From Anywhere: The Public Library for Union County Transforms Its Biggest Night of the Year

LEWISBURG, PA — For over three decades, An Evening Among the Stacks has been a cornerstone social event for library supporters. This year, the Public Library for Union County is making its largest annual fundraiser more engaging and accessible than ever.

Set for Saturday, September 26, 2026, at 6:00 PM, the 36th Annual Auction & Social is introducing exciting new ways to participate. For the first time, supporters can secure a $5 Remote Bidding Ticket, granting them exclusive access to the silent auction from the comfort of their own homes.

"This event is a celebration of community, and we look forward to seeing both longtime friends and new attendees," says Library Director Toby Schwartzman. "By adding remote options this year, we are ensuring that anyone who wants to support the library and win incredible items has the chance to do so, whether they can attend in person or not."

What's New for 2026:

● A Head Start on Bidding: The highly anticipated silent auction will now open online a full week early, starting Friday, September 18 at 6:00 PM.

● The $5 Remote Ticket: Can't make it on the 26th? For just $5, remote bidders get full digital access to the silent auction.

● Zero-Stress Pickup: Remote winners can skip the night-of checkout lines. All winnings will be safely held at the library for a convenient pickup the following week.

● Reserved Gathering Tables ($20): While the event is designed for mingling and moving among the stacks, we are offering four exclusive, reserved tables this year. If you want a dedicated "home base" to set your drinks and gather with friends, you can reserve one of these highly limited spots for $20.

The In-Person Experience:

For those joining the live celebration on September 26, the library will once again transform into a vibrant social hub. Guests will enjoy complimentary wine, beer, and delicious hors d'oeuvres while connecting with neighbors.

The night culminates in an electric live auction and three high-stakes raffles:

● The Silver Spoon Raffle: The ultimate VIP perk. Limited tickets are sold, and the lucky winner gets first pick of any live auction package before the bidding even begins.

● Local Art Raffle: Featuring selected works by renowned local artists. (Tickets go on sale at the library on August 18).

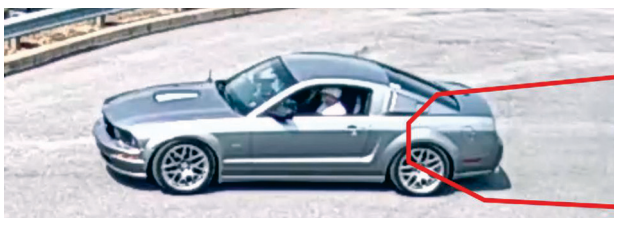

● 50/50 Raffle: A fan favorite, with tickets available in advance or at the door.

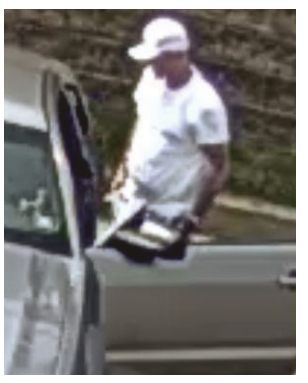

Party for a Purpose

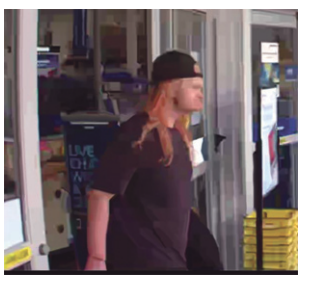

Beyond the fun, An Evening Among the Stacks is the library's most vital fundraiser of the year. Every ticket purchased and bid placed directly fuels the library's mission, funding the books, materials, and resources our community relies on every day. Featuring unique items, memorable experiences, and gift cards generously donated by local businesses and individuals, this unforgettable evening ensures the library continues to thrive and grow.

Secure Your Spot Today: Don't wait to grab your tickets! In-person admission, reserved tables, and the new $5 Remote Bidding tickets are available now at bit.ly/PLUC_Auction2026. (Note: Early bird pricing for in-person tickets is available through August 26, 2026, with extra discounts for purchasing in pairs).

