Peach Delight at Mifflinburg UM Church Festival

By Kay Poeth

Everything was "Just Peachy" as tables filled quickly for the Annual Peach Festival recently celebrated at Mifflinburg United Methodist Church. 125 people attended this free event. Guests enjoyed hamburger BBQ, hot dogs, peach or vanilla ice cream, fresh peaches, peach iced tea, and of course, peach pie! There were also a variety of pies, from crumbs and cobblers to classic double crust. All the food served was provided by donations.

Pastor Becky Cuddleback gave the opening prayer, blessing the food. For Pastor Becky, this is the first Peach Festival that any of her churches has held. "Watching the congregation come together to provide a meal for our community with all the donations benefiting the Mifflinburg Wildcat Weekend Food Program is inspiring."

Then Pastor Becky added with a smile, "I can't turn down a meal that someone else is willing to prepare and willing to clean up afterwards!"

One group of diners responded to the question, "What do you like about the Peach Festival?" in between bites. According to Mike Hanyak, "Good food and fellowship!" Then, Ken Kessler quickly quipped, "Peaches." He explained that Mike and Marty Hanyak are like his parents. Then he added that his 50th Annual High School Class of 1976 Reunion will be held in Milroy the following weekend.

"I like the friendship when I come here," noted Robin Swanger.

The Peach Festival at Mifflinburg UMC is a wonderful memory inducing event for Michelle Stumpff. "Marguerite Catherman brought me here. She has since passed but coming back here for the Peach Festival brings back good memories."

For Jenni Serzinsky, a retired Mifflinburg Elementary teacher, "It's nice to be in the company of good friends and people that I haven't seen for a while. I already see some people that I know!"

"Alldonations benefit the Wildcat Weekend Food Program at the local schools," explained Sally Broyles of the Outreach Team. "We feed approximately 200 students every other week during the month of October. Each week the bags include 2 breakfasts, 2 lunches, 2 suppers, and snacks."

Donations totaling $946.00were received and will be used to help provide food for the Mifflinburg Area School District's Wildcat Weekend Food Program during the month of October.

Another outreach mission is the Thanksgiving meal that is held every year. It has been annual tradition to hold the Thanksgiving meal for over 40 years. Held on Thanksgiving Day, it is open to the public with donations welcome.The donation monies that are received are collected for our Outreach programs that benefit different groups and locations throughout the year.

"Last year we lost Aimee Erdley who was phenomenal in doing the meal for many years. It was held in her honor last year," stated Nancy Walter.

"I don't come here to church," said Deb Hoover, "but I always come to the food things!"

"We've been coming here for 5 years," said Sharon Turner. "Our friend Judy Hicks invited us when we were camping at Hidden Valley Campground."

It was the first time that Sharon Stamm has attended. "It's good food and a convenient location to Hidden Valley Campground. I will be coming again next year!"

Marianne Strickler added, "The food is delicious and the people are so friendly."

Bill Turner and Emerson Strickler dittoed those sentiments.

"The community response has been overwhelming and will go a long way toward our needs for the Wildcat Weekend Food Program," added Broyles.

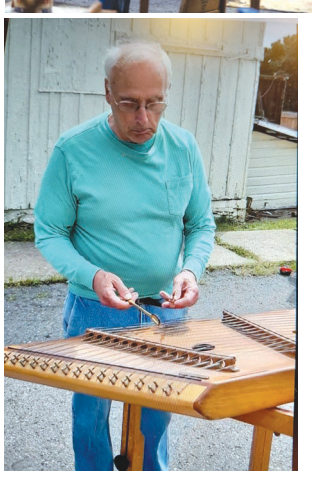

"I always like to patronize fundraisers for libraries and churches to support their causes," said Evelyn Miller of Mifflinburg.

"Thanks to everyone who came out to support the event and to the awesome church volunteers for all you do for Mifflinburg United Methodist Church!" said Betsy Robertson.

