Appalachian Late Models Speedweek is in Action with Four Shows to Wrap up the Series

Two races got in the books over the weekend with one race scheduled for Port Royal last Saturday night getting rained out and will not be made up. The two races that were run were Clinton County on Friday night and Potomac speedway in Maryland on Sunday night. Sunday night BAPS speedway had a 410-sprint along with Extreme Stock with the general admission set at only $5 to get in and all indications are that the place was full of fans. Even Danny Dietrich had to weigh in on track. It might be better off to charge less to get in to get more fans to the racetracks, it may not be able to be done all the time but on occasions might not be a bad idea.

Three different drivers held the lead-on Friday night at Clinton County with pole sitter Gregg Satterlee leading the first fifteen laps until Winner Trevor feathers got the lead on lap sixteen restart, followed by Matt Cochran who also got past Satterlee on the restart. Feathers was quoted as saying "I expected to see him come back on me and try a slider and when I looked to the inside, I saw a blue car and thought who was that. Cochran had a good car and I have been told he runs good at Clinton having racing there a number of times in his career". Cochran led laps 21-22-23 before Feathers got the lead back on laps 23 and led the rest of the way in the 40-lap feature. It was Trevor's first ever late model Speedweek win and his second win at Clinton County in two races. Trevor won the Fall Clash race their last fall and now is two for two in races he has run at Clinton. "I like the smaller tracks it puts the driver in control and there is less of air push to worry about like on the bigger tracks". Feathers went on to win the race by 3.724 seconds over Dylan Yoder who was having a side-by-side battle with Cochran for that spot. Trevor liked the battle he had with Cochran." We raced side by side for three laps and never touched him. He gave me room and I gave him room. It was fun racing against him, and he was using a limited late model motor which was running good. Cochran Noted how good it was." We were having motor trouble but kept working on it and it performed great tonight. That was a ton of fun out there leading and racing for the lead". Dylan Yoder had his best run in a while and was happy with his second place." We finally had the car working to the way I like it, plus I like racing at Clinton County it is a fun little track to race on". Gregg Satterlee faded to fourth after leading the first fifteen laps, Bryan Bernheisel was fifth followed by Jakob Piper, Hayes Mattern, Tyler Emory, Joe Petyak and Justin Weaver who came from the 23rd starting spot. Four Limited late model drivers raced with super, with Cochran third JR Toner placed 12th and Joe Luck was 15th, Maddox Smith did not make the show. 29 drivers signed in for the night's action.

Sunday at Potomac Justin Weaver took advantage of Kyle Hardys misfortune to go on and win night two of the series races, it was also his first ever late model Speedweek win. Hardy lead the first eleven laps before mechanical issues ended his night. Weaver took over and was never challenged and won the race by 1.516 second over New York driver Chad Homan with Bryan Bernheisel third then came Jamie Lathroum, Tyler Emory in fifth the rest of the top ten were Jonathan Raley, Jakob Piper, Iowa driver Troy Morris, Joe Petyak and Nick Love in the top ten. The race was slowed nine times for cautions with the race lasting 34 minutes with 14 starters running at the finish. 24 drivers signed up with at least 12 drivers racing their limited late model against the super late models. The points look like this after two races Justin Weaver 1446, Bryan Bernheisel-1444, Tyler Emory-1407, Jakob Piper 1391 and Joe Petyak 1366. Those five drivers all have top ten runs in the two races run so far. Four more races to go with the final event to be held at Lincoln speedway this Saturday June 13th. For the fourth year in a row Selinsgrove Ford of Selinsgrove is the title sponsor for the series.

