House Fire on Weikert Road on March 5

By Kay Poeth

At approximately 1:30 pm on March 5, Union County West End Fire Company was dispatched to a house fire in the 5800 block of Weikert Road. After arriving on scene Chief Jason Martin requested a second alarm. Mifflinburg Hose Company was also dispatched to Hartley Township for the well involved house fire.

Engine 7 (Union County West End Fire Company) arrived and pulled two handlines for fire suppression, while Tanker 7 (Union County West End Fire) supplied them. Engine 3 & 3-2 (Mifflinburg Hose Company) arrived and moved manpower forward to assist interior crews with suppression, overhaul and salvage efforts.

The home was gutted by the fire. The house had some fire damage and water damage but it not a total loss. It appears the fire started at chimney for the wood stove. Most antiques were removed from the house. There were no injuries reported. Everyone was out of the house when West End Union County arrived on scene.

In addition to West End Union County and Mifflinburg Hose Company, other mutual aid fire companies assisting at the scene included Centre County, Beaver Springs, New Berlin, Middleburg, and Penns Creek. Units operated on scene for approximately 2 hours before returning to service.

After returning to the station, Union County West End Fire Company was dispatched to a transformer fire.

SPORTS NEWS

THE VIEW FROM HEAR
BY RON BOLT

The PIAA state tournaments were not kind to our local schools. The bright spots were two medals on the wrestling mats and one win in basketball. This reinforces how difficult the games and matches get when you step out of district play and onto the larger stage where the competition is much better.

The Lewisburg boys basketball team got off to a fast start in their first round state playoff opener and rolled Big Springs 70-54. This was the Dragons 17th straight win. Lewisburg led 24-6 after the first quarter and never looked back.

Well-balanced scoring has been their recipe for success all year as five players reached double digits in points. LJ Tucker led the Green with 21 including five treys. Cooper Mowry had 13 and Cortland Michaels 12. Nazir Meredith and Rebra Jemama each had 10 points to round out the great teamwork. Lewisburg played Pope John Paul on Tuesday in the second round.

The Mifflinburg boys basketball team lost their first round game in states 74-50 to the buzzsaw that is (24-1) Riverside. Brennan Snyder led the Cats with 18 points followed by Cheeky Griffith's 12 and JP Marr's 11. The Wildcats finished their year at 16-8.

Defense wins championships and it helps when you have a Div 1 star of the future on your team. Bonner-Prendie High School, led by Korey Francis, beat Selingsgrove in the first round of the 5A state playoffs 68-35. Francis scored 28 points and the B-P defense held Grove to single digit points in three of the four quarters.

The score was 28-23 at halftime but Prendie came out pressing on defense to start the second half. They outscored the Seals 11-0 in the first ninety seconds of the third quarter. Selingsgrove ended a successful season at 17-9.

All three teams were rewarded for their regular season success. Seal's leading scorer Xavier Jackson was named Heartland Div I player of the year and his coach Justin Keiser was voted coach of the year. Lewisburg had Nazir Meredith, Cooper Mowry and Leon Tucker II named first team all-stars in Div II. Leon Tucker was chosen as Div II coach of the year. Mifflinburg has Jackson Griffith and Chad Martin as Div III all-stars.

The first round of states saw Lewisburg's season end at 13-

13 after losing to (20-5) Penn Cambria 51-40. Five seniors finished their basketball careers with Lewisburg after four straight trips to States.

The Green Dragons got it to 34-32 behind Teagan Osunde's 14 points but poor foul shooting did Lew in as well as Cambria scoring the last seven points of the third quarter.

The young Lady Cats of Mifflinburg were outscored 24-8 by an Allentown Central Catholic run in the first half that led to a 60-43 loss. Avery Reibsome led the Cats with 17 points and Parice Shuck had 12. Mifflinburg turned around last year's record of 4-18 to finish this year at 15-11. Big things lie ahead for this young dynamic team.