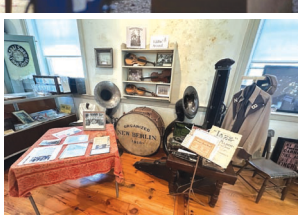

New Berlin Day 2026 Is A Huge Success!

By Kay Poeth

Local musician, Bob Gutheinz, performed on the hammer dulcimer. Several street musician performed throughout the day.

New Berlin Day was a huge success from start to finish, with a record attendance and perfect weather that filled downtown New Berlin with crowds enjoying this scenic town and popular festival.

Over 100 antique, artisan, craft, and other vendors displayed their wares throughout town, along with live music and entertainment throughout the day. Adding to the festive fun were historic activities, the New Berlin Heritage Museum, and of course, food! The new Kids Corner at Plum Street Park was a wonderful place for families, featuring balloon creations, arts and crafts, community painting projects, a STEM program, basketball games, and plenty of fun for our youngest visitors right next to the playground.

"We are absolutely thrilled with the turnout for this year's New Berlin Day. Our committee's mission is to organize and support activities that bring the residents and friends of New Berlin together in friendship and to promote our community, and that's exactly what we saw happening at New Berlin Day," said Erin Ohlfs, President of the New Berlin Activities Committee. "It was wonderful to look around and see our streets filled with people shopping, eating, listening to music, visiting with friends and neighbors, and simply enjoying New Berlin together. We're incredibly grateful to everyone who helped make the day possible."

New Berlin Activities Committee and volunteers were busy creating this wonderful event. It required a tremendous amount of planning, especially as the committee navigated a year of transition after the passing of former president, Logan Roush, earlier this spring.

"Everyone really came together to carry New Berlin Day forward, and seeing the community turn out the way it did made all of that work worthwhile," noted Ohlfs.

The new parking and shuttle options added to the overall convenience of the day. Northhill Orchard provided hayride shuttle service from the free parking area at SUN Area Technical Institute, and Homestead Heights provided golf cart shuttle service throughout the day.

"Thank you to everyone who helped make New Berlin Day a safe, welcoming, fun, and memorable event for our residents, vendors, and visitors. You helped bring New Berlin together, and that is something worth celebrating," stated Kay Trick. "And that is what community is all about, folks!"

PORT ROYAL GOT ALL THREE DAYS OF THE TUSCARORA 50 WEEKEND IN THE BOOKS

Port Royal hit a home run with the three-day High Limit sprint car series national open with good car counts and great crowds all three nights. Thursday night, the 50 car field, with Ryan Timms scoring the feature win over Justin Peck, Aaron Reutzel, Rico Abreu and Doug Hammaker the first car across for the PA Posse. The PASS 305 sprints were running the tracks final point race of the season with Kenny Heffner leading, and with his 12th place finish it was enough for the Watsontown PA drivers to clinch the title. He did it by 130 over Mike Melair, with Cole Dewease, Tyler Schell and Chris Dolan in the top five. Heffner won one feature the opening day race back on April 4th. Chris Dolan won the non-stop 20-lap feature for his second of the year, over Tyler Erdley so of former 410-sprint car driver Mike Erdley, Cole Dewease, Bradon Varner and Jarett Cavalet. Friday night the field drew to 57 drivers, with Freddie Rahmer, Michael Walter again in the Thompson #11and Steve Buckwlater whose night ended early in a heat one flip. Chase Dietz had it all together for the feature but did have a couple of tense moments with Ryan Smith closing the gap at different times during the feature. Chase went on to score his 20th feature win of the season and first with the High Limit series. Ryan Smith held on for second, with Gio Scelzi, Daison Pursley and Justin Whittall in the top five. James McFadden is in the Macri 39M filing in for the injured Anthony Macri, did not have a very good first two nights flipping in the feature on Thursday and again a flip in the Dash race on Friday. Ryan Timms, who won the Thursday show, was tenth on Friday and was involved in the McFadden accident in the Dash. Timms is the defending Tuscarora 50 winner from the 2025 event. In the feature, Logan Wagner got into an accident with Brian Brown knocking him out of the race. In the spot he was running in and if he had finished in that spot which was 12th, he would have won the track championship for the 410-sprints. Ryan Smith driving the Kreitz #69K with his second-place finish won the points title his first ever at Port by 45-points over Logan Wagner, Lance Dewease, Justin Whitall the 2025 champion and Doug Hammaker were in the top five in points.

