

New Berlin Fireman's Carnival Delivers a Blast of Small-Town Fun

The annual New Berlin Fireman's Carnival brought families out into the warm weather to enjoy a little bit of carnival fun right in town. It was held from Wednesday, July 9th through Saturday, July 11th and packed in a whole lot of wholesome family fun for the community. A beloved tradition for residents and visitors alike, this year's carnival once again delivered on its promise of live music, a patriotic parade, dazzling fireworks, an abundance of delicious food and good old-fashioned games, and they even brought back the turtle races.

The carnival grounds were bustling with excited children playing games and going on rides. I played a couple nostalgic games myself trying my best to land a ring on the glass bottles, but my husband put a stop to my game playing when I wanted to win a goldfish to take home. It was my first time attending the New Berlin Fireman's Carnival, and it seemed that the fire company is truly the heart of this community.

A major highlight of the carnival was the live music, and this year, the stage was set ablaze by the energetic performance of the Modern Outlaws. The band's performance of dynamic rock hits had attendees happily singing along and eager to hear more. Their engaging stage presence and crowd-pleasing setlist created an electrifying atmosphere to kick off this year's carnival, and each night a different band performed.

Thursday evening saw the streets of New Berlin lined with eager spectators for the much-anticipated carnival parade. A true showcase of local pride, the procession featured an impressive array of fire trucks from surrounding companies, beautifully decorated floats representing local businesses and organizations, the Mifflinburg Wildcats Marching Band, and community groups. Children waved enthusiastically as their favorite emergency vehicles rolled by and were incredibly happy to get some candy.

As dusk settled on Friday evening, eyes turned skyward for the carnival's grand fireworks display put on by Whitenight's Fireworks, LLC. Exploding in a symphony of colors and light, the pyrotechnic show captivated the crowd, drawing oohs and aahs from spectators of all ages. They also had a cardboard boat race down Penns Creek, and SUN Tech students made a custom fire ring which was raffled off to help support the activities and the fireworks.

Beyond the main attractions, the New Berlin Fireman's Carnival offered something for everyone. Food stands dished out all the carnival classics, from hot sausage sandwiches, fresh cut fries, milkshakes, hot dogs and hamburgers to my favorite, fresh squeezed lemonade, which I treated myself to. It seemed to me that the most popular item was the fish sandwich evident by the line of people wanting to purchase one. Games of chance and skill provided endless entertainment, and there were a variety of items raffled off to benefit the fire company which included a flat top grill, a Yeti cooler, and a utility vehicle to name a few. More importantly, the carnival served as a central gathering place for members of the community who were happy to catch up with old friends while enjoying a night out in town and supporting their local fire company.

"We are incredibly grateful for the overwhelming support shown by the New Berlin community and all our visitors during this year's Fireman's Carnival," stated New Berlin Fire Chief, Tim Shaffer. "This event is our biggest fundraiser of the year, and the funds raised are absolutely vital for us to maintain our equipment, provide essential training for our volunteers, and ultimately, continue to protect our community."

The Chief highlighted the importance of the carnival in supporting the volunteer fire company, noting that it accounts for a significant portion of their annual income. "It's heartwarming to see so many families and friends come together to enjoy the carnival while also contributing to such a crucial cause," he added.

Chief Shaffer also extended thanks to all the volunteers who dedicated their time and effort to make the carnival a success, from organizing events to staffing food and game stands. "Our volunteers are the backbone of this company and this event. Their dedication is truly commendable."

The New Berlin Fireman's Carnival is a cherished annual event that helps to celebrate the camaraderie of a small town coming together to support its local heroes, and a big thank you goes out to all of the sponsors who helped make the carnival such a success.

Mifflinburg TSA Places at Nationals

Collin Tressler at the Gaylord Opryland Convention Center in Nashville, TN (not pictured, teammate Lucy Turner). Also included is a picture of the National Finalist Pin!

The Mifflinburg Technology Students Association (TSA) team of Collin Tressler and Lucy Turner attended the National Convention in Nashville, Tennessee, from June 27 to July 1 this summer. After taking first place in the field of Music Production at the State level back in April, they punched their tickets to Nationals. With the support of the Mifflinburg Area School District and the School Board, and with a generous donation from an anonymous donor, Mifflinburg made its national debut. The team competed in three events while in Nashville. After finding out that they made the semi-finals with their song, they competed in On-Demand Video and Technology Problem Solving. The team went up against teams from all over the nation and Germany, Turkey, and American Samoa. There were between 210- 275 teams in each event. After the semi-final interview for Music Production, Collin and Lucy were hoping for the coveted TSA finalist pin to add to their collections. Then on Tuesday morning, their wish came true; they made it into the finals! They finished seventh in the nation for Music Production!

While competing, the team also attended delegation meetings and learned about Parliamentary procedures. Both students say that it was an amazing experience and are looking forward to going to Nationals again next year in Washington, DC. The students and their families want to thank Mifflinburg High School, the Mifflinburg School Board, and the generous donor for their support in putting Mifflinburg TSA on the national stage.

