A DIRECT MAIL PUBLICATION - 16TH YEAR - NO. 26 Summer Reading Kick-Off Event A Huge Success

Matt Burrows of the Pennsylvania State Police, Milton, shows off his cruiser during the Union County Library System's summer reading kick-off event.

"Think big, work hard, and have a dream!" was the advice former Pittsburgh Steelers linebacker Andy Russell gave to kids on Saturday during the Union County Library System's summer reading kick-off event "Follow Your Dreams."

Russell was one of several professionals who participated in the event showcasing the importance of following your

"Overall it was a huge success," said Roberta Greene, UCLS Director. "We had over 150 kids and parents participate and all had a great time!"

Each child was given a dream box, which they decorated with markers and stickers and each station had dream slips they could fill out and put in their dream box.

'It was kind of like a kid's version of a bucket list," explained Coni Marie Sheridan, UCLS Development and Marketing Coordinator. "It was a way for them to create goals related to each profession that they'd like to accomplish."

Children could also enter into a drawing for a bicycle. The winner was Timothy Hollenbach.

Along with Russell, other participants included Grammy Award winning drummer Steve Mitchell, singer/ songwriter KJ Reimensnyder-

Retired Public School Employees Award Scholarship to Mifflinburg Area Senior

On May 24, 2012, the Union Chapter of the Pennsylvania Association of School Retirees (PASR) awarded a $500 scholarship to Korynn Wagner, a senior at Mifflinburg Area High School.

This scholarship, presented at the Mifflinburg Area High School, commemorates the 75th Anniversary of PASR, the association representing more than 190,000 public school retirees across the Commonwealth, PASR's more than 33,000 member teachers, administrators, and school support personnel are dedicated to serving others in need and helping one another enjoy

To be considered for this commemorative scholarship, seniors must be planning to major in education in college. After reviewing the scholarship applications and interviewing the candidates, Union Chapter selected Korynn Wagner as one of the recipients of this special 75th Anniversary scholarship. Korynn plans to attend Millersville University to become a special education and early childhood elementary school teacher.

PASR's Union Chapter believes that Korynn is an outstanding student deserving of this accolade and commends her scholastic achievements and career aspirations

Eichenlaub Receives the 2012 DEKALB Accomplishment Award

Sarah Eichenlaub of Mifflinburg H.S. was recently presented the school's highest agricultural honor, the Dekalb Agricultural Accomplishment Award, sponsored by Monsanto Company.

Sarah, the daughter of Troy and Sherri Eichenlaub received the award for excellence in academics, leadership, and agricultural work experience. Eichenlaub's significant experiences and accomplishments have included a supervised agricultural experience program consisting of On Farm work experience, Swine finishing, and Off-farm work experience. Sarah has served various leadership positions on the chapter and SUN Area level including

SUN Area President, chapter president and chapter treasurer. This year the Dekalb Agricultural accomplishment award celebrates its 65th anniversary. Over these 65 years more than 168,000 high school seniors from across the country have received the award, which has become a symbol for excellence and the school's highest agricultural honor. In 2011, over 2,000 students from high schools in 49 of the 50 states were recognized with the award.

As a winner of the 2012 award, Sarah Eichenlaub's name will be recorded on a permanent plaque displayed at Mifflinburg High

Herr Memorial Library implementing PA Forward with health programs

The Herr Memorial Library, partnering with Watsontown Health & Rehab Center, will be hosting a series of health-related programs this summer.

June 29, 2012, Union County Times -3

The kick-off program will feature Healthy Eating and will be held at 7:15 p.m. on Thursday, July 19. Along with explaining the benefits of a healthy diet, there will also be samples of healthy foods to try. This program is suitable for all ages and registration is required. Additional programs will be held in The Health Series is part of the PA Forward Initiative which focuses on the five essential literacies—Basic, Information

Civic and Social, Financial and Health. PA Forward is built upon the belief that libraries are uniquely positioned to help citizens improve their command of the five types of literacy essential to greater success in all vital roles of life: as students, as parents, as employees, as consumers, as citizens. Along with the health-related programs, the library is also looking forward to offering additional programs and events related to the PA Forward Initiative, including programs for adults, teens, and children. Because of this, we currently have an opening for a Children's Program Coordinator and additional volunteer opportunities available. For more information on this program or the employment and volunteer opportunities available, visit the website at www.herrlibrary.org. You can also contact the library to register for this program by calling 570-966-0831.

