

Local Senior Centers Celebrate National Senior Citizen Day

By Kay Poeth

Sonja Kline of the Penns Creek Adult Resource Center was one of the lucky winners of a door prize at the Senior Centers Picnic.

On August 21, 2025, National Senior Citizen Day, the three Snyder County Senior Centers gathered together for a picnic at the Grady Kratzer Pavilion at Port Ann Wesleyan Church outside of Penns Creek. Despite the chilly weather, spirits were high! The members from Beaver Springs, Penns Creek, and Selinsgrove had not gathered together since the pandemic. So, it was a joyful reunion! The combined Senior Centers picnic was a huge success with nearly 100 in attendance.

"We planned this event on this specific day to celebrate National Senior Citizens Day. I was so happy with the great turnout and was happy to honor and serve those who attended," said Tara Bassler, Selinsgrove Senior Center Manager.

Each table had several bouquets of flowers creating beautiful decorations. The Beaver Springs Senior Center made 110 whoopie pies as favors. There was a cookie and coffee station to enjoy as all the guests arrived. Tammy Walter greeted each of the guests and obtained names for door prizes.

"I think it's wonder to have this picnic together," said Maxine Ravert of the Penns Creek Adult Resource Center. "We need this! Just to be together and socialize." Carol Schnure quickly replied, "Ditto!"

That sentiment was repeated throughout the event. "I think it's nice that all the centers can get together," said Pearl Reich of the Beaver Springs Senior Center. Hortencia Phelps agreed, "It's nice to be all together. We can meet each other and socialize."

One group from the Selinsgrove Senior Center were playing the card game, Hand and Foot, while waiting for the program to begin. It seemed like a lively game and one gentleman was definitely a rebel rouser. In another spot a group was playing 31.

Celebrities David Hassinger and Carol Brenning chuckled about signing autographs after the article appeared in the paper about the Grand Opening of the Beaver Springs Patio and Fitness Room. Park Fultz was smiling because on August 22 he would be celebrating his birthday with family and friends.

Rep. David Rowe arrived and several members wanted their picture taken with him. Nancy Watson of the Selinsgrove Senior Center chuckled that no one at her table recognized him because he didn't have hair. Melinda Weller told him he was still handsome either way!

"I am going to frame the photo with Rep. Rowe. I will send a copy to my son, Kurt in Lancaster. He will be shocked!" said Watson.

"It was a treat to join Rep. Rowe in attending the picnic today. As a Legislative Aide, one of the highlights of my job is getting to meet people in the 85th District. I strongly believe that seniors have a lot to offer and that we can learn so much from them! I saw many happy faces here today, so I think everyone had a wonderful time!" said Elizabeth A. Canfield, District Legislative Aide for PA State

Rep. David Rowe.

Throughout the picnic Tara Bassler engaged the group with Ice Breaker Quizzes, and a lively round of Guess the Price, Door Prizes and more. Bruce Phelps gave the blessing, then everyone munched on a delicious meal prepared by Townside Catering. After door prizes were awarded, Flip Side entertained the group with oldies and sing-alongs. Tara Bassler was even serenaded by the Birthday Song.

"Our senior friends enjoyed the fellowship with each other, the great food, the band Flip Side, and the hilarious games and prizes," said Tammy Walter, Penns Creek Senior Center Manager. "My heart is full of love and compassion for the senior/elderly folks and every one of them are young at heart. I thank God for the opportunity to work with each and every one of them."

Holly Kyle, Executive Director of the Union-Snyder Agency on Aging, continued the theme of celebration and gratitude as she announced exciting news regarding grant awards for the three Centers in attendance. Two Centers have received much-needed funding from the Department of Aging for critical improvements, and one has been awarded Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funding from Snyder County for a new boiler.

"Beaver Springs was awarded grant funding to replace a failing HVAC unit," Kyle shared. "Penns Creek received funding to replace its original roof, which has long outlived its expected lifespan. And Selinsgrove has been selected by the Snyder County Commissioners to receive 2026 CDBG funding to replace its 30-year-old boiler." There was a rousing round of applause as she announced each upgrade.