Honors were bestowed for our local girls teams. Div I all-stars are Madi Merrell of Selingsgrove and Izzy Walter from Midd-West. Div II first teamers include Ava Motto and Teagan Osunde from Lewisburg and Mifflinburg freshman Avery Reibsome.

To say only two medals from Hershey is a disappointment would be an understatement. Congratulations to Miff's Bradley Wagner and Lew's Landen Wagner. Bradley Wagner brought home his third medal in three years from States. He took third place and was coached by this year's 2A coach of the year Derek Reber.

Landen Wagner placed sixth at 152 lbs and earned his second medal after finishing eighth last year. He ended his wrestling career second in all time wins at Lewisburg with 147 victories, second only to Mifflinburg's coach Reber who had 164 wins at Lewisburg. Landen will be hanging up his singlet as he is playing baseball at Susquehanna next year.

My takeaways from Hershey is that our local wrestlers under-performed for various reasons. The Lehigh Valley has always been a hotbed of high school wrestling in Pennsylvania. District 4 historically has been a distant second and to have only one state champ (Montoursville's Gage Wentzel) in either class is disappointing.

The headline at the state championships was the anticipated showdown between Bo Bassett and Montgomery's Brandt Harer. Bassett pinned the guy who has the most high school wins in PA history at 214-3. Bassett ended his career at 170-0. It should be fun to watch Bo wrestle at Virginia Tech and Brandt at Rutgers.

On the college wrestling

UCLA basketball teams in the late 60's into the 70's has there been a bigger dynasty in college sports than this current Penn State wrestling reign. There are no signs of it ending any time soon. The national tournament next weekend will be interesting with Oklahoma State qualifying all ten of their wrestlers as well for March Matness. More on this next week.

March Madness will start before I talk with you again. Unlike the wrestling championships, basketball is wide open. I haven't looked at the Top 25 rankings until now and it turns out my Final 4 are the four highest ranked teams. I was just basing my guesses on the few games I've watched. Believe it or not, the team I have clearly watched the most is the Fordham Rams and they are not getting invited to the dance.

I see Duke, Arizona, Michigan and Florida being in the Final 4 before the brackets are released. I reserve the right to change these after the brackets are set. The one team that could be left out with a 31-0 record right now before their conference tourney is Miami of Ohio, where Mrs. Bolt went to college. For my sake and the sanity of a 68 team field, you have to invite Miami even if they lose in the MAC tourney. Akron is the favorite to win it.

Why can't Penn State find any success with their men's or women's basketball teams? Every school in the Big Ten has either their men's team or women's team ranked in the current Top 25. Some have both. The only schools that don't have a ranked team are Northwestern, Rutgers, Washington, Indiana and Penn State.

Those five schools out of eighteen may not sound like a big deal but Indiana has had both of their teams end up in the top 12 within the last three years. The Northwestern men went dancing in '23 and '24. The Rutgers and Washington men's teams were 3-1 against Penn State this year.

I know that Penn State AD Pat Kraft wants to have the premiere athletic program in the country but he's not going to attain this goal without winning programs in hoops. Don't bother calling Iowa State for coaching help as their women's coach has been there for thirty years and T.J. Otzelberger would be crazy to leave his seventh ranked men's team.

I'm not a big fan of Spring training baseball but it does get you excited knowing the real games aren't that far off. I am really enjoying the World Baseball Classic. I watched every pitch of the USA vs Mexico game this week and it felt like a playoff game. The fact Paul Shenes started for team USA didn't hurt either.

I think the Phillies are going to take a step back this year. They haven't improved their team and all their stars are a year older. I truly believe the Pirates will have more wins than Philly on August 15th. My fear is that the Bucco's will not try and improve their team in August and possibly make some trades to save money. Philadelphia will do the opposite and add to their roster for another playoff push.

There's a new record that I think might be as impressive as Joe Dimaggio's 56 game hitting streak. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander with the Oklahoma Thunder broke Wilt Chamberlain's 126 consecutive games record of scoring at least twenty points. To put this in perspective, these are the streaks of other basketball greats....Oscar Robertson 79, Michael Jordan and Kevin Durant 72, Kareem 71, Kobe 63 and LeBron 49. I think getting injured or ejected from a game will be the only thing that will curtail this consistency.