SELINSGROVE BACK IN ACTION THIS FRIDAY, CLINTON COUNTY PULLS OFF TWO FAIR RACES.

After getting rained out last Friday night, Selinsgrove speedway will swing back in action this Friday night with a show of 410-sprints which is part of the Pa Posse series. 358-sprints which will be the Joe Whitcomb Memorial. Joe lost his life in a racing accident at Selinsgrove in the 2003 season, in the 358-sprint car division. The 410 sprints will be racing for a $6,000 top prize while the 358-sprints will be racing for $2,071, also racing will be the wingless sportsman division. So far in 410-sprint action AJ Flick Mark Smith and Brock Zearfoss have scored feature wins. Zearfoss will not be at Selinsgrove because he has taken a ride with the 17GP racing team run by Dutcher Motorsports. In other Selinsgrove Speedway news Northeast RV's is putting up a $1,000 bonus for any driver that can beat Gregg Satterlee in the super late model division. Gregg has won all six of the regular seasons shows that the track has run, Satterlee must be on the track at the end of the feature for another driver to collect the bonus money. The next race for the super late model class will be on Friday August 21st.

Clinton County got both of their races in last week as part of the annual Clinton County Fair. First up was the limited late model race on Tuesday August 4th, with sixteen drivers signed in for the night's action. George Dixon Jr scored his third win out of four races for this class this year. Dixon of Shirleysburg beat Andrew Yoder of Middleburg, Joe Lusk, of Linden Pa. Jim Yoder of Selinsgrove and Nick Loffredo of Avis Pa. Nick was making his first start in almost two years, taken some time off to work on his business and taken care of family members. Kevin Probst of North Bend made his first start in over four years in the late model class. Probst was driving a back-up car that Maddox and his dad Mike have ready to go. Jennifer Lesher of Newport Pa had a bad night. First there were two vehicles which caused problems to the track, which they had to nurse it to the speedway. Then in the feature Lesher who was running a solid fifth in the feature broke a tie rod end, which knocked her out of the feature Ross Perchak of Hazelton Pa drove to his 16-career 270-micro sprint car feature. Ross, who is not a regular racer at the speedway, has only raced at the track two times these years with a win and a second-place run. Cory Long of Selinsgrove won his fifth Pro-Stock feature of the season and is leading the points and looking for his second every track title in the division. Coming up at Clinton County this Saturday will be the 410-sprints in a Pa Posse series race. It will be the third appearance for the division at Clinton. Ryan Smith in car number six scored a feature win back in June with Danny Dietrich scoring the feature win in the July 10th series race. Last Friday a special race was run for Jim Cowboy Kennedy for the 305-sprints. The Memorial race was for Kennedy who has run a number of his races at the track over the last few years, Jim was 91 when he passed away. Cole Dewease, son of Lance, looked to be on his way to the feature when his #61D over heated on lap 37 which knocked him out of the race. That turned the lead over to Jim Pattock who went on to score his first ever Clinton County speedway win. Jeff Weaver was second followed by Jacob Gomola, Jarrett Calavet and Josh Beamer. The 50-lap feature was delayed during a 25-lap caution when a light drizzle hit the speedway, which stopped the action for a few moments. The race drew a field of 32 drivers for the event to honor the Cowboy. Mac Wert won the 270-micro feature over Jeff Weaver Mason McAndrew, Quinn Roberts and Jillian Mauer. With the weather problems and the tracks curfew the Pro-Stock and the Four-Cylinder feature will be made up with the rare Saturday night program.