Clinton County Ran the Big Sprint Car Race, Selingsgrove Wrapped up the Late Model Speedweek

A nice field of 32 sprint car driver showed up on Friday night at Clinton County Speedway for the $7,500 top prize on the line. There were twenty-six 410's, three 360's and three 305 drivers in action. None of the 305 drivers were able to qualify, with one 360-sprint driver making the 35-lap feature field. Two sets of time trials were needed to set the field for the heat races. Brock Zearfoss, who had overall fast time at 11.978 and Australian driver, Alex Attard, was fastest in the second group with a time of 12.567. Zearfoss, Billy Dietrich, Lucas Wolfe and Garrett Bard won the four heat races, with Cameron Smith winning the B-main. Garrett Bard, who swept the two 410 special shows in the 2024 season, just did not have it in the feature this time placing fifteenth in the final run down. Billy Dietrich, who for years has supported the 410 shows at Clinton County, scored the feature win over Ryan Smith in the #6 (not the Kreitz #69 he drives at other tracks). Lucas Wolfe was third, Zearfoss and then Logan Rumsey in the top five. Hard Charger went to Derek Hauck, who started the feature in twenty-first and placed seventh in the final finish. Cameron Smith started nineteenth and placed tenth in the final rundown, showing that there was a lot of passing during the 35-lap feature. Jordan Givler, when he was interviewed during the pill draw for the feature, was pushing for Clinton County to be a part of the annual sprint Speedweek quoting Gilver, "We need a few short tracks like Clinton in the mix for one of the ten races". Time will tell if that is going to happen for the 2026 season. Mark Smith has been pushing the same thing noting the call for more shorter tracks, like Clinton, to be placed on the docket. Tyler Reeser who was on top of his game with the 305-sprint years ago and then had the ride in the Sorokach #35, but he walked away from the sport, took a ride in the back-up Jones race #12 for the Clinton race. Reeser was twenty-first in the finishing order. Austin Bishop is now the driver of the #35 and was eleventh in the feature. Lucas Wolfe, who had not raced there in a few years, made the best of it with a third-place finish in the feature. The next 410-sprint is set for Saturday August 9th with the running of the Phil Walter Classic.

Also on Friday, at Selingsgrove Speedway, there was the rescheduled Appalachian Speedweek final for the super late models. The point title came down to Gregg Satterlee and Trevor Feathers, with Feathers needing Satterlee to have some bad luck for him to be able to overtake Gregg for the points. That did not happen with Satterlee going out and winning the feature event and picking up $6,000. In fact, Gregg did not stop there! He went out and won the Frank Sagi Tribute race at Hagerstown on Saturday picking up $5,000, and then on Sunday to win the Jimmy Spence Memorial at Winchester Speedway and another $6,091 for bonus money. It was a $21,000 weekend. Getting back to Selingsgrove, again Shaun Jones of Shermansdale PA was the bridesmaid and not the bride. He led for 14 laps in the feature but settled for second place at the end of the 35-lap feature. He was also second to Rick Eckert in a race back in May of this year. Shaun led the most laps that night also. Hayes Mattern, who is always around the top five, was third in the feature, with Eckert and Kyle Lee in the top five. Trevor Feathers, Dylan and then Jim Yoder, Dan Stone and Jeff Rine who was the tracks hard charger coming from 17th to that 10th place finish. The final point total for the top five looked like this: Satterlee 4,265, Trevor Feathers 4,055, Bryan Bernheisel 3,993, Dan Stone 3,919 and Kyle Lee 3,913. For Satterlee, it was his third overall Speedweek title having won it last year and in the 2013 season. He also now has twelve feature wins in the mini-series which leads all drivers.

Sprint driver Briggs Danner was getting a second chance to drive the Superko #31 usually driven by Jim Bernheisel. Briggs did not make out has good has his fourth-place finish at Bridgeport back in June. Danner could only muster a 16th place finish. For the series Satterlee had three wins with others coming at Port Royal, Bridgeport and Selingsgrove Mason Zeigler drove in only two events and won them both at Path Valley and Bedford. Four different drivers set fast times with Satterlee doing it twice along with Trevor Feathers, Mason Zeigler and Justin Weaver. There were fourteen different heat race winners, with Rick Eckert and Feathers each winning two single wins for the other twelve. Only five of the original eight scheduled races were run with Clinton County, Hagerstown and Lincoln all getting rained out.

