By Jamiee Joiner

The sun was shining almost as brightly as the shiny and beautiful cars that lined Market Street in Selinsgrove for this year's Fifth Annual Wheels in the Grove. Held on Thursday, August 7, 2025, and hosted by Selinsgrove Rotary, this event sure brought out the people as it has gained in popularity and attendance each year.

Rotarian, Tom Gates, said, "We came up with the idea to host a car show towards the end of Covid as a fundraiser and to get the community out together. We originally had the idea of having it at the Selinsgrove Speedway, but it was quickly dismissed due to the dust. Then, we discussed closing down Market Street and having it downtown." He further stated that "we started with almost 100 cars the first year, and this year, we have 164."

I meandered down Selinsgrove's main drag checking out all of the vehicles. There was everything from classic Chevy SS muscle cars to sleek, new sports cars, to big pickups to registered antique timepieces. As an auto enthusiast myself, I find this event to continuously be one of my favorite nights of the year in Selinsgrove.

I spoke with Barry Thomas of Northumberland who was showing his 1941 Willy's Coupe which he has owned for about one year. We happened to be driving behind this beauty on the way to the event, and we were fascinated by the clean, smooth, dark red exterior which did not show any imperfections whatsoever. He said, "It's been a dream car of mine." He told me how it took him some time to save up the money, and he went to Connecticut to purchase it. He has done some work underneath it since he bought it, and when I asked how long he spends each week on keeping it clean, he stated, "I work on it almost every day, about fifteen hours a week. I pop the hood, polish it, and polish the wheels, and I buff it all the time."

I walked away a fan of Barry Thomas's vehicle and also of his passion for keeping his Willy's Coupe pristine. I had to go back to inquire how he gets in his vehicle since there are no door handles. He told me, "I press a key fob, and the door pops open."

Jackson Sechler, Jr., of Winfield, entered his beautiful 1969 Chevy Corvette in the show, which he purchased brand new when he was sixteen years old for $13,000. It now has 79,000 miles on it, and he enjoys bringing it out to shows to proudly share its gorgeousness with everyone in attendance. I asked him what shade of red his corvette is, and I found it interesting that he said, "It's a Chevy, but the color of it is called Mazda Red."

Dante Hornberger, of Middleburg, brought two of his vehicles to the show. One was a 2017 Ford Mustang which was a charcoal gray beast with the sleek body style that I like and looked like it probably had a nice growl when started up. It was immaculately kept and just an overall hot car in general. He also brought along his 2006 Ford F-250 Pickup which he has owned for about five years and purchased from his brother. I asked him if he had to pick one, which one of his two would he choose? He said, "The truck. It was my first newer vehicle, and I like taking it to truck shows in Atlantic City and Carlisle."

I came across a 1946 Chevrolet Rat Rod owned by Jason Mitchell of Mifflinburg. This unique automobile has a custom frame, Chevy cab, a Ford drivetrain, and a whole lot of décor which adds to the feral personality of this vehicle. It has a bear paw, a stick shifter nearly as high as the ceiling's interior but is an automatic, and the widest tires I think I have ever seen at 22 inches wide. I would describe this vehicle's look as bada, and it seems appropriate with the phrase, "Is there a problem officer?" painted directly above the driver's side door.

There were so many cool vehicles to see. This article would be ten pages long if I told you about each one, so I will tell you about a few more of my favorite noteworthy entries from the show. While I have seen Garrett Gelnett's 1982 Ford Econo-line Van in year's past, this van is just a whole vibe itself. It's decked out with a super cozy looking interior complete with a couch, boombox, framed erotic artwork on the interior wall, and even a disco ball. It is definitely the kind of van you don't want your daughter to get into.

Some of my other favorites were Northumberland resident, Gary's Brandt's white 1965 Ford Mustang with navy blue racing stripes down it, and Dan and Bonnie Aleta of Selinsgrove's 1957 Chevrolet Bel-Air, a true classic car and remarkably pristine engine, interior, and exterior. Pennsylvania antique historic vehicles were brought by Scherry and Travis Moore, of Selinsgrove, who showed their 1952 Studebaker Pickup Truck, and Jeff Bidelsbach, of Sunbury, who showed his 1936 Ford Pickup which had a beautiful sea foam green and white custom paint job and a wood planked truck bed. Ronald Kline, of Winfield, displayed his 1951 Chevrolet 3100 truck and boasted a smooth black matte finish exterior. Winfield resident, Dean Wolfgang brought his 1973 glossy white Chevrolet Corvette, and Danielle Koreck, also of Winfield, showed off her hunter green 1960 Buick LeSabre. Harold Reich, of Sunbury, brought his 1932 Chevy Cabriolet Deluxe which was kept in near-perfect condition for being almost one hundred years old. Steve Reed, of Sunbury, brought his classic 1969 Ford Thunderbird. Tracey Miloro, of Selinsgrove, brought her hot pink 1986 Chevrolet Corvette which looked like it was plucked right out of the 80's and put on Market Street. Bradley Cromley, of Lewisburg, impressed with his classic black 1968 Chevrolet Chevelle muscle car.

I could go on because there were just that many awesome cars there. For now, I will tell you that if you didn't make it to this year's Wheels in the Grove, you missed out, because you won't see a better visual sea of the most immaculately kept vehicles in the heart of Selinsgrove any other day of the year. A big thank you goes out to this year's gold sponsors, Selinsgrove Ford, John Fischer, Tom and Anne Gates, Marty Blessing, Isabella's Restaurant, and State Farm Agent Chris Kenawell.

