Union Township Fire Company Hosted New Tanker Dedication

By Kay Poeth

On December 14, the Union Township Fire Company in Winfield hosted a New Engine Dedication and Open House. The Dedication Ceremony welcomed a 2021 Sutphen Custom Pumper Tanker into operation.

On Tuesday evening, December 14, the Union Township Fire Company in Winfield hosted a New Engine Dedication and Open House. Pastor Corey Mitchell of the Winfield Baptist Church offered the blessing.

The Dedication Ceremony welcomed a 2021 Sutphen Custom Pumper Tanker into operation. The tanker will serve Union Township and surrounding communities as Engine 6. Many thanks to committee members Rick Wetzel, Dave Anderson, Andy Renner, Chris Benfer, Benjamin Wetzell, Stave Hlavaty, Greg Wagner, John Ziants, Jeff Brouse, and the late Steve Anderson for their efforts on this project. The truck was built in the Sutphen East plant in Lake Ariel, PA.

This new Sutphen Custom Pumper was dedicated to the memory of Deputy Fire Chief Steven R. Anderson who passed away on November 27. Since 1975 Steve served in the Union Township Fire Company in Winfield and held many positions including Vice President. He was also a lifetime member and past Assistant Chief of William Cameron Engine Company in Lewisburg.

Township Supervisor Mark Bieber posted, "I would like to express how proud I am to live and work in this community. It is an honor to serve the residents of this township. The men and women and the juniors who have stepped up to make the purchase of this much needed piece of firefighting equipment a reality for the benefit of our residents need to be commended and applauded for their tireless effort to make it a reality for the whole community."

The Open House and Dedication also included light refreshments. The evening was capped off with the raffle drawing of the fire company's Holiday Ham raffle.

Farmland Protection Signup

Attention Union County Farmland Owners:

Applications for the 2022 Union County Ag-Land Preservation Program are being accepted until January 31, 2022. The Ag-Land Preservation Program is a State and County-run program that purchases development rights from landowners in order to protect farmland for future food production and open space preservation. This method of preserving farmland allows landowners to receive compensation for keeping their land in farming. The price paid for these rights is based on the difference between the whole farm-development market value and the farmland market value. For the year 2021 purchase period, easement purchases in Union County ranged from $2400 to $3140 per acre. Base prices are determined by a certified appraisal. A locally appointed board of director's guide the program, and establishes the methodology of prioritizing farms and the purchase price of development rights. The purchase price may not exceed 85% of the appraised easement value. In order to qualify, farms must be in a duly recorded Ag. Security Area, have at least 50 acres (unless contiguous to other approved preserved land), and meet soil quality parameters as required by state regulations. A farm must have a current erosion and sedimentation or conservation plan, and a manure management or nutrient management plan to apply.

As you may be aware, the Union County Ag-Land Preservation Board purchases easements through a very competitive and limited program. However, you may not be aware that the program also accepts donations of agricultural conservation easements. By donating your development rights from the property to a qualified organization, you may generally deduct the fair market value of the property. We will be accepting donations during this same timeframe and this is a way to have peace of mind that your farm will remain farmland.

Contact Cindy Kahley, Union County Conservation District, at 155 North 15th St., Lewisburg, PA., or call 570-524-3860 for more information or to pick up an application.

Evangelical Awards DAISY Honor to Anne Griffin, RN, MSN

Anne Griffin, RN, MSN, holds her DAISY Award for the compassion she showed to Nicole Bingaman's son, Taylor, who has cognitive impairments due to brain injury, during a busy COVID-19 vaccination clinic.

Anne Griffin, RN, MSN, was presented the DAISY Award on Tuesday, November 9, 2021. The award is presented to a deserving nurse who exemplifies clinical expertise and compassionate care and is recognized as a role model in the nursing community.

Griffin was surrounded by her fellow coworkers and mentors, as well as Hospital and Nursing leadership, as she was presented with the award. She was nominated for the award by Nicole Bingaman—the mother of a patient at one of the COVID-19 vaccination clinics in April 2021—who was present with her son to honor Griffin with the award.

In the nomination, Bingaman shared, "I attended my son's (who is an adult with cognitive impairments due to a brain injury) COVID vaccination with him. The process was all a bit overwhelming and he was feeling stressed out. Both times Anne was the nurse giving the shots. She was super friendly, relaxed, and made my son feel at ease. She did not treat him any differently as a 30-year-old disabled man than she would anyone else. He joked with her, she joked back. We both felt like she was a friend and was most certainly the kindest part of the process."

Bingaman continued, "When someone is 'different,' people around often react. This was a challenging day for us. Masks, COVID, etc., has been very stressful for my son. He does not always keep his opinions in-check due to frontal lobe issues. Anne acted with such kindness and warmth. It is the little things that matter most."

