Eligibility income limits for homeowners are set at the following levels, excluding 50 percent of Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, and Railroad Retirement Tier 1 benefits:

$0 to $8,000, maximum $650 rebate (Homeowners and renters)

$8,001 to $15,000, maximum $500 rebate (Homeowners and renters)

$15,001 to $18,000, maximum $300 rebate (Homeowners only)

$18,001 to $35,000, maximum $250 rebate (Homeowners only)

The Property Tax/Rent Rebate program is one of many initiatives supported by the Pennsylvania Lottery, which dedicates its proceeds to support programs for older Pennsylvanians. Since the program began in 1971, more than $4 billion has been paid to qualified applicants.

Residents are reminded to provide all the necessary income, property tax or rental information required to process claims quickly and accurately. Applications for the 2011 rebate are due by June 30, 2012.

More information is available by contacting Keller's office at (570) 966-0052, or by visiting his website at RepFredKeller.com.

10,000 Local Children Receive Project Linus Blankets

Since the Central Susquehanna Valley Chapter of Project Linus was organized 11 years ago, exactly 10,290 sick, hurting and traumatized children in the local six county area have received handmade blankets. The Project Linus blankets, with their distinctive satin labels showing Linus clinging to his blanket, comfort the children during hospital stays or in frightening situations. Nationally, Project Linus through its 368 chapters has delivered 4,025,297 handmade blankets to children in every state of the union since its inception in 1995.

Project Linus blankets are made by local volunteers- Cub scouts and Girl Scouts who make knotted fleece blankets, senior groups, church groups, individuals working at home and ladies in their 90s making crocheted blankets. Only during disasters such as tornadoes, flooding or hurricanes do the nationwide chapters work together to send blankets to needed areas. After the flooding of the Susquehanna River and its tributaries, Pat Warren, the local chapter coordinator, asked for blankets to help the children of the six county area. Blankets came from Petaluma, Calif., Illinois, and chapters in Adams and Pike counties. These blankets were then taken to children in Bloomsburg, Danville and Montoursville.

A Williamsport mother wrote of her daughter clinging for comfort to the blanket she had received at Susquehanna Health as she was life flighted to Lehigh Burn Center. Other mothers tell of their children sleeping and cuddling with their blankets for months after they received the Project Linus blankets during their hospital stay.

Come help make blankets at the annual "Make A Blanket Day/Open House" Saturday, February 18, from 10 to 2 at Faith Lutheran Church west on Rt. 45 in Lewisburg. Help make fleece blankets and assemble and knot quilts. New handmade blankets may be made at home and dropped off on or prior to February 18 at Faith Lutheran Church or at Sunbury Sewing Center, Rt. 11 & 15, Hummels Wharf. You may also support Project Linus by donating quilt fabric, yarn or gift cards. For more details on the event or blanket size or to sign up for Make A Blanket Day, call Pat Warren at 570-966-3675 after 6:30PM.

Evangelical Holds Free Blood Pressure & Blood Sugar Clinics

Community Health Education at Evangelical Community Hospital will hold a series of free community blood pressure and blood sugar screenings.

•Mondays from 9 a.m.-Noon at the Community Health Education Center, located next to Staples, on Route 15, in Lewisburg

•Wednesdays from Noon-4 p.m. at the Community Health Education Center

•Fridays from 9 am-1 pm at the Community Health Education Center

•Friday, February 3 from 9 a.m. -1 p.m. at the Mifflinburg Bank and Trust, Fairground Road, Lewisburg

•Tuesday, February 14, from 8-10:30 a.m. at the Susquehanna Valley Mall

•Thursday, February 16 from 10-11 a.m. at the West End Senior Center, Laurelton

•Tuesday, February 28, from 9-11 a.m. at the Milton YMCA

An additional blood pressure only screening will be held Friday, February 10 from 10 a.m.-1 p.m., at Weis Markets, Mifflinburg.