Sunday night at BAPS 32 410-sprints were in action and in only his fourth time in the car. Cameron Smith of Spring Grove drove the Jacob Allen owned number 1A, to the feature win holding off Danny Dietrich with Lance Dewease, Chase Dietz and Brandon Rahmer in the top five. Tyler Ross, Buddy Schweibinz, Logan Rumsey, Freddie Rahmer and Brock Zearfoss were in the top ten. This was the sixth 410-sprint race run at BAPS this season with Chase Dietz scoring three wins, and Anthony Macri, Troy Wagaman Jr and now Smith scoring the other wins Williams Grove had the All-Star sprint in action on Friday night with Troy Wagaman scoring the feature win over Danny Dietrich, Brady Bacon, TJ Stutts and Chase Dietz. None of the regular All-Star drivers made it to the top ten to finish with Kalib Henry and Cale Thomas placing 17th and 18th in the final run down. The win for Wagaman Jr was his second Grove win of the season. He is the second driver to record the second win the other is Lance Dewease, singles wins have gone to Steve Snyder Jr, Justin Peck, Kasey Kahne, David Gravel, Logan Rumsey. The Grove is back in action with the 410-sprints and the 358-sprints The All-Star sprint were set to be at Lincoln on Saturday night but that event was rained out and may not be rescheduled. Selinsgrove ran their third 410-sprint car show last Thursday night with Brock Zearfoss of Jonestown Pa getting the feature win over Chase Dietz, Troy Wagaman Jr, Cameron Smith and Ryan Taylor. Zearfoss is the third winner in three events with AJ Flick and Mark Smith other winners. Mike Walters is back racing the Knoebel #77 after a brief medical issue kept him out of the car. Mike placed eighth in the feature on Thursday night. . Troy Miller scored his second win of the season in the Street Stock class. Friday night the track ran a three division show of 24 305-sprint and limited late model along with the East Coast wingless sprints with 16 drivers on hand. Timmy Bittner now has won two in row with the PASS 305-sprint at Selinsgrove this time holding off Logan Spahr for the win with Kruz Kepner, Mike Melair and Chris Dolan in the top five. Christian Bruno also made it two in a row with the win in the wingless 360-sprint this time over Kenny Miller, Dave Drevicki, Kyle Spence and Ed Aiken. The Limited late model feature had the same thing as DJ Myers made two in a row in the limited late model feature, winning over George Dixon, Shaun Miller, Devin Frey and Andrew Yoder. Over at Big Diamond on Friday night Louden Reimert made it two wins in a row in the 358 Modified division, holding off Duane Howard, Rick Laubach, Jimmy Leiby and Tim Fitzpatrick.

This Friday the 410-sprint will be at Clinton County for the first of three visits for the division, this will not be a PA Posse race but the other two on July 11th and Saturday August 15th will be Posse races. Williams Grove will run the 410-sprint along with the 358-sprints. The super late models will be at Bedford for the Speedweek race. Selinsgrove will run a four-division show of Limited late models, PASS 305-sprints Street Stocks and Four Cylinders. Port Royal on Saturday will have the 410-sprints along with the limited late models and PASS 305-sprints. Lincoln Speedway will have the super late models in the Speedweek event along with the 410-sprints. Go Kart racing will be held at Seven Stars on Friday night and at Penns Creek on Saturday night.

Zearfoss Tickled Pink for Kramer Kup Win; Miller Two for Two in Street Stocks

By Bert Wojcik

Selinsgrove,PA- The Kramer Kup is becoming a staple in Central Pennsylvania since its inception as a 360 race back in 2014. Since the High Caliber Cranes 410 Sprint Cars were added to the Kramer Kup its made it a crown jewel event of not only Selinsgrove Speedway but Central PA. That was shown on Thursday night as Jonestown,PA's Brock Zearfoss picked up his first career Selinsgrove Speedway 410 Sprint Car win. In the Gator Guns Street Stocks it was second verse same as the first as Tower City's Troy Miller won his second straight Gator Guns Street Stock Feature in as many events in 2026.

23 High Caliber Cranes 410 Sprint Cars signed in for their third event of the 2026 season with York,PA Chase Dietz sitting on the pole after setting Fast Tees Fast Time with a 16.032 picking up $300 and getting the win in BSC Mechanical Heat Racing to earn the pole for the Kramer Kup. WIth Zearfoss on the outside pole. Zearfoss made an early move to get to the lead on Dietz to lead the opening circuits. Zearfoss would set a torrent pace to get in lap traffic by lap 7. Just when Dietz was appearing to get close to Zearfoss. Danny Dietrich flipped after the right rear shredded and flipped the 2025 High Caliber Cranes 410 Sprint Car Champion. He was uninjured.