Hagerstown Speedway had the Frank Sagi Tribute race last Saturday with a top field of 37 super late model drivers on hand. After the win by Satterlee, came Matt Cosner, Trevor Feathers, Rick Eckert and Kyle Hardy. Following them were Andrew Yoder, Kyle Lee, Bryan Bernheisel, Kenny Moreland and Justin Weaver. Alan Sagi puts this deal together each year and it always draws a big field of racers and large crowds of spectators. Three drivers were also honored, Booper Bare, Dave Wilt and car owner Barry Klinedinst during the 8th annual running of this event. Bare was the 1987 Rookie of the year at Hagerstown and placed second in points to Jeff Robinson that year. He also picked up four feature wins. Bare raced at 75 different speedways in his career, and one of his highlights was winning a Winter Nationals race at East Bay during the 1997 season. Barry Klinedinst was a car owner for close to 50-years and had drivers like Gary Snellbaker, Bobby Goodling, Steve Smith (yes, the sprint car driver) Smith ran several of the NDRA series back in the late 70's and early 80's. Jeff Leiphart and most recent Jason Covert who is still driving the car today. The car is now owned by Barry's son Brian. Dave Wilt was a limited late model driving force picking up track titles at Hagerstown in 1978 and 1983; he also owns titles at Winchester Speedway. He last raced in the 1985 season.

What looked like a sure win coming for Justin Whittall in the 410-sprint feature with a five second lead and one lap to go, but a right rear flat tire ended his night on the back stretch with the car facing the fence. Troy Wagaman went on to pick up the win after his normal track Lincoln Speedway rained out. Troy and his Heffner racing team made it to Port where he picked up his first ever Port Royal 410-sprint car feature win over Brock Zearfoss, Mark Smith. In the Limited Late Model feature, Lane Snook went past Jaxton Garman with two laps to go and scored his eleventh overall feature win of the season. Lane now has two wins at Port to go along with wins at Selingsgrove three, Bedford two, BAPS three and one at Dog Hollow.

Selingsgrove, PA- Mother nature finally showed mercy to finish up Appalachian Mountains Super Late Model Speedweek presented by Selingsgrove Ford almost one month to the day. The month-long wait was worth it as Indiana, PA's Gregg Satterlee wins his third feature of Speedweek and clenches his third straight Appalachian Mountains Super Late Model Speedweek presented by Selingsgrove Ford title. Keller's Auto Body PA Sprint Series 305's were back in action at Selingsgrove. Selingsgrove's own Ken Duke Jr. wired the field for his 8th career 305 win at the Snyder County oval. Port Royal's Jared Fulkroad broke Lane Snook's Selingsgrove winning streak by picking up his 3rd career Limited Late Model win. The Superior Homes Street Stocks made their long-awaited debut with Woodsboro, MD Steve Kent picking up his first career Selingsgrove win.

25 Appalachian Mountains Super Late Model Speedweek presented by Selingsgrove Ford signed in for the $6,000 to win feature presented by Donnie's Automotive. "I couldn't stay down on the bottom the first part of the race." Satterlee said to Steve Inch in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. "Jones got off the bottom really well. Luckily as the race went on my tires got underneath me. I was able to get a better balance once we got some clean track."

27 Keller Auto Body PASS 305 sprint cars signed in for the night's action. Ken Duke, Jr did not take long to get to the front and made it three wide in turn one to take the lead and get out to a big lead to start the 20-lap main event. "The car was perfect." Duke said in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. "Made some changes and it worked better than I imagined, especially with the way the track.

26 Limited Late Models signed in for the third feature of the night. The question coming in was could anyone knock off Mifflintown's Lane Snook. "I didn't even picture us being here tonight." Fulkroad said in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. "We've been struggling with cars this year. I got to apologize to Dalton Bigler. I had a head of steam and made some contact with him. But to be up here is an amazing feeling."

Final feature of the night was the debut of the Superior Home Street Stocks. Steve Kent parked it in the High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane for his first ever feature at the track.

Billy Dietrich Wins Exciting 410 Sprint Car Race at Clinton County Speedway

The 410 Sprint Cars did not disappoint with a great race. Standing in victory lane was 2nd place Ryan Smith, Winner Billy Dietrich, Promoter Jason McCahan and 3rd place Lucas Wolfe. Photo by Debbie Gastelu

Mill Hall, PA – The 410 Sprint Cars made this first of two appearances this season at the Clinton County Speedway in front of a full crowd. Billy Dietrich of Aspers, PA made the crowd cheer in an exciting victory, presented by the Clinton County Tourism Bureau and the Clinton County Chamber of Commerce, over Ryan Smith of Fleetwood, PA and Lucas Wolfe of Mechanicsburg, PA. Jeffrey Weaver of Lock Haven won the Mason Dixon 270 Micro Sprint Feature event and Matt Weaver of Madisonburg won the 4-Cylinder feature.

Fast time of the night was set by Brock Zearfoss of Jonestown, PA with a time of 11.978 seconds. The “Jonestown Jet” drew the pole position and started alongside of Dietrich. Zearfoss took the early lead over Dietrich, Lucas Wolfe, Smith, and Jordan Givler of Enola. On lap number four, Smith passed Wolfe, as Deitrich was pressuring Zearfoss. On lap number eight Dietrich took the lead, and Smith took the second position away from Zearfoss on lap number 11.

As the top five approached the completion of lap number 20, the running order remained the same for the top five, but lapped traffic made things interesting. At times Dietrich was held up by lapped traffic allowing Smith to close in and the next lap he could clear a lapped car putting a marker between him and Smith.

