Teen Leaders Club Hosts Souper Bowl Of Caring Food Drive

The Mifflinburg YMCA Teen Leaders Club recently concluded their Souper Bowl of Caring Food Drive. The teens collected 839 individual food items and donated them to the Mifflinburg Backpack Club. These items will be distributed each week to students in need at Mifflinburg Elementary and Intermediate Schools.

The Mifflinburg Backpack program provides a backpack of meals and snacks to kids in need every weekend. The Mifflinburg YMCA is an on-going drop off location for the Backpack Club. Donations of individual servings of easy to prepare food are accepted during regular business hours.

Matthew and Zachary Hyder, both from New Berlin, Gage Wargo, Mifflinburg, and YMCA Youth Program Coordinator, Jeremy Hoffman, presented the food donation to Carol Grove representing the Mifflinburg Backpack Club. Zachary shared why he participated, "I like doing it because it helps the community, and I can show my love for local people."

The Teen Leaders Club meets every other week from 3:00 - 4:30 pm, at the Mifflinburg YMCA. Students in 6th through 9th grades participate in character building activities and service projects. Club members enjoy fun activities and presentations by members of the community, as well as opportunities to serve. Gage enjoys coming to the Y to have fun and see his friends. His favorite activity is spot the difference, an activity that encourages careful observation by comparing two pictures and finding the differences. A free youth membership is a benefit to committing to the Teen Leaders program. Recent service projects included setting up for a community Thanksgiving meal and collecting items to stuff stockings for residents at Riverwoods.

Join the Teen Leaders Club on Tuesday, March 29 for FREE bowling and pizza. Please call the YMCA, 570.966.7273, to reserve a spot and meet at the Y for the event.

Follow the Mifflinburg YMCA on Facebook learn more about the Y and all that we offer in our community. For more information about the Y, contact Angela Haines, Director, ahaines@gsvymca.org / 570.966.7273 or visit our website - www.gsvymca.org

After the food was counted, Zachary Hyder helped prepare the boxes to be picked up.

Gage Wargo counts food items that were donated through the Souper Bowl of Caring.

Matthew Hyder sorts and counts individual servings of cereal to be donated to the Mifflinburg Backpack program.

Legislative Breakfast with Future Farmers of America

Recently, Rep. David Rowe (R-Snyder/Union) had a great time at the 33rd Annual FFA Legislative Breakfast with students from the Selinsgrove and Mifflinburg school districts!

"Pennsylvania's future is bright with these young leaders!" says Rep. Rowe.

PORT ROYAL, PA – With a remarkable last-lap pass, Ryan Godown outdueled Mike Gular in an instant classic at the Port Royal Speedway to win the Speed Showcase 40 on Sunday, continuing Godown's feverish start to the 2022 campaign.

"This is so surreal," Godown said in Victory Lane. "I'm just riding the wave right now; I've always dreamed about winning here."

The $5,000-plus victory is Godown's 10th in Bob Hilbert Sportswear Short Track Super Series (STSS) Fueled By Sunoco competition, coming immediately after capturing the historic opener of the STSS Elite Series at South Carolina's Cherokee Speedway last month – a $25,000 win. Godown now leads the point standings of both the STSS Halmar International Elite Series, worth $25,000, and the Hurlock Auto & Speed Supply South Region, a $15,000 championship.

After stalking Gular in the closing stages, Godown buried it in on the top of turns one and two for the last time and rocketed down the backstretch and into the lead as the field turned for home.

Gular, who led early and then fell back to third before roaring back to the lead, didn't expect to see anyone going down the backstretch.

Gular drew the pole and led the 32-car field to the green at the palatial Port Royal Speedway, with Jimmy Horton, Jared Umbenhauer, Mike Mahaney and Stewart Friesen in tow.

Friesen dropped early, losing spots to Mat Williamson and Godown on the opening lap. That didn't last long, though. On lap three, Friesen slid up to the fence between turns one and two, hit the curb and rocketed through the middle of Williamson and Godown down the backstretch before soaring around Umbenhauer for fourth in three and four.

Three laps later, Mahaney and Friesen both passed Horton for second and third, respectively, before Horton, aboard his Halmar International-sponsored No. 43, slowed to a stop for the race's first caution on lap eight.

When racing resumed once more with 32 to go, Friesen drove by Mahaney for the runner-up spot with Godown lurking. Just one lap later, Friesen wasted no time driving around Gular for the lead while Godown made his way around Mahaney.

With Friesen, Gular and Godown out front, the battle for fourth between Mahaney, Williamson, Umbenhauer, Matt Sheppard and Mike Maresca was raging on with positions swapping on each circuit.

Just after Godown passed Gular for second on lap 14, Friesen slowed with a terminal issue on the front straightaway, ending his night and relinquishing the lead to Godown.