Port Royal got their three-division show in the books of 410-sprints PASS 305-sprints and the limited late models, with 35, 30 and 24 drivers signed In for the nights action. Kody Hartlaub now driving the Knoble #77 scored the feature win over Lance Dewease, Nash Ely, Matt Campbell and Owen Dimm, who was making only his third start in the 410-sprints after racing in the 305-sprint class for a few years. #5 drivers were on hand a number came over from Lincoln speedway after they cancelled earlier in the day. Tyler Erdley of Herndon Pa son of Mike Erdley a former 410-sprint car driver scored the PASS 305-sprint car feature win. Tyler only ran a few sprint races last year and is in his first full season of racing, Erdley beat Zach Rhodes, Kenny Heffner, Tyler Shell and Jacob Gomola in the top five. In the Limited late model feature Lane Snook of Port Royal scored his third feature win of the season beating Andrew Yoder, DJ Myers, Shawn Shoemaker and Jaxton Garman for the 20-lap feature win. Lane also has scored two limited late model feature wins at Selinsgrove and Bedford. Snook has been so close this year on getting his first ever super late model feature win. Leading the feature events at Selinsgrove for 17-laps on July 24th before suffering a flat tire late in the race. Then On Saturday August first he was leading that feature, with a bunch of late race cautions and one red flag, which allowed Gregg Satterlee to sneak in and take the feature win away from Lane with a late race restart.

Last weekend Williams Grove Big Diamond were both rained out, while Bedford speedway was off for the annual Bedford Fair. Saturday besides Lincoln Baps speedway Greenwood Valley Action track. Hagerstown was rained out. The Nathan Durborow Memorial race for the super late models will be made up on Saturday September 12th, with the winner of the feature could win $5,200 for the 41-lap feature win. This weekend Williams Grove, Lincoln and Port Royal speedways will not be racing. Due to the big 410-sprint car races at Knoxville Iowa speedway for the nationals, so drivers and fans can make their way out for the biggest 410-sprint car race of the year at the ½ mile track. Last Sunday they held an event, and Anthony Macri was involved in a bad crash again which will keep him out of the race for the second time this year, 87 drivers were on hand for the Sunday show. Chase Dietz, Danny Dietrich are also out for the Knoxville Nationals.

Out of the area but a big event at Florence Ky was the annual North/South 100 with local driver Josh Rice scoring the win in the Justin Rattliff Rockert chassis #11. Josh beat out Jonathan Davenport coming off the four turn for the feature win at his home track. Josh is racing with the Lucas Oil series and running for the series rookie of the year. The race paid the winner $75,000

Luke Morey was third with Devin Moran and Brandon Overton in the top five the event drew a field of 59 drivers. This week they will be racing at Batesville Motor Speedway for the Topless 100 with the winner getting $50,000 to win. Safter a week off the series comes east to Port Royal speedway for a two-day show, Friday night winner collecting $10,000 to win and the Saturday night show getting $50,000 on the weekend of August 28-29.

Tabby Welshans Memorial Charity Golf Tournament Announces Honorary Co-Chairs

Freddi Carlip, Kendra Aucker,and Lisa Sojka have been named the Honorary Co-Chairs of Second Annual Tabby Welshans Memorial Charity Golf Tournament.

The organizing committee of the Second Annual Tabby Welshans Memorial Charity Golf Tournament is pleased to announce that three distinguished community leaders; Kendra Aucker, former President and CEO of WellSpan Evangelical Community Hospital, Freddi Carlip, longtime journalist and society writer for The Daily Item, and Lisa Sojka, entrepreneur and community advocate, have accepted the invitation to serve as Honorary Co-Chairs for this year's event.

The tournament celebrates the life and legacy of Tabby Welshans bringing together friends, businesses, and community members for a day of fellowship, friendly competition, and charitable giving. Proceeds from the tournament will support an annual scholarship awarded to an outstanding Selinsgrove high school graduating senior who most reflects Tabby's generous spirit, compassion for others, and unwavering commitment to the community she loved.

Although faced with an inoperable cancerous brain tumor to which she succumbed at age 11, Tabby never allowed the illness to define her; rather, she defined herself through kindness, courage, and an unwavering belief in something greater.

No setback could shake her faith. By example, she taught that true strength is not just in fighting, but in smiling through the storm, in believing when others might falter, and in embracing each day with gratitude and grace. Commented Lisa Sojka: "Tabby may be gone from our sight, but she will forever be in our hearts, reminding us that often the bravest souls come in the smallest packages."