Kyle expressed heartfelt appreciation to all center participants in attendance, emphasizing that they are the heart of the Agency's mission. "You are the reason we do what we do every day," she said.

She also took the opportunity to urge participants to continue advocating for Aging Services. "During budget negotiations, it's crucial that our elected officials hear your voices. The Pennsylvania Lottery was created to support seniors, and those funds remain a lifeline for vital community services. We must ensure they continue to be directed specifically to the Department of Aging and, in turn, to our local Agencies on Aging."

"It was great joining constituents in the district for a picnic on National Senior Citizens Day!" said Rep. David Rowe (R-85). "Seniors are the foundation of our community and we were fortunate to have a wonderful representation of them here today. As State Representative, I will always be a strong voice for them in Harrisburg."

"I think it was a great day of celebration of our Seniors! It is a real privilege to work with the Senior Citizens in our own neighborhood," said Tina Felker, Beaver Spring Senior Center Site Manager. "It was nice to have all three of our centers together for the day. Everyone that I spoke with shared that they thought it was a great day of food, fellowship and entertainment."

Rep. David Rowe visited the Senior Center Picnic. Pictured here are Sandra Nichols, Nancy Watson, and Elsie Harris. Nancy Watson of the Selinsgrove Senior Center was thrilled to have her photo taken with him.

Obituaries

Kenneth L. Hoey, 73, Mifflinburg

Kenneth entered into rest on August 24, 2025, at Geisinger Medical Center.

He was born on November 21, 1951, in Milton, a son of the late Harold "Jack" Hoey and Ruth Irene (Miller) Hoey.

He proudly served in the United States Air Force and Air Force Reserve, achieving the rank of Staff Sergeant. His service began on April 9, 1971, in Harrisburg, PA, and concluded honorably on June 28, 1974, at Holloman Air Force Base, NM.

Family and friends are invited to a Funeral Mass on Saturday, September 20, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. at the Sacred Heart Church, 814 St. Louis St., Lewisburg.

Clarence A. Roush, Jr., 80, Mifflinburg

Clarence went home to be with his Lord and Savior Tuesday, August 19, 2025, at Geisinger Medical Center, Danville.

He was born June 18, 1945, in Lewisburg, a son of the late Clarence, Sr. and Mary (Courter) Roush.

A visitation was held Friday, August 23 where a funeral service was later held at Mazeppa Union Church, 3200 Johnson Mill Road, Lewisburg.

Joanne Landis Brings Her Narrative Oil Paintings to Gallery 255 This September

A paintbrush, a canvas, and a studio barn are all Joanne Landis needs to tell a story. Her paintings will be on display in Gallery 255 at the Public Library for Union County throughout the month of September.

Joanne considers herself a "narrative" painter. "My figures, mostly women, are often meditations on archetypes, myth, or personal experience," she said. "This allows me to build an environment inhabited by beings with all that it means to be human, alive, and still in a dream."

A graduate of the Parsons School of Design, Joanne is a native New Yorker who has taught at the Fashion Institute of Technology and the New School in New York City, as well as at Drexel University in Philadelphia. Her work has been featured in numerous solo and group exhibitions.

During her September exhibition at Gallery 255, Joanne will showcase large-scale oil-on-canvas paintings that highlight her iconic female figures and the rich stories they convey. Her art invites viewers into a world of narrative and imagination, exploring themes both universal and deeply personal.

Joanne Landis will be hosting an artist reception on Monday, September 8, from 5:30 to 6:30 pm, offering visitors a chance to meet the artist and hear about her creative process.

Artists and organizations are encouraged to apply to exhibit items of artistic, cultural, and intellectual interest in the library's gallery and/or display cases. For more information, visit unioncountylibraries.org/displays.