On the restart Zearfoss would get the jump as Zearfoss held off the charge from Dietz and Hanover,PA's Troy Wagaman Jr. Dietz would hold off Wagaman to keep second but it would allow Zearfoss to get away again. Zearfoss on his torrent pace was magnificent in lap traffic. Working through dirty air to stay away from Dietz. Dietz would get close several times. But It was Zearfoss's race to lose. The lap traffic was cleared when Mikey Thompson slowed with 6 laps remaining to bring out the second and final caution.

Zearfoss would take advantage of the restart and would bring home the Kramer Cup to Lebanon County as Brock Zearfoss would becoming the 151st different winner in High Caliber Cranes 410 Sprint Car Racing at Selinsgrove and becoming only the third different driver in three 410 races but also the 4th driver so far in the young season to get his first win at Selinsgrove in 2026 Dietz, Wagaman, Spring Grove's Cameron Smith and Mertztown,PA's Ryan Taylor rounded out the top 5.

I didn't think it would take us this long to get our first 410 win here. I love this place." Zearfoss said in "High Caliber Cranes victory lane." It's been a trying year. We have the speed. But to have clean air was huge. I was on the track that night when Kramer had his accident and to bring this trophy back home is something special to honor a legend like that."

10 Gator Guns Street Stocks were on hand for Thursday night Thunder. Miller and Jonestown's Butch Helsel had the front row. Miller would get out to his lead like he did on April 24th and not look back. Helsel would fade back. That would set the battle up between Annville's Jason Geeseman and McClure's Brad Mitch. Mitch and Geeseman would fight with each other tooth and nail. Until the closing laps when contact was made between Mitch and Geeseman causing Mitch to spin out bringing an end to his night.

Miller would take the jump as he did in the first show to take the opening two races in Gator Guns Street Stocks with Brandon Moser of Millerstown, Adian Mitch, Hobbie's Tommy Dawson and Geeseman making up the top 5

"I had no reason to move from the top." Miller said in "High Caliber Cranes Victory Lane. " II never really tried the bottom. This win is for my dad who's not doing too well right now. "

Selinsgrove Speedway is back tonight Friday June 5th. Its Military Appreciation night featuring the USAC East Coast 360 Sprints, Creekside Auto Sales Limited Late Models and Keller Auto Body PA Sprint Series 305's.

Trever Feathers Opens Speedweek with a Victory at Clinton County Speedway

Mill Hall, PA – Opening Night of the Appalachian Super Late Model Speedweek, presented by Strouse Electric got underway on Friday night at the Clinton County Speedway. In an exciting forty lap feature event, with several changes for the lead, and three cars contended for the win in the closing laps, Trevor Feathers of Winchester, VA becomes the eventual victor claiming the $5,000 paycheck. AJ Hoffman of Richfield won the Pro Stocks and Matthew Duvall of Robertsdale won the SCRDA 4 Cylinder event.

Gregg Satterlee of Indiana, PA, who set fast time with a lap of 13.086, also breaking the 1-lap track record, started the pole of the 40-lap A-main by virtue of winning the dash. Satterlee and Trever Feathers brought the field to full speed for the start of the race. Satterlee jumped into the early lead with Feathers in tow. The caution flag waved on lap number five, when Tyler Horst spun in turn two. Satterlee brought the field back to the green flag with Feathers in second, Dylan Yoder of Selinsgrove passed Colin Casale for the third position on the restart and Bryan Bernheisel of Jonestown was in the top five.

Twelfth place starter, Matt Cochran of Williamsport, worked his way into the top five, by the completion of lap number eight. Cochran advanced into the fourth spot on lap number ten and began to challenge Yoder for the third spot. Satterlee continued to lead Feathers, Yoder, Cochran, and Bernheisel and was quickly catching the rear of the field by the completion of lap 15. The caution came out as two cars came together in turn number two.