Hey Steeler fans, don't shoot the messenger but I think Aaron Rodgers is coming back to Pittsburgh. AJ Brown isn't going anywhere as the most dysfunctional team will figure out a way to mend fences with the mercurial Brown. Maxx Crosby has just made the Baltimore Ravens a very dangerous team. I pity Bengal's QB Joe Burrow with the porous offensive line he plays behind. He will now face Crosby, Myles Garrett and TJ Watt at least six times this year.

With high school softball starting soon I would like for you to keep an eye on Midd-West softball freshman Olivia Dorman. Olivia has been recognized as a Top 100 hitter in the class of 2029 for the Northeastern region. Olivia will also play on the U14 All-American team in August at Oklahoma.

Is everyone happy that Travis and Taylor are returning to KC? I know my sister-in-law is. Comments and questions can be sent to theviewfromhear74@gmail.com

March 15-21 Proclaimed 2026 PA4-H Week in Union County

By Kay Poeth

Pictured here are Union County Educator Barbara Franck, Union County Commissioner Stacy Richards, Cloverbud Cherokee Arndt, Union County Commissioner Preston Boop, Union County 4-H County Council Members Georgia Wray, Emma Wray, Penn State Extension Client Relationship Manager Ethan Howard, and Union County Commissioner Jeff Reber.

The Union County Commissioners proclaimed March 15-21, 2026 as Pennsylvania 4-H Week throughout Union County. The proclamation recognizes that the 4-H in Union County has helped youth “to become confident, independent, resilient, and compassionate leaders as they learn by doing” and celebrates 4-H for its continued efforts to empower youth with a foundation of success for a lifetime.

Union County Commissioner Jeff Reber is grateful for the strong partnership with Penn State Extension and the 4-H Program. “4-H is one of my favorite programs. The education, leadership opportunities, and the building of lifelong friendships are just a few of the tremendous outcomes that participants experience when they are a 4-H member. I am proud to support this program building Union County’s next generation of leaders.”

In Pennsylvania, 4-H is administered by the Penn State Extension in all 67 counties of the Commonwealth and encompasses more than 150,000 young people from ages 5-18. The staff members and almost 4,000 volunteers engage and mentor youth in learning activities and hands-on projects in a range of topics.

With a focus on learning activities and hands-on projects, 4-H members can explore animal science, civic engagement, STEM, technology, healthy living, fashion design, environmental stewardship, forestry and wildlife, entomology, community service, and other subjects.

The Union County Commissioners’ proclamation, marking over 120 years of programs that aid and educate youth, further states, “4-H’s network provides youth with opportunities for leadership development, career exploration, problem-solving, friendships, community involvement, passion, and purpose.”

In attendance from the Union County 4-H County Council were Emma and Georgia Wray and from Nittany Mountain 4-H was Cloverbud Cherokee Arndt. Also attending were Barbara Franck – Union County 4-H Program Coordinator, Ethan Howard, Penn State

Extension Client Relationship Manager, and Lauren Wray, 4-H Volunteer.

Cherokee Arndt said she loves 4-H because she learns to care for and show animals from her older sister, Cheyenne, and her favorite part is spending time with her. Emma Wray shared, “I like 4-H because it has taught me public speaking skills and leadership. I also love working with my animals which has taught me how to manage my time.” Georgia Wray enjoys the social aspect of 4-H. “I have made some great friends through 4-H in Union County but also from across the state by attending events like 4-H camp, Wildlife and Forestry Field Day, regional Cupcake Wars and State Leadership Conference, Jr.”

Ethan Howard, Penn State Extension Client Relationship Manager, shared “Pennsylvania 4-H provides a vital platform for youth to develop essential life skills like leadership, responsibility, and public speaking through hands-on experiences. These programs are absolutely crucial in developing the leaders of tomorrow.”