Obituaries

Ernest E. Mook, 87, Mifflinburg

Ernest entered into rest at 12:25 a.m. on August 8, 2025, at Watsonstown Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

He was born on November 15, 1937, in Lewisburg, a son of the late Willard and Beatrice (Reitenbach) Mook. On January 19, 1957, he married the former Jane (Oberdorf) Mook, who survives. Together, they shared 68 years of memories.

A graveside service was held Saturday, August 16, 2025, at Forest Hill Cemetery.

Eli Martin Reiff, 64, Mifflinburg

Eli entered into rest at his home on August 8, 2025, following a 2½-year journey with ALS.

He was born on February 1, 1961, in Leola, a son of the late Eli E. Reiff Jr. and Barbara H. (Martin) Reiff. On April 8, 1982, he married the former Kathleen M. (Martin) Reiff, who survives.

A viewing was held Tuesday, August 12, at his nephew's home.

Getting Ahead Foundation Receives $6,500 ConAgra Brands Grant

The Getting Ahead Foundation (GAF) is proud to announce it has received a $6,500 grant from the Conagra Brands Foundation to support its "Nourish and Thrive" program—an initiative that helps families build confidence in the kitchen while promoting healthy eating habits at home.

Nourish and Thrive is a hands-on culinary education experience designed for participants of the Foundation's Getting Ahead programs. Each class offers simple, nutritious, and budget-friendly recipes, along with practical cooking tips to empower families to prepare meals at home. Participants not only cook during class but also receive the ingredients and instructions to recreate the meal with their families.

"This program does more than teach cooking—it builds life skills, boosts confidence, and helps families connect over a shared meal," said Rose Willams, GAF Founder. "Thanks to the Conagra Brands Foundation, we can continue to equip families with the tools they need to thrive both in and out of the kitchen."

Program graduate Lydia M. shared, "I like that the program was tailored to fit different lifestyles and dietary requirements, making healthy eating achievable for everyone."

The Nourish and Thrive program supports the broader mission of the Getting Ahead Foundation: to empower individuals and families to move from instability to stability through education, support, and community-driven opportunities.

The Conagra Brands Foundation prioritizes funding efforts that address food insecurity and support equitable access to nutrition education—values that directly align with the goals of Nourish and Thrive.

The Heritage Association of New Berlin will be Showcasing the New Berlin Museum

The Heritage Association of New Berlin will be showcasing the New Berlin Museum on Saturday August 23 from 10 till 2. We will have light refreshments as you take a trip thru time back in the early days of New Berlin.

The Heritage Association of New Berlin is offering a "Gabriel" casting made and given as a fundraiser by QCast of New Berlin. We are asking a donation of $45 for each Gabriel. It has stood as a symbol of faith and, can be found at numerous places around town, most obvious on the roof of the UCC church across from our post office. These beautiful castings are made of aluminum and covered with a gold powder. Each casting comes in a beautiful gold box ready for giving as a gift. For more information our museum is open the 3rd Sunday of each month thru Labor Day 1 till 4. You can also call 570-966-3711 to secure one of these beautiful statues.

Yoder Snookers Snook for Feature Win at Clinton County Speedway

Edited by Debbie Gastelu

Two of the area's best Limited Late Model drivers put on a show for the fans on Friday night at the Clinton County Speedway. A late race pass in lapped traffic secured the win for Andrew Yoder of Middleburg, edging out Lane Snook of Port Royal. Jay Fannasy of Mechanicsburg won the Winged Sportsman feature, Cory Long of Selingsgrove won the Pro Stock, Jeffrey Weaver of Lock Haven won the 270 Micro Sprints and Matt Weaver of Madisonburg won the 4-Cylinders.

Andrew Yoder started on the outside of the front row for the start of the annual Len Stroud Jr. Memorial 25-lap race for the Limited Late Models. Snook, who started sixth, moved into second place by the completion of lap number two. On lap 11, Yoder slid high in turn two allowing Snook to take the lead.

On lap fifteen, the leaders were in lapped traffic with Snook leading, Andrew Yoder, Dylan Yoder, Toner, and Smith. As Snook weaved his way through lapped traffic, Yoder was able to close in. Coming out of turn four with 2 laps remaining, Snook tried to go under a lapped car, as Yoder took the outside line. Yoder made the pass coming out of turn number four to lead the lap as the leaders came to the white flag. Yoder held on to win the race, his second consecutive Stroud Memorial.

The winged sportsman made their first ever appearance at the speedway. John Edkin and Scott Dellinger led the field to the drop of the green flag. Fourth place starter, Jay Fannasy, quickly moved into the third position followed by Mike Enders and Kenny Edkin. At the halfway point, John Edkins was in a close battle with Dellinger and Fannasy. On the next circuit, Fannasy made a move and passed both Dellinger and Edkin to take the lead. Fannasy led the remaining laps to secure the victory.

In the Pro Stock feature event fourth place starter Cory Long raced to the front and took the lead by the completion of lap number two. Seventh place starter AJ Hoffman took the second spot on lap 2, while eighth place starter, Brandon Moser took the third position on lap four. The top three remained unchanged for the duration of the event.

In the 270 Micro event, Jeffery Weaver jumped into the lead from this fourth starting spot by the completion of lap number one. By lap five, Weaver was leading Michael Petock, Cory Stabley, Andrew Petock, and Mac Wert. Weaver went unto win. In the 4-cylinder event, Matt Weaver charged from this third place starting position to the front of the pack. Weaver led the first lap and paced the field to lead every lap.

Barry Camp and Mark Smith Honored As Living Legends At Port Royal Speedway

By Brad Strawser and Debbie Gastelu

This past Saturday night at Port Royal Speedway honored two local racers; Barry Camp of Benfer (near Beaver Springs) and Mark Smith of Sunbury. Each year the track holds the Living Legends Dream Race and Barry and Mark were selected this year. The Livings Legends Dream race is in its 19th year was created to celebrate the careers of standout drivers and contributors to the sport that have left a lasting mark on Port Royal Speedway and the racing community.