The racing continued to be intense as the leaders worked their way through the lapped traffic. On lap number 30 Dietrich maintained the lead by a slim margin over Smith. With two laps remaining, Smith and Wolfe closed in as the fifth-place car of Jordan Givler pulled in with a mechanical issue. Dietrich held on to claim the $7,500 pay day over Smith and Wolfe. Zearfoss finished fourth and Logan Rumsey completed the top five.

Other feature winners were Jeff Weaver in the 270 Micros and Matt Weaver in the 4-Cylinders.

Arch Manning will not be the best QB in college football this year, not even the best in his own conference. And for Penn State football it's now or never for James Franklin. Just a couple of teasers as we approach August.

We have passed the halfway point of the Major League season as the All-Star break is over. I actually enjoyed this year's homerun derby because my new favorite player Cal Raleigh squared off against Pirate Oneil Cruz in the semis. The Big Dumper won the derby over Junior Caminero who has the sweetest swing of any right-handed batter like Ken Griffey Jr had from the left side.

There is no clear-cut favorite team to win the World Series this year. Injuries to the Dodgers, Mets, Yankees and Astros have leveled the playing field for other teams to rise up in the standings. We had an Indy/OKC NBA final, why not a Tigers/Cubs Fall Classic?

George Springer has carried Toronto past the slumping Yanks, not sure the Blue Jays can stay hot. Boston sprinted to the All-Star break but now play the Cubs, Phils, Dodgers, Twins and Astros in a brutal 15 game stretch. The Padres haven't played well against the teams they will face in the playoffs.

The Yanks will have to make some trades to advance into October. Seattle has Raleigh and not much else. The Mets were swept by the Pirates and their starting pitching is in shambles. The Mets main rival in Philly has had stellar starting pitching and with a healthy Harper the offense will improve. They will have to add an arm or two to the bullpen.

The Dodgers will be in the mix until the end because they are the Dodgers and Ohtani will ramp up his innings on the bump. Tampa Bay has been led by Caminero and Jonathan Aranda but their July/August schedule is very road-heavy. I'm anxious to see what The Miz will do for the rest of the year as the Brewers have a lot of good players but no great ones.

The Astros are the team everyone hates but even with injuries will not go away. Cam Smith has stepped up sooner than expected and the 'Zombie Astros' continue to plug and play. The Cubs have the sticks and will add an arm to boost their rotation. PCA, Suzuki and Tucker will lead Chicago to more wins than they had in their World Series season.

That brings me to the team that will win it all in October. The Detroit Tigers have the best starting pitcher in Tarik Skubal and impressive depth across the entire roster. Javier Baez is back to his old self and Riley Greene has matured into one of the game's top power hitters. Detroit has a deep well of prospects and they can add significant help at the trade deadline.

Speaking of prospects, how about a little ice-hockey talk to cool you off during these dog days of summer. Penn State hockey recruit Gavin McKenna is projected as next year's first pick in the NHL draft. Pierce Mbuyi and Jackson Smith are also incoming freshmen and both of them are also projected as first round picks in next year's draft.

All three are coming from the CHL, the junior hockey league in Canada. The CHL recently eliminated the NCAA middle step to get to the NHL. Penn State is now a heavy favorite to make it to the Frozen Four next year and win it all. This from a program that just started playing Div 1 hockey thirteen years ago, about the same time James Franklin came to Happy Valley.

As I mentioned last week, sports is money and Terry Pegula gets all the credit for creating Hockey Valley in the winter. They play their home games at the state of art Pegula Ice Arena. Pegula owns the Buffalo Sabres and Bills and is worth north of $7B. The Penn State grad's daughter Jessica is currently ranked #3 in the world in women's tennis.

Speaking of tennis, there is a wide gap between the #2 and #3 ranked tennis player on the men's side. #1 Jan-nik Sinner just beat #2 Carlos Alcaraz at Wimbledon. These two have won the last seven Grand Slam events much like Djokovic and Nadal before them. It's going to be fun watching these two go against each other for the next decade. I cannot watch an entire tennis tournament but thoroughly enjoy watching these 1 vs 2 in the final of a Grand Slam.

Sports continue to be the one constant in life we can turn to for entertainment, excitement and true facts. There's a nobleness for all involved in sports Whether it's a dad or mom giving hours of service often to kids that aren't even their own. College coaches from Div 3 to the highest level changing lives. Pro athletes are not only obsessed and committed to winning and changing their lives but feeding us.

Through it all the one fundamental piece of this country I trust and dive into is sports. It rarely lets me down. Every week I discover an athlete or team I never noticed before and suddenly I find myself rooting for them. In the world of sports, class, politics and race don't vanish but converge into a shared desire. One goal, one team, one win.

In a world that feels a bit more fragmented than ever, sports doesn't. It's still rock solid and getting better. When the lights go on and the games begin, one of the few things I'm rarely disappointed in with America today is sports.