The Public Library for Union County is located at 255 Reitz Boulevard, Lewisburg, PA 17837. Library hours are 9:30 am to 8:30 pm on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, and 9:30 am to 5:00 pm on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday. The Public Library for Union County is a member of the Union County Library System.

Big Weekend of Tribute and Memorial Races for Three Tracks for the Super Late Models

Ross Robinson winner of the Paul Long Memorial race at Selinsgrove Speedway is greeted in High Caliber Cranes victory lane with family members Twila Long, Paula Long Schick and Jenna Mowery. Photo by Debbie Gastelu

Things started off Friday night at Bedford Speedway for the Turk Burkett Tribute Labor Day 55-lap special for the super late models. Then Saturday it was Port Royal with the Butch Renninger Memorial and it ended Sunday night at Selinsgrove Speedway for the Paul Long Memorial.

Friday at Bedford, a field of 34 drivers showed up for the Tribute race which was also part of the Fall Clash race that Jim Bernheisel had put together. Turk Burkett was a three-time feature winner at the speedway winning races since the 60's 70's and 80's. He now owns 20-feature wins and was a three-time track champion in seasons 1965, 1977 and 1978. Turk drove his famous #88 for most of his career at Bedford. For Friday night 50-lap special, Mason Zeigler of Chalk Hill PA led from start to finish for his third win in a row and fourth overall of the Labor Day special. Rick Eckert came home second with Jeff Rine third and with that third-place finish he clinched the track point championship. His tenth overall fourth and fifth went to Matt Sponaule and Justin Weaver. The Labor Day classic has been running since the 1988 season with Chuck Brannon winning the very first event. Four wins have gone to Zeigler is the most of any driver with three wins each for Rick Eckert and retired driver Jack Pencil. With the point season ending, Jeff Rine and Zeigler each have two wins with single wins going to Bryan Bernheisel who was second in points, Tim McCreadie the WOO series winner at Bedford, Jacob Piper, Matt Cosner and Tyler Ritchey. Bedford has three more non-point shows for the super late models this season.

Saturday it was the Butch Renninger Memorial at Port Royal Speedway with 31 drivers signed in for the nights action. This was the 22nd annual running of this event. Gregg Satterlee scored his sixth win in the 33-lap feature collecting $7,333 for the win. The #33 tied into the money was Butch's car number #33 when he raced. Jeff Rine is a two-time winner of this race with 16 other drivers having one that race at least once. Butch won three track titles at Port Royal in 1966, 1967 and the 1970 season. He also scored 41 career feature wins which still has him fourth on the tracks all time win list. Satterlee with his win now has 25 career feature wins at Port Royal, Gregg beat out Matt Cosner, Rick Eckert, Gary Stuhler and Hayes Mattern for the win. Gary Stuhler, who is in his 50th year of racing, was the only driver in the field to have race against Butch. "I remember Butch coming to Hagerstown to race once in a while. He was also a great guy to talk to because I was just getting started and he was in his prime at that time". The Limited late model also were a part of the Renninger Memorial program with Tyler Bare making a last lap pass over Lane Snook for the 25-lap feature win earning Tyler $3,333. Snook took second, Jaxton Garman, Ryan Zook and Eric Irvin in the top five. The past two years in this event, Butch's grandsons, Devin Hart in 2023 and Trent Brenneman, last scored the feature win with the other grandson Lane Snook, just losing out in winning this year's race. Rick Eckert with his placed run wins the super late model point championship for the second time in his career. Rick ended with 2715 over Justin weaver 2565, and then came Dilan Stake, Hayes Mattern and Gary Stuhler.