Snyder County native Barry Camp raced against the fiercest weekly competition in the country. His ability to adapt, read a racetrack, and keep his equipment in contention earned him a reputation as one of the most respected and well-rounded drivers in Central PA.

"Nothing could be nicer than being honored as a legend at Port Royal Speedway. That's the truth. It couldn't be a nicer thing to do. There is no end to what it means to you."

Camp has collected feature wins at Port Royal Speedway and other Central Pennsylvania tracks, while competing against some of the top names in the sport in the area's storied history.

Over the years, Camp's path crossed with many of the sport's toughest competitors, leading to rivalries on the track and friendships off it. The one driver that came to mind for Camp was a driver who may be tough to beat, but Camp described him as the brother that he never had. That driver is the Man from Mifflintown Keith Kauffman.

"I've met a lot of good friends at Port Royal and a lot of them are drivers, including Keith Kauffman, he's like a brother to me. He's just a terrific guy. I could write a book on Kauffman. He's one of the best drivers I've ever raced against. Doug Wolfgang is number one but Keith is right there with him."

Mark Smith makes his home in Sunbury, Pennsylvania. Smith has earned a reputation as both a fierce competitor and an innovator. With success spanning 410 and 360 sprint car competitions, Smith finds himself in the midst of the sport's greats and holds the 12th most all-time wins at Port Royal Speedway in 410 sprint car competition. Known for his mechanical knowledge and ability to set up his own cars, Smith has been a threat to win anytime he unloads.

"This isn't an honor or award I ever thought of trying to win. Even up to getting chosen, I never thought of myself as a "Living Legend." I just unload the car and get ready to race every weekend."

Smith's career highlights include numerous United Racing Club (URC) victories, wins with the Empire Super Sprints and Patriot Sprint Tour, and a strong record in national events with the Lucas Oil ASCS Sprint Car Dirt Series.

Lucky for us, Mark is still active and very competitive in the 410 and 360 sprint car competitions.

Dietrich Sweeps Twin 20's for $10,500, Mike Melair Becomes 6th Different Winner in 305 Competition

By Bert Wojcik

Selingsgrove's Mike Walter in the #33 Sprint car had a great run Saturday night finishing second to the #48 of Danny Dietrich who ended up winning both Twin 20 lappers. Photo by Debbie Gastelu

They say two is better than one. Selingsgrove Speedway put that to the test on Friday night with First Responders Night presented by Heister House Millworks, Len Krauthem Auto Sales and Aurand's Towing featuring twin 20's for the High Caliber Cranes 410 Sprint Cars. Twice was just as nice for Gettysburg's Danny Dietrich sweeping both 20 lap feature events and walking out of Selingsgrove Speedway with $10,500 in winnings and a guaranteed starting spot in the Living Legends Dream Race at Port Royal Saturday night. Warrington, PA's Mike Melair to become the 6th different winner in 6 races for the Keller Auto Body PASS 305 Sprint Cars at Selingsgrove in 2025.

19 High Caliber Cranes 410 Sprint Cars signed in for action Friday night. Dietrich and Medford, NJ Justin Whittall set the front row. Whittall one week removed from a hellacious wreck at the Knoxville Raceway. Knocked off the rust early by getting a $100 quick time bonus from Finch Moser in qualifying.

"Just my Luck" Whittall said. The bleeder line came apart and just screwed us. But found some speed at the end of it and going to build off it. "

Dietrich was given four options in victory lane. First was to invert the finish of the top 7. Second was to pull an invert of a 4 6 8 or 9. Third $300 to start 8th and invert the top 7. Fourth $400 to start 10th and invert the top 9. After consideration. Dietrich chose to take the $300 and start 8th. With that putting Selingsgrove's Mike Walter and Enloa's Kody Lehman on the front row for twin 20 number 2.

Green flag dropped on the second feature. Selingsgrove's Mike Walter would take the lead. Just past halfway. Walter was struggling with lap traffic and opened the top up for Dietrich to get the momentum and use a slide job to get around Walter to take the lead. Dietrich would slide up. Walter would try to get back under him but the 48's momentum was too great as he would clear and start to pull away from the field and that was all she wrote.

While in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. The promotional team of Colin Rice, Paula Schick and Jenna Mowery presented a surprise bonus of $2,000 to Danny Dietrich for sweeping both features. Plus an extra $200 for being the combine hard charger at +7 making it a $10,500 payday for the Gary Kauffman 48 team.

"Was able to get a good start at the second feature." Dietrich said in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. "It was easy to take the $300 and start 8th to keep Whittall back with us as he's been running really well. He was definitely the biggest competition tonight. Hats off to the track crew and this place is smooth. You could go anywhere you want. It's important to come up to Selingsgrove no matter when they race or who they race against up here."

To hold Danny off that long was a pleasure." Walter said. "We had a really good feature. Anything that could happen to me happens in the first feature. But happy to be up here and happy to beat Justin Whittall."

27 Keller Auto Body PA Sprint Series 305's signed in for action on Friday for their 6th race of the season at Selingsgrove. Most of the race was dominated by Beaver Springs Drew Young leading the first 13 laps. But lap traffic would slow up Young and that would let Melair close and get the lead off of Young in turns one and two. The fight was not over as Beech Creek's Timmy Bitner and Selingsgrove's Ken Duke Jr. Would make it a 4 car fight for the lead. "It started to get sketchy up on the top of three and four." Melair said in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. "I had a clean lane up top most of the race and used it to get around Young."