Herr Memorial Library hosting hoagie fundraiser The Herr Memorial Library, partnering with Ard's Farm Market, is currently hosting a hoagie sale fundraiser. Tickets, redeemable for a regular, ham and cheese, Italian or vegetarian hoagie, can be purchased for $5.50 at the library Tickets can then be redeemed at Ard's Farm Market, located along Route 45, just west of Lewisburg. Tickets must be used by

For more information or to purchase tickets, stop by the library at 500 Market Street, Mifflinburg.

Navy Seaman Recruit Wesley A. Doebler, son of Brenda S. and Alan R. Doebler of New Berlin, recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill. During the eight-week program, Doebler completed a variety of training which included classroom study and practical instruction on naval customs, first aid, firefighting, water safety and survival, and shipboard and aircraft safety. An emphasis was also placed on physical fitness. The capstone event of boot camp is "Battle Stations". This exercise gives recruits the skills and confidence they need to succeed in the fleet. "Battle Stations" is designed to galvanize the basic warrior attributes of sacrifice, dedication, teamwork and endurance in each recruit through the practical application of basic Navy skills and the core values of Honor, Courage and Commitment. Its distinctly "Navy" flavor was designed to take into account what it means to be a Sailor.

Doebler is a 2010 graduate of Mifflinburg Area High School of Mifflinburg.

American Red Cross Offers Survivor Youth Camp for Area Teens

The SUN Area Chapter of the American Red Cross announces its third annual Survivors Camp for children ages 11-15. The camp will be held at the chapter office, 249 Farley Circle, Lewisburg, and will run from Monday, July 16, through Friday, July 20, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Participants register for the week-long day-camp by visiting www.redcross.org/takeaclass or by calling 1-800-733-2767, using coupon code #SURVIVOR-CAMP0812

The cost for the class is $100 and will include instruction and certification in a variety of Red Cross courses such as First Aid, Adult CPR, Infant Child CPR, Pet First Aid and the full Baby Sitter training course. Students will also be introduced to Disaster Services, Service to the Armed Forces, Blood Donation and International Humanitarian Aid.

A second session of the camp will be held July 30 through August 3. The camp is being underwritten by the United Way of the Greater Susquehanna Valley which is contributing $183 per participant. Each session is limited to 25 participants.

Students should pack a lunch daily until Friday, at which time they will have the opportunity to participate in a Mock Disaster Drill. Using the skills learned during camp week, they will prepare and serve their lunch using a Red Cross Emergency Response Vehicle (ERV). Campers' parents and older siblings, grandparents and other adults close to them are invited to participate in the drill as "victims" and to enjoy lunch with their graduating students.

Parents or guardians of participating students will be expected to sign waivers and complete a health history form.

Folker Receives PASR Award

John Letter, President of the Union County Chapter of PASR and Melissa Folker, Scholarship Recipient. Lewisburg Area High School Senior receives a Union County

Chapter, Retired Public School Employees Scholarship Award Melissa Folker, a senior at Lewisburg Area High School was awarded a Pennsylvania Association of School Retirees (PASR) $500 scholarship on May 29, 2012 by Union County PASR

Chapter President, John Letter. This scholarship, presented at the Lewisburg Area High School, commemorates the 75th Anniversary of PASR, the association representing more than 190,000 public school retirees across the Commonwealth, PASR's more than 33,000 member teachers, administrators, and school support personnel are dedicated to serving others in need and helping one another enjoy retirement. To be considered for this commemorative scholarship, seniors must be planning to major in education in college. After reviewing the scholarship applications and interviewing the candidates, Union Chapter selected Melissa Folker as one of the recipients of this special 75th Anniversary scholarship. Melissa will be attending Westminster College and plans to become a elementary school teacher.