Griffin has a long history at Evangelical, beginning in October 2000 as a member of the PRN nursing pool. In January 2005, she began in Pediatrics where she served until she transferred to the Emergency Department in December 2010. In September 2020, Griffin began serving at the Ambulatory Surgical Center. Becoming "semi-retired" in October 2021, Griffin continues to be an active per diem employee serving patients through the COVID-19 vaccination clinics.

The DAISY Foundation was established in 1999 in California by the family of J. Patrick Barnes, who died at the age of 33 from complications of an auto-immune disease. During his eight-week hospital stay, his family was impressed by the care and compassion his nurses provided, not only to him but to everyone in the family. They created the DAISY Award in his memory to recognize those nurses who make a big difference in the lives of so many people.

Evangelical is proud to be a DAISY Award partner. Nurses are nominated by patients, family members of patients, as well as other healthcare professionals. Nominations are presented for consideration through a process of anonymity. The winner is then selected by a board of healthcare workers. Each DAISY Award Honoree is given a DAISY Award pin, a certificate of honor, a gift card from Service First Federal Credit Union, and a stone sculpture entitled, A Healer's Touch, handcrafted by a tribe in Zimbabwe.

Nominations for the DAISY award can be made by patients, patient family members, colleagues, and providers. If an Evangelical Community Hospital nurse has displayed extraordinary clinical expertise and compassion, visit www.DAISYnomination.org/ECH and fill out a nomination form.

Director of the Public Libraries To End Leadership Role

Effective March 31, 2022, Roberta Greene has submitted her resignation as Director of the Public Library for Union County (PLUC) and Administrator of the Union County Library System (UCLS). She joined both organizations in August 2010.

Among her many accomplishments have been bridging the digital divide, providing experiences to enhance lifelong learning, and offering STEAM opportunities for students during after school hours. She most recently led the PLUC through its $1.75 million "Re-Imagine, Re-Fresh, Re-Purpose" capital campaign, which enabled a renovation & expansion of the PLUC library facility, completed in June of this year.

Ms. Greene will work closely with the Boards of Trustees of both organizations to ensure a smooth transition as a search for her replacement is conducted.

The Boards of Trustees of both organizations wishes to express their appreciation for her leadership and vision over the past 11 years.

The Public Library for Union County is a 501c3 non-profit organization and a member of the Union County Library System, along with the Herr Memorial Library in Mifflinburg and the West End Library in Hartleton.

We'd like to wish all our readers a Happy & Healthy New Year as we head into 2022!

CSIU's LPN Career Center Graduates 110th Class

The Central Susquehanna LPN Career Center (CSLPNCC) graduated 15 students on Thursday, December 16, 2021. The ceremony was held at the United Lutheran Church in Sunbury.

The program was led by Dr. Timothy Campbell, Director of the CSLPNCC, and included a procession of the 110th class of graduates; a welcome address; faculty introductions; award announcements; award of diplomas; pinning of graduates; remarks from the class speaker, Ashley L. Brown, LPN of Middleburg; and recited the Practical Nursing Pledge.

In an emotional speech, Brown encouraged fellow graduates to exhale the breath they have been holding for the past two years. She thanked faculty and staff for always pushing for success, family for picking up extra duties at home or work to allow for time to study and attend class, and her children for always being the reason she chooses to better herself.

The following awards were presented: Academic Achievement Award: Valerie Weaver Academic Excellence Award: Theresa Golden Sally Crouse Singer Maternal/Child Nursing Award: Brittany Fox Clinical Excellence Awards: Latisha Charles, Caryn Keller, Melissa Mahlin

The CSLPNCC has more than a 50 year history in providing quality nursing education and development and a strong healthcare careers workforce in the Greater Susquehanna Valley. The CSLPNCC was named one of the Top 5 LPN programs in Pennsylvania for its quality, affordability, convenience, satisfaction, and value according to the Nurse Journal. In 2020, the LPN Center ranked 33rd in the country among 4,500 colleges for a 10-year return on investment (ROI) in a Georgetown University report. They also ranked 7th among 532 of the Best LPN programs in the northeast by nursingprocess.org. For more information, visit <http://lpn.csiu.org> or call (570) 768-4960.

Girl Scouts 2022 Cookie Season Digital Cookie

Today, GSHPA kicks off the 2022 Girl Scout Cookie Season, where consumers can support local Girl Scout entrepreneurs by purchasing their favorite cookies online using Digital Cookie.

This year, Girl Scouts are selling the new Adventurefuls cookie, an indulgent brownie-inspired cookie with caramel-flavored crème and a hint of sea salt, and an incredible taste of adventure in every bite. Adventurefuls joins the whole portfolio of iconic Girl Scout Cookies including favorites like Thin Mints, Samoas and Tagalongs.

Girl Scouts are again selling cookies in creative, socially distant, and contact-free ways to keep themselves and their customers safe during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. GSHPA wanted to help make the holidays sweeter by offering cookies earlier than previous years. Starting today, consumers can connect with their favorite Girl Scout to order cookies online, or contact GSHPA Member Services via email at memberservices@gshpa.org to find a Girl Scout in their area.

