

The Meaning of Veterans Day

By Kay Poeth

Veterans Day was established to honor all of those who have served the country both in war and peace, dead or alive. Veterans Day is intended to thanks living veterans for their sacrifices. For those who served in the military, Veterans Day pays homage to freedom, sacrifice, and honor.

Originally, Veterans Day was called Armistice Day. It commemorated the end of World War I which formally concluded at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 when the Armistice with Germany went into effect. It signaled the end of hostilities during the Great War. It is referred to as the end of "the war to end all wars."

Armistice Day was renamed Veterans Day in 1954 after World War II "required the greatest mobilization of soldiers and sailors, Marines and arimen" in U.S. history. At the urging of veterans and veteran service organizations, the proclamation was changed. It became a day to honor American veterans of all wars. President Eisenhower signed the bill proclaiming November 11 as Veterans Day.

Each year The Veterans Day National Ceremony is held at Arlington National Cemetery. On November 11 at precisely 11 am a wreath is laid at the Tomb of the Unknowns and the ceremony continues inside the Memorial Amphitheater with a parade of colors of veterans' organizations followed by remarks from dignitaries. The ceremony honors and thanks all who have served in the United States Armed Forces.

There is a distinct difference between Memorial Day and Veterans Day. Memorial Day honors military personnel who have died while serving in the military. Memorial Day is a day of remembrance. Veterans Day honors living and deceased American veterans for their love of country, patriotism, and willingness to sacrifice for their country. Veterans Day is day of appreciation and gratitude for all who have served. That is why we say, "Thank you for your service" on Veterans Day.

Wildcats Go Gold Raising Thousands for ThinkBIG

By Jamiee Joiner

The Mifflinburg community traded its traditional blue and white for a sea of gold on Friday, September 26th, as the high school hosted its annual "Gold Out" event to benefit the ThinkBIG organization. The spirit-filled day of fun, games, and football doubles as a massive fundraising effort to support local families battling the emotional and financial stress of childhood cancer.

The energy at the pep rallies around the school district felt electric and set the tone for the exciting night. Students and faculty packed each gymnasium, decked out in their commemorative gold t-shirts for the Gold Out event which is symbolically held each September bringing attention to its designation as Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. During the pep rally, a video was played to educate students on the efforts and the mission of the ThinkBIG organization and all that they do for families dealing with a cancer diagnosis, which includes help with everyday cost-of-living expenses and unpaid medical bills.

The momentum carried onto the field as the Mifflinburg Wildcats faced the Milton Black Panthers under the Friday night lights. The action on the field was exciting and ended with a 49-7 victory for the Wildcats.

Mifflinburg's annual Gold Out tradition serves as a reflection of the community's generosity and compassion, and they are happy to lend their support to ThinkBIG. Every gold t-shirt worn and every donation made directly translates into support for a family right here in our area who is facing the many challenges that come along with a cancer diagnosis for their child. After all of the fundraising, the Mifflinburg Area School District was proud to be to make a $13,395.65 donation to ThinkBIG! This is the largest donation that the District has been able to make since the start of this annual fundraising mission.

Superintendent, Kenneth J. Dady, Jr. stated, "This has been a tradition in this community for many years, and Mr. Fetterolf did a great job at organizing this event. Our school district students and community have embraced this cause and helped make it a mission to support these families with children who have pediatric cancer. I couldn't be prouder of our District for taking on this cause and supporting these families and children."

Heng Ji Launches $6 Lunch Special to Support Community Members

Lewisburg, PA – In response to growing concerns about food insecurity and the impact of the ongoing government shutdown on food assistance programs like SNAP and WIC, Heng Ji, a local restaurant in downtown Lewisburg, has launched a new $6 Lunch Special to ensure anyone and everyone can enjoy a fresh, warm, healthy and affordable meal.

Owner Jacky made the decision to offer this special as a way to support the community because people are hungry and need healthy, fresh food. Heng Ji will be open three days a week, Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday, offering a rotating daily special for lunch.

Adding another layer of generosity, a "Pay It Forward" meal ticket system will allow customers to purchase additional meals for neighbors who may not be able to afford the discounted price. The tickets will be available directly at Heng Ji for anyone who wishes to contribute or receive a meal.

"This is one of the many things that make Lewisburg so special," said Lynne Sobel Ragusea, Executive Director, Lewisburg Downtown Partnership. "Collaboration and community. Community members and small business owners looking out for each other."

Everyone, residents and visitors alike, are encouraged to stop by Heng Ji during lunch hours, enjoy a delicious, affordable meal, and, if able, contribute to the pay-it-forward meal program.