Some of those that talk about sports often disappoint. Stephen A Smith is more entertainer than informant. The fact he is thinking of running for president is absurd. Someone must be watching him as he is the highest paid voice on ESPN. His schtick lacks any knowledge except for taking the opposing view for argument's sake.

His 'First Take' show is infinitely better when Steve is not on the show. Much like 'Get Up' is when Mike Greenberg is not there.

On the other hand, Charles Barkley is always refreshing and speaks his mind no matter the subject. When Barkley talks you listen and learn. He could be a jerk early on in his career but has matured through the years. Barkley does a lot of good deeds behind the scenes and wants no publicity for these.

NFL execs and scouts have ranked each position in football. Jayden Daniels (5) and Justin Herbert (7) higher than #9 Jalen Hurts? Don't believe the rumors of Nick Saban returning to the sidelines. Is LeBron going to be a Laker this year? Keep those suggestions and questions coming at theviewfromhear74@gmail.com and on X ... @theviewfromhear

Congratulations to SkillsUSA National Welding Fabrication Champions

By Kay Poeth

Congratulations to SkillsUSA National Welding Fabrication Competition Champions-Clayton Fegley, Tyler Martin, and Sam Laudenslager all from Snyder County and enrolled at Pennsylvania College of Technology!

A Snyder County team competed in the SkillsUSA National Welding Fabrication Competition in Atlanta Georgia on June 25, 2025. The team consisted of Tyler Martin, Sam Laudenslager, and Clayton Fegley- all from Snyder County. They are all alumni of SUN Area Technical School in New Berlin. They are enrolled at Pennsylvania College of Technology where they study Welding and Fabrication Engineering.

According to Clayton Fegley of McClure, "During the competition we were tasked with making a functional sandbox excavator in 6 hours. After it was all said and done, we walked away national champions, with a gold medal and various prizes!"

According to their website, "SkillsUSA is America's proud champion of the skilled trades. Our mission is to empower students to become skilled professionals, career-ready leaders and responsible community members."

The annual National Leadership and Skills Conference (NLSC), a showcase of career and technical education students, was held in Atlanta, Georgia on June 23-27, 2025. More than 19,019 attendees — including students, teachers and business partners participated in the weeklong event. It was a new record for SkillsUSA!

Students competed hands-on in 107 different trade, technical and leadership fields for national gold, silver, and bronze. Students worked against the clock and each other, proving their expertise in occupations such as electronics, computer-aided drafting, precision machining, medical assisting and culinary arts. Contests are conducted with the assistance of industry, trade associations and labor organizations, and test competencies are set by industry. The week culminated with an Awards Ceremony.

The event is held at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, and it covers over 1.79 million square feet of floor space, the equivalent of 31 football fields! The philosophy of the SkillsUSA Championships is to reward students for excellence, to involve industry in directly evaluating student performance and to keep classroom training relevant to employers' needs.

The SkillsUSA Championships is the national culmination of a year-long process that begins in local SkillsUSA chapters across the country. Local winners advance to district or regional competitions, testing their skills against competitors from other schools. Those winners advance to state competitions each spring, and state gold medalists earn the right to compete nationally at the SkillsUSA Championships each June. Along with gold, silver and bronze medallions, competitors may earn scholarships, tools of the trade, and even job offers right off the competition floor.

"It's always a thrill for PA to hear our state called to the National Stage. In that moment, we are one team embracing the victory at the end of a life-changing journey," said Dodie Amigh, SkillsUSA Pennsylvania-Executive Director.

SV Spinners & Weavers to Host Sally Kahler on August 10

The members of the Susquehanna Valley Spinners & Weavers Guild (SVSWG) represent a wide range of fiber artistry, including knitting, crocheting, felting among other crafts. SVSWG welcomes all fiber artists, not just spinners and weavers. You do not have to be a spinner or weaver to join; however, attendees may just want to learn these crafts from expert members! SVSWG welcomes new members.

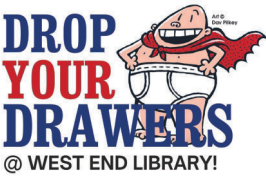

The members ofthe Susquehanna Valley Spinners & Weavers Guild continue to expand their skills and learn new techniques with special presenters and programs. In the month of June, Deborah Jarchow, noted weaving instructor, demonstrated several styles for finishing the fringed edges of a woven piece. Methods included twisting, knotting, and adding beads for a more sophisticated look to a garment edge.

During July, Nancy and Roger Bowman presented a program on raising and caring for Corriedale sheep. Mr. Bowman discussed this breed’s special qualities, why its fleece properties are desired by fiber craftsmen, and shared the steps of how wool is processed from shearing to garment. The crimp and staple length of Corriedale sheep creates an excellent yarn for knitted and woven goods.

On August 10, Sally Kahler will be the guest speaker at Christ’s Evangelical Lutheran Church in Lewisburg. Her program will include ways to decorate fiber arts projects with embroidery and other embellishments. Doors open at 1 pm. Guests are welcome.

