The Annual Mifflinburg Youth Fishing Derby

By Kay Poeth

Over 500 trout including Golden Rainbows have been stocked. Dorr prizes for tagged fish. The youth fishermen catching the Top 3 largest fish will also receive awards. Refreshment available with donations.

All PA Fish & Boat regulations apply. Hosted by The American Legion Post 410, Buffalo Creek Watershed Alliance and Englehart Family, the Youth Fishing Derby helps to support youth trout fishing in our community.

The fun doesn't end with the contest, as many families take their kids fishing throughout the season. It should be noted that the fishing only gets better as the water temperature warms up! So grab your rod and reel and head to the Annual Mifflinburg Youth Fishing Contest on Saturday, May 7.

Evangelical Community Hospital To Purchase Former Country Cupboard

Evangelical Community Hospital has finalized its negotiations with the Baylor-Hamm Companies to purchase the former Country Cupboard Restaurant and Gift Shops property at the corner of Hafer Road and Route 15. "We were immediately interested in the property when we discovered it would be available," said Kendra Aucker, President and CEO, Evangelical Community Hospital. "It's an excellent location and it's contiguous with some of the other property we own surrounding the Hospital campus."

The Baylor and Hamm families have long supported Evangelical, and that relationship played into the decision to sell to the Hospital.

"While closing the restaurant and gift shops was a difficult decision, we are so pleased to have reached an agreement with Evangelical," said Chris Baylor, CEO, Baylor-Hamm Companies. "A strong community Hospital is vital to the overall health of the region, and we're excited this property will contribute to the future growth of Evangelical."

The property closing will occur in May. At this time, the Hospital does not have any immediate plans for the property. The Susquehanna River Valley Visitor's Bureau office will remain at its current location for the immediate future.

Evangelical Community Hospital is the only CMS 5-star rated hospital in the Central Susquehanna Valley Region. Only 22 hospitals in Pennsylvania can claim this overall quality distinction.

MACC Hosts Kids Fair And 20th Anniversary Auction

By Kay Poeth

Mike Bobb, Executive Director of the MACC, and Lindsay Klinepeter, MACC Program Director, display some of the baskets available for bid during the 20th Anniversary Auctions and Kids Fair at the MACC on May 14. Four bicycles will be raffled off as part of the Kids Fair prizes.

On May 14 The Middlecreek Area Community Center (MACC) is celebrating its 20th Anniversary. The MACC will be open to the public all day for the celebration. The day begins with a Free Kids Fair from 9 am-2 pm for kids of all ages and their families. Everything is free! Kids' activities include crafts, inflatables, games, activities, bounce houses, hayrides and barrel rides, pony rides, and safety and educational information.

There are drawings for 4 bicycles donated by U.S. Congressman Fred Keller, PA State Representative David Rowe, and Snyder County Coalition for Kids. Each child who attends the fair will have a chance to enter one of the drawings for free. There will also be free hotdogs, chips, cotton candy, and drinks for everyone. The Kids Fair is co-sponsored by the MACC and the Snyder County Coalition for Kids.

"The MACC is very grateful for the vendors in the community who help to provide free entertainment and services to our local families," said Lindsay Dressler, MACC Program Director.

Thanks to the community vendors for helping the MACC provide free entertainment and services to local families.

Included in the MACC's 20th Anniversary Celebration are Chinese and Silent Auctions beginning Friday night May 13 from 6-9 pm. There are over 300 assorted items in the popular Chinese Auction including gift cards, children's toys, crafts, summertime fun treasures, household items, and more. The Silent Auction features over 120 unique donations including, home décor, floral arrangements, and over 50 baskets. All items have been donated by community members and local businesses. The MACC is deeply grateful for all the support.

The Chinese Auction and Silent Auction will open again on Saturday May 14, from 9 am- 7 pm. Silent Auction winners will be finalized at 7:00 pm. You do not need to be present to win! Chinese Auction winners will be notified on Monday May 16.

