Fire Erupts at Kuhns Brothers Lumber Firewood Division

On Wednesday, October, 23, 2013, at approximately 4:30 p.m. firefighters were called to the Kuhns Brothers Lumber Firewood Division, at 6569 Stein Lane after neighbors reported seeing smoke coming from the building and called 911. Approximately 10 people work at the facility and their shift had ended.

Within an hour the firefighters had the hot spots under control. A section of the building's wall was torn away so that firefighters could spray inside to extinguish small flames. The cause of the fire is unknown but according to those at the scene the fire seemed to have been contained to a dumpster and some pallets stack high with cut firewood. The extent of the damage is not known at this time.

Firefighters from New Berlin, Selinsgrove, Hummels Wharf, and Penns Creek responded to the blaze.

Bucknell Instructors To Offer Affordable Care Act Presentation

In March 2010, President Obama signed the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA), into law. While some provisions of the law have already taken effect, many more provisions will be implemented in the coming years. ACA Enrollment began on October 1 for coverage beginning January 1, 2014.

Two Bucknell University instructors, Carl Milofsky Ph.D. and Brandn Green Ph.D., recognize that much of the information currently circulating in news reports, on the radio, and on the Internet has been politicized and may be biased. It is their belief that the citizens of the central Susquehanna Valley region need and are looking for accurate information about the ACA, popularly known as Obamacare.

In the next few months Milofsky and Green will present free public talks about: 1) what is and what is not in the ACA, 2) how it will and will not influence one's health insurance, and 3) how implementation of the ACA may occur in this region.

These 30-minute educational talks about the ACA will describe the three main aspects of policy influenced by the bill: Medicaid and Medicare, insurance reform, and the implementation of the Health Insurance Marketplace. Question and answer sessions will follow.

Upcoming talks will be held at 6 p.m. on Mon., Nov. 4, at the Rudy Gelnett Memorial Library, 1 North High Street, in Selinsgrove and at 7 p.m. on Tues., Nov. 26, at the Public Library for Union County, 255 Reitz Blvd., in Lewisburg.

Carl Milofsky, Professor of Sociology, has researched and taught medical sociology and completed research in the area of community health impacts. Brandn Green, Director of the Place Studies Initiative of the Bucknell University Environmental Center, is a rural sociologist who has completed research in community health.

Their presentation is certified by the PA Health Access Network (<http://pahealthaccess.org/>), a statewide coalition of organizations working to protect high-quality health insurance coverage for individuals and businesses and to expand coverage to the uninsured.

Milofsky and Green would like to schedule additional presentations in the region. For more information, or to schedule talks, contact Green at 570-577-1724 or bgreen@bucknell.edu.

Well, I'm back from Czech Republic and have material to share about one-room schools from readers, but first there's a letter I'd like to share today...and get comments you may have about it.

From the Old Professor:
Dear People,
Today we have a poem I would like to give for all the soldiers whom we honor on November 11th. It's called, "I was Ashamed."

It was a dark, dreary day and everything was wrong with me; I had a headache and a heavy cold—I felt just like an old crank. Then it began to rain and I had no umbrella; My shoe soles were thin and my rubbers were at home. What does one do in such a situation?

One grumbles, when one is human and I did that too...that my clothes were wet and also my hat...my new shoes were ruined. So the day was then completely one hundred percent lost! I grumbled, swore a little.

What is wrong with YOU and what are YOU doing?? But when I THEN went out onto the street, what did I see? A soldier without a left hand, the right, it carries a crutch. Why a crutch? One leg was gone, a little above the knee. His face was all marked up, and twisted, I don't know how. He was talking to a friend and as I went by I heard him say, "Well it could have been worse." (More next week)

In Dutch:
Ihr Liewe Leit:
Heit hen mer en Gedicht ass ich gaern gewwe deet fer all un-sere Soldaade ass mer am elfde geehrt hen. Es heesst "Ich Hab Mich Gschemmt."

'S waar en drierewer, dunkler Daag gewest un alles waarmier letz; Hab Koppweh ghatt un schwerer Kalt. Hab gfielt wie en aldi Gretz.