The Susquehanna Valley Spinners & WeaversGuild typically meets at Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church on 3rd Street in Lewisburg on the second Sunday of each month, from January to November. A program/activity follows the business meeting. Annual dues are $30. For more information about SVSWG, check out their website at svswg.org. or on Facebook.

Drop Your Drawers Runs September 2–30 at the West End Library

While you’re out shopping for back-to-school essentials, if you spot a great deal on kids’ underwear, socks, or undershirts, consider grabbing an extra pack to help a child in need.

The West End Library’s Drop Your Drawers campaign runs from Tuesday, September 2, through Tuesday, September 30. During this month-long effort, the library will be collecting new, packaged underwear, undershirts, and socks in children’s sizes 4–16. Donations will benefit local families, with all items going to the Mazeppa Manna Food Pantry.

This is the fifth year the West End Library has participated in the Drop Your Drawers campaign, which is easily recognized by the beloved character Captain Underpants, created by author and illustrator Dav Pilkey.

For more information, contact the West End Library at (570) 922-4773 or visit in person at 45 Ball Park Road, Laurelton, PA 17835.

SkillsUSA is a national organization focused on developing personal, workplace, and technical skills among students in career and technical education programs at the secondary and post-secondary levels. “This is a major accomplishment,” said Advisor Brian Lauver. “Each of these students had to be highly skilled in their individual trade. They’re humble, but their performance speaks volumes.”

Throughout the national competition, the team encountered and overcame major challenges.

Cordell Yoder, the team’s electrician, noted that he could not begin his electrical work until the second day and initially doubted he would finish in time. However, Ezra Carr, the team’s carpenter and leader, reassured that Cordell had time to spare by the end.

Benjamin Rowan, who handled HVAC and plumbing duties, recounted a critical error when drilling for toilet installation, only to discover they had hit a joist due to a platform misalignment. Judges informed the team that they could either stop or attempt a fix — but warned that placing would be unlikely.

Refusing to quit, Carr explained how they quickly reorganized. “We raised the wall framing, and Dom [Dominic Scott] was literally bench-pressing the floor,” he said, describing the team’s relentless push to recover and finish strong.

Scott, the team’s mason, faced another challenge: the competition blueprints included a flaw that made a section of block work structurally unfeasible. After he pointed it out, judges determined no team would be penalized for that design issue.

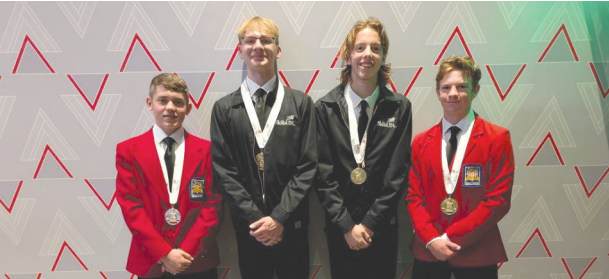

Lauver, who has served as the school’s Carpentry Instructor for the past eight years, praised the students’ dedication and preparation: “What these students accomplished in just two eight-hour days is extraordinary. They came in well-trained by their instructors and worked tirelessly.” He extended his thanks to Mr. Travis Weaver (HVAC), Mr. Van Reichelderfer (Electrical), and Mr. Ryan Swinehart (Masonry) for their contributions to the students’ success. Mr. Lauver also extended his thanks to Mrs. Sarah Krebs and Mr. Jamie Kotarski, SkillsUSA Advisors who assisted in behind the scenes work.

Kristy Etzler, SUN Tech’s Administrative Director, commended the team during the press conference: “Not all high school students get the opportunity to spend 6.5 hours a day mastering their trade. What you accomplished in Atlanta has laid a strong foundation for your future. We are all extremely proud of you.”

Also in attendance were Senator Lynda Culver and State Representatives David Rowe and Stephanie Borowicz, who presented the team, advisor, and school with official citations.

Senator Culver praised the team’s achievement, calling it a proud moment for Central Pennsylvania. Representative Rowe echoed the sentiment, noting, “Businesses in our region tell me they can’t find skilled workers like they can here in Central PA.” Representative Borowicz enthusiastically dubbed the students part of the “Toolbelt Generation,” applauding their readiness to meet the demands of the workforce.

The administration, faculty, and staff of SUN Area Technical Institute extend their heartfelt congratulations to Cordell, Ezra, Ben, and Dom. The school community celebrates their national victory and wishes them continued success in their future careers.

New Berlin, PA – SUN Area Technical Institute proudly hosted a press conference on July 10, 2025, to honor its TeamWorks team, who earned the Gold Medal at the 2025 National SkillsUSA Championships held in Atlanta, Georgia.

The winning team — Cordell Yoder (Middleburg), Dominic Scott (Mifflinburg), Benjamin Rowan (Selinsgrove), and Ezra Carr (Port Trevorton) — outperformed 36 other teams from across the country, placing 1st out of 37 in this elite, multidisciplinary construction competition.