With the restart, Feathers made a run on Satterlee to take the lead and Matt Cochran also passed Satterlee, moving into the runner up position. On lap number 20, Cochran took the lead from Feathers, but Feathers took it back three circuits later to lead lap number 23. Dylan Yoder entered the mix making it a three car battle for the lead as Satterlee and Bernheisel were running in the top five. A caution on lap 25 occurred when Iowa's Tom Morris III stopped on the front stretch just in front of the leaders.

Feathers held off the challenges of Cochran as the field came back to speed on lap number 26. Cochran and Yoder battled for several laps allowing Feathers to pull away by a few car lengths. Cochran, in a limited late model, was in a fierce battle for with Yoder for the second postion. Yoder managed to make a pass on the white flag lap but was unable to chase down Feathers. Feathers took the checkered flag with a margin of victory of 3.724 seconds. Yoder was second edging out Cochran followed by Satterlee and Bernheisel. Sixth through tenth were Jakob Piper of Mercersburg; Hayes Mattern of Beavertown; Tyler Emory of Kings George, VA; Joe Petyak of Gallitzin; and Justin Weaver of Clearspring, MD.

Jim Farley of West Milton and Richfield's AJ Hoffman started on the front row of the Pro Stock feature event. Hoffman took the lead at the drop of the green flag. Fourth place starter AJ Stroup of Richfield moved into second by the completion of lap number two and was closing in on Hoffman. Stroup took the lead on lap number five, but Hoffman stayed in contention with AY Schilling of Linden, Cory Long of Selinsgrove and Louis Belise racing in the top five. Hoffman regained the lead on lap nine. As Stroup was trying to race back to the lead, he spun in turn four to bring out the caution. Hoffman would lead the final six laps to claim the victory over Schilling, Long, Marc Bitler of Milton, and Stroup.

Matthew Duvall of Robertdale started on the pole for the SCDRA 4 Cylinder feature event. He jumped into the lead with second place starter Ryan Lippert of Clearfield glued to his back bumper. With five laps complete, Duvall and Lippert were leading eighth place starter Chris Anderson of Rockhill; Larry Beachel of New Columbia and Matt Weaver of Madisonburg. Jimmy Moyer of Lewistown entered the top five by the completion of lap number 10. With five laps to go, Duvall continued to pace the field with Lippert, Beachel, Moyer and Weaver running in the top five. Moyer passed Beachel for third on lap number 17. Duvall led flag to flag in a non-stop twenty lap feature event for the win over Lippert, Moyer, Beachel and Weaver.

The Clinton County Speedway returns this Friday night with the first of three 410 Sprint Car races on the scheduled this season. Bill's Happy Camper of Mill Hall will present the four division show featuring the 410 Sprint Cars paying $4,500 to win plus the Pro Stocks, 270 Micros and SCDRA 4 Cylinders. History Comes Alive at Noll-Spangler National Historic Farm Event

By Kay Poeth and Tony Noll

The 9th Annual "Celebration at the Farm will be held on Saturday, June 20 from 10 am-4 pm at the Noll-Spangler National Historic Farm.

The "Celebration at the Farm" is a "living history" event that is open and free to the public. Bring a lawn chair and plan to spend the day enjoying the simple, family-friendly country entertainment. The event celebrates life in the 1800's, the growth of local agriculture, and the history of a by-gone way of self-sufficiency.

The Country Twirlers, an energy-packed local square dance group, will kick off the musical entertainment at 10:30 am, followed by the West Branch Barbershop Chorusat 11:30 am. At 1:00 pm the Buffalo Valley Community Band will take the stage.The Fiddlers Three, featuring fiddler Beverley Conrad, will perform at 2:00 pm. An interactive music tent will be open all day, hosted by Fiddler-Woman Beverley Conrad, as well. And at 3:00 pm, the Trailside Troubadours will complete the day's entertainment with a set of acoustic and Americana music.These local talents are not to be missed!!

Visitors may take a self-guided tour around the property and visit with many heritage craftspeople. Heritage crafts include pottery spinning, lace making, weaving & spinning of wool, rake making, and chair caning, just to name a few. Many of the trades and crafts are interactive and participation is encouraged. Brenda and Jim Ocker and other members of the Susquehanna Valley Spinners and Weavers Guild will have interactive projects for the kids. Say hello to the heritage breed sheep being showcased by Echo Valley Farm.There will also muzzleloader demonstrations led by Mark Wehr throughout the day.

