Truck Accident Closes Interstate 80

On Sunday, March 10, at 4:19 p.m. a 2011 International Pro Star truck tractor driven by Danny E. Hill, 60, of Salem Ohio, was pulling a trailer, as it traveled east on Interstate 80. For unknown reasons the truck traveled through the fast lane guard rail down the center median/embankment, over the underpass of Interstate 80 and White Deer Pike. The truck struck a concrete culvert, several trees and a guard rail before coming to rest prior to the White Deer Pike.

Hill was transported to Evangelical Community Hospital, in Lewisburg, for treatment. He reported that he was having chest pains and was subsequently admitted to the hospital.

The tractor trailer sustained extensive damage from the crash and was towed by Minuteman Towing. North Ridge Group Inc., an environmental contractor, responded to the scene for clean up since the truck was leaking diesel fuel.

Assisting on the scene were the White Deer Fire and EMS, Warrior Run EMS, Minuteman Towing, North Ridge Group Inc., Windstream and PennDot. The crash remains under investigation.

Daycare Receives Donated Computer

From left are: Maria Culp, President and CEO of the Central PA Chamber of Commerce; Dawn Snyder, Robinwood Day Care Pre-school teacher; Ian Miller, Elijah Carter, Elleana McConnell, Aaron Crisman and Sue Smith-Milley, Director of the Robinwood Day Care. The day care group picked up a donated computer Thursday at the Central PA Chamber. They received it through the generosity of MeGive, a program of MePush in Lewisburg and Bloomsburg.

You would have thought it was Christmas morning all over again!

Little ones from Robinwood Day Care, in Milton, had their eyes wide Thursday as they warmly accepted a donated computer.

The kids and staff picked it up at the Central PA Chamber of Commerce, which has been housing refurbished computers to benefit area organizations. The computers come courtesy of MeGive, headed by Conor Quinlan and Michael Levan, also of MePush, in Lewisburg and Bloomsburg.

This donation was particularly touching, because of the age of the recipients.

"This will enhance their abilities to provide quality early learning experiences for their students," said Maria Culp, President and CEO of the Chamber. "It's important to me as one of the state's 70 Early Learning Investment Commissioners and our objective to increase capabilities for both the children and the staff. "Research shows that children in quality early care settings are more ready to go to kindergarten, and do better overall through their K-12 years."

Culp added, "As a Chamber of Commerce, we love connecting our members in ways that are mutually beneficial. Working with Conor and Michael to provide computer equipment to our member non-profit agencies at no cost is a win-win-win. On our end, Tea Jay Aikay, Executive/Finance Assistant, has been helping with notifying members of the opportunity and arranging pickups from our office."

PLUC to offer Parent/Child Workshop
The Public Library for Union County will be hosting 'A...B...C... Play with Me,' a five-week parent/child workshop for children ages 14-40 months and their parents.

During each session, the library provides a setting in which the child and parent can work and play together, while also introducing the parent to some of the many local resources available to help them in the rewarding, but challenging, task of parenting a toddler.

Each session will focus on a different theme including literacy, nutrition, speech and language, music and movement, and child development.

'A...B...C... Play with Me' will be held at 10 a.m. Friday and Saturday mornings. The parent/child workshop begins March 22 and runs consecutively for five weeks through April 27. There will be a one-week gap April 5-6 for the Libraries for Health Expo.

For more information or to register for 'A...B...C... Play with Me,' contact the library by calling 570-523-1172 or by visiting the circulation desk at 255 Reitz Boulevard, Lewisburg.

This winter scene shows the lumber train's narrow gauge tracks and a log landing in the woods. Duncan's lumber camp was located four miles west of White Deer. PA Dutch Life & Culture

I do want to share a remedy that was sent to me and has worked for several folks... Try using Milk of Magnesia on a shingles rash when it first breaks out to relieve the burning and itching and to dry it up. Even if you've had the rash awhile, it should help.