PASR's Union Chapter believes that Melissa is an outstanding student deserving of this accolade and commends her scholastic achievements and career aspirations.

Bowyer Wins California Road Race

By Gerald Hodges/the Racing Reporter

SONOMA, Calif.—Clint Bowyer powered his way to victory Sunday in the Sprint

Cup SaveMart 350, ahead of Tony Stewart.
"I knew it was a huge risk switching teams during the off season, but it has sure paid off," said Bowyer. "It's all about working together, and this team has really put it all nudge several times.

The race's second caution came on lap 107 of the 110-lap race, sending it into a greenwhite-checkered finish.

I hit some speed bumps on the restart that weren't fastened down, and broke the pan hard bar on the car which allowed Tony to get by me." Brian Vickers and Jimmie Johnson were fourth and fifth, respectively. Even though Jeff Gordon finished sixth, he continued to experience problems. He ran out of gas on lap 73 and had to coast about one-half mile into his pit stall. He was third at the time, but dropped back to fifteenth. Near the end of the race, he had the fastest car, but ran out of laps. Greg Biffle, Marcos Ambrose, AJ Allmendinger, and Joey Logano were the remaining top-10 finishers. Dale Earnhardt Jr. never ran up front, and on the last lap, he and several other cars got together, and he wound up 23rd. Top-12 Chase contenders after 16 of 36: 1. Kenseth-596, 2. Biffle-585, 3. Earnhardt-582

4. Johnson-571, 5. Stewart-533, 6. Harvick-532, 7. Bowyer-529, 8. Hamlin-523, 9 Truex-520, 10. Keselowski-490, 11. Edwards-479, 12. Kyle Busch-459. NELSON PIOUET IS NATIONWIDE WINNER

Nelson Piquet Jr. of Brazil won Saturday's Nationwide race at Road America in only his third series start.

"I knew I could do it," said Piquet. "It was a matter of getting the right people together "Once I opened a little gap over the second-place car, I knew it was my race. I was in control.

He started on the pole and led the most laps. In addition to running selected Nationwide races. Piquet is a regular in the truck series.

The remaining top-10 finishers were: Michael McDowell, Ron Fellows, Max Papis Sam Hornish, Jacques Villeneuve, Brian Scott, Kurt Busch, Cole Whitt, and Justin All-

Villeneuve collided with Danica Patrick on the last lap as the two drivers were battling for a top-five finish, causing Patrick's car to spin out. Villeneuve finished sixth, while Patrick recovered and finished 12th. "Where Villeneuve goes, there tends to be cars that have problems, whether it's his fault or the other car's fault or (just) stock car racing at the end of the race," Patrick said. Top-10 points leaders after 14 of 33: 1. Sadler-517, 2. A. Dillon-507, 3. Stenhouse-494. 4. Hornish-483, 5. Whitt-442, 6. Allgaier-441, 7. Annett-414, 8. Bliss-364, 9. Scott-339, 10. Patrick-337.

GORDON AND EDWARDS IN BIG SLUMP Until the checkered flag was dropped on the last lap of the 2011 Cup season, Carl Edwards was in contention to win the Sprint Cup championship. Instead, he lost it to Tony Stewart by only three points. But the 2012 season is a different story.

Edwards is 11th in the standings, 11 points outside the top-10. But the fact is he has not been the same racer who led the standings for 21 weeks last year and had a record average finish of 4.9 in the Chase. "I can't really tell you what our problems are," said Edwards. "It's not that I'm not trying, or the team doesn't want to win. A lot of folks have said because of the intensity of last year's championship drive, it has deflated us this year. But that's not so. "I look forward to each race, and I can honestly say that my heart is as much in it as it ever was.

Edwards has just two top-fives and eight top-10 finishes. He's led just only races and struggled to finish in the top-10 in most races. He's also been in a couple of wrecks and suffered the kind of misfortune he managed to avoid last season.