High blood pressure can silently damage your body for years before symptoms develop. If left untreated, the health risks include severe disabilities, a poor quality of life or even a fatal heart attack. Luckily, with treatment and minor lifestyle changes, high blood pressure can be controlled and the risk of life-threatening complications can be dramatically reduced.

In addition, high blood sugar can damage the vessels that supply blood to vital organs if not treated, which can increase the risk of heart disease and stroke, kidney disease, vision problems and nerve problems in people with diabetes. If left untreated, low blood sugar, which occurs when blood glucose levels drop too low, can cause symptoms such as hunger pains, trembling, rapid heart rate, headaches, drowsiness, seizures, staggering while walking and other complications.

For more information on these and other health screenings, please call Evangelical Community Health Education at (570) 768-3200 or online.

Local Gospel Station To Expand

WFBM, a local Gospel music radio station, based in Beaver Springs, will be expanding its coverage area with the addition of two new frequencies. Beginning Saturday, January 21st, 100.1 FM will be switching to 90.1 FM and 90.5 FM.

WFBM began broadcasting in Oct. of 2004, over 100.1 FM. Station Engineer, Clint Heiser says it has been a blessing and that is why we sought after an expanded coverage area, so we can be a blessing to more people.

With a recent FCC report to the U.S. congress listing WFBM as the third among Low Power FM stations, (meaning more listeners spend more time listening) and designating WFBM as the number one station in consistent listener support in the Lewisburg, Sunbury, Selinsgrove marketing area, the expansion into new areas seems exciting according to Station General Manager, Denton Mallonee. Pastor Mallonee thanks the loyal listeners and supporters, as well as those who have invested much time and labor to make the two new stations a reality.

Both Clint Heiser and Pastor Mallonee are excited about going to the new frequencies, 90.1 & 90.5 FM in time for next week's SHAR-A-THON on Friday, January 27 and Saturday, January 28.

During SHAR-A-THON there will be Gospel singing groups, food available and door prizes, as the radio ministry seeks to raise funds for the coming year's operation.

Pastor Mallonee says, "We are indeed grateful for the opportunity to bring honor to our Lord and to serve people in our communities with the music and message of the Master."

STATE POLICE, MILTON

Crash 10 p.m. January 13, Churches Road, 82 feet east of White Deer Churches Road, Kelly Township. A 1992 Chevrolet Astro Van driven by Angela D. Shade, 33, of Allenwood, was traveling east on Churches Road. Shade lost control of her vehicle causing it to leave the roadway via the south berm. After leaving the roadway, the front of the vehicle struck a utility pole, coming to rest facing south. Shade was not injured. Her passengers a 13 year old boy, a 9 year old girl and two 5 year old girls, all of Allenwood, sustained minor injuries and were transported via White Dee Township Ambulance to Evangelical Community Hospital for treatment.

Burglary-Attempt Between 1-9:30 a.m. January 5, Century Village, Buffalo Township. Actor(s) gained entry to an unoccupied apartment by smashing a front window. It is undetermined if any property was taken from within. Anyone with information is asked to contact police at 524-2662.

DUI Arrest 10:18 p.m. December 3, SR 15 northbound by the West Milton Exit, Kelly Township. Kara Ann Stackhouse, 24, of Turbotville, was arrested for DUI as a result of a motor vehicle crash she caused. Charges of DUI of a controlled substance and related traffic offenses were filed in District Court 17-3-01.

Robbery 7:20 p.m. January 12, 400 Century Village, Kelly Township. An unknown female actor entered the residence of Virginia Cashner, of Lewisburg, and held a plastic knife to her throat. The actor then demanded money from Cashner and a short struggle ensued. The actor fled the scene after Cashner gave her $10. Cashner sustained minor wounds to her hands (caused by the knife) during the struggle. The actor is described as a short Hispanic female last seen wearing a ball cap and a gray hooded jacket. Anyone with information is asked to contact police at 524-2662.