Sunday night at Selinsgrove Speedway it was the Paul Long Memorial race with Ross Robinson of Georgetown scoring the 35-lap feature win and earning $10,063 for the win over Hayes Mattern, Rick Eckert, Matt Cosner and Gregg Satterlee. Paul Long of Middleburg was a two-time track champion in the years 1966 and 1973. He also scored 32 feature wins which places him ninth on the tracks all time win list. His first win came on May 6th of 1965 with his last win coming May 3rd of the 1975 season. Paul also tried his hand at sprint car racing but after a bad crash at Williams Grove, where he broke both his legs, he stayed in the late model the rest of the career. The Memorial race started in the 2004 season with Jeff Rine getting the win. Rine won it again in 2005. Gary Stuhler won the race in the 2006 season with Nick Dickson winning in 2007. Jeff Rine scored his third win in 2008 the race was not run again until 2023 with Gregg Satterlee scoring the win, and now Ross Robinson with the win last Sunday. "I was glad to win a race named after a driver I learned from different people, plus it was my first double digit money win of my career which makes this even more special". The event on Sunday had extra money from the Long family, plus Paul's grand-daughter Jenna, drove the #63 replica car to start both the super late model and limited late model feature. Twila, Paul's wife, through the green flag to start the features. Look for this event to be back on the tracks schedule for the 2026 racing season.

Robinson, Snook Win Paul Long Memorial at Selinsgrove Speedway

By Bert Wojcik

A Labor Day tradition returned to the Selinsgrove Speedway. The Long family made sure that the 2025 running of the Paul Long Memorial was going to be something special. With the help of the Benner Family from Selinsgrove Ford, who owned Paul's #63 late model, the restored Selinsgrove Motor's Ford Torino Cobra made laps around the track with Paul's granddaughter Jenna at the controls for the Selinsgrove Ford Super Late Models presented by Latshaw's Athletic Landscaping as well as the Creekside Auto Sale's Limited Late Model's presented by Viper Risk Management group apart of the King Risk Group.

The biggest win of his career and Georgetown, DE's Ross Robinson would claim his first ever Selinsgrove Ford Super Late Model event. Meanwhile it was the same story as most of the season as Port Royal's Lane Snook would take home his fourth win of 2025 at Selinsgrove. The Hess Iron's Wingless Super Sportsman tour was not to be out done as Tony Jackson of Newville, PA would hold off a late charge to take home his first Selinsgrove win presented by Chad Baker Drain Cleaning, Plumbing and HVAC.

A season high 30 Selinsgrove Ford Super Late Models filled the pits. The 7th running of the Paul Long Memorial. Beavertown's Hayes Mattern and Robinson would be on the front row. Chalk Hill, PA's Mason Zeigler would look underneath Mattern for the second spot and would claim it off of turn four. The yellow came out immediately on the restart when several cars would check up causing Spike Moore, Colby Frye, Andrew Yoder to get caught up. Moore and Yoder would end their nights.

Green would come back out with Robinson getting some pressure from Mattern after getting around Danville's Jeff Rine. Mattern and Rine would make contact off of turn four. Rine would spin across the front straightaway making contact with the inside wall. Rine would be done for the night on lap 17.

Robinson was starting to close on lap traffic with 5 laps remaining. Robinson would do a masterful job in lap traffic. Ross Robinson won $10,063 Paul Long Memorial for his first Selinsgrove Ford Super Late Model win. "I never won two in one week. This is badass" Robinson said in High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. "You feel like superman on these big tracks until you get behind someone. Once we got in the lap traffic, I was just like please end this. But it is unreal to get the biggest win of my career here tonight."

24 Creekside Auto Sale's Limited Late Model's presented by Viper Risk Management group a part of the King Risk Group for the 25 Limited Late Model's presented by Viper Risk Management group a part of the King Risk Group Paul Long Memorial. Snook and Middleburg's Andrew Yoder would bring the field to green. Mechanicsburg's Daulton Bigler would be ripping the fence down trying to join in the fight for the top five.

Yoder would get a little too high and Miller would take third for himself from Yoder. Yoder would not be done yet. As he got himself back together.

"That was one hell of a race with Miller". Yoder said "That was kind of wide open. He was better in three and four and I was better in one and two. I found a little bit on the bottom of three and four to get around them. When Frye slid me. I had enough bite to get back down the hill and slide Frye. "There are not too many people I can run side by side like that with Yoder." Miller said. "I thought I was pretty much done racing. But it's fun to get back in the swing of things."