The students, guided by their advisor Brian Lauver, began their winning journey in January by securing first place at the district competition at The Pennsylvania College of Technology in Williamsport. They continued their winning streak by capturing first place at the Pennsylvania state competition in Hershey this April, before going on to achieve national victory.

Another stamp available now is called “250 Years of Delivering.”The pane of 20 interconnecting stamps for $15.60 offers a bird’s eye view of a mail carrier’s route through a bustling town. Laid out in 4 rows of 5, the stamps depict the route throughout four seasons. Created by cartoonist Chris Ware the scene invites the public to spot a fun array of familiar postal items and icons.

The U.S. Postal Service is also marking the 250th anniversaries of the U.S. Army, U.S. Navy and U.S. Marine Corps, a stamp previewing the 2026 World Stamp Show in Boston, and a stamp honoring writer William F. Buckley Jr. The Postal Service describes each stamp as follows:

U.S. Army 250th-Thisstamp celebrates the 250th anniversary of the U.S. Army. Established by the Continental Congress in 1775, the Army is now a global force with a clear purpose: to fight and win America’s wars. Featuring the military service mark of the U.S. Army against a white background, the stamp was designed by Antonio Alcalá, an art director for the USPS.

U.S. Navy 250th-First established during the Revolutionary War as the American colonies fought for independence, the U.S. Navy is now at the forefront of cutting-edge technology that safeguards the maritime interests of the United States, ensuring economic prosperity and the freedom of the seas. Featuring the emblem of the Navy against a white background, this stamp celebrates the U.S. Navy’s 250th anniversary. Antonio Alcalá, an art director for USPS, designed the stamp.

U.S. Marine Corps 250th- The familiar symbolism of a Marine Corps emblem appears on this stamp to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the U.S. Marine Corps. AUCTIONEERING

The United States Postal Service is marking its 250th Anniversary in 2025! Did you know that on July 26, 1775, the Second Continental Congress established a postal system for the United Colonies and appointed Benjamin Franklin as the first postmaster general!

The U.S. Postal Service has issued two special stamps to celebrate its 250th anniversary.One is an exclusive 32-page booklet -Putting a Stamp on the American Experience. It celebrates the cultural importance of U.S. stamps. This booklet is only the fourth ever issued by the Postal Service. It commemorates the 250th anniversary of our nation’s postal system and celebrates the enduring influence of stamps on our shared heritage.

According to the US Postal Service, “Two self-adhesive sheets of a new intaglio printed stamp featuring Benjamin Franklin are available exclusively with the booklet. The stamp is based on an exhibition of the United States. To build anticipation and commemorate this confluence of art, history and international goodwill, two intaglio-printed stamps highlighted the special role of Boston in the American Revolution as we prepare to celebrate the nation’s 250th anniversary. Greg Breeding, an art director for USPS, designed these stamps with digital illustrations by Dan Gretta featuring the Old North Church and a “midnight rider” on horseback in colonial garb.

William F. Buckley, Jr.- One of the most influential public intellectuals in modern U.S. history, William F. Buckley Jr. (1925–2008) defined the conservative movement of the mid-20th century and was one of its most recognizable spokesmen. Author of more than 50 books, Buckley founded National Review, one of the nation’s leading conservative publications, and hosted the Emmy Award-winning public affairs television program Firing Line for more than 30 years. Original art by Dale Stephanos features a portrait of Buckley, created by hand with graphite and charcoal on hot-press watercolor paper, then refined digitally. Greg Breeding, an art director for USPS, designed the stamp.

So, head to your local post office and ask to see the postage stamps celebrating the 250th Anniversary of the U.S. Postal Service.

New Berlin Day 2025 Is Canceled

By Kay Poeth

New Berlin Day has been a central Pennsylvania tradition for more than 50 years. Each year area residents flock to the annual New Berlin Day festivities in search of crafts, antiques, entertainment and delicious food on the fourth Saturday of August.However, this year New Berlin Day has been canceled.

Citing construction work being performed on the Walnut Street Bridge in New Berlin, it would be impossible to host this popular event. There would be nowhere to re-direct traffic through the town. the Activities Committee reluctantlydecided to postpone the event due to concerns for safety, as well as the disruption to the traditional character of the day.

“It is unfortunate timing, coming just as we were planning to re-focus the occasion, adding new historical activities and moving more of the events to the center of town,” noted Kelly Roush, a member of the New Berlin Activities Committee which runs the event.

The New Berlin Activities Committee promises that next year’s event will return with new historical programming in addition to all the antique and craft vendors, strolling musicians, and food stands. So, mark your calendars for the 53rd New Berlin Day scheduled for August 22, 2026!

July's PQG Stitch of News

By Kay Poeth

Here are some local meetings to keep you in stitches during the month of July! Piecemakers Quilt Guild of Susquehanna Valley's Stitch & Gab will meet at the Public Library for Hanna County on Monday, July 21 from 10 am to 3 pm, located at 255 Reitz Blvd. in Lewisburg. Members work on service or individual projects and offer quilting advice and help. New participants are welcomed.