Crash 1:19 p.m. January 11, Stover Road, 164 feet east of Millmont Road, Lewis Township. A 1994 Kenworth 600 driven by Shane P. Failor, 42, of Millmont, was traveling west on Stover Road and was negotiating an "S" turn. A 2002 Buick Rendezvous driven by Larry A. Hackenberg, 65, of Millmont, was traveling eastbound and came to a stop on the curve. The tandem axle of Failor's trailer struck the front left of Hackenberg's vehicle. Failor was not injured. Hackenberg sustained a moderate injury and was transported to Evangelical Community Hospital for treatment. Failor was cited for a traffic violation.

DUI Crash 3:17 a.m. January 15, SR 192 at Sand Mountain Road, Lewis Township. As a 1999 Dodge Durango driven by Stacey Allen Young, 32, of Milton, was descending a hill on Sand Mountain Road, in Bald Eagle State Forest. The vehicle crossed SR 192 at a high rate of speed and struck several trees on the south side of the roadway, narrowly missing a PennDOT snow plow which was traveling westbound on SR 192. Young, who sustained minor injuries, was arrested for suspicion of DUI. Young's passengers Chastity Celeste Guyer, 37, of Milton sustained major injuries and Brandon Keith Miller, 26, of Milton, sustained minor injuries. Assisting on the scene were PennDOT, Mifflinburg Fire Department and Ambulance, William Cameron Ambulance and Medic 60.

Criminal Mischief Between 3 p.m.-3:45 p.m. January 12, 100 Hospital Drive, Kelly Township. Actor(s) damaged a 2007 Chevrolet Colorado owned by Steve Miller, of Watsontown, with an unknown object and then fled the scene in an unknown direction and manner. Anyone with information is asked to contact police at 524-2662.

Simple Assault 11:30 p.m. January 16, in the area of 6700 Buffalo Road, Buffalo Township. Police said Melvin Hamilton, 31, of West Milton, reported being assaulted by two known actors. The investigation continues.

Criminal Mischief Between 6 p.m. and 7 a.m. January 16-17, at 4146 Spruce Run Road, White Deer Township. Randy Persun, 57, of Lewisburg reported that someone had smashed his mailbox during the night. If anyone has information related to this incident, they are asking to contact PSP Milton at (570) 524-2662.

Burglary Between 3:30 p.m. and 12 a.m. January 10-13, at 450 Hummels Road, Mifflinburg. Joseph Donovan, of Paxinos, reported that someone has made entry into his cabin, perused through the cupboards and apparently slept in the bed. If anyone has information related to this incident, they are asking to contact PSP Milton at (570) 524-2662.

Retail Theft Between 11:45 p.m. and 12:10 a.m. January 2-3, at Wal-Mart, 120 AJK Blvd, Kelly Township. Three black females and 1 black male entered Wal-Mart. They separated with two shopping carts filling them with expensive electronics item. They left the store without paying for these items and fled in a dark colored SUV. Total stolen property estimated at $1,879.30.

Retail Theft Between January 2-11, Wal-Mart, Kelly Township. On five dates (January 2, 3, 9, 10 & 11) Teresa R. Bayait, 47 and Darryl Lamont Franklin, 37, both of Williamsport, conspired to steal large amounts of DVDs and blue ray discs. They sold the stolen items to FYE at the Lycoming Mall for cash. Letters Written During WW1 From Jay A. Rigel to Family and Friends

Letter to: Mrs. Carrie Lepley
Date: April 17, 1918
Location: Camp Sherman

Dear Sister,

I suppose you had been looking for a letter for some time already. I should have written sooner but news is scarce and nothing new. I have not seen George Gross yet and don't know where to find him. If you can get his address here send it to me. I saw John Herbster on Saturday eve.

We were down to Chillli (Chillicothe). I got the box of apples last eve that Mother sent me. Also got a letter from her today.