There was also some drama with the limited late models on Friday night in the final point race for them with DJ Myers leading Jaxton Garman by five points . In the heat race, Garman was involved in a four-car accident, with the crew using the rest of the night to get his car ready for the feature. It all looked to be good for Myers in the feature, but then disaster struck DJ when the driveshaft broke on the third lap of the feature knocking him out of the race. Garman went on the place sixth in the feature and won the championship by 20 points over DJ Myers. Gunner Walls won the 20-lap feature his first win at Port this season and his fifth overall feature win this season at four different speedways. Andrew Yoder was second, with Eric Irvin, Matt Murphey and Maddox Smith in the top five. Saturday was the final night of the Tuscarora 50-weekend with the winner of the feature collecting $59,000 for the win. All of these races were in conjunction with the running of the 172nd annual Juniata County Fair. James McFadden made up for the two bad nights by winning the feature and all the honors that goes with for beginning the Tuscarora 50 champion. Tanner Holmes was second with Brent Marks, Troy Wagaman and Rico Abreu in the top five. The final stats from Port had eleven different feature winners in the 410-sprint with Chase Dietz with three wins, then came Danny Dietrich and Ryan Smith and Doug Hammaker with two wins, followed by Jake Karklin, Brock Zearfoss, Brent Marks, Gio Schelzi, Kody Hartlaub, Ryan Timms and James McFadden. In 305-sprints Chris Dolan with two wins along with Tyler Erdley for two, Kenny Heffner with one, along with Jeff Weaver, Josh Spicer. Limited late models had Todd Snook with three wins, Jaxton Garman two with single wins going to Ryan Zook, Kyle Lee, Andrew Yoder and Gunner Walls one each. Super late models and Trevor Feathers with two wins and the track championship, single wins for Max Blair Gregg Satterlee, Drake Troutman, Ricky Thornton Jr, Jonathan Davenport , and Mason Zeigler.

410-sprint action this weekend will have a regular show at Williams Grove on Friday night along with the 358 sprints in action. BAPS Motor Speedway will be in action on Saturday along with the track's super sportsman racing. Sunday at Path Valley will have the sprints for the second time this year, both the BAPS and Path Valley races are part of the PA Pose point events. The series points has Chase Dietz leading the way with 1146 followed by Danny Dietrich-1093, Troy Wagaman Jr 1083, Justin Whittall 970 and Lance Dewease fifth at 862. Other drivers in the top ten are Ryan Smith, Cameron Smith, Freddie Rahmer, TJ Stutts and Logan Rumsey. There have been at least 115 drivers that have run in one race in the series this year.

Sunday night at Hagerstown after raining out on Saturday they ran the Nathan Durboraw Memorial for the super late models paying the winner of the 41-lap feature $5,200 plus other awards. The late model sportsman and crate late models were also in action. The 41-lap feature for the super was one number race when he drove the Doug Bland #41 racecar. The 24 late features for the late model sportsman were for Raye Vest another car owner Nathan drove for. Mason Zeigler leads all 41-laps in winning the non-stop super late model feature over Jason Covert, Matt Cosner, Kyle Hardy and Andrew Yoder who set second fastest time behind only Mason Zeigler. Gregg Satterlee was seventh in the feature, after making the long drive back home after his racing night was over at Eldora in the running of the world 100 Saturday night. Gregg and his crew chef Bobby Allen switched out cars from the Rocket chassis they raced at Eldora to a car Gregg Allen and another partner built. Trevor Collins from Seaford Del did the same thing coming from Eldora to race Sunday night at Hagerstown speedway. Shannon Slaughter so far this year drove a 602-carte sportsman Modified at Grandview speedway, a 358-sprint at Lincoln speedway, a Limited late model at Clinton County speedway and Sunday was her first try in the super late model class. Shannon got a bit too high in time trials and hit the second turn fence ending her night of racing. Keith Walls decided he did not want to drive in two divisions on Sunday, so he drove his limited late model number 9 and left the Crate late model number 462 for former racer Tommy Cordall to drive. Tommy who is the part time announcer at Path Valley speedway and has his own digital show Elbows Up that you can watch on Facebook and YouTube. Brian Booze won the late model sportsman feature his first of the year over his teammate Levi Crowl a two-time winner at the speedway, with Kyle Lee, Austin Lathroum and Kyle Lear in the top five. Another teammate to winner Booze was ninth place finisher Ray Kable III. Jacob Whitt won the Crate late model feature over Brady Neff, Clinton Hersh, Ronnie Martin Jr and Jacob Burdette.