As a small token of their appreciation to the community the MACC is offering free hors d'oeuvres on Saturday evening, May 14 from 5:30-7:00 pm. The special 20th Anniversary Program begins at 7 pm with guest speaker, U.S. Congressman Fred Keller.

The whole day celebrates the community with free things for the children and the exciting auctions. This fundraisers supports the MACC... which in turn supports the community.

"We are thankful to all of the staff, volunteers, and philanthropists that make our mission 'Strengthening Our Community' a reality. We look forward to carrying that mission forward for the next 20 years!" said Mike Bobb, MACC Executive Director.

All proceeds from the auctions will directly help to sustain and enhance the services at the MACC. The MACC is located at 67 Elm St. Beaver Springs.

New Cello and Bass Racks Keep Musicians Organized

The orchestra strings program is thriving at Donald H. Eichhorn Middle School and throughout the Lewisburg Area School District. String Instrumental teacher Andrew Jones leads a vibrant program that includes 60 students participating at the middle school. With 16 cello and four bass players you can imagine the traffic in the instrumental storage room on ensemble and lesson days.

Last fall, The Green Dragon Foundation provided funding for cello and bass racks to help students organize their instruments. Mr. Jones remarked that the new storage freed up lots of space and students are no longer tripping over instruments.

The string instrument students are very dedicated musicians and are grateful to belong to a school community that supports the performing arts. This year Lewisburg string students have been very successful at Pennsylvania Music Educators Association festivals. Sixteen students were accepted to District Orchestra and ten continued on to Regionals. Violinist Isabelle Kim was named to All-State Orchestra which will be held in the Poconos in April.

Shultz, Rine & Mitch Take Checker Flags

Jason Shultz of Carlisle Driver of the #35 Selinsgrove Ford 360 sprint car parked it in victory lane for car owners Kirk and Heather Ritter of Middleburg.

Jason Shultz of Carlisle took the lead from Troy Betts of Newark, Del., on lap four and soared to the victory in Saturday's 25-lap United Racing Club main event on Real Diehl Excavating Night at Selinsgrove Speedway.

The $2,000 victory was Shultz's 23rd career in 358-360 sprint car competition at Selinsgrove at the wheel of the Ritter Racing/ Selinsgrove Ford No. 35.

Jeff Rine of Danville scored a convincing victory in the 25-lap super late model main event. The win was worth $3,000 and was the 14-time champion's 114th career victory at the track. Rine was also the fastest qualifier over the stout 25-car field with a lap time of 18.926.

Brad Mitch of McClure held off several challenges for his 29th career roadrunner win in the division's 12-lap feature.

Troy Betts started on the front row for the first 360 sprint car feature of the season and bolted into the lead at the drop of the green flag. Current points leader and fourth-place starter Derek Hauck quickly challenged Betts for the lead in the opening laps.

The field was regrouped on lap two when Derek Locke spun in turn one and was able to rejoin. When the race resumed third-place starter Jason Shultz powered into second and set his sights on Betts. On the fourth circuit, Shultz made the winning pass using the inside lane off turn four.

The race was stopped on lap nine when Will Brunson crashed hard in turn four and escaped serious injury. For the restart, Shultz led Betts, Hauck, fifth-place starter Adam Carberry, and sixth-place starter Ryan Taylor.

Carberry quickly advanced to second and became Shultz's biggest threat in the latter stages of the event. In the closing laps, Carberry was reeling in Shultz in slower traffic but came up short at the finish. Shultz was victorious over Carberry, 10th-place starter Josh Weller, Taylor, and eighth-place starter Davie Franek.

Polesitter Jeff Rine powered into the lead at the start of the super late model feature and wired the field for the victory but not without a few challenges from second-place starter Hayes Mattern and fourth-place starter Dan Stone.

In the opening laps of the race, third-place starter Jim Bernheisel was also in the mix for the top five running positions along with fifth-place starter Andy Haus. The race's first caution flag unfurled on lap 13 for J. Bernheisel when his car fell off the pace while racing fourth.