Barbara Franck, 4-H Educator of Union County for the past 2 years, has seen the growth and opportunities that members have taken advantage of. She summarized the impact of 4-H in the county. “Union County’s 4 H program continues to grow, with more than 110 youth members supported by 16 outstanding volunteers. In addition, the program reached over 850 young people through summer educational activities last year. Open to youth ages 5–18, Union County 4 H offers 8 community clubs featuring projects in expressive arts, communications, shooting sports, leadership, STEM, and animal science. Members participate in a wide range of opportunities at the county, regional, state, and national levels, building lifelong skills in leadership, citizenship, and communication. “We are excited to work with the commissioners on this proclamation recognizing the Union County 4-H program and their continued support of our program. We are lucky to have leadership that sees the value in positive youth development and who join us in our mission,” she added.

In celebration of Pennsylvania 4-H Week, Union County 4-H will promote the organization through social media posts promoting daily themes for members and volunteers to participate in, and hold a public skating party at Sunset Skating Rink on March 17 from 6:30-9:00 pm. Admission to the skating event is free with a donation of a non-perishable food item, paper goods, or personal care products.

Administered in Pennsylvania by Penn State Extension, 4-H is a nonformal educational youth-development program of the U.S. Department of Agriculture that helps young people develop knowledge and skills to become capable, caring and contributing citizens. To find your local program, visit the Penn State Extension website at <https://extension.psu.edu/programs/4-H>.

Susquehanna Valley Chorale and Williamsport Chamber Choir Will Present the Verdi Requiem

The Susquehanna Valley Chorale, in collaboration with Williamsport Chamber Choir, will present the Verdi Requiem, under the direction of William Payn, on Sunday, March 22 at 3 p.m. at Zion Lutheran Church in Sunbury.

There will be a pre-performance talk by Gary Boerckel, Professor Emeritus, Lycoming College, beginning at 2:15 p.m. “Requiem” is a musical composition with a religious nature, specifically created to offer prayers and rest to the souls of the deceased. This musical form often carries a solemn and poignant quality, serving to express reverence and mourning for the departed.

Complete with thrilling symphonic score, virtuosic solo moments, and dramatic libretto, Verdi’s Requiem tells of the fate of the living who fear death and beg for deliverance. The piece is a powerful tribute to life eternal. Verdi’s dramatic choral work offers a breathtaking journey through the stages of grief, ultimately ending in peaceful consolation.

The performance will include 50 instrumentalists, 4 local soloists, and over 120 voices, an unprecedented number. Soloists for the performance include: Susannah Stewart, soprano, Amanda Stante, mezzo-soprano, James Chamberlain, tenor, and Caleb Hopkins, baritone.

Tickets are available online at SVCMusic.org, by calling 570-547-0455 or at the door.

For more information about this performance and future performances, visit SVCMusic.org.

Public Program to Discuss Union County’s Future Development

League members, residents, business owners, elected officials, and community members are invited to attend “Shaping Union County’s Future,” a public presentation on the recently updated Comprehensive Plan for Union County. The program will take place Tuesday, March 17, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. at the Public Library for Union County, 255 Reitz Blvd., Lewisburg. Doors open at 3:30 p.m., and the event is free and open to the public.

The event is produced and sponsored by the League of Women Voters of the Lewisburg Area for members and the interested public.

The presentation will be led by Shawn McLaughlin, AICP, who will outline the vision, priorities, and strategies included in the county’s updated Comprehensive Plan. The plan serves as a long-range framework guiding land use, infrastructure planning, economic development, and quality-of-life initiatives.

The program will address how demographic changes, housing trends, and economic development pressures are shaping the county’s future. Topics will include questions many residents are asking: how growth will be managed, whether Union County may host large-scale projects such as data centers or warehouse developments, and how concerns about traffic, farmland preservation, and housing availability can be addressed.

Attendees will also learn how the plan will be implemented and how county leaders, municipalities, planning boards, economic development organizations, and community stakeholders work together to guide future decisions.

The presentation will also highlight key elements of the plan, including land use, natural and agricultural resources, housing, transportation, economic development, cultural and historic resources, and community facilities and utilities.