Heng Ji is located at 428 Market Street, Lewisburg, PA 814-777-7166.

Why don't defenders use their arms when attempting a tackle, especially defensive backs? The Bengals Jordan Battle offered a shoulder to tackle Bears tight end Colton Loveland who shook the feeble tackle off and ran 35 yards for the game winning score. I remember Roy Shifflet, an old high school football coach that taught the stick, slam, issa technique that was very effective.

Friends of RB Winter Invite Volunteers to Attend Autumn Clean-Up

Edited by Kay Poeth

Friends of RB Winter will host Autumn Cleanup on Saturday, November 15 from 9:00 am to noon. Volunteers will begin the event by meeting at the Environmental Learning Center, at 9:00 am and divide into groups. The group will primarily focus on picking up trash along Route 192 between McCall Dam Road and Stover Gap Road. For volunteers with children who would like to participate, they will help by searching for and picking up trash in the park's day-use area and around Halfway Lake. To register visit, friendsofwbwinter.org/cleanup.

The Friends will provide gloves, trash bags, and safety vests. Please bring a water bottle and wear weather-appropriate clothing. As we'll be working in grassy areas along the road's edges, insect repellent is highly recommended, and checking for ticks afterward is advised!

Afterward, the volunteers will return to the Environmental Learning Center for a lunch provided by the Friends!

The mission of Friends of RB Winter State Park is to conserve, support, and protect the park's resources by promoting education, responsible recreation and stewardship for present and future generations.

The Friends of Raymond B. Winter State Park formed in May 2021 to provide volunteers at the Raymond B Winter State Park Complex and its subsidiary parks, McCalls Dam State Park, Ravensburg State Park, and Sand Bridge State Park, to contribute to the conservation and stewardship of the parks and their resources.

The Friends are happy to offer many multiple items for sale in the park office. The Park Office is open Monday through Friday from 8 am to 4 pm and on select times during the weekend. Payment for items sold by the Friends of R. B. Winter State Park must be made via cash or check only.

If you are interested in volunteer opportunities with the Friends of R B Winter State Park possible volunteer projects include trail maintenance, fundraising, landscaping, assisting with educational programs, invasive plant removal, litter cleanup, and more. For more information, email: friendsofwbwinter@gmail.com.

Remember to mark your calendars for Saturday, November 15 from 9:00 am to noon to volunteer for the Friends of RB Winter's Autumn Cleanup, located at 17215 Buffalo Road in Mifflinburg.

Antonio Andrade has been delivering his brand of "Rockin' Folk" since 1976. Accompanying himself on guitar and harmonica, Andrade is known for the passion and personality that he brings to the stage. He has recently been awarded Best Male Solo Artist (2021) by the Central Pennsylvania Music Awards. His music, from seven full-length CDs, plays nationally on college and community Folk and Americana radio. Andrade's version of the Talking Heads song, "This Must Be the Place," was included in the 2012 European film drama of the same title starring Sean Penn and Frances McDormand.

Juliana Zafa is a singer-songwriter blending influences from indie to folk, country to grunge. With haunting vocals and sparse accompaniment on ukulele and omni chord, she crafts songs that feel both intimate and cinematic. Known for her original music and re-imagined covers, her sound is part whisper, part wolf howl—the real, dark, and quietly powerful. On stage, Zafa invites listeners into an intimate space, creating an atmosphere of melodic curves and hushed intensity—like a magnetic lullaby. She has appeared on the Weis Center Sessions at the Art Academy of Milton, and other local venues, as well as on Spotify. Zafa is currently writing and recording her debut collection of original songs.

The Listening Room is held on the second Wednesday of each month. Each show features two acts, running from 7 pm to 9:15 pm. Doors open at 6:30 pm. Join the musical performances at The Listening Room on November 12.

Rep. David Rowe Hosted Veterans Appreciation Event

By Kay Poeth

Richard Shaffer, of Selinsgrove, who served in the Army in Vietnam from 1964-1966, chatted with Rep. David Rowe during the Veterans Appreciation Event hosted at the Middleburg office.

Over 40 Veterans attended the Veterans Appreciate Event sponsored by Rep. David Rowe. Shawn Spock served in the Marine Corps for 13 years and in the International Guard for 15 years, serving from 1987-2014.

The weather was beautiful for Rep. David Rowe’s (R-85) annual drive-thru Veterans Appreciation Event! Over 45 Veterans attended the event on October 25 held at the Middleburg office.

Veterans and active-duty military personnel and their families from District 85 were invited to this event. They were greeted by Rep. Rowe and his staff including Dan Auker, Morgan Hoover, and Elizabeth Canfield, personally thanked for their service, treated to a gigantic and scrumptious breakfast sandwich from Eagles Wind and coffee, and given material for Veterans about state resources.

