1st Ever Ribz 4 Kidz at Ard's Farm Market

By Jacob Tanner

On August 24, Ard's Farm Market held its first Ribz 4 Kidz event. Ribz 4 Kidz is a non-profit organization that helps to raise funds for the Ronald McDonald house of Danville. The day was filled with tons of fun and activities, ranging from a BBQ cook off, to a car show, to live music, to games for the children. Many families came out to enjoy the event, and everyone had a lot of fun. It was a wonderful family event and supported a great cause. Blaise Alexander Ford and Aubrey Alexander Toyota sponsored the event.

The event continued from morning until night, and even included a rib-eating contest and burger-building challenge. The children had plenty of opportunities to play games and win prizes, and there were even some big inflatables, which were a big hit with the kids. The weather was nice, the food was great, and there was fun to be found all around.

Alan Ard had this to say, "This is all Justin's creation here. In September of last year, Justin Midkiff's wife gave birth while away on a trip in West Virginia to a baby about ten weeks early. Without any other place to go, the family stayed down at a Ronald McDonald's House. This fundraising event is his way to pay back the Ronald McDonald House. We always wanted to do something like this, and now we have a really good reason to do it. We're hoping for a couple thousand people today, and we hope it will grow each year. We're excited about it, and we're hopeful this will be an annual event. We've already learned a lot and will definitely work to make it better. We've got some great things planned, like 'The Roy's' coming out to play some music all the way from Nashville."

Justin also added, "The most important thing is that people realize the cause. There are tons of ways to get involved and to volunteer, and none of it could function without the help."

Downtown Mifflinburg Prepares for End of Construction

The road construction on Route 45 is nearing its end – at long last! Scheduled to be complete by the end of October, work is nearly complete from 8th to 3rd Streets. The final phase is in progress from 3rd Street to Forest Hill Road.

With the "end" in mind, businesses are gearing up for a "new start". Stamm House, for one, will be reopening on Tuesday, Sept. 3. Hours will be Tuesday through Friday from 10 am to 5 pm and Saturday from 10 am to 4 pm. Many of the businesses on Route 45 from 3rd to 4th Streets are accessible from the front as the sidewalks in that section are not being replaced. For additional convenience, many businesses are accessible from rear entrances they have made available such as Stamm House, NASH, American Rescue Workers and others.

The construction, as necessary as it is, has been very hard on our local businesses. We ask that you please make a bit more effort to patronize our downtown businesses to help them through this difficult time. The road construction has cost businesses a good deal in lost customers and revenue. Support our local businesses for they are the backbone of every community!

43rd Annual New Berlin Day

By Jacob Tanner

The annual New Berlin Day celebration (formally known as Heritage Day), one of central Pennsylvania's largest street festivals, comes to New Berlin with much anticipation each year. Many vendors come and line the streets of the town to sell their goods and to come together and celebrate our heritage, artists, and craftsmen. The day is filled with much more than vendors, however, and also includes fun and games for the kids, a Civil War skirmish, and, of course, delicious food. The festival is free to park and free to enter, and many come from all over to join in the festivities.

On August 24, the sweet smell of cinnamon, mingled with some other savory smells, lingered and smoked through the streets of New Berlin. The streets were busy and bustling with people of all ages from opening to closing time. Indeed, there is a little something for everyone at the festival each year. For those interested in crafts, one must not look very far. There are many handmade goods – from baskets, to dolls, to magnets, to jewelry; if you can name it, odds are it is available at New Berlin Day. If someone is interested in antiques, they are also available in large quantities. Many artists also get the opportunity to show off some of their more dazzling creations. The children always find some entertainment as well, this year coming in the form of some games and a free puppet show. Of course, the most popular and sought after product has come to the celebration each year in abundance – Food! Many popular German and American dishes are served at the adjoining Firemen's Field, and can be found on the streets from vendors as well. One of the more popular vendors, "Totally Nuts" of Mifflinburg, PA, was giving customers free samples of their many different flavors of nuts. The most popular seller of theirs was their "German Roasted Pecans".

New Berlin's own Barb Kuhns was on hand at the event and had this to share: "New Berlin Day is a fine event and a fun celebration. I've been coming here since I moved to New Berlin back in '69. Years back, when it was called 'Heritage Days' there were a lot more crafts being presented; like a man I remember that used to make brooms. Now, it seems that there is jewelry after jewelry stand. The antiques are still there, but the craft line seems to have really changed. I wish there were more of those handmade crafts. It also used to go down one more street as I recall. Also, everyone now has to go to the Firemen's Field to get a lot of the food – it used to be more convenient. That's my only complaint. I do have to say that the parking here is very easy and accessible, and more places should be like that."

Whether you were there or you missed the event this year, you can once again look forward to joining the festivities next year.