On the ensuing restart, Stone rocketed into second and made Rine a target for the lead. With 10 laps to race, 10th-place starter Dylan Yoder and eighth-place starter Brett Schadel entered the top five and showed a lot of speed.

With five laps remaining, Rine held a comfortable lead over Stone. A torrid three-car battle unfolded for third between Mattern, Schadel, and D. Yoder.

At the checkered flag, Rine scored his first win of the season over Stone, Mattern, Schadel, and D. Yoder. Yoder was also the race's hard charger.

In the roadrunner feature, second-place starter Bob Bussey pulled into the early lead. Bussey and fourth-place starter Nate Romig dueled for the front spot as sixth-place starter Brad Mitch quickly joined the battle at the front of the pack.

Mitch secured the lead on lap four and held off the late-race challenges from Romig, two-time defending champion Jake Jones, and Keith Bissinger. On the white flag lap, the leaders were three-wide racing off turn two as Mitch maintained the edge down the backstretch.

At the finish, Mitch was victorious by the slimmest of margins over Jones, Romig, Bissinger, and Jimmy Kessler.

Super Late Model Race To Honor Memory Of Ron Keister

Paying $5200 to Win. $34,000+ Purse!

Selinsgrove Speedway and the family of the late racer Ron Keister of New Berlin will honor his memory with the second running of the Big Wrangler Ranch Motorsports Ron Keister Memorial for super late models paying $5,200 to win at 7 p.m. Saturday, May 14.

Keister was a 28-year-old late model competitor in 1976 when he lost his life in a racing accident at the Snyder County oval.

In addition to the hefty winner's share, the 52-lap main event will offer more than $34,000 in prize money and contingencies for a non-sanctioned late model race. The runner-up will earn $4,000, with $3,000, $2,500, and $2,000 posted for drivers finishing in the top five positions. The race will pay a minimum of $1,000 back to the 12th-finishing driver and $400 to start!

Time trials, heats, and B-Mains will be the qualifying format to set the 24-car starting grid plus two provisionals. The fast qualifier, heat and B-Main winners, hard charger and leader of lap 11 in the A-main will earn $110 bonuses.

Keister was a crew member on former champion Paul Long's late model team before his father Eugene Keister fielded the No. 11 for Ron. A standout kart and snowmobile racer, Keister showed early promise as a dirt track racer until tragedy struck on April 10, 1976. In the first late model heat race that night his car made contact with the outside guardrail on the backstretch and was then struck broadside by another car, according to published reports.

Keister was a 1966 graduate of Mifflinburg Area High School where he was a star football player who campaigned the No. 52 on his jersey. He later enrolled and graduated from Penn State University in 1974 with a degree in architectural engineering. At the time of his accident he was married and the father of two children.

Keister's former numbers 11 and 52 will serve as tributes—$5,200 to win and $110 qualifying bonuses—on May 14 at Selinsgrove Speedway. The limited late models will also compete in a 20-lap main event.

Keister's brother Randy along with Randy's wife Jody and son Michael continue the family's racing tradition as the owners of the super late model No. 22 driven by Herndon's Brett Schadel, who already picked up an early season win at Selinsgrove on April 24.

The inaugural Ron Keister Memorial in 2019 was won by Rick Eckert of York after a late-race pass by Mason Zeigler of Chalk Hill. The event was not held the past two years due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Feed Mill Expansion Project In Union County

Edited By Kay Poeth

Gov. Tom Wolf recently announced that Country View Family Farms LLC has selected the New Columbia area for its more than $47.3 million feed mill expansion project that will create at least 51 new jobs.

"Pennsylvania successfully competed against other states for this expansion – a project that will have a big impact on the regional and state economy," said Gov. Tom Wolf, in a press release. "It's a testament to the welcoming, positive business environment we have here in the commonwealth, especially for agribusinesses, that we were able to win this project."

Country View Family Farms will build a new feed mill on a 100-plus acre rail-served site at 2142 Old Route 15 in New Columbia to support its hog production business.