Clinton County Down to the Final Point Race, Selinsgrove Twin 20's for 410 Sprints

This Friday night is the final point show for Clinton County speedway with four divisions point events coming down to the final night. Looking at the Laurel Highland 305-sprints John Walp of Knox PA is on top with 1510 while Selinsgrove driver Ken Duke is second 80-points back at 1430. Also with a shot at the title are Dale Schweikart 1400 and Matt Tebbs at 1320. In the Pro-Stock class, AJ Hoffman of Richfield is on top with 2110, 70-markers ahead of AY Schilling with 2040, third is Mill Hall driver Denny Fournery with 1970, 140 out of first place. In the four-cylinder class Larry Beachel of New Columbia is on top with 2570, 110 in front of Coty Maines of Jersey Shore at 2460, Garrett Lucas is 200 out with 2370. In the 270 Micro-Sprint class Mac Wert of McVey town is on top with 2600 with last year's champ, Cory Stabley Blancherd 2470. Andrew Yoder of Middleburg clinched the limited late model title with his win last week his second win of the season Yoder finished with 710, a 200 margin over Jennifer Leshar at 510 then Joe Lusk with 490, Lane Snook 480 and Maddox Smith 470. Racing last Friday at Clinton County had their first ever appearance by the Winged Sportsman class with Jay Fantasy scoring the 20-lap feature win over Scott Dellinger who was 3.345 second back in second place. The feature only took 5:15.753 seconds to run with nine drivers completing all 20-laps. The win for Yoder in the limited late model class came on a last lap pass over Lane Snook. The two drivers exchanged the lead twice with Yoder leading early, then Snook, until the last lap pass by Andrew. The race to honor Len Stroud Jr earned $1,200 for Yoder. Dylan Yoder of Middleburg made his first start of the year in the Robinson #50R and drove to a third-place finish. JR Toner and Trent Merkel were next in line. Cory Long of Selinsgrove drove his second feature win of the season after a few weeks of bad luck he had his #00 working holding off point leader, AJ Hoffman, for the feature win. Brandon Moser, Denny Fournery and AY Schilling were in the top five. Four Cylinder action had Matt Weaver winning his fourth race of the year over Hunter Flook and Zak Kline. In this division, along with the four wins by Weaver, Zak Kline and Larry Beachel also have four wins. Jeff Weaver scored his fifth win of the season over Michael Petock, Mac Wert and Cory Stabley. Getting back to the Pro-Stock class, they have had four drivers win two races Denny Fournery, AJ Hoffman, AJ Stroup and Cory Long with Tommy Dawson and AY Schilling getting one win each. After this Friday, there is one more race set for Clinton County on Saturday September 20th for the Fall Clash with super late models along with the 305-sprints. Also, there is an open event for the tracks four-cylinders class.

Friday night at Selinsgrove in the twin 20's for the 410-sprints Danny Dietrich scored the wins in both features the first win was over Jeff Halligan, Justin Whittall, Blane Heimbach and Austin Bishop. The second event had Mike Walter of Selinsgrove second, with Whittall third, Kody Lehman and Blane Heimbach in the top five, In PASS 305-sprint, Mike Melair scored the feature win over Ken Duke of Selinsgrove, Drew Young of Beaver Springs, Timmy Bittner and Logan Spahr. Melair became the sixth different winner in the 305-class this year at Selinsgrove others picked up wins by Doug Dodson, Kruz Kepner, Logan Spahr, Paul Moyer and Ken Duke. There are a lot of local racers in the 305-class with drivers from Kreamer, Beaversprings and Winfield on the win list. Three more events are on the schedule for the 305-sprint yet this year at Selinsgrove on Saturday September 13th, September 19th and 26th The next race for the speedway comes up on Sunday August 31st for the Paul Long Memorial for the Super Late models paying $10,063 to win along with the Limited Late models racing for $2,563 to win along with Wingless Sportsman's.

The Living Legends races were held at Port Royal Speedway Saturday night as they honored two sprint car drivers, Barry Camp of Beavertown and Mark Smith. Smith, who is still racing, is from Sunbury. Chase Dietz scored the big 410-sprint car feature win and collected $20,000 for the win which was over Ashton Torgerson, Lance Dewease, Brock Zearfoss and Danny Dietrich. In the super late model race, which was a tune up for the Lucas Oil series races that come up this weekend, Satterlee won. Max Blair was heading to a easy feature win Saturday night in the super late model 25-lap feature until his engine let go on his #111 with eight laps left in the feature. That handed the lead to Gregg Satterlee, who went on to score his third Port Royal feature win this year and tenth overall this season. Rick Eckert gave chase was second with Beavertown driver Hayes Mattern, in third for his best finish there this year, Justin Weaver and Colton Flinner. This Friday night, the winner will get $10,000 and with the Saturday final they will receive $50,000 in part of the Crown Jewel races that are on the Lucas Oil speed early in the night and are not too bad in our heat race. But come feature time, we are just a little bit off. We just need to work on the balance a little bit. I was just not as comfortable late in the night as I was early in the night. I felt like it is the rear of the car. What we need to work on more is to get the balance right. It is just not quite what I am looking for when I am in the feature. We are chasing some of the best drivers in the business that have been here for a couple of weeks, so it is nothing to hang our heads about. We are content where we are at, but we really what to get a win, it has been a while since that happened. We have nothing to hang our heads down about this run tonight. We have speed and are in contention We just need to put a whole night together. The track was a little bit different tonight than it usually is. It had more traction and a little brown which was nice. We just need to tighten the car up more for the end of the night.

The Little League World Series will be wrapping up this weekend after another successful tournament that brought the world to our backyard. The skill level of these kids continue to amaze me. Their baseball fundamentals are at times better than the big leaguers.