This weekend the super late models will have two races under the ULMS series banner, Friday night at Outlaw speedway in Dundee New York with the winner getting $11,080 for the feature win. Saturday they will race at Selinsgrove for $10,000 to win, the limited late models and street stocks will be part of the program with the street stocks racing in the L'L Bob special. It will be the final race for all three divisions with Gregg Satterlee already having clinched the super late model title.

The soccer pitch is back in focus locally after this summer's World Cup. We have two defending district champions returning with Selinsgrove in 3A and Lewisburg in 2A. The Midd-West boys team should be a force again as they have some key players returning from a 17-4 season. It´s shaping up to be a very competitive league again this year.

Midd-West returns five players that each scored at least six goals last year. They will be led by Gabe Romig and Evan Devine. Jacob Sellers returns to anchor the defense and Derek Wert and his nine shutouts from last year is back in goal.

Defending state champion Lewisburg must replace 62 goals from last year's graduated seniors. Much like their Cross-Country classmates, the Lewisburg soccer team doesn't rebuild, they reload. Returning all-league goalie Ryan Pawling and defender Riley Luthi-Gulden are a good start. Throw in forward Keegan Crosby and the chance for another district title is pretty good.

Lewisburg lost 2-1 last week to always tough Central Columbia on a penalty kick. Crosby had the lone Dragon goal. They got back to their usual winning ways by beating Camp Hill 6-0 as Daedrain Campbell had two goals and an assist. Everett Good scored twice for the Green.

The 3A boys soccer teams are pretty much average. Selinsgrove returns Ryan Toskey to help defend their 3A district title. Mifflinburg averaged one win for every three games they played and qualified for the district 3A playoffs. There is something definitely wrong with that, not just in soccer but many other high school sports.

I realize some districts have a limited number of schools in a particular class. Combine them with a neighboring district and play for a regional title. The PIAA needs a rule that you cannot qualify for the post season unless you won at least half of your games for all sports.

The Selinsgrove girls soccer team returns double-digit scorers from last year in Addison Wenzel and Joslyn Zacharda. They opened their season with a 5-0 loss to Central Columbia. Mifflinburg returns a lot of playing time from last year and should improve on their 5-11-2 record.

First year Lewisburg coach Emaleigh Greb has a young team back with veterans Nora Hockenbrock between the pipes and mid-fielder Claire Driver back. Greb´s first game was a 2-2 tie with Berwick. Maddy Schwartz and Payton Spigelmeyer scored the two goals. The Lady Dragons lost 1-0 to Wyoming Area and 4-1 to North Schuylkill at Central Columbia´s Labor Day Cup. Midd-West should return to the post season with Emery Peters and ´do-it-all´ Ava Aitkins returning.

In girl´s tennis, Lewisburg lost 3-2 to Hughesville. Miff fell 4-1 to Milton but Holly Swartz got a win at No 1 singles for the Cats. The Grove girls lost to Danville 5-0 but came back strong to beat Lewisburg 3-2. They won two of the three double matches and Anna Yang won the No 3 singles match.

