Santa Brings Holiday Cheer to Central Penn Bank & Trust

By Jamiee Joiner

The holiday season officially arrived with a very special visit from none other than Santa Claus himself to Central Penn Bank & Trust's Mifflinburg branch on Friday, December 5, 2025. The bank lobby was filled with excited children and their families eager to meet Santa who was wearing his iconic red suit. His presence alone brought a little holiday magic to the Bank, and he sat near the beautifully decorated Christmas tree, ready to listen to wish lists and pose for photos.

Parents were encouraged to bring their cameras to capture the magical moment when their children met Santa and they told him what they were hoping for this Christmas. I asked three-year-old, Piper Enders, of Mifflinburg, what she was hoping for this Christmas from Santa, and she replied, "a ride-on vacuum cleaner to clean the whole house." That was the best answer I have heard in years of asking that question and maybe cleaning the house would not be so bad if I had one of those myself.

Complimentary popcorn, cookies, capri sun pouch drinks, and snacks were available for the children to take home to enjoy along with a Styrofoam gingerbread house craft.

Central Penn Bank & Trust's Marketing Manager, Torey Goff stated, "This is our fourth year hosting this great event, and every year it just keeps growing. We get so many compliments about it. Being a community bank is about being community based and investing in the communities we serve."

Christmas Delivery to Hollidaysburg Veterans Home

By Kay Poeth

The Union County Veterans Foundation presented donated monetary gifts and gift cards as well as clothing and cards to Hollidaysburg Veterans' Home. Pictured here are Nina Camp, Guy Stover, and Doug Walter of the Union County Veterans Foundation with Bob Fink, a Hollidaysburg Veterans' Home resident and Vietnam veteran.

Emily McDowell, Volunteer Resources Coordinator at Hollidaysburg Veterans' Home, is thrilled to receive the gift cards and other wonderful donated items to be used for residents during the holiday season. She is shown holding some of the handmade stockings for the veterans.

On December 6, 2025, a holiday delivery was presented for the residents at the Hollidaysburg Veterans' Home. In addition to $2860 in monetary gifts and gift cards, the items included sweatpants and tops, blankets, and handmade Christmas cards and stockings by the students of Union County schools. Merry Christmas to our veterans!

"The veterans already did their part to ensure our freedoms and the least we can do is say Thank You by brightening their lives," explained Doug and Tracy Walter of the Union County Veterans Foundation. "We are trying our best to make this a true community event and to not only honor our heroes but to do something tangible to help them." "This delivery is all part of the Veterans Day Celebration in Mifflinburg," explained Doug Walter. "Our pledge is to not only honor veterans but to also help them. We proudly state that every day is Veterans Day in Mifflinburg." This has been a record year for the Collection Drive.

"I never met a group of people that are as grateful as the folks at Hollidaysburg Veterans' Home. We have been doing a benefit for Hollidaysburg Veterans' Home for a decade now," Walter added.

These donations are part of the ongoing efforts of the Union County World War II Honor Roll and Veterans Day Celebration held in Mifflinburg. Donations are tax deductible; the tax number is 23-40001032. Monetary donations can be mailed to: Union County Veterans Foundation at 916 Washington Avenue, Lewisburg PA 17837. Santa Claus Coming to Kratzerville Volunteer Fire Company

On Thursday, December 18, Santa Claus will visit the Kratzerville Volunteer Fire Company to meet with local children and to hear their Christmas wishes.

From 6-8 pm, Santa invites children of all ages to the Fire Company located at 62 Fire Hall Road, Selinsgrove, just off Route 204 in the village of Kratzerville, where they will receive treats and have the opportunity to share their Christmas wishes and wants.

Additionally, Boy Scout Troop 441 of Kratzerville invites visitors to consider donating a toy to the Toys for Tots collection box. Each year, the scouts collect toys for children who wouldn't have gifts under the tree without the generosity of others.

Food is available to order during Santa hours. The social hall is non-smoking and open to the public for Santa's visit from the North Pole.

SPORTS NEWS

THE VIEW FROM HEAR
BY RON BOLT

The high school winter sports teams are in full swing and I predict our schools will once again win four District 4 titles this winter. I picked four to win Fall district titles and hit it right. Lewisburg boys soccer (state champs) and their girls XC team. Grove field hockey and Mifflinburg football also won D4 championships.

I'd like to put a lid on the Fall season with those student-athletes named first team All-Stars. Lewisburg PHAC-III first teamers are Jaylen Walker (WR) and Ethan Long (LB).

Mifflinburg had QB Chad Martin, Cheeky Griffith and Larry Murray (WR), Landon Tucker and Xzavier Croll (OL), Landon Moser (LB), Griffith (CB) and Murray (ATH). Chad Martin was also named PHAC-II Player of the Year.

Wrestling season is here as Penn State continues to get better if that is possible. Tye Boyer was officially named the head coach at Mid-West, and Selinsgrove and Mifflinburg began their seasons with strong starts.