The Wingless Super Sportsmans Presented by Chad Baker Drain Cleaning, Plumbing and HVAC capped off the night for their second trip to Selinsgrove Speedway in 2025. 13 cars signed in for the feature event. Tony Jackson wasted little to no time to get around Burkhart for the lead. Jackson would go and set sail pulling away from the field in quick fashion to take the win.

Opening weekend for college football was a bit underwhelming and was momentarily saved by the Miami/Notre Dame game. Then the Bill Belichick led North Carolina Tar Heels ended the Labor Day holiday weekend by not showing up. What's ironic is one of Bill's famous sayings is "No Days Off" and his team took Labor Day off.

The state of Florida reigned supreme in the first full week of what is going to be a crazy year. Unranked Florida St physically dismantled #8 Alabama 31-17, #10 Miami beat #6 Notre Dame 27-24 and South Florida handled #25 Boise State 34-7. Florida shut out Long Island U 55-0.... A lot of good things come from Long Island, college football isn't one of them.

Week one will hardly define a player or team's season. Arch Manning's hype train is stuck in the station after losing 14-7 to Ohio State. Alabama was dominated up front like never before in over twenty years in losing to the Florida State team that was 2-10 last year. Manning will be fine, I'm not so sure about Kalen DeBoer and Alabama.

DeBoer was named Bama coach after the legendary Nick Saban retired and the comparison of the two are impossible to avoid. Saban left with talent stockpiled across the roster for DeBoer to continue seamlessly.

Losses like the one to Florida St are seen not as growing pains but as failures of leadership.

One stark comparison is that DeBoer has lost 4 of 14 games when Alabama has been favored by 14 or more points. Penn State coach James Franklin, much maligned for not being able to win the big game, is 24-0 when his Lions were favored by 7 or more points. You are not at Washington anymore, Mr. DeBoer.

The NFL kicks off this weekend and there are many questions that must be answered to determine which two teams will make it to the Super Bowl. One team that will not be there is the Dallas Cowboys. I have purposely not addressed the Jones/Parsons contract issue as one of the things Cowboys owner Jerry Jones likes more than winning is attention, good or bad.

I told my wife that after Taylor and Travis announced their engagement last week that Jerry Jones would get a deal done with Micah Parsons, since Jerry always has to be the lead story. I didn't expect Parsons to be traded! In return for Micah the Cowboys got a 30 year old defensive tackle and two first round picks that will be lower than #25 overall both years?

The gambler just got rid of one of the best players entering his prime. Jones did this because of his own flaws; stubbornness, a lack of urgency and the fact Micah didn't kiss the ring, much like Jimmie Johnson before him. Unfortunately for Cowboy fans there will not be any more rings as long as Jones is owner and GM.

Will the Eagles repeat as Super Bowl champs? They are the betting favorites but they are now the hunted and there are hungrier teams looking for a title. I'm not sure they will even make it to the Super Bowl.

Can LA Rams QB Matthew Stafford stay healthy all year? If he can, the Rams will represent the NFC in the Super Bowl. Still, it's not good when your 37 year old QB has chronic back issues and was very limited in pre-season practices. They have Jimmy Garoppolo as insurance to backup Stafford but there's a reason Jimmy has mostly been a backup his entire career.

Is Aaron Rodgers going to be the difference in Pittsburgh? Rodgers is considered one of the greatest QB's of all time and is a 4-time NFL MVP. One would think he should have more than one Super Bowl ring and that was fifteen years ago. Age is undefeated in all of sports and Rodgers will be 42 years old when this year's playoffs begin.

Can the Detroit Lions maintain success after losing both coordinators? Head coach Dan Campbell is a great motivator, a great players coach and has very entertaining interviews. We will find out quickly if he knows his X's and O's. His defense is healthy again but losing offensive coordinator Ben Johnson to the Bears might prove too much to overcome to get to the Super Bowl.