Archeologist Kim Mattern will have a display of Native American artifacts, many of which were sourced from the local fields. He will be present all day and will give visitors a sense of the native people that lived on the farmland prior to European settlement. Kim will also identify any artifacts that visitors bring along and help them to label their origin.

At 12:30 pm, Heather Hibbs will give a presentation on her fascinatinghistoric toy collection."In a world without internet, batteries, plastic, flashing lights and soft rubber toys were much simpler and often hand made.Despite that they were still a lot of fun to play with! A little skill and imagination could turn scraps and whatnot into wonderful playthings. Creative do-nothings, rag dolls, metal spinners, clay marbles and wooden dice kept children occupied. Learn about these toys and then have an opportunity to play with them. Children young and old still love these simple toys!"

Food will be available for purchase from the Farm Food Standthe entire day. All food stand sales will benefit the Noll-Spangler National Historic Farm's educational programming. Noll-Spangler National Historic Farm is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Free admission but donations are gratefully accepted.

Mark your calendars for the 9th Annual "Celebration at the Farm on Saturday, June 20 from 10 am-4 pm. Noll-Spangler National Historic Farm is located at 1175 Wildwood Road, Mifflinburg, PA 17844. Visit their website for more information:www.NollSpanglerNationalHistoricFarm.com.

"Independence and Beyond: The Lost Lessons of William Maclay"

The Union County Historical Society is thrilled to announce another interesting historical presentation that area residents won't want to miss."Independence and Beyond: The Lost Lessons of William Maclay" will be presented by Bruce Teeple at the Gallery, located at N. Water Street in Lewisburg, on Sunday, June 14 at 2:30 pm.

As we soon will celebrate the 250th anniversary of this country's independence,how much do we know about the backstories surrounding that unprecedented event? How and why did Pennsylvania's politicians change their minds about breaking free? Those questions and more will be explored at the UCHS program "Independence and Beyond: The Lost Lessons of William Maclay" in the Gallery on Sunday, June 14, 2:30 pm. The program is free and open to the public.

SUN Tech Students Drive Community Support, Donate $837 to Local Veterans

Student Volunteers present a check for $837 to the Mifflinburg American Legion Post 410 from the 2 Annual SUN Tech Cruise In.

New Berlin, PA - Students at SUN Area Technical Institute (SUN Tech) recently presented the Mifflinburg American Legion Post 410 with a donation of $837 to help support local veterans and their families in need.

The donation represents half of the proceeds raised during SUN Tech's 2nd Annual Cruise-In, held on March 28. The event attracted more than 200 vehicles and numerous community members, making it another su cessful year for the growing tradition.

"The SUN Tech Cruise-In began in 2025 through a collaboration between the Council of Presidents—our student leadership group made up of the presidents and vice presidents from each of SUN Tech's 19 programs—and our Collision Repair Program," said Wendy Chalmers, advisor to the Council of Presidents. "One of our goals is to teach students the importance of giving back to their community. Our students and staff are passionate about recognizing and supporting local veterans, and this event is one way we accomplish that mission."

Since its inception, the Cruise-In has continued to grow in both attendance and impact.

"In 2025, we raised $1,300 during our first Cruise-In," said Jon Reeder, SUN Tech Collision Repair Instructor, who has played a key role in organizing the event. "This year, we raised more than $1,600 to support local veteans. We are grateful for the incredible support from participants, sponsors, and community members who helped make this event such a success."

Funds are raised entirely through voluntary donations from participants and attendees. There is no registration fee or pre-registration required to attend or display a vehicle.

Planning is already underway for next year's Cruise-In, which is scheduled for Saturday, March 27, 2027.

The American Legion Family includes programs for veterans, spouses, children, and grandchildren of veterans through organizations such as the American Legion Auxiliary and the Sons of the American Legion (SAL). For more information about eligibility and membership opportunities, contact your local American Legion post.