“The importance of showing gratitude for our local heroes cannot be understated. That’s why, for the second consecutive year, I’ve hosted this Drive-Thru Veterans event,” said Rep. Rowe enthusiastically. “In addition to sharing a quick bite to eat, we also distribute information about state and community resources.”

As cars pulled in Rep. Rowe, greeted each Veteran, shaking hands, posing for photos, and discussing concerns about issues. His goal was to make each veteran feel valued. Veterans also received a personalized certificate and a Veterans pin with a flag.

Brent Bacon, of Lewisburg, was one of the many veterans who attended. He served in the Army as Military Police in Korea from 1977-80. Then he served in the Reserves until 1986. He was a Drill Sergeant for 5 years. “I came here last year. It is a nice gesture.”

Tony Rankin, of Selinsgrove, is a Navy veteran who served in Vietnam. He appreciated the personal touch of the Drive-Thru recognition. Tony even had a suggestion. “We need to provide housing for veterans. We should utilize the empty buildings at the Selinsgrove Center and convert them into housing for veterans.”

Richard Shaffer, of Selinsgrove, is an Army SP4 who served in Vietnam from 1964-1966. “The VA has treated me well. When I had cancer, I had 28 treatments.” This 83-year-old Army Vet is like the bionic man after all his procedures and operations. He enjoyed talking with Rep. Rowe and the staff. “It’s very nice for the Veterans. It’s a good idea to show appreciation for Veterans.”

William Miller, of Penns Creek, was a Master Sgt. in the Air Force from 1972-1992; with 20 years of service in the military. “Rep. David Rowe is terrific. I think this event is fantastic. You receive information and actually get to see your representative. He talks to Veterans about bills and other concerns.”

Anna Mae Miller added, “I think it is awesome that Veterans are remembered and acknowledged for their service.”

Steve Shaw served as a Sargeant in the Air Force from 1972-1976. He received an Honorable Discharge and a Good Service Medal. Currently, he enjoys being a Fort Augusta Regiment re-enactor, portraying the French and Indian War. Steve and his wife, Brenda, enjoyed the event and meeting Rep. Rowe. “He is very personable and doing a commendable job. The Certificate of Recognition for military service and the commemorative veteran pin, along with other informative handouts was a thoughtful way to say thank you to our Veterans. He should receive a Good Service Medal.”

“I wanted to say thank-you. When my son worked at Bright Farms, you reached out and helped him. He now works at National Beef And, he just bought a house in Middleburg at the age of 23,” Shawn Spock told Rep. Rowe.

Shawn served 13 years in the Marine Corps and 15 years in International Guard. He was Aircraft Mechanic when he entered the Marine Corps. He served from 1987-2014 including in the Gulf War, Afghanistan, and Iraq. After retiring, Shawn took a Guitar Class for Vets. “I now teach at Lebanon VA Hospital every Monday. The first time I played in public I was scared to death. Now, I am trying to learn how to sing Gordon Lightfoot’s Sundown.”

“Pennsylvania is home to almost 800,000 Veterans and it was an honor to spend time with some of them and to thank them for their selfless service to our Commonwealth and our Country!” said Rep. Rowe. “The 85th District’s heroes need to know they’re appreciated and supported within our community. It’s truly a privilege to be able to do this for the men and women who’ve served and sacrificed for our great country!” noted Rep. Rowe.

The 85th District is sprawling and it can be a challenge for everyone to easily access Rep. David Rowe’s district offices in Middleburg (570-837-0052), Selinsgrove (570-372-5510), and McAlisterville (717-539-8016). That’s why Rep. Rowe has opened a new office in the Juniata Valley YMCA, 105 1st Ave., Burnham, PA 17009. It is open on Mondays from 9 am to 4:30 pm. Stop by for assistance with any state-related issue. Some of the services we offer include searching for unclaimed property, as well as assistance with PennDOT work, birth and death certificates, information about legislation, and more. Don’t hesitate to call their toll-free number at 833-431-0499. Rep. Rowe and his team is excited to reach this constituency at an office closer to home!