Noh hot's aafange reggere un Ich hab ken Ambereell; Schuh-sole din un Gums deheem. Was dutt mer in so'n Schtell? Grummle—wann mer menschlich iss, des hawwich aa geduh; Dass Gleeder nass waar'n un der Hut, Verhaust mei neie Schuh.

So waar der Daag dann darricheweck, Hunnert percent Verluscht; Ich hab gegrummelt, bissel gfucht un Was hoscht du un duscht?

Un wie ich dann die Schtross naus bin, Was iss des ich aa blink? En soldaat unnich linksi Hand, Die Recht, die draagt en Grick?

Ferwas die Grick? En Bee waar ab, Bissel owwich der Gnie; Sie Gsicht waar all vermerkt, un Verdreht, ich wees net wie. Er waar am Schwetze mit me Friend, un wie ich geh verbei, Hawwich ihn here saage, "Well, 's hett schlimmer keene sei." (More next week.)

Linda Richards, UC Prothonotary & Clerk of Courts Seeks Re-Election

I am seeking my 4th term of office as Prothonotary & Clerk of Courts. This office also includes the duties of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court. Our duty is to maintain and process the filings in these offices. The Prothonotary side covers civil filings, the Clerk of Courts covers criminal filings and the Clerk of the Orphans' Court deals with filings such as estates, adoptions, first and final accounts and marriage licenses. Our office also processes passport applications.

I have attended all the annual conferences held for Prothonotary & Clerk of Courts, excluding one year, since first taking office. I also attend all the continuing education courses offered to us so that I may be informed with any changes pertaining to my offices. My staff and I have completed the trainings required with running the CPCMS (state-wide criminal) system. We updated our civil system and are currently working more directly with our court administrator to enable her to enter AOPC reports through automation instead of by manual entry. We have annual training and re-certification on our role as active agents for the issuance of passports.

I would sincerely appreciate your vote on November 5, 2013. My goal is to continue to serve you and to do my job based on your experience and to the best of my abilities. Thank you.

Jeff Gordon was in victory lane for the first time this season as he won Sunday's Sprint Cup race at Martinsville Speedway. Gordon, who led four times during the 500-lap race, took the lead from Matt Kenseth on lap 479 and stayed out front for the remaining laps.

"Man, it's hard to top a win like this," said Gordon. "This was a huge win, but I gave it all I had. I couldn't have driven any harder. "A couple times I thought I might have given it away, but we had the car, team, and everything we needed to win."

It was Gordon's 88th victory in 722 Sprint Cup starts. Matt Kenseth, who led the most laps (202) finished second and is back as the Chase leader.

"The car was good and the team did a great job in the pits, but we had a couple issues," said Kenseth. "We had a bad rear tire there at the end and it didn't handle like it did earlier."

Clint Bowyer tried several times to get around Kenseth, but had to settle for third place. "I dunno' what happened," said Bowyer. "We had a good car, but a lot of things happened during the race. Some of it was our fault, and some wasn't. That's just the way some races go."

Brad Keselowski was fourth, while Jimmie Johnson came in fifth.

Johnson led three different times, but near the end his car lost handling and a fourth-place finish was the best he could manage. "It's been a great battle with the 20 (Matt Kenseth)," said Johnson. "Jeff drove a great race, and we'll keep going until we get to Homestead."

Kevin Harvick was sixth, followed by Denny Hamlin, and Dale Earnhardt.

Greg Biffle, who finished ninth, approached Johnson after the race ended with some angry words concerning Johnson's driving habits. "We got a rear bumper torn off by the 48-car," said Biffle. "It takes a whole lot to tear off an entire bumper. We had a good car, and would have finished much higher if not for the 48."

Jamie McMurray rounded out the top-10.

Top-10 Chase leaders after 33 of 36: 1. Kenseth-2294, 2. Johnson-2294 (Kenseth is considered the leader, because he has more wins than Johnson), 3. Gordon-2267, 4. Harvick-2266, 5. Kyle Busch-2258, 6. Bowyer-2239, 7. Earnhardt-2238, 8. Biffle-2236, 9. Kurt Busch-2219, 10. Edwards-2218.

DARRELL WALLACE JR WINS TRUCK RACE

Darrell Wallace Jr. won Saturday's Truck Series race at Martinsville to become the first black driver in nearly 50 years to win a major NASCAR event.