The Lewisburg boys and girls depth prevailed in a cross-country quad match sweep of Milton, Jersey Shore and Southern Columbia. Thomas Graham, Tyler Confer and Evan Young paced the guys by finishing third thru fifth. The girls were led by Laelyn Bozella and Loghan Klinger finishing first and second. Lewisburg competed in the Big Valley Cross-Country Invitational and the boys finished sixth and the girls ninth.

Midd-West boys cross-country went 2-1 against Montoursville, Warrior Run and Hughesville. The girls dominated their quad match by taking six of the top ten places. Evelyn Weiser, Ashlyn Hoffman, Mallory Heimbach and Tanzania Seibel placed third thru sixth for the Mustangs.

On the links, Lewisburg (4-1) beat Miff (0-3) 180-203 behind Bryce Bussman's 41 and LJ Carter's 45. Calen Loss was the low scorer for the Cats in carding a 48. Midd-West easily beat Shamokin at Shade Mountain with Brady Gunkle and Cameron Swineford shooting a 39 and 42. Grove lost to Jersey Shore by 8 strokes despite Jax Reichenbach shooting an even par 36.

The emotional moment of the week occurred when Mifflinburg hosted Midd-West in field hockey. Mifflinburg freshman Kenley Flickinger scored her first varsity goal which turned out to be the game winner in a 2-1 victory. More importantly, the ´Teal Out´ game was played in honor and loving memory of Joslyn Flickinger, Kenley's younger sister who died tragically three years ago. Teal was Joslyn´s favorite color.

Midd-West started their season with a 3-0 win over Lewisburg aided by a goal and assist from Veyda Trego. Grove field hockey played in the tough Palmyra Cougar Classic and lost 2-1 to Boiling Springs and won 3-1 over Susquehannock. The Seals Nora Moyer and Alexis Stoneburg were named to the all-tourney team.

The Midd-West football team exploded for 66 points and shutout Columbia Montour Vo-Tech. Witten Carter threw four TD passes in the first half and the Mustangs had a well balanced attack passing for 264 yards and running for 184. They had eight big plays of 20 yards or more.

Noah Kratzer ran for 115 yards and 2 TDs and the brothers Drumheller duo (D'Angelo & Jiovaunni) totaled four catches for 144 yards and 3 TDs. The Mustangs play at Warrior Run Friday.

Mifflinburg surprised me and a few others in beating Selinsgrove quite handily 28-10. The Wildcats scored a touch in each quarter by mixing the run and pass with 148 yards on the ground and 163 through the air. Miff coach Cody Botts addressed the offensive line issue as Seth Hartman and Landon Moser had a combined 21 carries for 128 yards. Last week against Shik they had 18 rushes for 29 yards.

Cat´s QB Brennen Snyder was a very economical 13 for 18 and TDs to Brady Threet and Tanner Zimmerman. Grove´s Rocco Amato passed for 123 yards with half of those to Nash Fordyce on six receptions. Selinsgrove travels to Jersey Shore and Miff to Bloomsburg this Friday.

Shikellamy has started their season undefeated by beating both our Union county schools with their recent 21-0 win over Lewisburg. Dragon QB Xavier Carter left his second game with an injury after totaling 32 yards on two carries.

It felt like after three quarters Shik should have been up by more than 14 points as Lewisburg hung around just needing a big play or two to even the score. Shik´s third TD closed the door on any comeback. Lewisburg plays Hughesville Friday night in the battle of the green.

The NFL has started this week in Australia of all places! Here are my takes on some of the local favorite teams in our area and how their seasons will play out.

The Baltimore Ravens will look different with Jesse Minter as their new coach. They grew stale under Harbaugh and their defense will be their new calling card. They won´t have to rely on Lamar Jackson all the time to win a game.

This pains me to say but the Dallas Cowboys are going to be really good. Their defense is much improved and they got the steal of the draft in safety Caleb Downs. Combine this much better defense with an already explosive offense and even Jerry Jones can´t screw this up!