Biblical Salvation

Paid for by Bruce Molinaro

This is what scripture clearly and repeatedly tells us we must do to be saved:

"He then brought them out and asked, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?' They replied, 'Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household.'" (Acts 16:30-31 NIV)

"Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned." (Mark 16:16 NIV)

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16 NIV)

"Those along the path are the ones who hear, and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved." (Luke 8:11-12 NIV)

"Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God’s wrath remains on them." (John 3:36 NIV)

“Very truly I tell you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged but has crossed over from death to life. (John 5:24 NIV)

"For my Father’s will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day.” (John 6:40 NIV)

"Very truly I tell you, the one who believes has eternal life." (John 6:47 NIV)

"Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die;" (John 11:25 NIV)

"But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name." (John 20:31 NIV)

"When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honored the word of the Lord; and all who were appointed for eternal life believed." (Acts 13:48 NIV)

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile." (Romans 1:16 NIV)

"If you declare with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. " (Romans 10:9 NIV)

"For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. (1 Corinthians 1:21 NIV)

"And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation. When you believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit," (Ephesians 1:13 NIV)

"But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his immense patience as an example for those who would believe in him and receive eternal life." (1 Timothy 1:16 NIV)

"Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well." (1 John 5:1 NIV)

"I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life." (1 John 5:13 NIV)

"Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned." (Mark 16:16 NIV)

What does God expect of us when He says we must BELIEVE?

It is possible to trivialize, or misunderstand the role belief plays in salvation because: “For even his (Christ’s) own brothers did not believe in him.” John 7:5

To adequately BELIEVE the Gospel we must understand:

- How sin actually condemns us to spiritual death.
- How Christ has legitimately reversed that condition.
- What specifically we must believe concerning Christ to be saved.
- The degree, or extent to which we must believe it.
- Why we must individually BELIEVE to be saved.
- How our belief concerning Christ literally changes our eternal destiny from death to life.
- How we can know whether or not we are “in the faith” (saved).
“Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test?” 2 Corinthians 13:5

We must know these things since:

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?’ Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!’” Matthew 7:20-23

"For my Father’s will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day." John 6:40

Civil War Soldier Lies in Selinsgrove’s Union Cemetery

By George Vacca

On a wind swept knoll in Selinsgrove’s Union Cemetery lies the earthly remains of Henry F. Long. Between his birth in 1841 and death in 1924, his life intersected with some of our country’s most historic moments.

Henry was born September 3rd, 1841 in Saville Township, Perry County. He considered the 1861 Confederate attack on Fort Sumter “treasonous” and followed ensuing events with each newspaper delivered to his family’s farm. By the Autumn of 1862, he was convinced more men were needed to keep the Confederacy from “destroying the union.”

“On the very day when the battle of Antietam was fought,” Henry later recalled, “I was in my father’s field cutting clover seed. A neighbor and friend of mine came along the road who invited me to go with him to New Bloomfield, to enlist in Captain John B. McCallister’s cavalry company. The invitation was accepted, the cradle was hung on the fence, and I joined my friend on the way to New Bloomfield, stopping however long enough at my father’s home to say good-by.”

By late September 1862, Henry F. Long had been enrolled in Company I of the 17th Pennsylvania Cavalry and was being drilled in the Harrisburg area, where, “we were furnished with horses and other equipments. I considered myself most fortunate in having assigned me a good horse that proved one of the best in the company. I became very much attached to him, and he served me well.”

Less than three months later, Henry’s horse would provide some of that service. Just after the Battle of Fredericksburg in December, the 17th clashed with Confederate cavalrymen near Occoquan, Virginia. Private Long wrote, “being on the flank with several others, the Rebels expected to cut off our retreat. But, remembering, ‘That he who fights and runs away, may live to fight another day,’ we did our very best to escape; and here is where my faithful horse saved me from being captured.” The disorderly rout was indeed an inauspicious beginning for the 17th, but the new regiment was outnumbered and facing none other than the elite veterans of JEB Stuart’s Rebel horsemen.

The 17th shivered through the winter, along with the rest of the Army of the Potomac, in a Stafford County, Virginia camp. As winter turned to spring, prospects for Private Long and the 17th improved. The regiment’s brigade was now in the division of Brigadier General John Buford, one of the premier cavalrymen in the Federal Army. Private Long was assigned to be an orderly for Major General George Meade, and was therefore stationed at Meade’s headquarters during the Battle of Chancellorsville. His duties included the dangerous task of galloping up and down the line, carrying the written orders of General Meade to those under his command.

In the weeks following the Battle of Chancellorsville, the Federal Cavalry’s performance blossomed. Running gun and saber battles with JEB Stuart’s Rebels occurred in Brandy Station, Aldie, Middleburg and Upperville, VA and the Union horsemen were fighting their Confederate counterparts on equal terms. “Orderlies for messenger duty were almost constantly in demand and their services were most arduous” wrote Long. “We were in the saddle almost day and night.”

The 17th arrived in Gettysburg on June 30th. “As we rode through the streets of Gettysburg my patriotic heart was stirred because of our warm reception. The college boys sang, at another place a group of girls sang....and still a little later a number of young ladies sang the Star Spangled Banner for us. We were not accustomed to such welcome greetings, and our hearts were greatly cheered.”