RiverStage Announces Auditions for Musical "1776"

LEWISBURG—RiverStage Community Theatre is seeking actors and actresses for its June production of the classic musical "1776" to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. Open auditions will be held for two evenings, Monday March 23rd and Tuesday March 24th at 6:30pm at Greenspace Center, 815 Market Street, Lewisburg. The show will be performed June 19-28 at the same location, directed by award-winning local director Ellen Boyer. More information about auditions and shows can be found at www.riverstagetheatre.org.

1776, with book by Peter Stone and music & lyrics by Sherman Edwards, tells the story of the colorful characters and events leading up to the signing of the Declaration of Independence in Philadelphia on July 4, 1776. The story follows John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and their allies as they fight to persuade their colleagues to vote for American independence and sign this legendary document. The show uses quotes and dialogue from authentic historic documents, but also uses entertaining songs and humor to affectionately portray all of the strengths, weaknesses, and human flaws and idiosyncrasies of these well-known historic figures. Featuring catchy songs like "Sit Down, John," "The Lees of Old Virginia," and "Momma Look Sharp," the original Broadway production premiered on Broadway in 1969 and received three Tony Awards, including Best Musical. This production is supported by a generous grant from the Amer250PA Foundation.

Auditioners only need to attend one session, and should prepare approximately 1 minute (one verse/chorus) of a Broadway musical song to sing, with either a device with accompaniment track or piano sheet music. Selections from "1776" are welcome, but not required; songs in a similar style are encouraged. Auditioners will also be asked to read selections from the script and should bring a calendar so that you can indicate any scheduling conflicts thru June. Those interested in auditioning who are unable to make the dates are asked to contact RiverStage by email at auditions@riverstagetheatre.org or through social media. There are approximately 20 roles in this musical, and although most of the characters are male, the director will be looking for additional female singers and open to casting actors of all ages and genders who are willing to play male character roles.

Dairy Farm Families Invited to "Passing the Torch" Transition Planning Workshop

Harrisburg, Pa. —It's never too early or too late to start thinking about "passing the torch" and finding someone in line to transition ownership of your dairy business. Dairy farm families are invited to a "Passing the Torch" Transition Planning Workshop on March 24 in Lewisburg, Union County, Pa. Hosted by Penn State Extension and the Center for Dairy Excellence, the day-long workshop will cover everything from communication and family dynamics to legal and accounting considerations. The event will include lunch. Registration is $25 total for the first two family members and $5 for each additional family member. Call Emily Fread from Penn State Extension at 704-301-3441 or call Allen Hess from the Center at 717-788-0304 to register over the phone. Visit www.centerfordairyexcellence.org/passing-the-torch to register online.

"Maybe your kids are only in high school or college, and you're not ready to pass the torch quite yet. It can take years to successfully transition your business, so having one-on-one conversations now can help down the road when you're ready to begin the process. Maybe you don't have a family member interested in taking over your dairy enterprise, maybe you're just starting to think about retirement, or maybe you're nearing retirement and haven't thought about your succession plan at all. It's not too late," said Melissa Anderson, Programs and Operations Manager at the Center for Dairy Excellence. "No matter what stage or situation you're in, this workshop will get everyone around the table for one-on-one coaching with facilitators, legal experts, accountants and more."

During the workshops, attendees will learn about the overall transition process and key communication tips, the retirement planning process, the legal transition process, and the accounting transition process. Family members will also participate in one-on-one, interactive family roundtable discussions that are led by outside advisors to keep the process moving in a productive way. Attendees will walk away with a workbook and tangible next steps for taking action.

"Thank you for giving us a platform and context to start very difficult conversations. It was very helpful – even just to begin a starting point," shared one dairy farmer who attended a previous workshop in this series.

Entire dairy farm families are encouraged to attend the events. Call Emily Fread from Penn State Extension at 704-301-3441 or call Allen Hess from the Center at 717-788-0304 to register over the phone. Visit www.centerfordairyexcellence.org/passing-the-torch to register online.