"We anticipate that the creation of this state-of-the-art operation will facilitate and support the growth of numerous family farms and rural businesses by offering an exciting new market for agriculture commodities produced by local farmers," said Eric Patton of Clemens Family Corporation. "We look forward to working with the commonwealth and local officials to bring this vision to fruition."

Country View Family Farms has committed to creating at least 51 new jobs in Union County, retaining 231 existing, full-time jobs statewide, and investing more than $47.3 million into the project within the next three years.

"I am thrilled to see another company choose Union County for their newest location," said Union County Commissioner Chairman Jeff Reber. "The fact that Country View Family Farms, LLC is an agricultural related company adds credence to the impact that agriculture has in our county. I believe Country View Family Farms will be a tremendous asset to Union County as well as the region in general."

Shawn McLaughlin, Union County's Director of Planning and Economic Development said, "This is another great example of regional economic development where everyone works together to find the best site for the company. We are pleased that Country View Family Farms is making a significant investment into our community and creating quality employment opportunities."

The company received a funding proposal from the Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED) for a $255,000 Pennsylvania First grant and was encouraged to apply for the department's Manufacturing Tax Credit (MTC) program, as well as PennDOT's Rail Freight Assistance Program (RFAP).

"I'm glad DCED could help see this project to fruition, and keep it at home here in Pennsylvania," said DCED Acting Secretary Neil Weaver. "Agriculture is a huge economic driver in this area, and this project will help to bolster the region's economic growth."

The project was coordinated by the Governor's Action Team (GAT), a group of economic development professionals who report directly to the governor and work with businesses that are considering locating or expanding in Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture staff, including Secretary Russell Redding, helped coordinate this project. "Country View Farms has been a valuable partner in promoting farm biosecurity and innovation, and providing jobs and opportunity for the region," said Secretary Redding. "We are pleased that Pennsylvania is supporting the company as they increase their capacity to supply nutritious, locally produced foods that in turn feed our economy."

Regional economic development organizations Drive and Focus Central PA were also involved in the project, working with local authorities and helping with site selection.

"Agriculture is at the heart of Pennsylvania's economy and that is certainly true here in Central PA," said Jennifer Wakeman, executive director, Drive. "A project like this highlights everything that makes our region unique; a commitment to agriculture, a strong work ethic, and the infrastructure required to support an operation of this magnitude."

"Focus Central PA is thrilled to recognize and thank Country View Family Farms for investing in Pennsylvania," said Lauren Bryson, executive director, Focus Central PA. "This is a significant and strategic agribusiness investment, a critical industry to smart economic growth, that we work to attract to provide sustainable, high-quality career opportunities in Central PA."

Commissioner Reber added, "Thank you also to the Union County Planning and Economic Development Department, Focus Central PA, DRIVE, North Shore Railroad as well as everyone who worked together to bring this project to fruition."

IN TWO MONTHS OF RACING SELINGSGROVE SPEEDWAY HAS RACED THREE TIMES

So far this season Selingsgrove speedway has lost three racing programs March 19th the short track super series big Block Modifieds and 602 carte sportsmen modified rained out, the March 27th 410-sprint limited late model and roadrunners was weathered out. The April 16th ULMS series event for the super late models, 305-sprints and Roadrunners, the ULMS is to be made up on Saturday June 18. The first official race at Selingsgrove happened on Saturday April 2nd with Bryan Bernheisel of Jonestown, Pa., picking up his 10th career feature win, with Ken Duke of Selingsgrove scoring his 5th 305-sprint feature, while Levi Vial of Bloomsburg scored the upset Roadrunner feature win, which was his first time ever in a stock car after a few years of racing micro-sprints. The April 24th Sunday night Ray Tilley Classis for 410 sprints saw Anthony Macri of Dillsburg, Pa., score his 5th overall Selingsgrove 410 win, it was also a string of winning six of the last seven races he was in that he won over a course of two weeks at five different tracks. Brett Schadel scored the super late model feature win his 5th of his career, with Bob Bussey collecting his 27th career Roadrunner win third on the win list. Last Saturday Jason Shultz won his 23rd 358-360-sprint feature win at Selingsgrove 6th on the all-time win list, while Jeff Rine picked up his division leading 114 wins, with Brad Mitch getting his 29th career win second on the divisions list begin lead by Keith Bissinger with 61.