Employees & Volunteers Presented Award

On Tuesday, August 27, 2013, Evangelical Community Hospital board members, physicians, volunteers, and employees were on hand to receive the Outstanding Patient Experience Award from Healthgrades officials.

The event was held in front of a standing room only crowd with Michael O'Keefe, President and CEO and Krista McNally, Unit Assistant at the Family Place and Evangelical employee for over two decades, accepting the award on behalf of every employee and volunteer at the Hospital. Following the brief ceremony, board members, physicians, staff and volunteers were treated to cake and free gifts to honor their contributions to going above and beyond with patients and their families.

This marks the fifth consecutive year Evangelical has received the award, making it one of only two hospitals in Pennsylvania to consistently deliver positive patient experience and places Evangelical among the top 15% of hospitals in the nation who have mastered an approach to meeting patient needs that stands out among the rest.

The Healthgrades Outstanding Patient Experience Award reflects a patient's perceptions of all the interactions that take place while receiving care in the hospital. Patient experience includes communication delivered by doctors and nurses, fast response to medical concerns and needs, attention to pain levels, hospital cleanliness and noise levels and medication and post-discharge care instructions. The measure for the award is patient feedback supplied through after-care surveys.

PA Dutch Life & Culture

From July, 2004:

"AIN'T"
 When the maple gets it's red leaves onc't,
 And the gicklyfees* ain't sweet no more;
 When the sneaky cold kills all the fields,
 You'll be my sweetheart, ain't, just like before?

Remember, when we blowed the dandelions
 In Adams' field, to see the kids we'd get?
 Ain't the field was gray with dandelions
 And you kissed me and said my mouth was wet?

I love you so... And we can get a house
 And you can fix it nice with paint.
 And when the stars is out, we'll feel so fine;
 But when the stars is all, you'll love me, ain't?

*Gicklyfees is the Dutch word for wild honeysuckle.

WE'LL UNDERTAKE TO PROVE TO YOU That no store, no matter how extensive, or where found, can serve you better than we can. By that we mean to supply all that is needed in every home and at all seasons.

Flashback

We are in the country now! The Cow Fling Contest at the Union County West End Fair, seen here in the 1970s, was a demonstration of the skill at hurling, as far as one could, what the cow has, well, plopped. The top prize for this athletic prowess was a rosette ribbon.

(West End Fair Association and Union County Historical Society).

Hospital Granted Funds for Two Major Program Areas

Evangelical Community Hospital was recently awarded a grant of $43,415 from the Ralph and Josephine Smith Fund at the First Community Foundation Partnership of Pennsylvania (FCFP). The funds are designated for The Family Place, Evangelical's obstetrics unit, and for the Financial Assistance Program.

Michael O'Keefe, President and CEO of Evangelical Community Hospital accepted the awarded grant at a reception held by FCFP on July 11, 2013.

O'Keefe said, "On behalf of the Hospital, we want to thank the Smith Fund and First Community Foundation Partnership of Pennsylvania for their generosity. These grant opportunities allow the Hospital to further its work of providing health and wellness opportunities and services to the individuals living and working in our communities."

Grants from the Ralph & Josephine Smith Fund are available yearly to four designated organizations that serve Northumberland County: the Warrior Run Library, Evangelical Community Hospital, SUN Home Health Services, and the Turbotville Community Hall Corporation. In addition, the fund awards scholarships to graduating seniors from the Warrior Run School District.

FCFP President and CEO Jennifer D. Wilson said, "FCFP is proud to represent the legacy of Ralph and Josephine Smith in support of the Evangelical Community Hospital and its service to the residents of Northumberland County."

Evangelical's The Family Place began renovations in early 2013 and the grant funds will offset the costs associated with upgrading patient rooms, having two labor and delivery room and two post-partum rooms designed for patients with special needs through compliance with the American Disabilities Act, creating a new family waiting room area, and installing a new nurse call system.

The Financial Assistance Program at Evangelical makes it possible for the Hospital to provide needed health services and support to individuals in the community who have difficulty paying for those services. In fiscal year 2013, the program supported nearly 560 patients by providing necessary inpatient and outpatient health services at a reduced charge.

Kenseth Gets Fifth Win At Bristol

By Gerald Hodges/the Racing Reporter

BRISTOL, Tenn.—Most drivers leave Bristol mad after a race. This past Saturday night's Sprint Cup race was no exception. About the only driver to express happiness was Matt Kenseth, the winner, who picked up his fifth victory of the season.

"Man, what a finish," said Kenseth. "Kasey did a great job of keeping the pressure on there at the end. I had to use up all the race track to stay ahead of him. I really had to fight to win this one."

Kasey Kahne had moved into second-place, behind Kenseth, on lap 486 of the 500-lap race. At times the pair was racing side-by-side, but Kahne could never make the pass. When he wasn't trying to get around Kenseth, he was right on his rear bumper.