Does anyone still make "Homemade" Soap? I do remember that my mother made it occasionally... I believe she used it for "tough" stains... would that be correct? Here are a few recipes:

Homemade Soap
7 gallons water
4 pounds lime
5 pounds soda ash
15 pounds fat

For to Cook Soap:
5 gallons water
10 pounds soda
5 pounds lime
5 pounds fat

Boiled Hand Soap:
2 buckets water
10 pounds grease
2 tablespoons resin
1 box caustic soda

Grace's Hard Soap:
2 quarts water
2 quarts grease
1 can Babbitt's Lye
(Used with permission from the Boyertown Area Cookbook)

Goodness... I have some friends who make soap using glycerin, but I don't think I'd want to work with some of these ingredients unless I was in a Chemistry lab! Lye... that's dangerous stuff... And what is soda ash? I rather doubt that you can find a can of Babbitt's lye in the stores today. Please let me know if you or someone you know makes soap today... Do they use these caustic ingredients? You'd certainly have to be very careful! Jean Markley Keiser, 1133 Carolina Ave., West Chester, PA 19380 bjkeiser@cheerful.com

Kenseth Gets Vegas Win

By Gerald Hodges/the Racing Reporter

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Matt Kenseth celebrated his 41st birthday by winning Sunday's Sprint Cup Kobalt 400. He gained the lead during a restart on lap 240 of the 267-lap race and held off a hard charging Kasey Kahne, who led the most laps.

It was Kenseth's first win in a Toyota for Joe Gibbs Racing after spending 15 years behind the wheel of a Ford for Roush Racing. "It's always good to be a winner," said Kenseth. "I was nervous during those last laps because Kasey had a great car. Not taking on tires there at the end allowed us to be at the right spot at the right time."

Kahne dominated most of the race, but came up short at the end and finished 0.6-seconds behind Kenseth.

"I drove so hard every single lap. I didn't leave anything behind," said Kahne. "I thought we had the best car, but my tires began slipping there at the end."

Brad Keselowski didn't lead a lot of laps, but he passed Kyle Busch for third late in the race.

"We needed a little more speed," said Keselowski. "When I lost spots on the track, the guys in the pits helped me out. We didn't have the fastest car in practice, or during the race, but it turned out pretty good."

Kyle Busch raced back from a pit road speeding penalty to finish fourth.

"All in all, it was a great race," said Busch. "Our short speed was good, but we just needed to pick up more speed on the longer runs."

Carl Edwards finished fifth, followed by Jimmie Johnson, Dale Earnhardt Jr., Martin Truex, Kevin Harvick, and Paul Menard.

Danica Patrick finished 33rd, six laps down. Top-10 leaders after 3 of 36: 1. Johnson-129, 2. Keselowski-124, 3. Earnhardt-119, 4. Hamlin-102, 5. Edwards-98, 6. Martin-95, 7. Kenseth-93, 8. Biffle-93, 9. Bowyer-89, 10. Almirola-88.

HORNISH IS VEGAS NATIONWIDE WINNER

Sam Hornish Jr. drove an absolutely dominant car to victory Saturday afternoon, streaking away from Kyle Busch during a seven-lap dash to the finish in the Nationwide race at Las Vegas Motor Speedway.

The win was Hornish's second in NASCAR's Nationwide Series and his first since Nov. 12, 2011 at Phoenix. It was the first Las Vegas victory for Penske Racing in any NASCAR series.

The Penske organization also collected its first victory after switching from Dodge to Ford between seasons.

Busch rolled across the finish line in second, 1.1 seconds behind Hornish. Brian Vickers ran third, followed by Trevor Bayne and Elliott Sadler. Bayne recovered from an early brush with the wall to post the fourth-place result.

Austin Dillon, Regan Smith, Alex Bowman, Brian Scott, and Travis Pastrana were the remaining top-10.

Top-10 points leaders after 3 of 33: 1. Hornish-127, 2. Allgaier-108, 3. Sadler-108, 4. Scott-108, 5. Smith-103, 6. A. Dillon-100, 7. Vickers-96, 8. Bayne-95, 9. Piquet-93, 10. Bowman-90.

NASCAR IS WRONG

NASCAR has gone too far in attempting to manage its image.

The organization assessed Denny Hamlin $25,000 for bashing the new Gen 6 car. But he only stated what fans saw in the first two races, that it's difficult to pass and teams need time to work on the new car, just like they did when the old model was rolled out.

Others drivers have said the same thing. "The short of the long of it is I believe I was severely disrespected by NASCAR by getting fined," Hamlin said. "I believe that the simple fact of us not even having a conversation about this issue before I was hit with a fine has something to say about our relationship. What I said was one sentence taken completely out of context."

Hamlin said he will not pay the fine.

"Most drivers will tell you that we constantly have sponsors and NASCAR's best interest in mind when speaking," he continued. "On the other hand I am a person that worked very hard from the bottom to get where I am today and someone telling me that I cannot give my one hundred percent honest opinion really bothers me."