Last Saturday night Jason Shultz of Carlisle once in the lead opened and won the feature going away, for his Kirk Ritter owned Selingsgrove Ford sprint, it was his second win of the season, also winning a 360-race at Port Royal on April 9th. The team plan on racing in both the 360 and 410 sprint events this season, focusing more on the 360 stuff. Team owner Kirk Ritter a very good go-kart driver in his days and always wanted to own a sprint car team. He has put together a quality team with help from some top-notch people from sponsors and crew help. How about the job turned in by Derek Hauck of Allenwood, he is using a 360-engine borrowed from Mike Koehler until his car is ready to go. Hauck has led features at Bloomsburg Fairgrounds speedway losing out to Mark Smith, he also led some laps at Selingsgrove before fading to a sixth place finish. Derek will still be racing in the 305-sprint class but has proved that he can handle the bigger engines, Derek got his start in racing in the kart class at Selingsgrove Raceway Park. Tough Break for Mark Smith who was leading his heat race when he lost the engine in his M-1 racecar and was out for the night. Derek Locke a long-time supporter of Selingsgrove speedway in the 358 divisions that ran at the speedway for a number of years. He still races his 358 against the 360 at a number of races in the area, Locke placed 8th in the feature. Will Brunson of Middleburg a former Roadrunner champion before moving to the 305-sprint for a few seasons, this year he decided to try the 358-sprints racing a few events at Lincoln speedway. Brunson took a very nasty looking flip coming off the fourth turn with his #8 catching fire at the end of the roll. Quick work by track crew, EMT personal and one very alert URC , Will was pulled from the car before things got worse. Will did suffer some bad burns to his ankles and his grateful for all the people that helped him out in the situation that he was in. The 360 wing sprints have three more shows at Selingsgrove with two for the 36-wingless sprints, with the first one there on Saturday May 21st. Jeff Rine scored a very emotional win Saturday winning the super late model feature for his first win ever without his long-time car owner Jeff Kurtz who passed away back in February. Jeff had two challengers during the 25-lap feature first Hayes Mattern gave chase then later it was Dan Stone, both times Jeff was able to pull away to collect his first feature win of the year to go along with a second and a sixth. With more races on the schedule for the 2022 season car counts have improved so far with an average of 23 drivers for the first three races. Up next for the super late model is the Ron Keister Memorial race on Saturday May 14th with the feature event paying $5,200 to the winner, with 12th place paying $1,000 and $400 to start. Bonus money is also offered with fast time heat race and B-main winners collecting $110. The Hard Charger will be worth $210 with an extra $100 coming from Donnie's Automotive along with bonus money from the Keister family. The rest of the month looks like this, this coming Saturday is a smash them up demo-derby starting at 2pm, along with figure eight racing. Saturday May 21st will be a four division show for the east coast wingless 360-sprints, 305 sprints, limited late models and Roadrunners. Thursday May 26th will feature the 410-sprints along with the super late models and the 305 sprints. The Renegade Monster trucks will have a show on Saturday May 28th to round out the month.

Beamer Earns Career First Win

Josh Beamer of Picture Rocks, has always been a contender to win in the RaceSaver Sprint Car division at the Clinton County Speedway. On Friday night, Beamer parked his #85 in victory lane after a three car battle for the lead while in heavy lapped traffic in an event that almost went nonstop. Other winners of the night included: AY Schilling of Linden the Pro Stock, Jeffrey Weaver of Lock Haven in the 270 Micro Sprints, Cody Hauck of Milton in the 600 Micro Sprints and Montgomery's Blake Snyder in the Four Cylinders.