Health Career Classes at SUN Tech Learn About Elder Abuse Prevention

By Kay Poeth

The check was accepted by Nevin and Lynn Fiedler on behalf of Journey to Justice. We appreciate "their generosity, kindness, and desire to help in preventing elder abuse."

Students in the Health Career programs at the SUN Area Technical Institute in New Berlin recently learned about elder abuse prevention. Instructor Robin Harvey invited Journey to Justice to present a program for the students. They have shared their training, "Dementia and Abuse Prevention:How can YOU Make a Difference?" for the past two years in these classes.

This year, each student purchased Journey to Justice shirts and did dress down days all throughout this school year wearing their shirts! On May 19, 2026, they donated the entire year of collections to the 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt local non-profit organization, Journey to Justice, whose mission is to protect older adults through advocacy, education, and awareness.

"These students graduated the day after this picture was taken and are going on to further studies in the health career arena. The future looks bright! Shout out to all of them and their fabulous, top-notch instructors! Now, go out and do good things! Congrats to all! It was our honor to be a small part of your training!" said Lynn Fiedler.

BAILEY'S BBQ AND CATERING

ARTICLE FROM 6/5 EDITION

It was a great day in Mifflinburg on Monday as it was the first day ever that Mifflinburg hosted two state playoff games the same day and the weather was just as good as the results. The town showed up as well and fans were four/five deep all around both fields. Well done Mifflinburg.

Deuces were wild and Taylor Stewart was very tidy on the mound in the 10-2 win over Kutztown. Stewart gave up nine hits in the complete game win on just 76 total pitches. Stewart averaged less than 10 pitches per inning over the first six frames. Compare that to two different Kutztown pitchers who gave up 12 hits but threw a combined 133 pitches.

The Lady Cats put the game away with five runs in their home fourth inning. Amelia Fluman, Anna Pachucki, Mia Reibsome and Lainey Miller all had doubles in the inning, but the most important at-bat in that inning and the game wasn´t a hit.

With one out and consecutive doubles to score a run, freshman Ava Fry turned a 1-2 count on her to an eleven pitch walk. That walk by Fry turned the batting order over to all the above .400 hitters who took turns mashing. Double, double, walk and a single followed to make it 6-1 Mifflinburg.

Fluman, Reibsome, Miller and Brooke Gessner all had two hits and Fluman 2 runs and 3 RBIs. Mifflinburg faced defending state champion Pine Grove on Thursday for a trip to the Final Four.

Meanwhile, as the softball team was icing their cake, a half mile to the east the baseball team had its hands full with Notre Dame-Green Pond. Down 2-1 in their home third inning, Miff hung a crooked number to take a lead they would never relinquish.

Cat´s catcher Jaden Boyer led off the inning reaching first on an error. Larry Murray laid down a bunt for a hit putting runners on first and second base. Brennan Snyder then tried to lay down a sacrifice bunt but failed on two attempts. Down in the count 0-2 Snyder ripped a single to center field driving in Boyer. JP Marr followed with a two-run single up the middle. Marr then scored on Mason Schneck´s line drive that was mishandled by the centerfielder putting the Cats up 5-2.

Miff got the winning run playing small ball. Chad Martin walked to lead off the fourth inning and promptly stole second base and moved to third when the ball got away. Boyer hit a sac fly to center and Martin scored the sixth and deciding run.

Starting pitcher Kaiden Kmett got the win going five innings. Cole Reibsome had to work to get this save. ND-GP started the sixth inning with two singles, Reibsome came on in relief and gave up another single, loading the bases with no outs.

Reibsome got a force-out at home on a grounder to second. Another fielder's choice scored a run but resulted in another out. Cole hit the next batter, loading the bases again. Reibsome got out of the jam with a flyout to center. Expect Reibsome to start against Trinity in Thursday's quarter-final round. He´s been in total control on the mound this post season with two wins and a save.

Selinsgrove boys LAX won their third straight D4 title by beating Bellefonte 9-6. Ben Bucher had four goals and Nash Fordyce and Finn Bolick added two goals each. Grove (14-4) has won thirteen straight and open states by playing Abington Heights.