The MLB Little League Classic has been played every year since 2017 at Historic Bowman Field. This game has been a huge success. What a thrill for the Little Leaguers and their coaches! Watching the pros interact with the young players and slide down the hill at Lamade Stadium makes us all feel like kids again. Baseball has been and always will be a kid's game.

Did you know that Boog Powell was the first baseball player to play in both the Little League and Major League World Series? Ed Vosberg was the first to play in the Little, College and Major league World Series. He was followed by Jason Varitek and Michael Conforto as the only trio to complete this trifecta.

Many of the kids that played in Williamsport will return home and start football or soccer practice the next day. Others will continue playing baseball in a fall league. It seems more youth, both boys and girls are choosing to specialize in one sport year round.

When is the right time for your kid to play just one sport if that is their choice? This is probably not as big of an issue in our rural area. Families and kids feel pressure to choose one sport to specialize in. It's very hard to walk into each season of a new sport and compete against kids who have been playing that sport all year.

Back when I played a long time ago you walked off the football field and onto the wrestling mat or basketball court. Then you and your friends played baseball, tennis or golf. Back then my school didn't have track & field or a soccer team.

I believe playing more than just one sport will benefit you in the long run. You learn mental toughness and dealing with failure in baseball. In basketball the pace is fast and defenders are in your face challenging you.

Then there's football, it's hot, you're in pads and you're getting hit. You wake up sore and think there is no way you can practice that day. Those two-a-day practices teach you toughness and perseverance. My most vivid and cherished memories of high school are those practices twice a day.

There are two solutions or realities to all of this. Parents have to figure out if their goal is immediate, short-time results. If your son or daughter is 11 or 12 years old and maybe not as good as others, they commit to one sport and get good quicker.

The question is, is their ceiling at 17 going to be as high as a singular sport teenager than it would have been if they exposed themselves to other sports along the way? I think it is good to be exposed to different lessons, coaching styles and teammates as often as you can. Are we raising our twelve year old to be a professional athlete or a professional person?

Expose your kids to as many different sports and activities as possible at a young age. Teach them how to compete and the value of failure. Some kids have never experienced failure. I've always said I wanted my kids to start experiencing failure when they still came home to mom and dad instead of later in life. We can help them develop skill sets for dealing with those emotions.

You don't want anyone to lose and you don't want someone to show up and not care to win. They need a winning approach in life.

Some people will do anything to win. Being a 'Michigan Man' takes on a whole new meaning this week. Add liar, cheater and stealer to those traits. This is a program that used to levitate above the rest of college football with an inflated ego. Their aura was blown up by doing things the right way or 'The Michigan Way' will forever be remembered as a cheat.

Michigan was caught stealing signs by filming opponents' sidelines during games to decode their signals. The program was also found to have engaged in impermissible recruiting and communications.

The NCAA penalties for Michigan did not come close to matching the transgressions. Basically it was nothing more than a $30M fine which a deep pocketed booster can take care of with the stroke of a pen. There were no wins and scholarships taken away and they still keep their national championship from 2023. Shame on the NCAA.

In contrast, the Fordham basketball program was penalized by the NCAA in April for excessive entertainment expenses of $10K while hosting recruits. The NCAA limit is $75 per day which goes a lot faster in NYC than Ann Arbor. They went bowling and to a Giants game and The US Open tennis tournament as well as getting photos taken in Times Square.

Fordham basketball had to vacate 41 games and are under three years probation. Two of the eight recruits involved signed on at Fordham and were later deemed ineligible after enrollment. Talk about double standards! The NCAA should be disbanded because of their feckless management.

Who is the only baseball team not to be swept in a series this year? Let's hope Phils starting pitcher Zach Wheeler recovers completely from his blood clot procedure, both for his health and for the Phillies chance to win the World Series. Speaking of recovering from a procedure...Eagle's guard Landon Dickerson showed up with beers to share with his teammates a couple days after having knee surgery.

The Big Ten is talking about expanding the college football playoffs to 24 or 28 teams. This is pure lunacy and will make the regular season a farce. The proposal would include seven automatic bids to the BIG and SEC and five to the ACC and Big 12. Why even play the regular season?

I received over 20 responses to my Top 8 college blue blood question from last week. It was no surprise that everyone included Penn State. Next week's edition will include a high school fall sports preview as well as pro and college football predictions.

The Cincinnati Reds have yet to be swept in a series this year. Questions and comments are welcome at theviewfromhear74@gmail.com and on X ... @theviewfromhear with special presenters and programs. In the month of August, fiber artist Sally Kahler presented a program on how to embellish fiber garments, accessories, and home goods through slow stitching, or embroidery. After providing a brief history of this art, members had an opportunity to design and practice various stitches on cloth. Slow stitching can be done on materials other than woven or knitted fabric such as paper or leaves.

Melissa Diamanti and Alice James will be the featured speakers at the October 12 meeting. The topic will be "Central American Weaving." The presentation will include a PowerPoint program and woven examples of this colorful weaving technique.

The members the Susquehanna Valley Spinners & Weavers Guild (SVSWG) will be demonstrating their skills and talents on the evening of September 19 at the Beaver Community Fair. "We are excited about reaching out to Western Snyder County."

The Susquehanna Valley Spinners & Weavers Guild typically meets at Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church on 3rd Street in Lewisburg on the second Sunday of each month, from January to November. A program/activity follows the business meeting. Annual dues are $30. For more information about SVSWG, check out their website at svswg.org, or on Facebook.

LEWISBURG

Lewisburg Sunset Rotary Club Welcomes Marcy Benner

Marcy Benner (L) of Haven to Home Canine Rescue is presented with contributions by Lewisburg Sunset Rotary Club's Cara Glazer. The money will go towards the care of homeless dogs in our area until their "Forever Homes" are found.