"There's no one to blame but myself," said Kahne. "I had a really good car, the fastest one here. I just couldn't get it done and I feel bad about that. I raced him as hard as I could. I really blame myself for not figuring out a way to get around him."

A multi-car crash on lap 447 changed the playoff odds for numerous teams, after Brian Vickers got into Denny Hamlin. The accident collected eight cars and brought out a red flag because of all the debris. Also involved in the wreck were Brad Keselowski, Kevin Harvick, Ryan Newman, Casey Mears, Ken Schrader, and David Stremme.

The wreck ended the day for Martin Truex Jr., who entered the night 12th in points. He fell to 14th after collecting a 35th place finish.

"I'm very disappointed and frustrated," said Truex. "I don't know what happened, but we didn't deserve this. Everything just closed up, and I was in the wall, then I got hit a couple more times."

Kevin Harvick confronted Denny Hamlin in the pit area after the accident.

"I just wanted to get his take on it," said Harvick. "There ain't no fun in racing like we did tonight. I wish the old Bristol track was back."

Brad Keselowski also took damage in the pileup. He came into Bristol eighth in the standings but leaves 11th in points, though he was able to finish 30th.

Jimmie Johnson, the points leader had several problems. First, he had a bad tire, then he was involved in a bumping incident, and finally on lap 368, he ran into the spinning No. 83 driven by David Reutimann, and was finished for the night.

Despite having an engine let go in his No. 99 Roush Fenway Ford during lap 388, Carl Edwards was one of the few upbeat drivers.

"Man, it was a lot of fun," he said. "This was the best our Ford has run all year. It was really great to be able to race up front."

Kurt Busch started off leading the race, but a vibration problem forced him to make an unscheduled pit stop on lap 77. He took four fresh tires but the problem persisted and eventually, he had to bring his car behind the wall for his team to replace the damaged hub in the right rear wheel assembly.

When Busch returned to action, he was 27 laps down. He finished 31st.

His brother, Kyle, who won both the Bristol Truck and Nationwide race's was involved in several minor wrecks and wound up 11th.

Top-10 finishers: 1. Matt Kenseth, 2. Kasey Kahne, 3. Juan Montoya, 4. Brian Vickers, 5. Joey Logano, 6. Paul Menard, 7. Jeff Gordon, 8. Marcos Ambrose, 9. Greg Biffle, 10. Dale Earnhardt.

Here are the top-15 points leaders with two races remaining before the Chase begins. Only the top-12 drivers will make the Chase. 1. Johnson-821, 2. Bowyer-803, 3. Edwards-768, 4. Harvick-760, 5. Kyle Busch-739, 6. Kenseth-736, 7. Earnhardt-714, 8. Kahne-701, 9. Biffle-698, 10. Logano-685, 11. Keselowski-681, 12. Kurt Busch-679, 13. Gordon-674, 14. Truex-663, 15. Newman-659.

"ROWDY" KYLE GETS TWO AT BRISTOL

Kyle Busch led 228 of 250 laps on the way to victory in Saturday's Bristol Nationwide race.

"It comes from preparation, it comes from the shop, it comes from practice here," Busch said. (Crew chief) Adam (Stevens) and I - we work real well together. Those guys work hard. Today, it was just a great car and great job by these guys, putting together such a great car."

Brad Keselowski ran second, followed by Austin Dillon, Justin Allgaier and rookie Kyle Larson.

Busch was also the winner of Wednesday night's Truck race.

Top-10 Nationwide leaders after 23 of 33: 1. Hornish-801, 2. A. Dillon-795, 3. Sadler-790, 4. Smith-777, 5. Allgaier-762, 6. Vickers-641, 7. Scott-741, 8. Larson-735, 9. Bayne-734, 10. Kligerman-696.

MATT CRAFTON LEADS TRUCK SERIES

ESPN AND TNT WANT OUT OF NASCAR TV DEALS

According to Sports Business Daily, ESPN and Turner Sports are talking with NASCAR about getting out of their broadcast rights agreement a year early.

If successful, this move would allow Fox Sports and NBC Sports to become the sport's broadcasters next year. It's unlikely that the four TV companies will be able to reach a deal. But the fact that these types of talks are occurring is precedent-setting in an industry where live sports rights are held sacred.

For at least the past decade, no rights holder has exited a major media agreement with a property early. ESPN and Turner executives told the series that they are interested in forgoing the final year of their contract.

Fox and NBC executives told NASCAR that they are interested in picking up those rights. And sources say NASCAR executives are open to the switch. But any deal faces significant hurdles. It would have to be a complete switch, not a partial one.

KURT BUSCH HAS SIGNED WITH SHR

Kurt Busch has signed a multiyear contract to drive for Stewart-Haas Racing, beginning with the 2014 Daytona 500, Busch told ESPN.com.