With a healthy Patrick Mahomes returning the KC Chiefs are one of the favorites to return to the Super Bowl. The LA Rams are clearly the favorite to WIN the Super Bowl and with good reason. They added two future first-ballot hall of famers in Aaron Donald and Myles Garrett to their defensive front. Some of the Ram players will be at the Super Bowl because it's being played in their home stadium but they will be there only to watch the game.

The Patriots will be a disappointment as Drake Maye will take a step back with a much tougher schedule than last year. The NY Giants will be a fun team to watch but are too immature at key positions to mount a meaningful push through the playoffs.

The DC Commanders will finish last in their division and QB Jayden Daniels will not be able to stay healthy again. The Bills still have Josh Allen, the best QB in the league, but their fate will be determined by new head coach Joe Brady and new D-coordinator Jim Leonard.

The Steelers are old on defense and even older at QB. It´s a nice story that Mike McCarthy came back to coach in the city he grew up in and to have a QB he had as a starter for eleven years in Green Bay. Aaron Rodgers was in his prime with the Pack and not 42 years old! Pittsburgh has to look to the future and not be satisfied with winning 8 or 9 games a year.

The Eagles are the least talked about good team in the NFL. The defense is great but Jalen Hurts has a different O-coordinator again. Like his team, Hurts is under-rated and I think he will have the Birds playing in the conference title game.

My other three teams that will be playing for a chance to go to the Super Bowl are the Detroit Lions, Buffalo Bills and Houston Texans.

Rutgers coach Greg Schiano is relieved the mess in Michigan has taken some of the focus off his disastrous loss to UMASS. Questions or complaints can be sent to theviewfromhear74@gmail.com

Second Annual "Show Us Your Kitties" Tour

LEWISBURG — Local cat lovers will have another chance to see some of the area's most entertaining residents when the Second Annual "Show Us Your Kitties" tour returns in October.

The event, hosted by The Scratching Post and Cherished Cats Rescue Alliance, will feature morning and afternoon walking tours through downtown Lewisburg neighborhoods. Organizers are currently designing this year's route and are looking for cat owners who live along Market Street and in the adjoining neighborhoods who would be interested in becoming a tour stop.

Participation is designed to be simple and carefree. Cats can be showcased from the windows of a home, on a porch or in a front yard. Tour participants will not enter homes or touch the cats. Each group will have a guide who will lead the tour and provide commentary about the feline hosts.

Organizers are hoping to expand the event and those interested in possibly having their cats featured on this year's route are encouraged to reach out soon, while the tour route is being planned.

Questions and requests for more information can be directed to Megan at megan@cherishedcats.org. Contacting organizers does not guarantee placement on the final tour route.

Proceeds from "Show Us Your Kitties" benefit Cherished Cats Rescue Alliance and The Scratching Post, supporting their mission to rescue and care for cats throughout central Pennsylvania.

Tour tickets will go on sale in September, with special "Show Us Your Kitties" T-shirts also planned for the event.

Biblical Tale for Teens- All The King's Horses & Pharoah Too

By Kay Poeth

Could it be that your teens are not interested in Biblical themes because they have not been introduced to some of the most powerful stories? Deep down teens crave real stories that inspire courage, build character, and leave a lasting impact.

All the King's Horses & Pharoah Too is a Bible adventure for teens, aged 13-17, to discover the King above every King. Through the wonder of his imagination, 13-year-old Ben steps into the pages of Scripture, experiencing each Bible story so vividly he can almost see it, hear it, touch it, and even smell it.

Written by Larry B. Bachman, beautifully illustrated and grounded in the Bible, All the King's Horses & Pharaoh Too invites young readers to experience God's Word in a fresh and unforgettable way.

All the King's Horses & Pharoah Too and its companion study guide, Ben's Notebook: Building Blocks of Trust are available now on Amazon. Equip your teens, inspire their faith and build their future because the greatest stories ever told are found in the Bible.