Last eve I got a team to drive. I will have it steady now. We were on a hike on Monday eve. Left here about 9 o'clock and got back about eleven. The regiment was out again today went nearly 10 miles. I drove my team.

I was sorry I could not be home on Easter but here we must do as we are told. I thought I better send Wm. the telegram then if I got the furlough he could be home. He had a good time anyway.

We had very little snow last week. You sure had enough. I don't believe we will leave here before fall and maybe not then. Guess the Germans will get theirs before long. I guess you know I was to Cleveland a week ago Sunday. George O. and Jay B. are there yet. The boys think they will stay.

Don't send any more telegrams unless it is necessary and I hope it will not be. I left here Saturday noon at 1:15 and got to Cleveland at 6 o'clock. Left Cleveland Sunday 3:30 and got back here about 10 o'clock. We made good time going to Cleveland.

Mother wrote that Clarence's went to Gettysburg, also saw it in the Herald. Hope Clarence's mother will be all right soon. I suppose farmer Norman is busy with his spring work. Do you intend to go out of the store or are you going to stay?

Will close for this time. This leaves me well, hope it will find you all the same.

Your brother, Jay

And here are the answers to last week's riddles:

1. Wie fiel grund iss im ma loch en fuus eckich unn fuus dief?
(How much dirt is in a hole a foot square and a foot deep?)
Answer: Kenner (None at all, it's a hole.)

2. Was dravelt's schtarrigscht, hitz adder die kelt?
(Which travels faster, heat or cold?)

Answer: Ei, die hitz. Es kalt kannescht fanga. (Heat, of course, as one can easily catch cold.)

Recently one of our readers asked for a recipe to make Schnitz and Knepp. I haven't made it for several years. But I have some apples I've dried, planning to make it. Here is the recipe I use:

Schnitz un Knepp

Cover 1 heaping cup sweet schnitz (dried apples) with water and soak overnight. Cover about 3 pounds of ham with water and cook about two hours. Add schnitz and 1/2 cup brown sugar and cook another hour or so.

Make dumpling dough and drop by tablespoonfuls onto the simmering ham and apples. Cover the kettle tightly and cook about 20 minutes. Serve piping hot.

Do you have a favorite recipe or suggestions for making Schnitz and Knepp? Do let me know. Jean Markley Keiser, 1133 Carolina Ave., West Chester, PA 19380 bjkeiser@verizon.net

Sponsors Didn't Want Kurt Busch

By Gerald Hodges/the Racing Reporter

Richard Petty said the reason Kurt Busch wasn't hired to drive his No. 43 was personality. "Nobody at the time wanted to pay the bill for him," said Petty. "That's how simple it was. Everybody has to protect their brand. Smithfield Farms has a pretty laid back, pretty good down-home persona in the general public. If they had taken him on it would have changed their ... they just didn't like the personality."

Busch, who was released from Penske Racing after a disastrous 2011 season that led the 2004 Cup champion to seek professional help for anger issues, ultimately signed with Phoenix Racing.

Busch, who was released from Penske Racing after a disastrous 2011 season that led the 2004 Cup champion to seek professional help for anger issues, ultimately signed with Phoenix Racing.

Petty said Smithfield Foods, which he introduced Thursday as a primary sponsor for the No. 43, was among those that wouldn't come on board if Busch was involved. Petty said Best Buy, which left the No. 43 to join Roush Fenway Racing as a sponsor, had the same concern.

Despite his anger and rebellious attitude, Busch can handle a race car and he showed it this past week during preseason testing. He had the fastest time of any driver. His top speed of 206.058 miles per hour around the 2.5-mile track was the best lap turned by any driver.

In between talking about how much fun he's having "old school" racing and how he needs to learn how to handle adversity better, Busch let it be known that he's focused on 2013.

"Yes, 2012 is going to be a unique year for somebody such as myself," Busch said at Daytona. "But to take a step back for me personally and look at all of this, this is what I need. And all along we're going to keep our eyes on the prize in 2013."