"I'm going to Stewart-Haas," Busch said. "I've signed my deal."

Busch received the offer to drive for Stewart-Haas a week ago and was offered a subsequent proposal from his current team, Furniture Row Racing, last week. Busch said he appreciates the opportunity afforded him at FRR, and he will continue to do his best as driver of the team's No. 78.

Weekend Racing: The Cup and Nationwide teams are at the 1.5-mile Atlanta Motor speedway, while the Trucks travel to Bowmanville, Ontario, for their inaugural race at the Canadian Tire Motorsports Park.

Sat., Aug. 31, Nationwide Series, race 24 of 33; Starting time: 7:30 pm ET; TV: ESPN2. Sun., Sept. 1, Camping World Trucks, race 14 of 22; Starting time: 2 pm ET; TV: FoxSports1. Sun., Sept. 1, Sprint Cup race 25 of 36; Starting time: 7:30 pm ET; TV: ESPN.

Please note that with the start of the NFL football season, there is the possibility some races will be transferred to other channels. This happened last week in certain television viewing areas on the East Coast.

Racing Trivia Question: What year did Jeff Gordon move to the Cup series?

Last Week's Question: What make car does Denny Hamlin drive in the Cup Series? Answer: Toyota.

Dear Readers,

A daughter named Marian was born to Allen & Esther Burkholder of Lewisburg. She has 1 brother and 4 sisters. Grandparents are Eli & Irene Burkholder and Ammon & Erma Zimmerman all of Penn Valley.

All of the Hoover Family traveled to New York in a charter bus to Arrowhead Park & beach along Seneca Lake for the annual picnic. The picnic was only 8 miles from David & Mabel Jane Brubacker. So they joined us too.

Jerry & Lorraine Hoover have a son named Rylan Jerry. He has 3 sisters. Grandparents are Mary Hoover and Floyd & Esther Weaver. Baby Rylan was rushed to the hospital right after birth. First to Evangelical Community Hospital and then to Geisinger Medical Center. He was born with a small lower jaw and cleft palate. His tongue stopped off his airway causing breathing problems.

August 12, 2013

Baby Rylan had surgery to remove a tube he swallowed. While they were doing surgery they put a G-tube and trachea in too. He is doing fine, but needs to be sedated for a week so that everything can heal. Their address is 120 Thomas Road, Mifflinburg, PA 17844.

Lawrence Zimmerman (18) son of Elvin & MaryElla of Mifflinburg, who works at JD Welding got his fingers in the brake used for bending steel and smashed them. He was taken to Geisinger Medical Center.

August 15, 2013

Alson Martin of Mifflinburg, broke his toes, when he unhitched a piece of equipment and the hitch fell down on his foot.

August 17, 2013

A van load of youth were at church. They were from Lancaster Co.

Enos Shirk of Mifflinburg expresses his thanks to all of those who have done things to help their family while he was recovering from his cherry picking accident. He is back to work again.

August 19, 2013

Weston (11) son of Aaron & Joanna Hoover had staff infection inside the bone in his leg, above the knee. He had surgery at Geisinger Medical Center to clean it out and also put a picline in, so he can take his medication at home. His address is 12050 Old Turnpike Road, Mifflinburg, PA 17844.

Louise Brubacker (8) daughter of Levi & Laurretta is at home and doing well since surgery to remove the tumor on her brain. She is the picture of health. But the doctors report was that she has incurable cancer, a rare adult type, only a few known cases of it.

August 21, 2013

Our neighbor Fay Criswell passed away. She has been in the nursing home in Lewisburg for a while since she had a stroke. Her funeral will be on Monday.

Family Planning Plus of SUN and MJ Counties regrettfully announces that it will be temporarily closing its Selinsgrove and Sunbury WIC Program offices on August 30 until further notice. The remaining three offices (Lewisburg, Shamokin, and Lewistown) will remain open only one day a week to try to serve as many of the more than 5,000 women, infants, and children that it serves each month. The closures and cutbacks are due to a funding freeze brought about by a statewide audit of the WIC Program.

"We have not received any WIC allocations since June when we received the payment for May. Unfortunately, we have almost completely exhausted our reserves and there is simply no other alternative," said Peggy Moser, Executive Director of the agency. Moser said that WIC funding is allocated by the federal government, but then filters down to the state and then to a regional entity. It is being held up at the state level.

The Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) Program is the nation's premiere, preventive, short-term public health nutrition program. It influences lifetime nutrition and health behaviors in a targeted, high-risk population of low-income mothers and young children at risk for developing nutrition-related diseases and disorders.

"WIC is grounded in nutrition science," said Brett Campbell, Nutritionist and SUN WIC Coordinator, "and has proven to be extremely efficient and effective. We are most concerned about our clients, and hope that this situation will be very short-term."