Author Larry B. Bachman is a lifelong student of God's Word. He writes stories that make timeless truths real for today's kids. Larry is about a faith-based foundation, family, living life to the fullest thanking God for everything along life's journey. He can be reached at larrybachman.org.

Bouquets of Blessings Project Blossoms for Seniors in Nursing Homes

By Kay Poeth

Elizabeth Canfield is bringing joy to residents in nursing homes again this fall with her Bouquets of Blessings Project. The stunning flower arrangements she delivers bring a smile to the residents' faces and brighten their day.

Elizabeth recently completed 80 bouquets for Round 1 of her project using over 1,000 floral stems. She dropped off flower arrangements to Celebration Villa in Lewisburg, EverTrue Buffalo Valley Assisted Living and Rehabilitation Center in Lewisburg, The Manor at Penn Village and Brookdale Grayson View in Selinsgrove.

"The residents were thrilled when the flowers were delivered. Some residents were sitting outside when I pulled up so I was able to hand them out to in person. Their faces lit up and they were so excited to receive their own bouquet," said Elizabeth. "I explained that these flowers are from the whole community. I told them that the community wanted them to know that they were cared for and loved."

Jen Kapelan commented, "I work for EverTrue Buffalo Valley and the arrangements are absolutely beautiful and have received so many compliments from residents!"

The Bouquets of Blessings Project is definitely a community outreach mission. There has been a great response to the call for vases from Labor of Love Thrift Store as well as individuals. One donor even bought vases while she was on vacation in another state!

Another need is flowers. Several floral businesses, roadside stands, and individual gardeners have made donations. Elizabeth is truly grateful for their support and kindness.

"People think they need a lot of flowers to donate to the project. However, every little bundle and flower counts. Some people only have a couple of handfuls of flowers, but each donation really made a difference," explained Elizabeth of her first delivery.

Some people don't grow their own flowers but still want to help and bring joy to others. For those who are interested, a different option would be to purchase some bouquets at the roadside stands and donate those flowers. "That way, you don't have to grow them yourself and it is a win/win situation- supporting local businesses and blessing the residents of our nursing homes!"

This year, some people gave monetary donations. Elizabeth received a Facebook message from an 87-year-old lady reaching out to donate. She wanted to make sure that she was part of this project, even though she wasn't able to donate flowers herself. Others from the community gave monetary gifts for the purchase of additional flowers as well.

"My idea was to see if businesses would give matching donations of flowers for whatever funds were donated. It worked out really well and every donation was multiplied," said Elizabeth.

She hopes to make several more deliveries by the end of September. "I love projects that bring the community together. I think it is also important that we remember our seniors. The entire goal of this project is to show them that they still matter and that there are people out there who love them," said Elizabeth. "It's easy for residents to feel like they don't matter and that they aren't remembered. But that's not true, and this is one way we can show them that God loves them and the community does, too!"

In terms of logistics, that may have been the most challenging part of the project. "My apartment kitchen is just too small to arrange 80 or more bouquets of flowers," Elizabeth chuckled. Last year, she worked out of different donors' kitchens to create the bouquets. This year, Beavertown God's Missionary Church generously donated the use of their Youth Center. Having a dedicated space was definitely helpful for organizing and arranging the bouquets.

The first round of Bouquet of Blessings encompassed a 12-hour day, from start to deliveries to clean-up. "It's hard to plan ahead. I have to arrange the bouquets when the flowers are available."

The "Bouquets of Blessings Project" has had a ripple effect across the community. From people offering vases and flowers to people offering to help Elizabeth create arrangements, and nursing homes embracing the blessings and cheer. The project fills the souls of all who contribute. That caring overflows to the nursing home residents who benefit from this loving outreach.

"People have a desire to participate in a project that touches others in our local communities. People are very generous around here."

To become a part of "Bouquets of Blessings Project" this year by offering flowers, donating vases, or volunteering your time and talents creating flower arrangements, contact Elizabeth Canfield at bouquetsofblessingsproject@gmail.com or check out her Facebook page "Bouquets of Blessings Project" to get involved.