Wallace beat Jeb Burton into Turn-1 on a restart with five laps to go, and then held on for the win.

His victory was the first by a black driver since Wendell Scott's Dec. 1, 1963 win in a Grand National (Sprint Cup) race at Jacksonville, Fla.

"This (win) means everything," said Wallace. "This is an emotional win for me, especially doing it in Wendell Scott's backyard. I love coming here to Martinsville, it's always good to me. It finally paid off. I think it's my third trip here. I love coming here, the fans are great here and we always put on great races here. I had to do some muscling there at the end and get around Ty (Dillon) and keep away from (Kevin) Harvick, so we dodged a few bullets in the race and this is awesome."

Brendan Gaughan, Jeb Burton, Ben Kennedy, Ryan Blaney, Denny Hamlin, German Quiroga, Johnny Sauter, Scott Riggs, and James Buescher were the remaining top-10 finishers.

Tempers flared near the end of the race between Kevin Harvick and Ty Dillon. A bump from Dillon in Turn-2, during lap 189 of the 200-lap race sent Harvick's truck spinning.

Both drivers pitted. Harvick stopped in Dillon's pit stall to voice his displeasure, and ask for a crying towel.

Crew members for Ty Dillon's team fired back with some choice verbal words. While one crew member was yanking on Harvick's driver-side window net, another aimed a sledge hammer at his truck. Harvick exited the area, because he realized he was in the wrong pit for sympathy.

"I don't care what they throw at me," said Harvick. "That's exactly the reason I'm leaving RCR (Richard Childress Racing) is because you've got those punk (expletive) kids coming up. They've got no respect for what they do in this sport and they've had everything fed to them with a spoon. So, I cut him slack all day and, you know, he just dive-bombs me in there, dumps me. It's a shame you've got to get taken out by some rich kid like that."

Following a 22nd place finish, Dillon quietly explained, "He got sideways and then he hit the brakes and tried to brake-check me. So, I can't believe that happened. I'm pretty disappointed in the things that just went down."

"I used to look up to that guy but I guess he doesn't understand the circumstances of what's going on. I understand its tough racing down there in (turns) one and two at Martinsville. I know we wrecked, but to tear up a truck after the race and act like a punk on the track and stop on pit road in my pit stall, was pretty ridiculous."

Harvick, who will move to Stewart-Haas Racing in 2014, is in his final season with RCR. Ty Dillon is team owner Richard Childress' grandson. Another grandson, Austin Dillon races for Childress in the Nationwide and Cup series.

Top-10 leaders after 19 of 22: 1. Crafton-707, 2. Buescher-656, 3. T. Dillon-646, 4. Burton-639, 5. Sauter-625, 6. Blaney-615, 7. Paludo-615, 8. D. Wallace-614, 9. Gaughan-595, 10. Peters-592.

QUALIFYING CHANGES COMING IN 2014

NASCAR is considering changing its qualifying procedure in 2014, which would allow multiple cars on the track at the same time. The proposed qualifying format would have cars in groups of five or six, with each car released from pit road in intervals of a few seconds, similar to road course qualifying.

Each group of drivers would then have a certain amount of time to complete qualifying laps, with the best lap speed used to determine the starting order for the race. On restrictor-plate tracks (Daytona and Talladega), NASCAR is considering using a drafting session, likely 45-60 minutes, to determine the starting order.

The Daytona 500 field would still be set primarily through qualifying races but whether the new format would be used to determine the Daytona 500 pole and the lineup for the qualifying races is still to be decided.

"Nothing is set in stone yet," NASCAR spokesman, Kerry Tharp said. "We haven't determined how all that (throughout the season) would be administered. We're still working through that but with the goal of providing a more enhanced qualifying experience for the fans that come there and watch it and the fans that watch it on television and, quite frankly, for the competitors."

Weekend Racing: Texas Motor Speedway will be the center of NASCAR racing this weekend, as all three major series' will be at the 1.5-mile track. Fri., Nov. 1, Truck Series race 20 of 22; Starting time: 8:30 pm ET; TV: FoxSports1. Sat., Nov. 2, Nationwide Series race 31 of 33; Starting time: 3:30 pm ET; TV: ESPN2. Racing Trivia Question: Who won the pole for the first NASCAR race at Martinsville in 1949?