The Grove girls LAX season came to an end by being upset by Danville 12-6 in the D4 finals. The top-seeded Seals beat Bellefonte twice in the regular season.

Another stick-sport has started its final quest for Lord Stanley. The NHL finals began this week and ABC can´t be happy with Vegas playing Carolina, small markets and sunbelt teams. That´s ABC´s problem.

These are absolutely the two best teams in hockey and they both dismantled really good teams to get here. Vegas swept the seemingly unbeatable Colorado Avalanche. Carolina lost only one game so far in the playoffs going 12-1. Carolina had more than twice the number of shots on goal than the Canadiens who they just swept to play for the best trophy in sports.

Defense is strong on both sides but both goalies are not very good. This will be a closely contested battle between two puck-possessed powerhouses. Expect low scores and hopefully a Game Seven…. The two best words in all of sports.

The New York Knicks are on an incredible run in this year's NBA Playoffs. They have won all eleven of their playoff games by an average of 19.5 points. They opened this year's NBA championships on Wednesday in San Antonio against Wemby and the Spurs.

This leads to the question of who is the most popular sports team in New York City? In the present that would be easy with most people taking the Knicks with their recent success. Globally it's the Yankees with their 27 World Series titles and iconic NY logo.

It is my belief that for more than the last fifty years the Knicks have been the favorite New York franchise among those living in the five boroughs that is NYC. New York is essentially a basketball-first city and holds a monopoly on the local NBA fanbase. Baseball is fiercely divided between Yankee and Mets fans.

No matter the Knicks record, they command an immense and loyal following. This all started back in 1970 when Walt ¨Clyde¨ Frazier and Willis Reed won two titles in four years. These two never had to pay for another meal or drink in NYC since winning those two titles.

Then we had the Patrick Ewing era where they played in two championships but never won. Linsanity followed and no other NBA team could have created the phenomenon that was Jeremy Lin. In 2012, the perennial backup and Harvard grad went on a February tear for the Knicks that landed him on the cover of TIME magazine.

He was injured in March and never returned to the Knicks. Lin played for six more teams after the Knicks but you never heard his name mentioned again because he was no longer a New York Knickerbocker.

If the Knicks were to win another NBA title after years of futility the celebration in the city would be nothing like we've seen in the past. Those past New York celebrations down the ¨Canyon of Heroes¨ would pale in comparison to this.

Madison Square Garden, celebrities courtside and a fun team to watch in the greatest basketball city ever is the reason the Knicks are New York´s favorite team…today, 20 and 56 years ago.

Many sports fans in New York City have the football Giants as their favorite team in town. Coaching, skilled players and team cohesiveness go a long way in determining your success on the field. Team camaraderie in the locker room and off the field are important as well.

It´s quite possible the drama between Giants QB Jaxson Dart, a Mormon from Utah, introducing our president at a political rally will blow over. It's also possible the response from the Giants young defensive end Abdul Carter who is Muslim and from Philly will alter team chemistry. Let´s hope the two young stars put this behind them.

Locker rooms in American professional sports are a players´ sanctuary. You play cards before a game and relax with teammates over a beer or two after a long game. You talk about family and replay the just completed game in your minds. It's also the place you resolve disagreements away from the press and certainly not on social media.

Sports stand alone and are generally agreed to be a uniting force. For a few brief but wonderful hours, people of different religions, races, sexualities, genders and political leanings can come together. They forget about the ugliness around them in the real world and are grateful for a win.

Negotiations on a new MLB labor agreement have started this week behind closed lawyer office doors. Baseball owners want a salary cap along with a salary floor where every team must spend a minimum amount on player salaries. The owners and MLB want more parity so the big spending Dodgers, Yankees, Blue Jays, Braves and Phillies aren't in the World Series every year.

The Union is calling this salary cap a means for owners to control costs and increase profits at the expense of the players.

The current standings after the Memorial Day holiday is a good barometer as to which teams are good and bad. All the teams have played more than a third of their season and if you look at the initial payroll numbers MLB offered to the player´s union this week, four out of six divisional leaders are below the $171.2 payroll floor. Cleveland, Tampa Bay, Milwaukee and the Athletics all are among the lowest eight payrolls in MLB and are in first place in their divisions.