While Edwards is in line to make the Chase, Jeff Gordon is having his worst season After 16 races into the season, Gordon is 18th in points. His sixth-place win at Sonoma moved him up two spots. The four-time Cup champion has never been this low in points at this point of the season in his 20-year career, not even as a rookie in 1993 Gordon's luck has perhaps been worse than any driver this year, miring him in the standings and leaving him desperate for wins just to earn a wild card into the Chase. It not, he will miss the playoffs and finish outside the top-10 in points for only the second time in his career.

Gordon, who has 85 career victories, could still reel off a couple of wins and make the Chase, but the way this season has gone, it's a long shot. Not only have he and his Hendrick Motorsports team made critical mistakes and been the victims of horrible luck, he has been inconsistent and has not run up front as he usually does.

And it's very ironic that Gordon's other three teammates are in contention for the Chase. Does he have some type of "monkey" on his back? If something doesn't happen, and soon, he is going to be on the outside of this year's Chase. Weekend Racing: All three of NASCAR's major series are at the 1.5-mile Kentucky

Teacher, Michael Creeger. With more than 13,000 students representing 400 high schools from across the country participating in the 9th annual national Capitol Hill Challenge, sponsored by the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association and Foundation, students from Lewisburg High School took first place after producing a portfolio value of $285,443.03 representing a return equal to slightly more than 185 percent over their initial virtual $100,000 investment fund. Participating Lewisburg High School team members included Brett Clark and Daniel Cole. They were instructed by Lewisburg High School teacher Michael Creeger and represented Pennsylvania Senator Patrick Toomey during this year's Challenge. In Pennsylvania the Stock Market Game is sponsored by EconomicsPennsylvania, the single largest not for profit economic education and financial literacy organization in the Commonwealth, serving teachers and students in grades K - 12. The Capitol Hill Challenge is underwritten by Mifflinburg Bank and Trust a major benefactor of EconomicsPennsylvania and whose President and CEO, Jeffrey Kapsar, is a member of the State Board of

Kenneth E. Bentson, Jr., executive vice president, public policy and advocacy at SIF-MA, congratulated the Lewisburg High School team on winning the 2012 Stock Market Game "Capitol Hill Challenge" and said, "... now more than ever, it is critically important for students to learn about and financial planning. The Stock Market Game "Capitol Hill Challenge" helps our future leaders develop math, research, and team building skills that are vital in American businesses and a global economy. We are absolutely thrilled to have partnered with Senator Toomey in this important financial literacy outreach program and express our appreciation to him, the Mifflinburg Bank and Trust Company for their financial partnership and to EconomicsPennsylvania for their excellent management and delivery of the Stock Market game throughout the hundreds of Pennsylvania school districts" Bentson con-

The Lewisburg High School students, their teacher and Mr. Kapsar will enjoy an all-expenses paid trip to Washington, D.C. to meet with the Pennsylvania congressional delegation including a visit with Senator Toomey, tour the nation's Capitol and see firsthand how our national economic policies are developed. Since the Capitol Hill Challenge began in 2004, nearly 1200 United States Representatives and Senators have engaged in this special version of the Stock Market Game program with more than 30,000 students from schools across the country participating.

Speaking about the Stock Market Game and the Capitol Hill Challenge Mr. Kapsar noted that both activities are curriculum based programs where student teams in grades 4 - 12 learn about the global marketplace and long term savings and investing fundamentals by using a hypothetical brokerage account in the amount of $100,000. Annually, the program serves in excess of 25,000 teachers and 600,000

Teachers receive grade level specific curriculum guides, lesson plans and newsletters to incorporate the program into their core mathematics, social studies, business, economics and language arts programs.

"As a donor and a volunteer I'm enormously pleased that throughout the state we have such a wonderful learning program for our young people and that, consistently, they demonstrate their understanding of the concepts of economic and financial literacy concepts which underscores that our future is in very good hands. On behalf of the EconomicsPennsylvania cadre of volunteers and donors I extend our appreciation to SIFMA for their continued and sustained support of this valuable educational initiative and we look forward to many more years of a mutually productive endeavor" Mr. Kapsar said.