I have the Packers beating the Eagles in the NFC title game and the Vikings and Giants playing above their grade. Over in the AFC I have the Baltimore Ravens over the Buffalo Bills with the Patriots and Broncos exceeding expectations.

The second week of high school did not disappoint with two games coming down to the final seconds.

Momentum helps, especially at the end of each half of a football game. The Midd-West Mustangs lost to Hamburg 22-21 by giving up a combined 15 points in 47 seconds at the end of each half.

Noah Kratzer and Landon Hartman combined for over 100 yards on the ground but Hamburg had 238 yards through the air and only 20 yards in penalties. The Hamburg Hawks went for two instead of a tie with 26 seconds left in the game for their first win. Midd-West opens their home season this week by hosting Warrior Run.

In another game that came down to the wire, Shikellamy scored a TD with 27 ticks left on the clock to beat Lewisburg 29-27. Green Dragon QB Xavier Carter hooked up with wideout Jaylen Walker for two TD's that covered 9 and 67 yards. Dane Shuey and Nick Coleman combined for 112 yards on the ground. Lewisburg travels to play Bloomsburg this week.

The Road Graders showed up at Bolig Memorial Stadium in Selinsgrove and paved the way for 417 yards rushing for Twin Valley. The Raiders are not a one dimensional team as they passed for 194 yards in shutting out Grove 62-0. It doesn't get any easier this week as Jersey Shore will be traveling to Snyder county.

Mifflinburg spotted Danville 14 points before waking up and scoring the next 42 in a 42-14 win on the road. The Cats scored three times in the second quarter on a Jackson Marr 44 yard reception, Chad Martin's 8 yard carry and a 20 yard Cheeky Griffith catch.

Mifflinburg went ground and pound in the second half with Griffith hauling in an 18 yard TD. QB Martin finished with 289 yards passing with 4 TD's and another 43 yards and that rushing TD. Why Martin was throwing a pass on the last play of the game up 22 points was a questionable move. Larry Murray scored on the 74 yard pass and run as time expired. Miff travels to Montoursville this week to face the undefeated Warriors.

Field hockey got into full swing this week. The goal of all four schools is to win a district title and win some games at states. Last year our schools posted an 0-3 record at states.

Selinsgrove has 9 of 11 starters returning from last year's team that finished third at districts. Second team all-stater Taylor Fry returns with two strong sophomores in Nora Moyer and Violet Shaffer.

Defending district champion Mifflinburg also has two returning sophomores that can match the two at Grove. Kira Shoemaker and Maize Sauder return with ten other 10th graders. Anna Pachucki, Olivia Fetterman, Aubrey Fluman and Lainey Miller will provide senior leadership to guide a young team deep into the playoffs.

Midd-West lost to Mifflinburg in the D4 finals last year and are expecting to win it this year. First year coach Lyndee Harro takes over for her mother Jodie Sheaffer as head coach. Kylie Brown and Maesyn Franquet return with their 25 & 26 points from last year. Sydney Jordan will also bring skill and experience to the Mustangs.

Lewisburg returns all-stater Tia Berge and her 43 points from last year. The Green Dragons will be a well balanced team looking for more wins. Lilly Alabakoff and Julia Opperman will share the lead with Berge.

Enjoy the kickoff to the NFL season this weekend and Questions and comments are welcome at theviewfromhear74@gmail.com and on X ... @theviewfromhear Until next time Ron Bolt

Privy Dig September 5-7

Old privies were often depositories for discarded housewares, as well as commercial goods. The UCHS property at N. Water and Market streets was a tavern, hotel, and residence since about 1790. Visitors are invited to watch the dig and see what is discovered. The event is free and open to the public.

Lewisburg YMCA Offering MS Support Group

The Lewisburg YMCA is proud to introduce the MS Connection Group, a free monthly support initiative designed for individuals living with Multiple Sclerosis (MS) and their care partners to connect, share, and learn together.