Last Week's Question: Which year did Matt Kenseth win his only Cup championship? Answer: It was 2003, while driving a Jack Roush Ford.

Country Traditions Celebrates Grand Opening

By Jacob Tanner

On Thursday, October 17th, Friday, October 18th, and Friday, October 19th, Country Traditions (formerly Cooley's Furniture) at the Decorating Center in Mifflinburg celebrated its grand opening.

This special grand opening weekend enabled customers to visit and check out the unique collection of sophisticated and beautiful décor on display and available for purchase. Country Traditions sells a large selection of tastefully hand-picked home decorations as well as accessories, including Irvin's Country Tin Ware. I, myself, was impressed with both the quality AND the quantity of items on display and available for purchase. Often, stores favor only one of those at the expense or sacrifice of the other, but Country Traditions does not seem as though it will have that problem at all. You are almost guaranteed to find something that interests your eye. And each furniture product seems to be meticulously crafted, painstakingly detailed, and beyond sturdy. Any purchase should last for years to come.

I had an opportunity to speak with Christine Rantz, the Retail Manager at Country Traditions, and was able to ask her a few questions as well. She had this to share: "Country Traditions is a full home shopping experience. We have your living, dining, bed, and bathroom furnishing needs. We have everything from wall coverings, to paint, to candles." Indeed, just one of the few products I came across while browsing was soy wax candles, made by "Swan Creek Candle Co." The candles are 100 percent American made, they are made of soybean wax, burn cleanly, and are lead free. They are also intensely fragrant, admitting their own pleasant fragrances.

Christine Rantz continued, "We are very excited for all of this, and the customers seem to be excited too. We have a nice, new sign as well. The new products we now offer really create a one stop home shopping experience and destination place. We are hoping for a successful opening (which we have definitely already had so far), and that everyone will enjoy what they see and continue to return to shop here in the future. We hope they will consider us a source for their home interior needs." The entire grand opening weekend saw the store filled with many curious lookers excited to see what the newly renamed business had to offer. Everyone seemed to be quite happy with their overall experience and impressed with the elegant, and yet simple, new product line. There is a very welcoming atmosphere as soon as you enter the store. Soon, if not right away, you will be greeted by an employee that will help you with any needs you may have. I'm sure there will be many customers returning for years to come.

Christine Rantz added, "We will continue to sell the products we did as Cooley's Furniture. We're also the PA distributor of Irving's Lighting. And we of course have new furniture for sale as well. The new furniture line is hand crafted and American made." Many today complain that items these days aren't built to last, but at Country Traditions they are making things like they used to. The furniture looks nice, is comfortable, and it will last you for years to come. The hand crafted expertise of quality shines through brilliantly.

The reason for the name change is actually quite simple, as Christine Rantz explained. "We have a new product line, a new marketing plan, and now we're tied into D.C. It is no longer two separate stores. The Decorating Center and Country Traditions are now tied into one. It's also a departure from Cooley's. We'll continue to sell traditional furniture, but we also have an entirely new line as well. I think that really it was time to make a change. Time for a new identity."

Union County Lutherans To Celebrate 242 Years Of Buffalo Valley Worship

The Union County Bicentennial celebration will take one last late October pass through New Berlin where the official nine month long observance began last March. On Sunday, October 27th at 4:00PM, Union County Lutherans and the general public are invited to join and participate in a worship service and Eucharist commemorating Reformation Sunday and 242 continuous years of Lutheran worship in the Buffalo Valley.

The festival service will be held at Messiah Evangelical Lutheran Church at 308 Market Street in New Berlin with Upper Susquehanna Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Bishop Robert L. Driesen officiating. Pastor Frank Showers of Chicago will serve as organist and a special one-time Bicentennial choir comprised of members of Union County's Lutheran congregations, with Diane Scott conducting, will be leading the liturgy and singing. A musical prelude will begin in the sanctuary at 3:30PM and a fellowship hour will be held following the service. A brass quartet of students from nearby Lutheran affiliated Susquehanna University will be sharing their musical gifts.