"The Girl Scout Cookie Program is the largest girl-led entrepreneurial program in the world. Our Girl Scouts in Central and Northeast Pennsylvania are savvy marketers and leaders who use the skills they learn in this incredible program to reach big goals," said Jess Delp, Director of Product Program and Retail at GSHPA. "Thank you to our community for their continued support!" Every Girl Scout Cookie purchase fuels local Girl Scouts' adventures throughout the year: exploring what interests them, discovering their passions, and taking action on issues they care about. Whether they're using their STEM skills to solve a problem, changing a law to help their community, having a courageous outdoor experience, or starting an innovative nonprofit, Girl Scouts build a better future for themselves and the world. And through the Girl Scout Cookie Program, including by earning new Cookie Business Badges, girls get a taste of being entrepreneurs and learn important online and off-line business skills that set them up for success in life.

You will also be able to purchase cookies from your favorite GSHPA Girl Scouts during in-person booths beginning March 4, 2022.

Microtransit Expansion To Northern PA counties

rabbittransit has announced a service expansion of their microtransit service, Stop Hopper, to Selinsgrove and Sunbury, PA in Northumberland and Snyder counties effective December 13, 2021. Stop Hopper enables residents to schedule rides on smaller, neighborhood friendly-sized public transit vehicles.

Riders can travel anywhere within the designated zone by requesting a ride using the Stop Hopper smartphone app. Following a ride request, the app provides passengers with an estimated pick-up time. Passengers are picked up in nine-person accessible vans and taken where they want to go within the designated zone area. The app also tracks rides in real-time and alerts passengers when their ride is about to reach their desired destination. The Stop Hopper app is available for download from the App Store or Google Play. Riders will also be able to call for a ride request by contacting 1-800-632-9063.

The Selinsgrove/Sunbury Stop Hopper will be available from 6:30am until 6:30pm Monday through Friday. It is $2.00 per ride and free for registered seniors 65 years and older with a registered free fare ID card. Vehicles are ADA accessible. For additional information, visit www.ridethestophopper.org.

The Greater Susquehanna Valley United Way Receives a $25,000

From Gold Bond Building Products, LLC

The Greater Susquehanna Valley United Way is pleased to announce it received a $25,000 gift from Gold Bond Building Products, LLC (a manufacturing affiliate of National Gypsum Company) as a part of its Giving Tuesday 2021 philanthropic commitment – on November 30th. The gift will support the United Way's Community Impact fund which supports more than three dozen local nonprofit agencies.

"We are truly thankful for the gift from Gold Bond Building Products to support our Community Impact Fund," says Adrienne Mael, President, and CEO of the Greater Susquehanna Valley United Way. "This gift, through the work of our community partners, will go a long way to supporting the most pressing needs in our area. This support allows the United Way to continue fighting for the health, education, and financial stability of every person in the Susquehanna Valley."

Giving Tuesday is a day where people come together and give back to organizations and communities that create a better world. This past Giving Tuesday, the Susquehanna Valley together showed how generosity and kindness can have an impact on the community's most pressing needs.

The Community Impact Fund supports United Way's applying partner agencies through the allocation process each year. The success of community impact dollars is measured by its 10-year Bold Goals stated in 2018. Each partnering agency aligns its outputs and outcomes to the 10-year measurements and bold goals of the United Way.

The United Way fights for the health, education, and financial stability of every person in Northumberland, Snyder, and Union counties by addressing the root cause of social problems. We strive to serve as a catalyst, leader, and partner to develop long-term social change by engaging communities to address identified areas of impact.

Lewisburg High School Boys Cross Country Honored

Senator Gene Yaw recognizes the Lewisburg High School Boys Cross Country Team at the State Capitol on Tuesday.
State Sen. Gene Yaw (R-23) today welcomed the Lewisburg High School Green Dragons Boys Cross Country Team to the state Capitol building in Harrisburg.

The team was honored by the Pennsylvania Senate upon capturing First Place in the Class AA Boys' Team Rankings during the 2021 PIAA State Cross Country Championships in Hershey on Nov. 6. Earning their fourth undefeated season and having a record with a total 61 wins and zero losses, the team distinguished itself by winning their third consecutive District IV title and their fourth Pennsylvania Heartland Athletic Conference title.

"It is so encouraging to see what these young men continue to accomplish year after year," Sen. Yaw said. "There is no question that their hard work and determination makes them an example for others on and off the cross country course."

Under the expert guidance of Coach Ron Hess, the team is comprised of Jacob Hess; Thomas Hess; Jonathan Hess; Bryce Ryder; Connor Murray; Kieran Murray; Liam Shabahang and alternates Jonah Carney and Ben Bailey.

Also in attendance during the Senate recognition was Assistant Coach Jessica Hess and Lewisburg Athletic Director Stephanie Beaver.