Boyer picked up his first win as his Mustangs beat Juniata 36-25. Evan Maneval sealed the victory with a 50 second pin in the final match. Grove dominated Shamokin 69-3 with 10 bonus point wins. The Seals then traveled to the Jarvis Tournament in Athens and took the team title. Jack Peters went unbeaten with three tech falls and a pin.

Mifflinburg placed third behind PA wrestling powerhouses Emmaus and Connellsville at the prestigious Top Hat tournament in Williamsport. Ben Straub and Landon Tucker both took gold medals home for the Wildcats.

On the hardwoods, the Lewisburg boys basketball team is looking for big results this year. They are off to a 3-0 start with their strong post play inside and sharpshooters outside. Cooper Mowry hit five treys to lead the Dragons 58-41 over Shamokin. Lewisburg followed that game by beating North Schuylkill 51-43. Lewisburg finished their week off beating Jersey Shore 64-42. Leon Tucker had 24 points with Jaylen Walker and Nazir Meredith adding 10 points each.

THE VIEW FROM HEAR

BY RON BOLT

Grove started their season with a 61-45 win over Holy Redeemer. Xavier Jackson scored 21 points and Mac DeFazio had 13. Selinsgrove made a valiant effort in the fourth quarter but fell short 57-52 to Mount Carmel. DeFazio ended with 15 and Jack Piecuch came off the bench for 14 points.

Midd-West is looking for a better season with all-star D'Zani Coley leading the way. Coley had 16 points in the Mustangs 65-44 loss to Line Mountain. Abram Sellers chipped in with 14 points.

Mifflinburg came back from a 5 point halftime deficit to beat Montoursville 64-62. Chad Martin scored 12 of his 17 points in the third quarter. Cheeky Griffith led all scorers with 29 and Grady Brubaker added 16. Mifflin County erupted for 29 points in the third quarter to hand Mifflinburg their first L 79-60. Martin had five 3's for the Wildcats.

Jackson Griffith scored his 1,000th career point in a 70-45 win over Danville. In doing so Cheeky made the Griffith name the First Family of Mifflinburg basketball. His sister Riley and father Scott are also members of the Mifflinburg 1,000 point club. His mother and coach Kelly scored 1K points at Wellsboro.

The Selinsgrove girls have gotten off to a surprisingly slow start in losing their first three games. They lost to Upper Dauphin 50-20, Southern Columbia 37-24 and Jersey Shore 36-25. They hosted the Angela Wolfe Memorial tournament and held Southern scoreless in the first quarter of their first game but only scored 2 points of their own in the second quarter. They eventually lost 37-24 and were beaten by JS 36-25 in the consolation game.

Lewisburg girls had a strong second half in beating Danville 40-37. Addy Shedleski had 11 rebounds and 7 points. The Dragonettes fell to Hughesville 58-30 after the Spartans jumped out to a 24-3 lead.

Mifflinburg got off to a fast start in beating Juniata 37-33 and Warrior Run 46-29. The Reibsoms sisters, Mia and Avery, combined for 24 points in the W over Juniata.

Susquehanna football is once again playing their best football in the playoffs and are in the Elite 8. They shutout Eastern 29-0 in the third round of the Division III playoffs. The River Hawks never allowed Eastern QB Brett Nabb, MAC player of the year, to get untracked. SU's defense created three turnovers and held Eastern to 158 total yards. They play John Hopkins this Saturday at noon.

Props have to go out to the Southern Columbia football team in winning their 15th PA state football championship. This was their eighth title in the last nine years. Another more amazing football story is Curt Cignetti and his turn-around of Indiana football.

Before Cignetti arrived in Bloomington, IN the Hoosiers had the worst record in the history of college football. In less than two years he has IU in their second college playoffs and are currently the top ranked and only undefeated team in major college football. How and what he has done has flown under the radar. Remember all the publicity and clicks Deion Sanders got at Colorado just for a winning record?

Closer to home, Penn State has finally hired their new coach for next year ... and way beyond. Matt Campbell left Iowa State for a blueblood program with more resources and bigger expectations. What took so long?

The week started with the real possibility of getting BYU's coach, Kalani Sitake, until the cookie crumbled. Sitake's a really good coach but in my mind was not a good fit. Penn State ended the week by hiring Campbell, an eastern Ohio native who coached at Toledo before Iowa State.

This would have been the best hire a week after firing James Franklin. It is made all the more satisfying after a debacle of a hiring search that took more than fifty days.

The great news kept coming the next day when Penn State retained interim coach Terry Smith and signed him to a four year contract as assistant head coach. Smith is a great recruiter and has a personal connection to current players on the roster. It might take a year to get back to the CFP but when Campbell gets the Nittany Lions to the title game he can call up his college roommate and Eagles coach Nick Sirianni to celebrate.

Speaking of the College Football Playoff, they might get it right one of these years. Coaches always talk about the process when trying to put a winning team on the field. The selection committee for the CFP needs to change their process. The goal is to get the twelve best teams in the end.