On the restart with 25 laps left, Godown led Gular, Mahaney, Williamson, Sheppard and Maresca as Umbenhauer was forced to the pits with a flat. Entering turn one, Gular threw a big slider on Godown, but the Ringoes, N.J., driver was able to cross the attempt and regain the lead with 16 laps complete.

Further back, while Maresca passed Mahaney for third, Matt Stangle, a provisional starter from 32nd spot, entered the top 10 after moving ahead of Dan Creeden and Danny Johnson.

Immediately after the restart, Godown had pulled away from Gular, but the pole-sitter started inching closer as the race neared the halfway point. By lap 24, Gular was there and unleashed another slider that Godown was able to cross. One lap later, Gular made it stick and regained control of the race.

Maneuvering through the middle of the track, Gular gapped Godown a bit before the two entered lapped traffic with 11 to go. Just as Godown readied for attack once more, the caution flag flew on lap 30, restacking the field and giving the leaders clean air once more.

After a slew of restarts, Gular still held the lead with five to go, utilizing the middle as Godown continued to bomb the outside.

As the top two barreled under the waving white flag, Gular peeled off into the middle and Godown sent it on the top. Off turn two, Godown inched by Gular and then dropped to the bottom in turns three and four to seal the win.

"The track was great, this is an awesome facility, and it's a dream come true to win here at Port Royal," Godown lauded. Gular settled for second.

"I was pretty good tonight," he said on the homestretch. "The track was great, racy as always; all in all, it was a good run, my best run here. I love racing here and I can't wait to come back in October." Gular really came to life when he moved off the bottom and into the middle after dropping to third.

Williamson, a two-time winner at Port Royal, crossed the line in fourth, just ahead of Sheppard, who came from 11th starting spot.

Finishing sixth through 10th, respectively, were: Mahaney, the defending champion of the STSS Hurlock Auto & Speed Supply South Region; Anthony Perrego, who battled from the 13th spot; Danny Johnson, a constant in the top-10 throughout the 40-lap main event; B-Main qualifier Ryan Watt, who journeyed from all the way back in 25th; and provisional starter Stangle from 32nd.

Next on the Bob Hilbert Sportswear Short Track Super Series Fueled By Sunoco calendar is a stop at the Orange County Fair Speedway on Saturday, April 2 with $25,000 on the line for the winner. The event at the legendary 'House of Power' is the second race of the historic STSS Elite Series while also serving as the opener for the STSS North Region.

Peck Pounces For Williams Grove Opening Day Sprints Win

Mechanicsburg – Justin Peck of Monrovia, Indiana, scored the 2022 season opener for sprint cars at Williams Grove Speedway on Friday night, taking over the lead from Mark Smith on lap nine. Peck scored $5,500 for his second career payday at the track aboard the Tom Buch No. 13.

In other action, Gregg Satterlee of Rochester Mills pocketed his fourth career oval win in super late model action with the ULMS Racing Series.

The start of the 25-lap 410 sprint car main was red-flagged when Brad Howard catapulted down the backstretch, escaping injury. The restart saw second starter Scotty Thiel pull pitted, placing Pat Cannon alongside Smith on the front row. Cannon tried to keep pace with Smith at the front with fifth starter Peck up to third when Anthony Macri laid his car over in the third turn on lap six.

When the cars re-fired, defending track champion Lance Dewease withdrew from the event with a right rear flat while racing in ninth. Peck muscled by Cannon for second on the restart and set his sights on leader Smith who he quickly ran down as he blasted the cushion. Smith then soon fell off of the pace and pulled pitted on the ninth tour, handing control to a surging Peck who began to run off with the lead.

A final caution flag regrouped the field with four laps to go when Anthony Macri came up lame, this time in the first turn.

Peck pulled away on the restart to take the win by 1.608 seconds ahead of Cannon, Lucas Wolfe, Dylan Norris and Kyle Reinhardt. Sixth through 10th went to Freddie Rahmer, Brent Marks, Danny Dietrich, Aaron Bollinger and Steve Buckwalter. Heats went to Smith, Wolfe, Devon Borden and Skylar Gree with Macri taking the consolation race.

Polesitter Kyle Hardy led the first eight laps of the scheduled 30-lap ULMS super late model main and endured three caution periods and a red flag for a rain delay before breaking out of the lead.

After a 15-minute rain delay, Hardy lined up at the helm ahead of sixth starter Satterlee only to suddenly slow and fall behind as the field crossed to complete the ninth tour. Satterlee then withstood a pair of restarts as the leader, pulling away each time only to be slowed with 10 laps to go because of another rain shower. The dampness caused officials to call the race official at that point and declare Satterlee the $3,500 victor. He took the win by more than two seconds over Rick Eckert, Jason Covert, Gene Knaub and Andy Haus. Sixth through 10th went to Danny Snyder, Matt Cosner, Kyle Lee, Jared Miley and Tyler Emory. Heats went to Satterlee, Jared Miley and Hardy. Fast time was set by Hardy with a lap of 19.608 seconds.