"We are deeply honored to serve together as Honorary Co-Chairs of this special event" said Kendra Aucker on behalf of the three co-chairs. "Tabby touched countless lives through her joyful spirit, optimism, and willingness to help others. This tournament is more than a day on the golf course; instead, it's an opportunity for our community to come together, celebrate the remarkable legacy of a brave little girl, and make a meaningful difference in the lives of others. We encourage everyone to join us in supporting a cause that so beautifully reflects the values Tabby lived every day."

Tournament organizers expressed their gratitude to Aucker, Carlip, and Sojka for lending their leadership and community spirit to the event. "Their combined commitment to service, philanthropy, and civic engagement embodies the very principles the tournament seeks to promote" organizers stated.

The tournament is scheduled for Friday, September 18, at the Bucknell University golf course, 366 Smoketown Road, Lewisburg. It's a four-person scramble with numerous prizes and awards including the possibility of winning a 2026 Subaru, for a hole in one, sponsored by W&L Subaru. The registration fee is $400 per foursome or $125 for individuals. Registration begins at 7:30 am with a shotgun start at 9:00 am.

The Tabby Memorial Foundation is a 501 (c) (3) registered charitable organization and all donations are tax exempt to the extent allowed by law.For further information, visit: https://boards.com/a/XlWQrR.s3zEL9.

Senator Culver to Host Telephone Town Hall on Aug. 18

HARRISBURG – Sen. Lynda Schlegel Culver (R-27) will host a live telephone town hall on Tuesday, Aug. 18, at 5 p.m., giving residents of the 27th Senatorial District an opportunity to hear updates on state government and ask questions about issues important to them.

The event allows participants to join from the comfort of their home by phone. During the town hall, Culver will provide updates on legislative priorities and issues affecting the district before taking questions from constituents.

"I always appreciate the opportunity to hear directly from the people I represent," Culver said. "This telephone town hall is another way for residents to share their questions, concerns and ideas while learning more about the work being done on their behalf in Harrisburg."

Residents will receive an automated call when the event begins, but those who would like to ensure they are connected are encouraged to register in advance at https://senatorculver.com/access-live/. Residents may also use that link to listen to the town hall live online.

The Mifflin County youth baseball team won the Mid-Atlantic Regional Championship and is playing in the Babe Ruth World Series 13-16 Division in Branson, Missouri. They are playing quite well and wrapped up pool play by going undefeated at 4-0.

The Mifflin County roster consists of thirteen players, four of which are from Snyder County and were freshmen on this spring's Midd-West varsity baseball team. Colton Aumiller, Max Trawitz, Maverick Smith and Haven Bridge have been a huge part of the Mifflin County team's success.

Mifflin County beat San Carlos,FL 9-8 in twelve innings in their first game to give them confidence and to easily win their next three games. MC was down 6-2 in the sixth of a seven inning game and fought back to win it in the bottom of the twelfth with a walk-off bases loaded walk. Aumiller was the winning pitcher with three innings of high leverage relief pitching and he scored two runs.

Next up was the United Kingdom and MC won 5-1 aided by Aumiller´s triple, Trawitz going 2 for 3 with a run and RBI and Smith´s 1 for 2 with a run scored. After taking Sunday off, Mifflin County beat Native Nations 5-1 behind Haven Bridge throwing four innings of no-hit ball and Aumiller got the save by closing out the last three innings.

Mifflin County finished up by handily beating Columbia 12-1 to stay unbeaten going into the championship tournament where they played Hanford,CA or Woodland,WA Thursday at 4pm. If MC wins Thursday they will play Friday at 3pm for a spot in the championship game which will be Saturday at 4pm. You can follow the team on the Gamechanger app.

Local amateur baseball will end this week and the countdown is on. In three weeks we will be reminded why we fell in love with college football in the first place. Mrs. Bolt is more excited than me! I think we are looking forward to the games more than ever because it's been such a confusing, controversial and frustrating off season. We all know reforms are needed and maybe Congress can bring some relief if they vote on the bill in front of them. When you look to the federal government for sanity these days that shows you where we are in college football.