The group will hold its first meeting on Thursday, September 4, 2025, from 6-7 pm in Room C at the Lewisburg YMCA, 120 Hardwood Drive. Meetings will continue on the first Thursday of each month. Attendance is free, and no registration is required. Both individuals living with MS and their care partners are encouraged to attend.

"Living well with MS often means navigating challenges a little differently—but you don't have to do it alone," said Renee Pfirman, group leader. "Our MS Connection Group is a space to support each other, explore resources, and build a community of understanding—all at no cost."

The MS Connection Group at the Lewisburg YMCA provides a welcoming space where connection, comfort, and empowerment go hand in hand. Whether newly diagnosed or long-term living with MS, every member has a role here.

For more information, contact Renee Pfirman at 845-264-5503 or Rpfirman@gsvymca.org, or visit gsvymca.org/lewisburg-ms-support-group.

Drop Your Drawers Runs September 2-30 at the West End Library

While you're out shopping for back-to-school essentials, if you spot a great deal on kids' underwear, socks, or undershirts, consider grabbing an extra pack to help a child in need.

The West End Library's Drop Your Drawers campaign runs from Tuesday, September 2, through Tuesday, September 30. During this month-long effort, the library will be collecting new, packaged underwear, undershirts, and socks in children's sizes 4-16. Donations will benefit local families, with all items going to the Mazeppa Manna Food Pantry.

This is the fifth year the West End Library has participated in the Drop Your Drawers campaign, which is easily recognized by the beloved character Captain Underpants, created by author and illustrator Dav Pilkey.

For more information, contact the West End Library at (570) 922-4773 or visit in person at 45 Ball Park Road, Laurelton, PA 17835.

Patriot Day

Patriot Day is observed on September 11 to remember those who were injured or died during the terrorist attacks in the United States on September 11, 2001. Patriot Day is also known as 9/11. Hijackers deliberately flew planes into the Pentagon in Washington DC and the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center in New York. A fourth plane crashed in a field near Shanksville PA. This was the largest act of terrorism ever on U.S. soil.

Winners of Herr Memorial Library Photography Contest

By Kay Poeth

Zachary Phillips photo was stunning. He was named the 2nd place winner in the Herr Memorial “Frame Our World” Photography Contest!

The Paint and Sip Fundraiser was the concluding event for the “Color Our World” Summer Reading Program at the Herr Memorial Library in Mifflinburg. At this event, the winners of the “Frame Our World” Photography Contest were announced and their photographs were on display. Congratulations to the winners: 1st- Gary Koppenhaver, 2nd- Zachary Phillips, 3rd- Jeremy Mack, and Patron’s Choice- Annette Koppenhaver.

The “Frame Our World” Photography Contest was open to amateur photographers, 18 years and older. Forty-two entrants had their photographs displayed on the walls of the library throughout the month of August. There was an array of perspectives including flowers, nature, people, sunsets, landscapes and animals.

Library Director Sandy Hornberger said, “There were so many beautiful photos; I could not have chosen just one.”

The judges from David Cooney Photography and Mad-

Jeremy Mack earned 3rd place in the “Frame Our World” Photography contest! His eye for the sunset was lovely!

Annette Koppenhaver’s photograph captivated Herr Memorial Library patrons and she won Patrons Choice for her striking shot of a tree.

dy Grove Creative had a difficult decision determining the winners. As they browsed the display, patrons also had an opportunity to select their favorite which was awarded Patron’s Choice. Sora Custom Framing offered to frame the winning photographs. In addition, the first-place winner, Gary Koppenhaver, received $200 worth of material including a Canon Selphy photo printer, paper and ink. The second-place winner also received a photography book.

Hornberger noted how well-received the contest was. “We did not know what to expect when we announced the contest, but we were very pleased with the number and quality of the entries,” Hornberger said. “We will definitely do this event again. We are very appreciative of the donation of frames and mats from Sora Custom Framing and the assist from our talented judges.”

“Thank you to everyone who entered Frame Our World and shared their creativity with the community. You helped light up the library with your amazing art!” posted Herr Memorial Library on Facebook.