According to Busch, he could have several quality options. He said he talked to a number of team owners about 2012, including Richard Childress, Michael Waltrip and Richard Petty.

"It was weird to hear his (Richard Petty's) comments yesterday because he was ready to throw me in the car and we would have been down the road," Busch continued. "But the contracts just didn't align on where they were and where I wanted to be, and so I talked with [James] Finch, made the deal happen."

Busch and his Phoenix Racing team has picked up one sponsor, TAG Heuer Eyewear. They will be the primary sponsor on the No. 51 Chevrolet for the Feb. 18 Budweiser Shootout at Daytona, where Busch is the defending winner. Additionally, they will serve as an associate sponsor on the No. 51 Chevrolet during the Daytona 500 on Feb. 26 and again on March 11 for the Kobalt Tools 400 at Las Vegas Motor Speedway, Busch's hometown track.

Listening to Busch, it's clear his plan is to be with Finch - a single-car owner who gets support from Hendrick Motorsports - for only one year. Then it's on to bigger and better things. But to get that opportunity, Busch realizes he has to change. Busch said he plans to use 2012 as a platform to reintroduce himself to sponsors - to get in front of as many of them as possible and show them that he's more than just a hothead.

I guess we'll have to wait and see how things go between Busch, Finch, and the rest of the NASCAR nation.

NASCAR has mandated that drivers and spotters will not be allowed to communicate with other drivers over their in-car radios in an ongoing effort to eliminate tandem racing at restrictor plate tracks. The decision was confirmed Thursday as teams prepared for the first of a three-day test at Daytona International Speedway, a tune-up for the Feb. 26 Daytona 500. Over the past few years, as teams have refined their ability to team up with other cars to create more speed, drivers and spotters have had the ability to talk to multiple teams over their radios. They used it to coordinate which cars would pair up and to help drivers switch from pusher to pushee. By eliminating such communication, NASCAR hopes teams will have a more difficult time making deals and remaining in pairs. The driver pushing especially needs this communication because he has little to no visibility. It was so refined that one spotter would communicate for both drivers even if one of the drivers wasn't with his organization. This is NASCAR's latest rule change to address the two-car tandem.

There were only 32 cars that participated in last week's test at Daytona. That number does not include some teams that folded during the off-season (such as Red Bull), some smaller outfits (such as Front Row Motorsports) and some that decided not to test (such as JTG Daugherty Racing).

NASCAR President Mike Helton said he didn't think the number of teams participating in the test portended short fields for the regular season.

"I think there is a good deal more activity out there than is represented by testing and some of the other things," he said. "And the fact that there will be in excess of 43 cars trying to make the Daytona 500 ... and we've been through cycles, particularly when we get to the June, July stretch, where we may only have 43 cars show up at the race track. But I don't see us going below 43 this year. I may be surprised, but I think just knowing the chatter and the conversations that we've had with race teams and organizations that either have participated or are going to participate, that we'll have full fields."

Geoff Bodine, 1986 Daytona 500 winner, said Wednesday he still hopes to have a deal in place to compete in this year's Daytona 500 on Feb. 26, as well as the invitation-only Budweiser Shootout that will be held eight days earlier.

"We are cautiously optimistic we will be racing at Daytona," Bodine said. "We have the sponsorship. We'll be all right. The wheels are in motion and hopefully soon we will be making some announcement."

Prior to 2011, Bodine had made just one Cup start since 2004. Bodine said he has sponsorship for a minimum of 15 Sprint Cup races from Luke & Associates, a Florida-based health care provider to the U.S. military. He and Luke & Associates had hoped to hook up with a team before the end of the year, with the sponsor also seeking an ownership role.

Racing Trivia Question: Who won the 1949 NASCAR championship, which was the first for the fledgling organization?

Last Week's Question: Richard Petty has 200 career Cup wins, the most of any driver. Who is number two? Answer: David Pearson is second with 105 wins.