The Lewisburg Sunset Rotary Club welcomed Marcy Benner of Haven to Home Caine Rescue as guest speaker at its August meeting. Haven to Home is an all-volunteer organization, founded in 2008. It has rescued, fostered, and found forever homes for more than 2,500 dogs across central Pennsylvania. The organization is always looking for loving, qualified individuals to foster homeless dogs until their forever families are found. The Heaven to Home website is: www.haventohome.org.

Sue Auman Named Director of The Miller Center

McNally, who moves into a system role as Senior Director – Strategy Execution for WellSpan Health. Auman began her new role May 5.

Auman’s appointment comes as part of the joint venture between WellSpan Evangelical Community Hospital and Geisinger to support the Center’s mission to deliver premier wellness, fitness, and recreation services for the region.

Auman brings extensive leadership experience to the role, with more than 20 years working in nonprofit management, community health, and social services. She most recently served as Chief Engagement Officer of the Community Action Association of Pennsylvania and previously led the Union-Snyder Community Action Agency. Throughout her career, she has focused on advancing health and wellness initiatives, building strong community partnerships, and improving access to essential services.Auman holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Oregon State University.

“I am honored to join The Miller Center and excited to work alongside WellSpan Evangelical and Geisinger to continue building a healthier, stronger community,” said Auman. “The Miller Center is a true community asset, and I look forward to expanding its programs and partnerships to make an even greater impact on the well-being of individuals and families in our region.”

Kendra Aucker, Senior Vice President, North Region, and President, WellSpan Evangelical Community Hospital, added, “Sue’s experience in community health leadership and her passion for creating meaningful partnerships make her a tremendous asset to The Miller Center and to the greater Lewisburg community. We are confident her leadership will drive innovation and growth in our efforts to improve the overall health and wellness of those we serve.”

CSO Receives $20,000 Grant From M&T Charitable Foundation

Central Susquehanna Opportunities, Inc. (CSO) is proud to announce it has been awarded a $20,000 grant from The M&T Charitable Foundation in support of its new Mini Mobile Food Pantry initiative. This generous funding will directly support CSO’s ongoing mission to strengthen food access for individuals and families facing food insecurity across the Central Susquehanna Valley.

The Mini Mobile Food Pantry will expand CSO’s outreach to underserved and rural communities by delivering essential food items directly to neighborhoods where traditional food resources are limited or difficult to access. This innovative program aligns with CSO’s broader efforts to remove barriers to self-sufficiency and promote long-term community well-being.

“We are deeply grateful to The M&T Charitable Foundation for their investment in our work and our community,” said Megan Bair, CEO of Central Susquehanna Opportunities, Inc. “This grant will allow us to take an important step forward in ensuring that our neighbors, especially in remote and rural areas, don’t have to choose between putting gas in their car or food on their table. The Mini Mobile Food Pantry brings hope and nourishment right to their doorsteps.”

Dale-Engle-Walker House Tour on August 24 at 2 pm

The house was built c. 1793 by immigrant Samuel Dale (1741-1804). The Dale family continued owning the farm, while renting it out to tenant farmers, until 1929. The Engles operated a dairy and vegetable farm in the 1930s and ‘40s. The Walkers updated the house and farm and bequeathed the property to the Union County Historical Society.

This historic site includes the c. 1789 Kantz log cabin, a frontier trading cabin from the Tuscarora Indian Path at Middlecreek, donated to the society and reassembled at the Dale-Engle-Walker site. Also on site is the Engle’s milk house and the wagon shed with early farm implements.

Tours are free; donations are accepted toward the preservation of this important historic site.

Show Us Your Kitties!

LEWISBURG — Cherished Cats Rescue Alliance and The Scratching Post want you to Show Us Your Kitties!

Are you a cat lover living in a lovely downtown neighborhood in Lewisburg? Do your feline friends enjoy lounging in windows and watching the world go by? Then you (and your cats) might be the purr-fect fit for a fun, new fundraising idea.

Cherished Cats Rescue Alliance is planning a guided walking tour through historic downtown

Lewisburg, where participants will get to meet some of the area’s local felines -right from the comfort of their own windowsills (or front yards, porch etc). It is our hope that the event will be a unique and joyful celebration of cats, neighbors, and local charm while simultaneously raising funds for a pilot program which will offer a low cost spay/neutering option for locally owned pet cats.

We’re currently looking for downtown residents who might be interested in showcasing their cats as part of the tour. No firm commitment is needed yet - we’re simply gauging interest at this stage. The event will take place on a Saturday in October as part of our month-long celebration of National Cat Week.

If you or someone you know might want to be part of the tour, please take a moment to fill out email megan@cherishedcats.org

Let’s make downtown a destination for cat lovers!

Lewisburg Sunrise Rotary News

July 16, 2025 – Rotary International’s July Theme is Maternal and Child’s Health Month. Our guests were Ruth Ortiz, who works for Tapestry for Health, Women Infant and Children (WIC) Program since 2006 as a Client Assistant and since 2021 as a Bilingual Community Health worker. She helps clients in their women’s health services and the Dental Smiles program. Robin Johnson, who works with Ruth, is a Nutrition Assistant. She has been with the WIC program for 37 years. She works with families to address their needs and well-being. The WIC program is part of the Family Health Council of Central PA. Collectively, the Tapestry of Health WIC Programs serve over 12,000 participants monthly providing: Comprehensive nutrition screening, one-on-one counseling and educational services, breastfeeding education and support, supplemental food vouchers, referrals, and free nutrition information. This was an excellent presentation to educate our club about services in the region that support Maternal and Child Health. Pictured with Ruth and Robin is Marian Anderson.