I don't have a problem throwing a bone to one Group of Five schools (5 conferences that are not the SEC, B1G, ACC or Big 12). You don't give them two! I have a better chance of going a month without eating a slice of pizza than Tulane or James Madison have of winning two playoff games. You have to win four games for the title unless you are one of the four schools with a bye.

The reason we have this mess is the CFP bylaws state the five highest ranked conference champions receive an invitation. Duke won the ACC with an 8-5 record and weren't even ranked. Tulane was the AAC champ and ranked #20 and James Madison won the Sun Belt conference and were ranked #24.

Notre Dame has a legitimate complaint for not making the playoffs. Miami and Alabama would as well if they didn't make it. By no means am I lobbying for the Irish. What I don't understand is why Notre Dame was ranked higher than Miami for all of the CFP rankings until the last one after neither team played a game.

I know Miami beat ND in their first game of the year head to head. They both had two losses and Miami's were to lesser teams, but Notre Dame was ranked higher than The U in all four weeks leading up to the final rankings. ESPN and the CFP reduced Notre Dame to a plot twist in their silly weekly television show. It felt like Notre Dame was being set up for disappointment.

All four teams that lost in their Power 4 conference title games dropped at least one spot in the final CFP rankings except one. Alabama was boat-raced by Georgia 28-7 in the SEC title game and stayed at #9 and ND went from #10 to #11...Notre Dame rushed for more yards in the SEC title game than Alabama did! Miami went from #12 to #10.

Notre Dame has decided to take their golden football home and are refusing to play in a bowl game. Iowa State and Kansas State have also turned down bowl game invites. Bowl games as we know them will cease to exist. Unless you're playing in a CFP game, players will not want to risk injury in a useless Pop-Tarts bowl.

The playoffs are going to expand in the near future to sixteen teams and possibly twenty-four. 24 would be a huge mistake. This will reduce even further the number of schools a bowl could choose from. I have a simple solution for all the bowl games.

Have your bowl game as a school's first game of the year. I realize Pasadena has better weather than Columbus, OH in January but we are talking survival for all the guys wearing colorful blazers. You will be able to attract top teams that will be willing to play another great team from another conference with the expanded playoffs. There will be less chance of what Texas is complaining about this year when they lost to Ohio State.

I promise to talk about the World Cup soccer draw in a future article. You can reach out to me with comments or questions at theviewfromhear74@gmail.com Ron Bolt

Lewisburg YMCA Offering AI Program for Kids

The Lewisburg YMCA is partnering with Susquehanna Kids of Bloomsburg and DegenSTEAM Academy to offer a free, one-hour artificial intelligence learning experience for local youth. The program is supported by the DegenSTEAM Academy, a new initiative of the 1994 Charles B. Degenstein Foundation, as well as a PA Smart Grant. The session will take place Wednesday, Dec. 17, 2025, from 4 to 5 p.m. at the Lewisburg YMCA.

The hands-on program introduces kids to foundational AI concepts using lessons from trusted organizations including LEGO® Education, Google, Minecraft Education and others, all curated on a single platform by Code.org. The goal is to help students better understand the technology shaping the world around them.

The workshop is age-appropriate, interactive and focused on the safe, responsible use of AI. Students do not need to bring any devices or materials, as all equipment will be provided. During the session, students will explore: What AI actually is and what it is not, How people use AI in everyday life and Why creative problem-solving, not computers, continues to drive innovation.

“Helping kids build confidence with emerging technology is an important part of preparing them for the future,” said Carolyn Reitz, Youth Director at the Lewisburg YMCA. “This program gives students a fun and welcoming introduction to AI, while also emphasizing safety, creativity and curiosity.”

The program, open to kids ages 5-15, is designed for beginners and aims to ensure students feel informed and empowered, not overwhelmed.

While the event is free, registration is required. Parents may register at GSVYMCA.org.

Free Mifflinburg Community Thanksgiving Meal 2025

Edited by Kay Poeth

Mifflinburg United Methodist Church is passionate about feeding residents and giving back to the community. The church, located on the corner of Third & Market Streets in Mifflinburg, has been hosting the free holiday meal for nearly 40 years.

Pat and Ed Bastuscheck, of Lewisburg, were involved with the community meal when it first began. “I’m proud to say Ed and I served as the first coordinators for the community free dinner for 12 or 14 years dating back to the 1980s. The dinner has been an annual mission project for our church for nearly 40 years with the dedication of members and friends. Let’s keep it going! Our church continues to be a ‘mission church’ in so many ways and that’s where our hearts have always been!”

The 2025 meal was dedicated to the Memory of Aimee Erdley, a driving force in this event for many, many years. Aimee’s stuffing was legendary and she was gracious enough to leave us her recipe before she passed away, just days before Thanksgiving.

Approximately, 130 meals were served this year and nearly $800 was donated to support the 2026 Free Community Thanksgiving Meal. “Thank you to everyone who supported or attended this community event—we couldn’t do it without you!” said Deborah Snare.