The regiment camped that night in the field just south of the Mummasburg Road, near the current location of the Peace Light on Oak Hill. After a night of picket duty, the men steeled themselves to meet the approaching enemy – Rebels under the command of Henry Heth, coming in numbers that would far exceed General Buford’s line of cavalrymen. “The fighting now commenced in earnest. We were dismounted, sent our horses to the’ rear, took a position behind a stone wall which extended along the ridge, and successfully resisted several charges made by the enemy until we were relieved by the First Corps.” July 2nd found the 17th picketing and fighting in places burned into American history: the Peach Orchard, the Wheat Field, Devil’s Den and Little Round Top.

Over the next year, Private Long would keep several more appointments with landmarks in our Nation’s story. The 17th would do notable service at Todd’s Tavern just before the famous Battles of Spotsylvania and then at Yellow Tavern. It would be at the next battle – Cold Harbor – where Private Long’s service would come to an end.

“During the engagement at Cold Harbor, May 31, 1864, we made several mounted charges, on the enemy’s line, but failed to dislodge him. We were then dismounted and charged again over the same ground, in an open field, when two bullets struck me in my left arm. I was removed to an improvised hospital, established in an old grain barn and, during the night, my left arm was amputated. The following day, with other wounded, I suffered a painful ride over rough corduroy roads, in a heavy army wagon, to White House Landing where we were placed on transports to Washington, D. C.”

The war behind him, Henry F. Long opened a new chapter in 1867, entering the Missionary Institute at Selinsgrove and graduating from the Theological Department. (The Missionary Institute is now Susquehanna University, within sight of Henry’s grave.) Reverend Long would both pastor and plant Lutheran churches in Pennsylvania, Kansas, Georgia and Illinois before retiring back to his home state of Pennsylvania at the turn of the century.

After the death of their only child (Dora, nine months old), Rev. Long and his wife Hannah adopted three children. In 1924, Henry’s extraordinary life came to an end. It was reported that he was struck by a streetcar in Harrisburg and died a week later from his injuries.

Henry Long’s headstone not only includes his date of birth and death, but also the inscription, “Co. I 17th Regt PA Cavalry.” The engraving testifies to the impact of the Civil War years, an impact shared by tens of thousands of other American soldiers who carried their experiences to their graves.

The words of President Abraham Lincoln echo through the years challenging each generation to be dedicated to the “great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion.”

SUN Area Technical Institute Hosts First Trunk-or-Treat

NEW BERLIN, PA – SUN Area Technical Institute held its first-ever Trunk-or-Treat event on Saturday, October 25, transforming the school grounds into a festive fall celebration for hundreds of children and their families. The event featured decorated trunks, games, snacks, treats, and a movie — all designed to bring the community together for a safe and fun Halloween experience.

The Advertising Art and Design students presented the idea of a Trunk-or-Treat to Administrative Director, Kristy Etzler. Together, HOSA advisor and Patient Care Technician instructor Kaylee Moser, SkillsUSA advisor and Carpentry instructor Brian Lauver, and Kristy Etzler, spearheaded the event. Moser shared that she had been hoping to organize a Trunk-or-Treat for several years.

“I’ve wanted to do this for a long time,” said Moser. “With the support of Mr. Lauver and Mrs. Etzler, everything finally came together — and seeing so many families here made it all worth it.”

All nineteen of SUN Tech’s programs were invited to participate by decorating trunks and offering snacks or treats as class fundraisers. Funds raised help support student organizations such as SkillsUSA, HOSA, and FCCLA, as well as class events, field trips, and jackets. Nine programs took part in this year’s event, including Advertising Art & Design, Carpentry, Computer Networking and Technology, Culinary Arts, Electrical Systems, Electrical-Mechanical Technology, HVAC, Nurse Aide, and Patient Care Technician.

Local businesses were also invited to join in the fun. CMSU, United Plate Glass, and ADAM Transportation participated, with additional donations from QE Manufacturing and Norm’s Drywall. Alumni, staff, and friends of SUN Tech also contributed by setting up trunks and handing out treats.

“This was truly a team effort,” said Lauver. “It’s great to see our school, students, and community working together for something so positive.”

Director Kristy Etzler added that the success of the event has already inspired planning for next year.

“We couldn’t have asked for a better turnout,” said Etzler. “We’re already talking about ways to make next year’s Trunk-or-Treat even bigger and better.”

SUN Area Technical Institute extends its gratitude to all the staff, students, businesses, and families who helped make the event a success.