July 23, 2025 – The Food Hub is a program within the Union-Snyder Community Action Agency. The agency works to provide solutions for food insecurity throughout Union and Snyder Counties. It provides emergency food programs including shelf-stable items, fresh foods, and prepared meals. The Food Hub accepts donations from individuals, organizations, and retail stores which can be redistributed to a network of food programs. Through a partnership with the Miller Center (Lewisburg), it delivers programs with specific targeted purposes providing access to nutritious foods and education to the community. Their programs target kids through adults. In 2024, they served 2,360 households with 14,076 services or 34,633 pounds of food. Program volunteers (130) completed 1,907 hours of service across 37 local food programs. To learn how to get involved with the Community Action Center – info@union-snydercaa.org. Pictured:

Our guest speaker, Nicole Peterson, Community Impact Director, receiving the Flags for Heros donation from Sunrise Rotarian Sue Jamison, chair of the Flags for Heros program.

July 30, 2025 – Doug Bertanzetti, Summit Early Learning Center Executive Director was the guest speaker. The program started in 1969 and evolved through the years to what it is today. Summit serves in five locations with various programming to meet the needs of early education for children and families. Their centers currently serve around 1,100 children in Union, Snyder, and Mifflin Counties. Programs include Pre Head Start (infants up to 2 years), Head Start (ages 3-5), Home visit programs for parents and children, Before and After school programs at local schools (formerly SAC) which serves about 200 school-aged kids in five (5) districts, and childcare which serves only about 500 kids in three counties. Staffing for Summit is stable and their teachers for their programs are PA State Certified. The curriculum revolves around play and nature to help to overcome the "nature deficit disorder" that happens with current lifestyles of families. To learn more about Summit visit <https://summitearlylearning.org/>. Pictured with Doug is Rotarian Marcia Murray.

August 5, 2025 – Lewisburg National Night Out is always a community wide activity. The Lewisburg Area Recreation Park is venue to an entire evening of learning about non-profit organizations that are in the community to help. Groups often bring a craft or take-home project for kids to do. Firefighters give kids of all ages a chance to hold a fire hose Other safety organizations also bring educational displays to teach about safety in electricity, petting zoos, martial arts, gymnastic demonstrations, and so much more. There is always free food – popcorn, pizza, hotdogs and that is where our Rotarians were able to help this year at various stands. It is also an opportunity to meet law enforcement officers, emergency preparedness officers, and the community pool is open for a free splash on a hot summer evening. Rotarians pictured include Dan Myers, Marian Anderson, Stacey Roarty, Sue Jamison, and Swan Stull.

August 6, 2025 – It is that time of year again when Williamsport Symphony Orchestra reconvenes for another great season of music. Janet Harris, Director of Development for the Symphony visits Sunrise Rotary each year to give updates on the programming that is in store for visitors from August 2025 through May 2026. One of the scheduled events for the season is the December concert titled "Jingle All the Way." This concert will feature the orchestra playing along with the movie "The Snowman," other Holiday favorites, and a sing-along. In March, the concert is "Video Games" featuring music of favorite video games while synchronized videos are displayed on the screen. Traditional concerts feature the Orchestra, the Billtown Brass Band, and the Youth Orchestra and Junior Strings. For more information go to: <https://williamsportsymphony.org/>. Pictured with Janet is Rotarian Jan Wilson.

August 13, 2025 – Our guests today were the 2025 RYLA participants. Pictured, Becky Perez, Club Youth Programs Coordinator, Addison Merritt (middle) and Taylor Persing (left). Addison and Taylor had a great experience at the youth camp meeting other young leaders and learning leadership skills through games that included teamwork and tactics on how to stay calm and alert when in meeting new people and entering new situations. They learned about the 4-Way Test and were given a problem to solve with the key componenets in mind. One thing both youth leaders agreed on was that communications and listening skills are key to success. They visited the World Village and learned about housing across the world. Groups were formed and given a situation to learn about the housing environment. A segment on the Shelter Box program provided the campers with information on groups that provide aid throughout the world. A guest speaker from Germany also talked about Rotary exchange programs that are available to learn about other cultures. Overall Addison and Taylor came back with some amazing stories and leadership skills to share as they start back to school.

Lewisburg Arts Council Invites Entries for the 2025 Photography Exhibition

The Lewisburg Arts Council invites photographers of all ages and skill levels to take part in the 2025 Photography Exhibition, a celebration of creativity and community. This year's event will transform The Gallery into a vibrant showcase of images that highlight the unique point of view of every photographer.

Photographers within 30 miles of Lewisburg are encouraged to submit up to three original works. The deadline to enter is Wednesday, September 24, 2025, and cash prizes and ribbons will be awarded across multiple age groups and categories. Adult photographers may enter work in Black & White, Nature, Lifestyle, or Artistic/Abstract categories, while youth and children's entries will be judged within their own age groups.

The exhibition will be on view from Friday, October 3 through Saturday, October 25 at the Lewisburg Arts Council Gallery, 15 N Water Street. Public viewing hours are Thursdays and Fridays from 1:00–3:00 pm and Saturdays from 1:00–5:00 pm.

An Opening Reception will be held on Saturday, October 4 from 1:00–3:00 pm, with the awards presentation beginning at 1:30 pm. The reception offers the public an opportunity to meet the artists and experience the exhibition firsthand.

For entry details and guidelines, visit lewisburgartsCouncil.com/photography-exhibition.