The members of the Piecemakers Quilt Guild of Susquehanna Valley (PQG) continue to expand their skills and learn new techniques with special presenters and programs. During the month of June, guest speakers Peggy Dent and Cynthia Kishbaugh of Quilters in Bloom presented "Fabric Collage," a design option that fuses fabric pieces onto foundation cloth.

Fabric collages are made from many light, medium, and dark pieces of cloth mindfully selected to create a picture. By carefully arranging these various shades, the designer can show a play of light and shadow on objects, much like a watercolor, oil, or pastel picture. Thread painting and other embellishment techniques can be added to make fabric collages more realistic. Fabric collage lends itself beautifully to abstract design as well.

Dent and Kishbaugh shared many examples of their work. There is no limitation to what an image can become a fabric collage.

The Piecemakers Quilt Guild (PQG) of Susquehanna Valley members will meet at 1:30 pm on Sunday, July 27 at the East Buffalo Township Building on Fairground Rd. in Lewisburg for their annual picnic. The regular meeting and program will resume on August 24 when members will share various quilting techniques. Join us for an opportunity to meet new quilting friends and learn more about quilting techniques.

Bridge Closure Advisory West Buffalo Township

Lewisburg, PA: Please be advised that Johnstown Road (T-394) in West Buffalo Township, Union County will have detours in place starting July 28th; 2025 due to a bridge construction project located approximately 650 feet south of the Red Bank Road intersection. The roadway will be closed to through traffic during construction which could last for up to 12 weeks. Motorists should follow the posted detour routes during this time.

The bridge is being replaced as part of a larger multi-municipal bridge improvement program being facilitated by Union County that will replace six locally owned bridges in poor condition within five partnering municipalities. The project is made possible through Multimodal Transportation Fund grants from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation and the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development.

Go Joe 28 Stache for Cash Features Stops in Snyder & Union Counties

By Kay Poeth

Joe Snedecker, popular WNEP meteorologist and local icon, is gearing up for his 28th annual Go Joe fundraising bike ride, benefiting the St. Joseph's Center in Scranton. Go Joe 28 kicks off on Monday, July 21, at Marywood University for this annual 5-day charity bike ride. He will ride approximately 100 miles per day.

While last year was the Year of the Inflatables, this year's theme is Stash for Cash so don a snazzy mustache for the occasion! According to WNEP, "News-watch 16's Jack Culkun, along with his mustache, will follow Joe all week to bring you conditions and updates on our Pedaling Meteorologist!"

On Tuesday, Joe will be starting his day's journey with an Early Bird morning crowd of well-wishers from 6-7 am at Borough Park in Riverside traveling through Danville, Northumberland, Sunbury, and Shamokin Dam.

He has a noon stop scheduled for Selinsgrove Commons. Area residents can greet Joe and present their donations. Don't forget your real and fake mustaches! Have your camera and photos ready for selfie shots.

Joe Snedecker will also be visiting the Snyder County Courthouse on Tuesday, July 22. Joe is expected to arrive in Middleburg around 2 pm. There will be food trucks in the parking lot from 11:30am-3:30pm featuring Simply Bowls, Son of a Butcher, and Shake Your Buns & Do the Twist.

The Courthouse staff raised funds for Go Joe 28 by hosting a Pet Photo Contest in honor of All American Pet Photo Day on July 11 and National Pet Safety Day on July 15 with 51 entries. Kate Reid will present the donation to Joe Snedecker after he pedals in. Other residents are invited to greet Joe and present their donations as well.

"We're certainly happy to welcome Joe (Snedecker) during his annual fundraising trek across the WNEP viewing area. We wish him well and support his continued efforts to raise funds for such a worthy cause," said Snyder County Commissioner Adam Ewig.

Afterwards, Go Joe 28 heads to Union County trekking through New Berlin Lewisburg, and Milton Lodge 171. He stops for the evening from 4:00- 6:30 pm at Montour-Delong Community Fair in Washingtonville.

Joe Snedecker's cross-region journey will take him through parts of Central Pennsylvania before entering Schuylkill County on Friday, July 25, where supporters can cheer him on as he pedals through a series of local towns and landmarks. Joe concludes his journey on Friday, July 25, just as the St. Joseph's Center Festival Telethon begins on WNEP-TV!

Saint Joseph's Center is rooted in the core values of care, concern, compassion and commitment. Saint Joseph's humbly serves people who are diagnosed with intellectual disability and those who seek pregnancy support, adoption assistance, outpatient therapy or medical day care services. The Center strives to provide individuals who have special needs the opportunity to develop their abilities and potential to the fullest extent possible. St. Joseph's Center has been a recognized leader in providing quality care for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Donation checks can be made payable to: St. Joseph's Center, note on check "Go Joe 28" and mailed to 2010 Adams Avenue, Scranton, PA 18509.