This won´t help the owners and MLB get the salary floor and cap they are seeking. There are many other issues that need to be addressed and resolved before a new bargaining agreement is signed by both sides. Baseball remains the only professional sport without a salary cap and will remain so after the new agreement.

Enjoy this season as it plays out because darker days are ahead as millionaires fight it out with billionaires. Comments and questions can be sent to theviewfromhear74@gmail.com

New York is essentially a basketball-first city and holds a monopoly on the local NBA fanbase. Baseball is fiercely divided between Yankee and Mets fans.

No matter the Knicks record, they command an immense and loyal following. This all started back in 1970 when Walt "Clyde" Frazier and Willis Reed won two titles in four years. These two never had to pay for another meal or drink in NYC since winning those two titles.

Then we had the Patrick Ewing era where they played in two championships but never won. Linsanity followed and no other NBA team could have created the phenomenon that was Jeremy Lin. In 2012, the perennial backup and Harvard grad went on a February tear for the Knicks that landed him on the cover of TIME magazine.

He was injured in March and never returned to the Knicks. Lin played for six more teams after the Knicks but you never heard his name mentioned again because he was no longer a New York Knickerbocker.

If the Knicks were to win another NBA title after years of futility the celebration in the city would be nothing like we've seen in the past. Those past New York celebrations down the "Canyon of Heroes" would pale in comparison to this.

Madison Square Garden, celebrities courtside and a fun team to watch in the greatest basketball city ever is the reason the Knicks are New York´s favorite team…today, 20 and 56 years ago.

Many sports fans in New York City have the football Giants as their favorite team in town. Coaching, skilled players and team cohesiveness go a long way in determining your success on the field. Team camaraderie in the locker room and off the field are important as well.

It´s quite possible the drama between Giants QB Jaxson Dart, a Mormon from Utah, introducing our president at a political rally will blow over. It's also possible the response from the Giants young defensive end Abdul Carter who is Muslim and from Philly will alter team chemistry. Let´s hope the two young stars put this behind them.

Locker rooms in American professional sports are a players´ sanctuary. You play cards before a game and relax with teammates over a beer or two after a long game. You talk about family and replay the just completed game in your minds. It's also the place you resolve disagreements away from the press and certainly not on social media.

Sports stand alone and are generally agreed to be a uniting force. For a few brief but wonderful hours, people of different religions, races, sexualities, genders and political leanings can come together. They forget about the ugliness around them in the real world and are grateful for a win.

Negotiations on a new MLB labor agreement have started this week behind closed lawyer office doors. Baseball owners want a salary cap along with a salary floor where every team must spend a minimum amount on player salaries. The owners and MLB want more parity so the big spending Dodgers, Yankees, Blue Jays, Braves and Phillies aren't in the World Series every year.

The Union is calling this salary cap a means for owners to control costs and increase profits at the expense of the players.

The current standings after the Memorial Day holiday is a good barometer as to which teams are good and bad. All the teams have played more than a third of their season and if you look at the initial payroll numbers MLB offered to the player´s union this week, four out of six divisional leaders are below the $171.2 payroll floor. Cleveland, Tampa Bay, Milwaukee and the Athletics all are among the lowest eight payrolls in MLB and are in first place in their divisions.

This won´t help the owners and MLB get the salary floor and cap they are seeking. There are many other issues that need to be addressed and resolved before a new bargaining agreement is signed by both sides. Baseball remains the only professional sport without a salary cap and will remain so after the new agreement.

Enjoy this season as it plays out because darker days are ahead as millionaires fight it out with billionaires. Comments and questions can be sent to theviewfromhear74@gmail.com

Two local creameries are listed on the state's ice cream trail for this summer.Country Creamery, located at 3694 Route 204 outside Selinsgrove, is one delicious stop on the 2026 Scooped Ice Cream Trail. The Old Mill Creamery, located at 6542 Buffalo Creek Road outside Mifflinburg, is celebrating its fourth year on the list.