Local Mom Receives Unexpected Gift Through United Way’s Give & WIN Sweepstakes

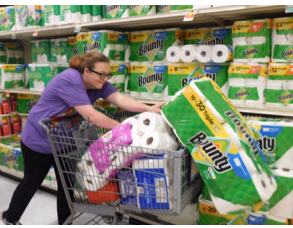

By Kay Poeth

Sage Benfer, of Beavertown, was selected as the recipient of a two-minute shopping spree by anonymous donor. Pictured here are (front row): Thomas, Sage, Maverick and Elinor Benfer with family members Diana Hile, baby Griffin Benfer, and Ashley Aikey.

After Sage Benfer of Beavertown completed her shopping spree on Monday, August 11, at the Weis Markets in Mifflinburg, she and her children Maverick, 8, Thomas, 6, Elinor, 4, and Griffin, 4-month, were joined by representatives from Weis Markets, Inc., PepsiCo, and Susquehanna Valley United Way for a commemorative photo.

Sage Benfer received a shopping spree from an anonymous pay-it-forward donor in the Susquehanna Valley United Way's 2024-25 "Give & WIN Sweepstakes". She charted out her route for items high on her list including meat, diapers, and toilet paper and paper towels.

What began as a special prize awarded to a generous donor took an unexpected and heartwarming turn when they chose to pay it forward to a local family instead of using it themselves. Thanks to that selfless decision, a Snyder County mom was able to enjoy a surprise shopping spree through Susquehanna Valley United Way's 2024-25 "Give & WIN Sweepstakes".

The "Give & WIN Sweepstakes" is an annual prize awarded to a randomly selected donor who supports the Susquehanna Valley United Way's Annual Campaign. The randomwinner is awarded a two-minute shopping spree at Weis Markets valued at up to $3,000including a cartful of Pepsi products.

This year's sweepstakes winner made the extraordinary decision to donate the prize anonymously and asked United Way to select a local family who could benefit from the opportunity. With support from the Family Services team, several families were nominated and entered into a random drawing. This selfless act showcases the power of generosity and the impact of United Way's work connecting donors, community partners, and local families.

"I'm thrilled that (United Way) was able to identify a family to be helped with this gift," said the original donor who wished to remain anonymous. "This is exactly what I was hoping for. My joy is in being gifted an opportunity to pay it forward."

When learning about the shopping spree about to get underway, a fellow shopper, Kim Raszcwski, laughingly commented, "It's almost like winning a car...the way prices are going up!"

Sage Benfer,of Beavertown, was selected as the recipient and describes herself as "a mom of four wonderful children."She completed her shopping spree on Monday, August 11, at the Weis Markets in Mifflinburg, joined by representatives from Weis Markets, Inc., PepsiCo, and Susquehanna Valley United Way.

The Mifflinburg Weis Market staff was rooting for Sage. "She is a good associate and we're glad that one of our own folk won," said Valorie Moore, Mifflinburg Weis Markets, Asst. Store Manager. "She is very deserving." Sage works in the Deli department of the store.

While discussing the two-minute shopping spree, Sage's son, 8-year-old Maverick, piped up, "It should be 10 minutes long!"

When learning that she was chosen to participate in the shopping spree, Sage simply said, "Shocking!" However, she scoped out the store, deciding the priorities on her list. 120 seconds isn't very long."I have a plan to go and around and get some meat and whatever else. I also want to get diapers and baby items."

Sage's children Maverick, 8, Thomas, 6, Elinor, 4, and Griffin, 4-month, cheered her on while her mother, Angela Aikey, and sister-in-law Diana Hile watched over them. Aikey noted, "Sage is the most deserving... a newly-single mom of four and on her own. The timing is amazing anda miracle. She is a kind-hearted, giving person who lives her life for her children."

During the two-minuteshopping spree, shoppers are only allowed 2 of the same kind of item.Sage raced across the meat section. She swoped across a few shelves before dashing to the baby aisle for diapers, wipes, and other items for her baby. She finished up by grabbing aluminum foil, toilet paper and paper towels.Empty carts were staged along her shopping route.

"I am grateful and very blessed," said Sage humbly. "My heart was racing during the spree. I didn't have time to think...just look and grab!" Her children rushed to hug their mother afterwards.

Maverick blurted out, "I never saw my Mom run so fast!"

Maverick then proudly pushed the final cart to the checkout counter. After a few photos, the whole family (except the baby) helped to load groceries onto the checkout counter. Sage's Weis Courtesy card helped to save $83.49 and brought the total down to $920.74. She also received a cart filled with Pepsi products.

After all the excitement, Sage had to work her shift at Mifflinburg Weis. "My mom is taking all the cold stuff to my house to put away. She is watching my kids until I get home."

Weis Markets Community Relations Specialist, Hannah Gratti, emphasized, "Weis Markets is committed to supporting the communities that we live in and serve. We are very excited that Sage was the winner of the shopping spree."

"Our United Way is built on the belief that we can put more good into the world, and this year's donor reminded us just how true that is," said Mark Stankiewicz, President and CEO of SVUW. "Her generosity and kindness will truly make a difference for this deserving local family, and we're incredibly grateful for her heart and commitment to our mission."

The event was made possible through the generosity and partnership of Weis Markets, Inc. and PepsiCo, who sponsor the sweepstakes each year as a way to uplift the community and inspire charitable giving.

"At PepsiCo, we believe in supporting the communities where we live and work," said Douglas Gridley, Key Account Manager at Pepsi Beverages North America. "This event is a great example of what's possible when businesses and community organizations come together with a shared purpose."

"We're proud to partner once again with United Way on the Give & WIN Sweepstakes," said Maria Rizzo, Vice President of Marketing and Advertising at Weis Markets. "This annual program is a meaningful way for us to support local families and reflects our commitment to giving back to the communities we serve."

Stankiewicz added, "We are so thankful for our partnership with Weis Markets, Inc. and PepsiCo on this annual giveaway. Without their support, none of this would be possible."