The bill is called the ´Protect College Sports Act´ and these are some of the issues addressed in the bill as it is written today. Limiting conference expansion and a Super League. The Power 4 conferences would be limited to nineteen members and any school in a P4 league (SEC, Big 10, ACC and Big 12) the previous five years could not move to another. They would have to operate as an independent for five years before making a move to another conference.

Nineteen teams seems like an odd number but the Big 10 is currently at 18 and Notre Dame would be a perfect fit to get to 19. The SEC sits at 16 teams and could add Miami, North Carolina and Virginia to fill out their league limit. The ACC and Big 12 would fill out their conferences with schools from the ´Group of Six´ leagues. All of these conference realignments would happen before the bill takes effect.

The bill will also have transfer restrictions, one free transfer without sitting out a year. Players would be able to transfer in the event of a head coaching change. If a head coach or any other staff personnel goes to a different school during the season he or she cannot communicate with any other school or player until the season is over.

Increasing revenue sharing while adding a harder pay-out cap. Schools can add another $22.5M retention fund to keep current players in addition to the $21M they can already spend on players. Schools would also have a cap of $5M used exclusively for women's sports and non-revenue (Olympic) sports. This would total $50M per year schools can pay their student athletes.

You cannot refer to it as a salary cap because the college athletes are not labeled as employee or non-employee but remain neutral. Apparently this is the terminology needed for Democratic support to pass the bill.

The bill also preempts various state laws on NIL, eligibility and transfers to provide a national standard for a level playing field. Sports agents will need to be certified and their fees are capped at 5% of any endorsement deals. Expect the signing of this bill sometime in late October and Trump will show up on ESPN´s College Gameday and approve this bill shortly before the November mid-term elections.

That´s college football behind the scenes and the boring stuff, let's take a look at what I'm most excited about and intrigued with. Curious to see how Lourdes Regional grad and first year UCLA coach Bob Chesney does in the Big 10. He was my first choice for the Penn State job after he led James Madison to the College Football Championship last year. In hindsight, I really like how Penn State was somehow able to have Matt Campbell land in Happy Valley.

Penn State has the weakest schedule of all 18 teams in the Big 10 and #62 overall. They don´t play Ohio State, Oregon or Indiana…all three are currently ranked in the Top 6. The Nittany Lions will probably play only three teams ranked in the Top 25. If they can beat USC at home in the whiteout game and play close games at Michigan and Washington they will make the twelve-team playoff provided they don't stumble elsewhere. Playing at Northwestern in the first game at the Wildcats new stadium will be a tough one to win.

This is probably the first year in forever that I am not familiar with the Penn State roster and how talented the players are. Forty football players transferred in and more than that transferred out. Twenty-four of the transfers came with coach Campbell from Iowa State. I have watched QB Rocco Becht play for the last three years and he reminds me of Penn State icon Trace McSorley. That should excite all of you Penn State fans.

Who is going to stand out and backup their claim that the SEC is still the best football conference? That ship has sailed with three different B1G schools winning the last three national titles. If that isn´t telling enough, ten schools in the SEC and B1G have new head coaches this year.

The chasm in coaching between the two conferences that rule college football stretched even wider this winter. Big Ten Athletic Directors pursued and poached four proven commodities that have over 500 wins in college to lead their teams. The SEC went the way of five up and comers and the mercurial Lane Kiffin for their six new coaching hires. Does it still really mean more in the SEC?

Will Archie Manning finally live up to his name at Texas? Will Kirby Smart at Georgia prove he is more Nick Saban than Dabo Sweeney? Will Lane Kiffin finish his first year at LSU? Will Kalen DeBoer's coaching seat get even hotter? Will Marcus Freeman awaken the echoes at Notre Dame? I for one cannot wait to see this and everything else the greatest sport has to offer.

One of three teams from the Big Ten or Notre Dame will win this year's national title.