"I feel as if today NASCAR lost one of its biggest supporters. So in the end there are no winners. I said today I would not pay the fine. I stand by that and will go through the process of appealing. Trust me; this is not about the money. It's much deeper. I will now shift my focus on giving FedEx and my team what they deserve this weekend, a win."

The irony of this is that what Hamlin said about the new car and the racing last week at Phoenix wasn't all that harsh. But because Hamlin didn't choose his words correctly, or dared to compare the new car to the old one, he was called out and made the poster boy for free speech.

A few drivers like Dale Earnhardt Jr., a ten-time fan favorite are wishy-washy, when it comes to voicing their true opinions about what is happening in NASCAR. Prior to Daytona practice, Earnhardt sang praises about the new car. After a crash during a practice session, he said, "I guess I still have a lot to learn about it. It's just not handling the way I thought."

Earnhardt believes he can voice his opinion but sometimes it needs to happen behind closed doors.

"I don't think they mind you coming up in the hauler and talking about what you think about the racing and how you think things could improve or what might improve things," he said.

"I think that they're open to listening to that kind of stuff." Earnhardt then switched the conversation to how much he liked the new car, a move that likely made NASCAR officials smile.

Tony Stewart pretty much summed up the NASCAR organization back in 2002, when he said, "It's NASCAR's way or the highway."

Hamlin is determined to fight back, and fans and competitors are rallying behind him.

Fining Hamlin, or anyone for stating their opinion in a reasonable manner is going to come back and bite NASCAR.

This is a battle that NASCAR cannot win.

Its image is going to be tarnished even more.

Salute to Senior Service

Pennsylvania residents are encouraged to nominate outstanding senior volunteers. The search is on for Pennsylvania's outstanding senior volunteer. The Salute to Senior Service program, sponsored by Home Instead, Inc., the franchisor of the Home Instead Senior Care network, honors the contributions of adults 65 and older who give at least 15 hours a month of volunteer service to their favorite causes.

Nominations for outstanding senior volunteers will be accepted between Feb. 1 and March 31, 2013. State winners then will be selected by popular vote at SalutetoSeniorService.com. Online voting will take place from April 15 to April 30, 2013. From those state winners, a panel of senior care experts will pick the national Salute to Senior Service honoree.

Home Instead, Inc. will donate $500 to each of the state winners' favorite nonprofit organizations and their stories will be posted on the Salute to Senior Service Wall of Fame. In addition, $5,000 will be donated to the national winner's nonprofit charity of choice.

"We all know seniors who do so much for our community," said Joe DeLauter, president of the Home Instead Senior Care office serving the Central Susquehanna River Valley including, Lycoming, Clinton, Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Union and Snyder Counties. "These silent heroes give selflessly, expecting nothing in return. And yet, their contributions often make a difference not only to the organizations they serve, but in changing how the public views growing older."

Senior care professionals and those who work at hospitals, senior care facilities and other places where seniors volunteer are encouraged to nominate older adults. So, too, are family caregivers and the adult children of aging parents. Older adults also may self-nominate.

To complete and submit a nomination form online for a senior age 65 or older who volunteers at least 15 hours a month, and to view the contest's official rules, visit SalutetoSeniorService.com. Completed nomination forms also can be mailed to Salute to Senior Service, P.O. Box 285, Bellevue, NE 68005.

For more information about Salute to Senior Service or the Home Instead Senior Care network's services, call 866-522-6533.

SVYC to Perform "From the Stage"

This weekend the Susquehanna Valley Youth Chorale (SVYC) takes to the stage with a selection of some of the best music written for the stage, from oratorio to opera to rock 'n roll. The concert features music by Jacques Offenbach, Ludwig van Beethoven, Harold Arlen, Gioacchino Rossini, Richard Rodgers, David Brunner, Irving Gordon, Felix Mendelssohn, Andrew Lloyd Webber, and Queen.

The Youth Chorale performs in concert Sunday, March 24, 3 PM, at Zion Lutheran Church, 15 S. 5th St, Sunbury. In the church's superb acoustics and under the direction of Valerie Flamini Caldwell, the Youth Chorale's three levels - Preparatory, Camerata, and Valley Singers - will present "From the Stage."

The Preparatory Chorus, the youngest level of singers, will open the program with music from Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and feature Jessep Caravella, a Valley Singers member from Danville. Camerata singers will offer distinctively different stage music, performing from the 1846 oratorio Elijah and Spiritual Musick composed in 2010. The latter was "purchased" in an auction by thirteen children's choirs from the US, Canada, and Scotland. Thirteen premieres of this piece occurred on separate stages throughout 2010-2011 in addition to a notable performance by the Children's Honor Choir at the 2011 national conference of the American Choral Directors Association. The quirky text was written in London by Christopher Smart during his confinement for insanity between 1759 and 1763.