Lutheran congregations began organizing in Union County years before the 1813 founding of the county. While the Presbyterians hold title for the first organized church at Buffalo Crossroads in 1773, Lutherans were preaching and baptizing in Union County as early as 1771. In 1788 Lutherans and Reformed together organized Dreisbach Church as a union church. It was not any shared aspects of denomination that drew these two movements together; it was the common use of the German language, which led to the establishment of this Lutheran and Reformed church union and many that were to follow throughout Union County.

New Berlin Lutheran and Reformed Societies, served by circuit riding pastors, were meeting separately in homes until they joined together shortly after 1793 to build a log church. In 1798 Lutherans organized in Mifflinburg and in 1806 the Reverend Ludwig Ilgen began leading Lutherans in worship at the Elias Church (picture attached of the only early Lutheran house of worship still standing, although not in use today as a Lutheran Church).

Ray's Church in western Union County was organized in 1801-1802 as a union church, and, in Lewisburg, Lutherans first organized in 1802. Also, in 1802 a union Lutheran Church was organized in White Deer. In 1814 Lutherans organized in Laurelton and later other Lutheran churches would follow in the county.

Today, Lutheran congregations number nine in Union County. The Lutheran churches of Union County are: Christ Lutheran Church of Lewisburg, Christ's United Lutheran Church of Millmont, Faith Lutheran Church of Lewisburg, First Lutheran Church of Mifflinburg, Mazeppa Lutheran Church, Messiah Evangelical Lutheran Church of New Berlin, St. John Lutheran Church of Dry Valley, Trinity Lutheran Church of Cowan, and United In Christ Lutheran Church of Lewisburg.

The Messiah Evangelical worship space in New Berlin is located on the second floor and is accessible by an elevator. Information about the service is available by calling Messiah Lutheran in New Berlin at 570-966-2815. As with all Union County Bicentennial events, information is also found at UnionCounty200.org.

Evangelical Offers Support To Those Impacted by Diabetes

Evangelical Community Hospital offers a monthly Diabetes Support Group in an effort to bring attention to the issues surrounding diabetes and educating those who are impacted by the disease.

The next scheduled Diabetes Support Group will be held Thursday, November 7, 2013 at 6 pm, at Evangelical's Community Health and Wellness Center located at 7095 West Branch Highway, Lewisburg.

Presented by Karen Simeone, RN, MSN, CDE, the group discussion will highlight Medication Options for People with Diabetes. As medical professionals learn more about the disease, more options are available for patients including the introduction of new classifications of medications beyond insulin and "sugar pills." Support group sessions help patients be empowered and informed healthcare consumers allowing them to better talk with doctors about the condition and medications associated with diabetes.

This free support group is open to the public and geared toward people living with diabetes and the family and friends who support them. There will be a general information session with time built-in for discussion and questions. No registration is required.

November is American Diabetes Month bringing a focus to the nearly 26 million children and adults in the United States who currently have the disease and the other 79 million Americans who have pre-diabetes and are at risk for developing Type 2 diabetes. The month is meant to raise awareness to the ever-growing frequency of the disease and how we as a nation can educate and work together to stop diabetes.

In addition to the regularly scheduled support group, Evangelical Community Hospital offers a variety of services for those living with diabetes or at risk for developing diabetes. They include one-on-one outpatient education sessions, ambulatory insulin program, group outpatients education classes, home blood glucose monitoring instructions, dietary management, counseling for gestational diabetes, community groups, and insulin pump program.

For more information on the diabetes services at Evangelical Community Hospital, call (570) 522-2893.

CYNTHIA WRAY FOR PROTHONOTARY

I live in New Berlin and have lived in Union County for 13 years. I have volunteered to help with functions for the New Berlin Fire Company, the New Berlin Recreation Association, the New Berlin American Legion and the West End Sportsman Club. I feel that my 20 years of experience working in various law offices provides me with the knowledge and expertise to assure that the prothonotary's office efficiently serves the court and the citizens of Union County. I also believe that it is the job of that office to make sure that the public records maintained there are easily accessible and that the services of the office are provided in a timely, professional and competent manner. I would greatly appreciate your vote on Tuesday, November 5, 2013.