The high school Valley Singers perform music from Beethoven's only opera, Fidelio, singing in German. Featured are Angelina Rodkey and Riley Cellitti of Sunbury, David Wolfe of Shamokin, and Timothy Panarese of Middleburg. The Neighbors' Chorus from La Jolie Parfumeuse, a comic opera of 1873, showcases Everett Kopp of Winfield and Kara Heim of Herndon.

One highlight of the concert is Unforgettable, originally made famous by Nat King Cole. This rendition brings together the Youth Chorale and their grandparents and features a duet by SVYC singer Emily Wetzel and her grandfather David Reier. The Preparatory Chorus delights with the Comic Duet for Two Cats related to Rossini's opera, Otello, with a duet by Natalie Mathews of Sunbury and Kylee Noble of Middleburg. The singers then sing of their "favorite things" from The Sound of Music.

Valley Singers reproduce the beautiful sound of the group Celtic Women, as they perform two works which have had worldwide success on the stage and through recordings by this Irish phenomenon. A musical memorial to those who experienced loss as a result of Sandy Hook Elementary tragedy will showcase the Camerata singers, accompanied by the youngest and oldest levels. Over the Rainbow from The Wizard of Oz featuring Aleah Spiro of Lewisburg, and Somebody to Love spotlighting Natasha Smeonoff of Selinsgrove and Austin Duclos of Winfield brings the concert to a close.

Exciting plans are underway for "CAMP EXPRESSO," an innovative 2013 summer camp for young singers to be held the week of August 5. In collaboration with Lewisburg Area Recreation Authority (LARA), SVYC staff will offer two levels, half-day and full day, of a vocal camp devoted to developing skills for stage singing. Hosted at Central Oak Heights, West Milton, students with singing experience from grades 3-12 are eligible to attend. Highlights will include vocal instruction, use of props and costuming, blocking and stage movement, guest artists, and a culminating performance. Tuition and activity information will be available after April 1st at WWW.GOLARA.ORG and WWW.SVCMUSIC.ORG.

"From the Stage" concert tickets are available at the door March 24 or online at svcmusic.org: $10 for adults, $5 for students, and children 6 and younger free. For information, call the SVC office, 570-547-0455.

Historical Society Dinner & Program

The Union County Historical Society Annual Spring Dinner and Program will be held on Thursday, April 11, starting at 6 PM, at the Union County Sportsmen's Club near Weikert.

The program, Changes to the Forest Landscape of the West End from 1754-2013, is a narrated visual presentation on the changes that have occurred in the forests of the West End of Union County over the last 250 years.

Presenter Tony Shively is a writer, historian, and publisher of the monthly newsletter The Millmont Times. A lifelong resident of Millmont and a graduate of Mifflinburg High School, Tony retired from Pennsylvania House and is currently working for the U. S. Postal Service in Millmont. Tony Shively's interest in local history, particularly the West End of Union County, was handed down to him by his grandfather, Jacob G. Shively. Tony is a past board member of the Union County Historical Society and currently serves on its publications committee. He wrote Heritage Vol. XVIII, The CCC Camps of Union County (1933-1942): Life and Work in the Civilian Conservation Corps.

The program, Changes to the Forest Landscape, will touch on topics including the virgin forest that greeted early European settlers who migrated into this section of Pennsylvania; early lumbering practices, products made by coopers, charcoal making and bark peeling; the use of splash dams, log slides, and the arrival of "Yankee" lumbermen from Maine. Shively will examine changes affecting the forest with the arrival of large-scale lumber companies, and the legend of Pardee Engine 59. Hear about the purchase of large tracts of clear-cut forestland, R. B. Winter's efforts at reforestation, the Civil Conservation Corps' contribution to those efforts, as well as changes occurring in the forests today.

The program will follow a delicious buffet with Roast Beef, Baked Chicken and Fish, Vegetables and Salad, Desserts, Ice Cream, and Beverages. Cash bar. Pre-paid reservations are required at a cost of $16.50 per person. Reservations may be sent to the Union County Historical Society, 103 S. Second Street, Lewisburg, PA 17837. Reservations are due by April 1.

This public program is the fourth in over sixty events being offered during Union County's Bicentennial year. For more information go to the Union County Bicentennial Committee's web site: www.UnionCounty200.com. Or contact the Society at 524-8666 or hstoriel@ptd.net.
